

Ash Plantation ▲

In 1906 Joe Singleton was a hay reaper at Ash Plantation, a cotton plantation owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. King until 1958. Cotton is no longer planted there, and hay is no longer reaped by mule or horse.

Submitted by Mary K. Hatcher

Home of Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds ►

Dr. Thomas Willard Reynolds and his wife, Katherine (Fogarty) Reynolds, made their first home at 316 Meeting St. They lived there until Dr. Reynolds died in 1916 and Mrs. Reynolds and her two sons moved in to her father's home.

Submitted by Katherine (Reynolds) Manning

From the book Our Charleston: Lowcountry Photos, People and Places
(Post & Courier, 2007)