

The Lincoln Theater

The Lincoln Theater at 601 King Street, was a black vaudeville and motion picture theater.

Mr. Milton Banov, former owner of the Lincoln property, said the the Lincoln always had plenty of western movies. He added that when they stopped making good westerns, the Lincoln closed down.

The Lincoln closed in the early 1970's and was torn down following hurricane Hugo in 1989.

Milton Banov in front of the Lincoln Theater in 1986
Courtesy of the Post and Courier

