Nervous expressions became comforting smiles as old friends reunited after a long summer break. The first week of school had not even finished before students and teachers had their first four day weekend thanks to Hurricane Debby. Before we had time to settle into the rigorous school routine, another change occurred, school now started at 8:45 and ended at 3:45. After all the chaos and changes, the school year was in full swing. The fall sports began their seasons, organizations started up, and the homework was never ending.

The unity of Key West High School students is evident in all that we do. Whether attending a school function or participating in a weekend activity, we always find a way to come together. Pep Rallies, Homecoming, and parties are among the many things that make the student body a whole.

Fun In The Sun

This large group of buds chill at Bahia Honda in the cold water for a party. You will always see these people out together at the beach or snipes.

Senior Cassie Martin and Cristy Spottswood are having a blast tubing on the weekend.

Kelley Haack, Ericca Garnier, and Lisette Cobo chill out on the boat off the 7 Mile bridge.

Anyone for a grouper sandwich? Greg Oropeza and Alex Steller show off their catch. I hope they are willing to share.

Juniors Crystal Salazar, Kelley Haack, and Aisha Orofino pose for a picture as they catch some mys at Snipes.

The students of Key West High take advantage of the islands and back-country waters of the keys. As often as possible and especially on Memorial day and Labor day weekends, groups of students migrate to Snipes Point, Smathers beach, and Bahia Honda. There they chill in the beautiful water for hours, and relax with friends. Though most people hit snipes, keys waters are filled with hidden spots perfect for fishing and enjoying what the the ocean is all about. Their adventurous side comes out with the use of hydraslides, jet skis and tubes. One of the factors which makes Key West so special is the "Fun in the Sun."

Making A Statement

Josh Peters rocks his structure shirt and backwards cap to show his keen sense of style.

Amber Walser is caught off guard in her fishing hat and casual clothes.

Christine Pierce looks classy in her blue v-neck and khaki chinos.

Timmy Bouchard defines uniqueness with his hairdo and gold...lots of gold.

Samantha Hart models her knee length skirt and flip flop combo.

Laura Millet sports a simple purple knee shirt and matching top.

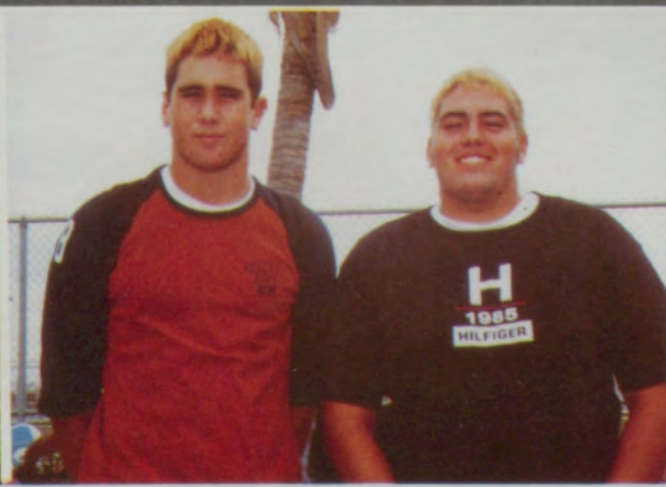

Everyone has their own style. Jimmy Brevel shows this with his belt buckle and flashy colors.

High School is known to be a time when people's fashion marks are made. A variety of style and uniqueness is revealed daily. Most students take pride in what they wear, and make it a point to try and look nice. Others have a laid back feeling and dress more comfortably. Key West High School students vary from the color of their hair to the color of their shoes. These students wear what they like with no limits. They know how to "make a statement".

This group of guys show their diversity wearing Abercrombie, Old Navy, Polo and caps.

Keith Hernandez and Chaz Jimenez look buff in their laid back, sporty t-shirts.

Seniors Melissa Ginsberg and Tal Yardeni relax on the counter at a party.

Rosie Curry, Cristy Spottswood, Elaine Spottswood, and Alison Pelletier are chillin in Ireland taking a break from the dance floor.

