

Smithsonian

April 3, 2023

Lauren Northrup
Historic Charleston Foundation
40 East Bay Street
Charleston, SC 29401

Dear Lauren,

The National Museum of American History (NMAH) is eager to continue the loan of the 2 silver spoons through March 1, 2026. These objects feature prominently in the exhibition Many Voices, One Nation.

If you agree to this request for the extension of the loan, please sign and date the statement below and return this letter to the NMAH Incoming Loan Program as an email attachment. All terms and conditions of the original loan agreement will remain in effect through the new loan period.

Please contact me at 202-633-3879 or via e-mail at grandinem@si.edu if you have questions or concerns regarding this loan. Thank you for your continuing support of the National Museum of American History exhibition programs.

Sincerely,

Margaret Grandine

Margaret Grandine
NMAH Loans Registrar

Smithsonian Institution
PO Box 37012
National Museum of American History
Room 1230, MRC 667
Washington, DC 20013-7012
Phone: (202) 633-3879
Email: grandinem@si.edu

I agree to the loan extension of the 2 silver spoons through March 1, 2026. All terms and conditions of the original loan agreement will remain in effect throughout the extended period (see NMAH loan # 2016.6014). Both Parties agree that signatures to this Loan Agreement delivered electronically by PDF, facsimile, or other electronic means shall be deemed original signatures and fully effective as such for all purposes.

Sarah Ferguson
Signature

5.31.2023
Date