The numbering of that building was hard to keep track of.

Apart from all the normal renumberings that happened to the street overall, that one was worse. First, it was a store on the first floor with a residence above and a really wide lot. There were businesses that operated out of the side lot, so it was really hard to figure out of the address being referred to was the house or the side yard buildings. MAINLY, 562 was the house, and 560 was the business in the side. But, at some point, the house became 564. According to the tax records and the county, that building is 564 now. I think that is a relatively recent change from when the hotel was built.

Why is the number in the doorway photo 562 (Ellisons)?

I finally have time to catalog the photos you sent to me a few weeks ago. Your email said there were more but that your DropBox was full at the time. So if there are additional photos, yes, I'd like those as well. I think they're worth keeping because (a) there are likely no other photos (interior especially) and (b) you said the materials will "end up in the dumpster" when the new owners restore it. Here's (attached) what you sent to me late November.

Thanks!!

Karen
