

News &amp; Courier, Dec. 27, 1957

East Bay Street Residence Being Razed

This house at 647 East Bay St. is another piece of old Charleston which will soon disappear. It is now being razed by the Colonial Construction Co. of Charleston. While the old house has not been regarded as an architectural gem, it represents a by-gone era of historic Charleston. Plans for the site have not been announced. (Staff Photo.)

Mozambique Man

Later, he told the wife he would take her to her husband, but

EAST DEPENDABLE