

From: Kevin R. Eberle
To: Emmons, Karen
Subject: Ward books
Date: Thursday, February 04, 2021 2:07:48 PM

As you now, one of the most useful sources of info is the old tax records in the ward books. The microfilm of those is hellish to use and barely readable.

But, I worked some connections of a friend of a friend, and I got access to the original books! They are magnificent! The clarity of the notes--sometimes in faint pencil--is wonderful.

I used my phone to take photos of the entire 250+ page set. Then, I created a spreadsheet index including all of the wards so you don't have to scroll through ward by ward trying to find your street. And I put together a map of the wards to help identify the ward to look in.

Here is a link:

<https://www.dropbox.com/sh/mn1y2fw4f95xa3j/AABAJR-mtD99m3wnCMvWt85Da?dl=0>

Kevin

The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or legally privileged material. Any review, re-transmission, dissemination or other use of this information, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient please contact the sender and delete the material from all computers in which it resides. Internet communications cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late, incomplete, or contain viruses. Therefore, we do not accept responsibility for any errors or omissions that are present in this message, or any attachment, that have arisen as a result of e-mail transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version or contact us by phone. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Charleston School of Law.