Cristina Spottswood, Sean Reyngoudt, Lily Cohen, Michaela Gonzalez, and Chris Ferrin look like they've had enough fun for one night.

Erica Beebe, Lauren Williams, and Caitlin Steppen are dressed to kill. These girls look like they know how to have fun..and they do.

Senior Christina Lolos is decked out for a night on the town, to bad she's stuck in the 80's.

At 3:45 on Friday afternoon the mood throughout the halls at Key West Hight School Is always a better one. Students are conversing about the events expected on the upcoming weekend. Friday and Saturday night's are a time to break loose and have fun, while others prefer to relax and spend the time with good friends. Everyone from Freshmen to Seniors enjoy the time off of school and express their "time to party".

Juniors Christine Pierce, Erica Ernst, Andrea Gallardo, Andrea Alvarez, Laure Esteves, and Michelle Swartzell are grubbin at Fridays before a game.

Caitlin Hemphill, Ariana Corsi, Brittani Harden, Alissa Bosco, Sarah Estenoz and Megan Jones group together at the Varsity game.

Senior, Alison Pelletier is smiling away while cheering for her school colors red and grey.

These Pep Squad members were captured in action while breaking it down at the fall rally.

This group of studs throw up their fingers for the Alma Mater.

CONCH PRIDE

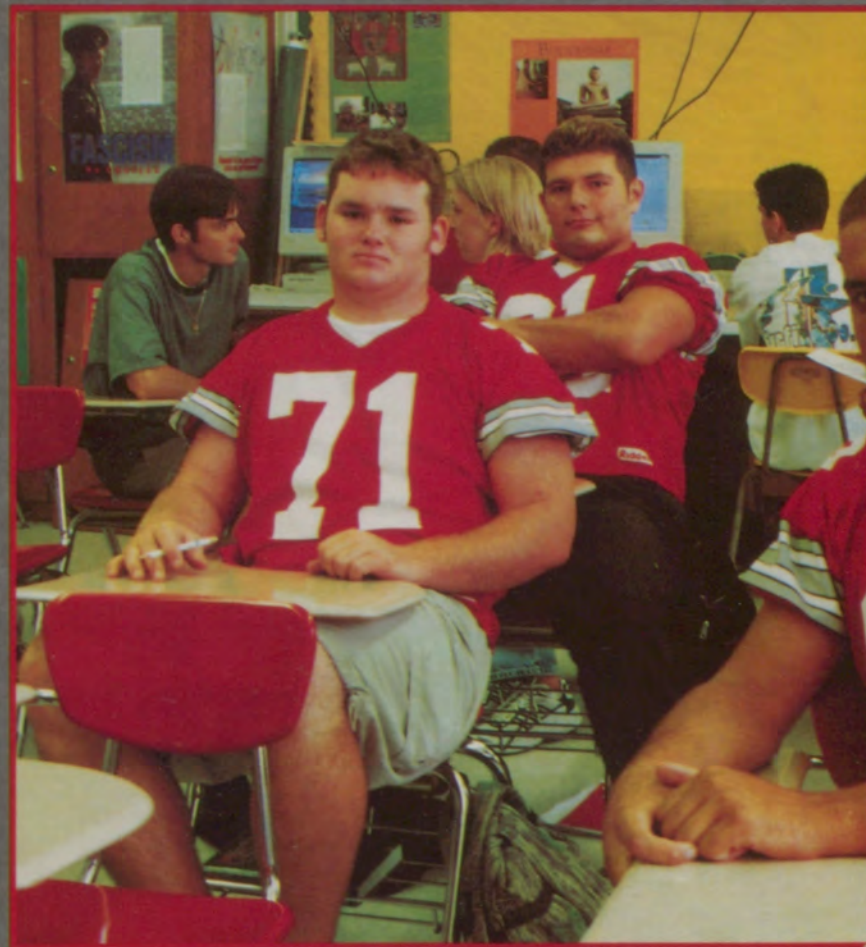

... ALL 4 ONE

The Conchettes are caught in their final pose of their excellent dance at a pep rally.

