

From: Kevin R. Eberle
To: Emmons, Karen
Subject: RE: Mystery House
Date: Saturday, July 02, 2016 9:40:42 PM

Mystery house solved! A friend of mine recognized it as 64 Bull Street. That is the home of Monica Scott (or at least it was). She's had her house on the tours before.

From: Kevin R. Eberle
Sent: Thursday, June 30, 2016 5:24 PM
To: Emmons Karen
Subject: Mystery House

Here is a new mystery photo. I was using the Avery Center to do some research on a house that Herbert DeCosta worked on once. The librarian there suggested that I might also want to check out some files in another collection. The files were from a black photographer's studio. They were almost all photos of graduations and weddings and things. But, there was this photo with no notes on it at all.

It has the look of a Midtown style house. Maybe in the Bogard/Line/Cannon Street area, but I can't place it. It might have been pulled down for the Crosstown.

Thoughts?

The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or legally privileged material. Any review, retransmission, dissemination or other use of this information, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient please contact the sender and delete the material from all computers in which it resides. Internet communications cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late, incomplete, or contain viruses. Therefore, we do not accept responsibility for any errors or omissions that are present in this message, or any attachment, that have arisen as a result of e-mail transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version or contact us by phone. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Charleston School of Law.