CHARLESTON, S. C.

Courier - JULY 6, 1962 NEW METROPOLITAN INSURANCE OFFICES

The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company has moved into its new quarters at 292 Meeting St., from offices in the Sergeant Jasper Apartment Building. The Leonard House and another old home were razed to make way for the new structure. Charles G. Turner is manager of Metropolitan's local operations. Assistant managers are M. John Droze, William E. Easterlin, Robert S. Jordan and Lloyd W. Swink. The firm employs an office staff of 11 and has 27 representatives in the area. The new offices were constructed by Yeamans Development Company, a division of Stevenson-Zimmerman Enterprises, and leased to Metropoli-