On game day, Key West High School is decorated with signs and balloons to hype the students and athletes up for a victory. At 3:30pm when the pep rally starts the entire student body jams the gymnasium in support of their school. Music, followed by teams of sports, games, cheerleaders and fun are the usual activities.

Involvement of the crowd is gained with class cheers and band chants. Each pep rally is always ended with our school fight song and the Alma Mater.

Seniors Patrick Lewin, Pedro Lara, and John Padron demonstrate their conch pride by wearing their varsity jerseys.

These three girls take a break from their work to take a friendly shot.

All For One

As the years pass various bonds between students grow and stay with you forever. These memories created during your high school years remind you of who your real friends are. As groups of friends mature, including new faces and dealing with the loss of others, you learn a lot about your character and the character of those you surround yourself with. Although everyone has dealt with a tough time involving their peers, overcoming the obstacles usually strengthens your bond and enforces relationships to make them last. Friendship is a powerful blessing. All for one and one for All.

Balloons are commonly seen in the hallways by someone with a birthday, like Teresa Stulken who stands next to her friend Melissa Rucker.

Liz Manaher, Lindsay Thomas, Mary Myer, and Mary Shmitt show that different classes unite.

SENIORS

2001

Since the time we wandered through the halls as freshmen to the days we became sophomores, most of us couldn't wait for the moment to become an upper classman. When the Y2K arrived and we were juniors, the end of our time at Key West High School was slowly nearing. As the class of the turning point of the millenium, alot is expected of us and we must live up to the title we've earned. Being a senior means being a leader and role model. It includes leaving your mark. We've made it to the top only to keep reaching upward for a new goal to achieve. This is our year to shine and our mark to leave as the SENIOR class of 2001.

SENIORS Amelia Hinchcliffe, Chris Ferrin, Cassandra Martin, and Joseph Cresce hang out together on the weekend.

Cristy Spottswood and Ashley Roberts braid their hair and sport their bandanas to show conch pride.

This group of Seniors gang up to build their coffin.

Circuses and Sideshows

Keena Blocker, Catherine Obando, Nicole Marius, Christina Giglio, Decarla Shine, and Kenya Blocker show off their fantastic Goombay costumes. They all participated in the Goombay Parade which kicks off the Fantasy Fest celebration.

Time for some night life...Lauren Gonzalez, Lande Spottswood, Elaine Spottswood, and Alison Pelletier are dressed and ready to enjoy the Fantasy Fest excitement.

Seniors Toni Merkey and Amber Walser are decked out for the Fantasy Fest brigade in their matching Tiger ensembles.

Out of all the island festivals that take place in Key West, Goom-bay and Fantasy Fest are easy favorites for Key West High School students. The gigantic street party lasts throughout the night with loud music, crazy costumes, and people from all around the globe looking to have a good time. This event is also a great fundraiser for the high school. Booths are set up to sell water, sodas, hotdogs, and traditional conch favorites. The week long festivities come to an end on the following Sunday with Children's Day.

Lisette, Krystal, Amanda, Asia, and Scarlet are ready for the night out at Fantasy Fest.

Sara Krathen, Ashlyn Beirman, Tara Diaz, Debora Hindsley and Martina Hindsley clown around at the parade. Their outfits go perfectly with this years theme.

This big group of school spirited seniors join together on the field after the Homecoming parade to show support of their first place float and their friends on the court.

These boys practice for the next pep rally to show all how extremely hard it is to be a cheerleader.

Showing Our Colors

The senior class color is red, and this group of seniors define their class spirit by wearing red on Color Day.

Seniors Angela Leggett, Priscilla Crompt, Cristopher Ferrin, Lily Cohen, Ashley Spoto, Omar Ellis, Marina Burton and Alison Pelletier group together in their togas before school on the patio.

The sophomore class proves that they have spirit. That is seen in this group of girls as they don their luau attire.

