The relative of the Rubins turned up one more photo of the house at 2 North Allan Park. It's dated 1922 and shows a little better view of the house. The house was built in 1919, so this is probably the earliest possible shot that will turn up. Mr. Rubin in the photo was the first owner of the house, and his great-grandson (also Mr. Rubin) is the one who has shared these photos with me. He is checking with his aunt (the granddaughter of the man in the photo), and she might have a picture. I'm keeping my fingers crossed that she will. Since the Rubins had the house built for their own use, I'm hoping that they might have snapped a photo of it. We'll see!