A designated week is chosen during the year for students to display their conch spirit. During this week, there are different themes for the students to dress accordingly to for each day. This year there was a Toga Day, Twin Day, Hawaiian Day, Pajama Day, and Color Day. Spirit Week gives the classes an opportunity to come together and unite as one.

Homecoming

The Senior class's float had a creative theme they described as "Conchland." It shows the specialties of Key West including the lighthouse, boating, beautiful sunsets, palm trees, and the crab...never forget the crab. The seniors tied for first place with the sophomores.

The junior class of 2002 showed their dreams of "Never Never Land". It was a beautiful float putting them in 3rd place. Great job Juniors!!

Parade 2000

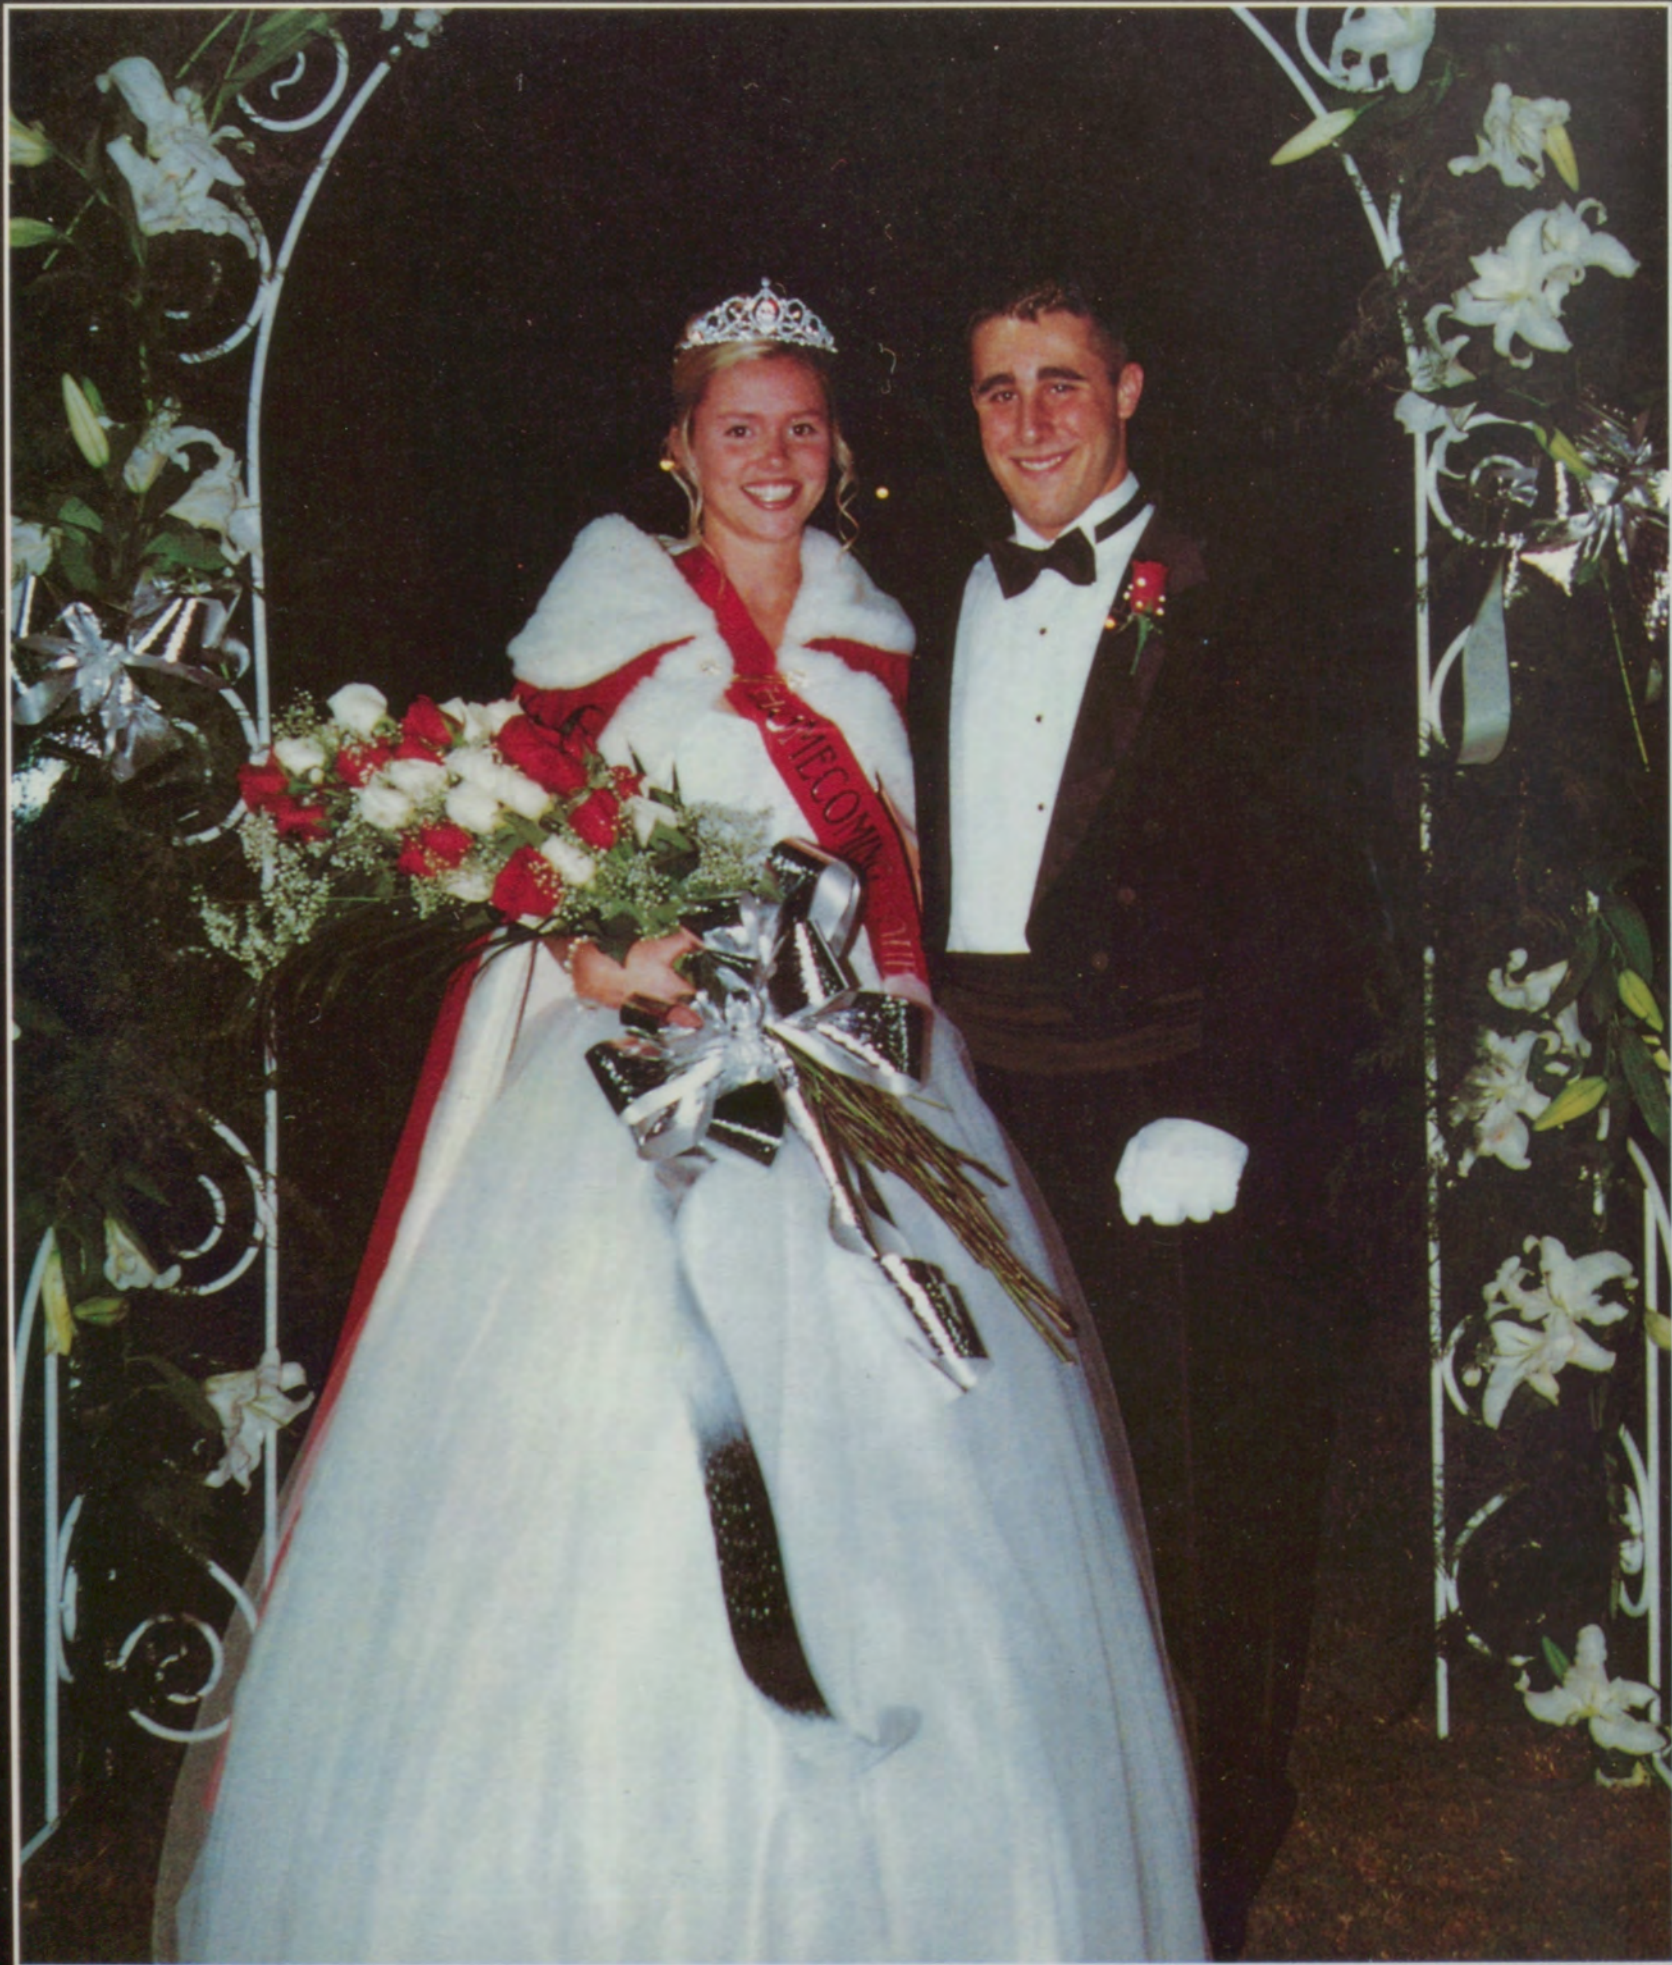

The sophomore class of 2003 made history with their "Good and Bad Dream" by tying the seniors for first place. Their creative idea was put together beautifully.

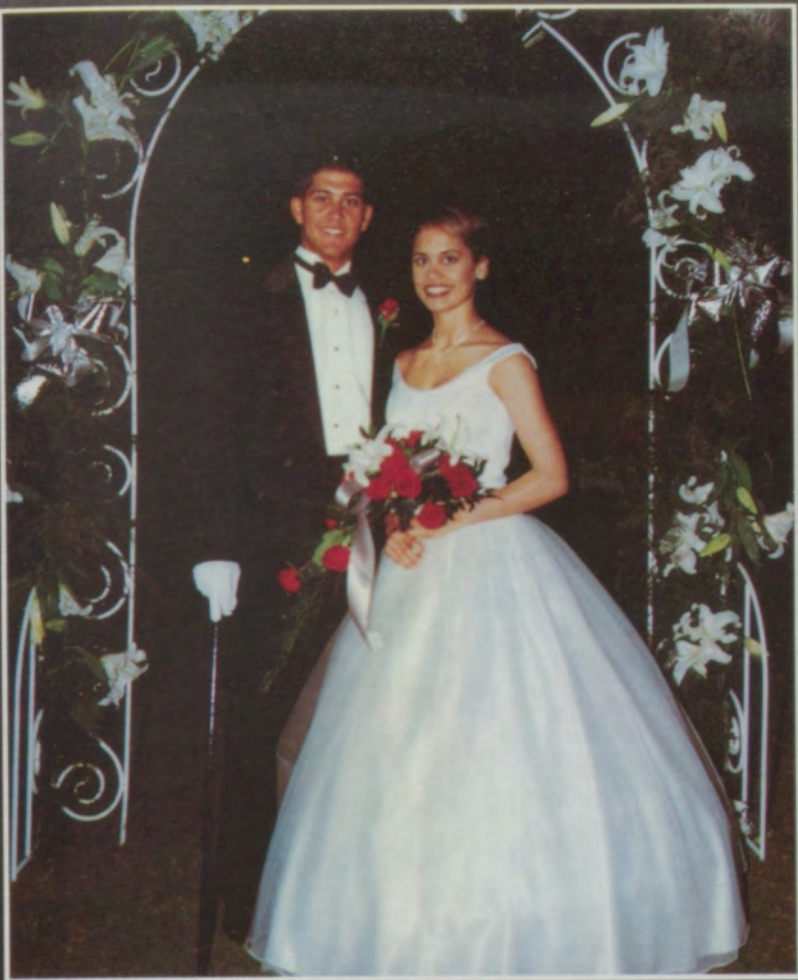

The freshmen class of 2004 got creative with past homecoming queens with their idea of "Back In Time."

The Queen and Court

Shanel Pazo and her escort Gregory Oropeza

Marina Burton and her escort Matthew Jones

Cristina Spottswood and her escort Michael Spottswood

Lauren Gonzalez and her escort Timothy Niles

Captured in a Dream

Hot to Trot! These guys are on fire tonight. Watch out ladies, these boys are ready to have a good time.

Marina Burton, Cassie Martin, Amelia Hinchcliff, Danielle Parker, and Christina Walterson are looking fine and having a blast. You guys look great!

Chris Ferrin, Alison Pelletier, Chegui Bastien, Lily Cohen, Michael Spottswood, Ashley Roberts, Nelson Hills, Cristina Spottswood, and Chet Barton enjoy a moment before the dance that they will never forget.

Seniors Joey Briggs and Joseph Cresce are looking mighty fine in their formal attire. Slick hair!

These party animals were caught in action breaking it down on the dance floor. They look like they had fun.

Kourtney Dobbs and Naomi Medlin stop for a hug and a little socializing.

Melissa Ginsberg assists Wilhelmina Harvey on the Senior float.

Joel Brown breaks it down at Lily Cohen's birthday party with his humble moves.

Ashley Spoto and Steven Blanco work on their unforgettable senior first place float.

Marina Burton and Lauren Gonzalez teach each other the latest dancing techniques.

Zoe Pischke and Heather Buckaloo seem like they're having a great time. Their big grins show that to be true.

Katchen Duncan and Mr. Clifford savor a moment that no one will forget. Nice hair Cliffy!!

MEMORABLE M O M E N T S

Jon Anderson, Blake and Donavan Bowers burst out in spirit as the new bleacher creatures, just another one of those unforgettable high school moments.

Seniors Omar Ellis, Kevin McCarthy and David Smith watch as their class float rides by in front of the judges booth.

Mark Boyer, Chris Ferrin, Alison Pelletier, Ashley Roberts and Lily Cohen eagerly work on their senior float which they will never forget.

All pieces of a whole, these are the faces that make up the Conchs. All of us an individual with our own distinguishable characteristics make up the unique student body at Key West High.

Our school's staff is the glue that holds Key West High together. Administrators, teachers, and support staff all work to better our school. They put in long hours and weekends to provide us with the fundamentals we need. Math, English, Science, and Social Studies enhance our knowledge essential for everyday life. However, electives like Drama, Choir, and Cooking allow us a creative outlet.

What's In A Word?

Mrs. McLean advises Antonio Gil about an article that is to appear in the Snapper. The journalism students work very hard on our school's publication.

Ms. Oman lectures on one of the stories they have read. This helps students better understand the reading and allows them to ask necessary questions.

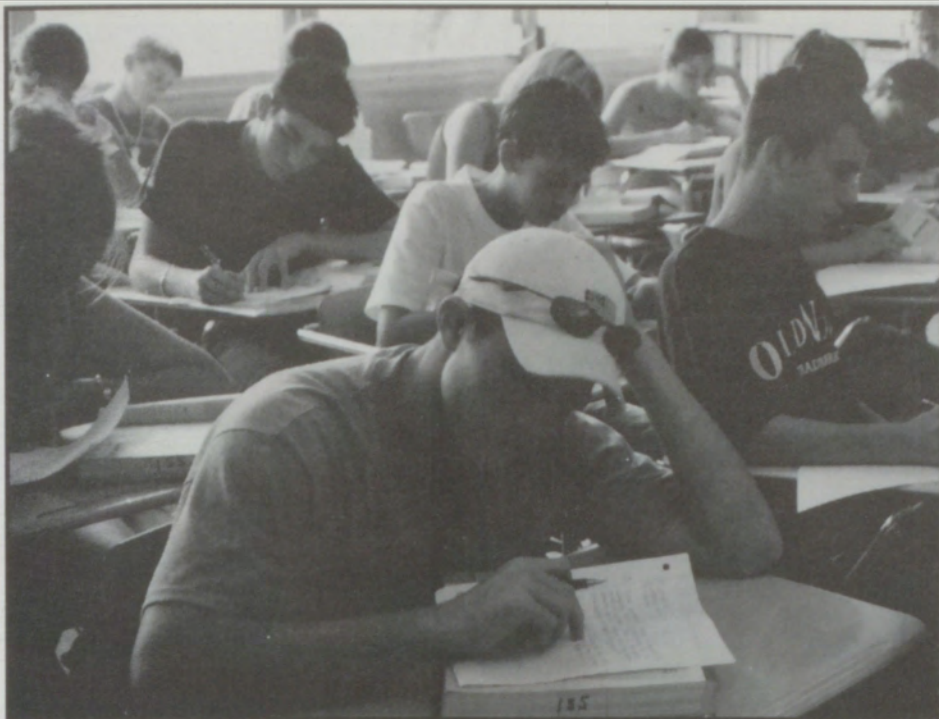

Ms. Blanco

Time to collect the homework. Mr. Michaud walks through the aisles of his classroom checking students' work. You have to finish all of your assignments if you want to do well in his class.

I'll do it. Freshman Bert Budde take charge of this assignment in Mrs. Rodriguez's class. She uses a number of hands on projects to insure that her students understand the concepts being taught.

Colton Butler and Shalise Pinnock assist each other in the time honored penny burning experiment in Mrs. Cerckleski's chemistry class. Notice, everyone is wearing their safty goggles.

While going over the post-test, Mr. Perkins points to the correct answer.

Staying Well Rounded

Sophomore Andre Joris uses his weight training class to work on his physique. It takes a lot of hard work and dedication to keep your body looking good.

A new move...Freshman Brian Carmona takes advantage of the mats in the gym to work on his moves. It is better to try something new in here than to do it on the cement.

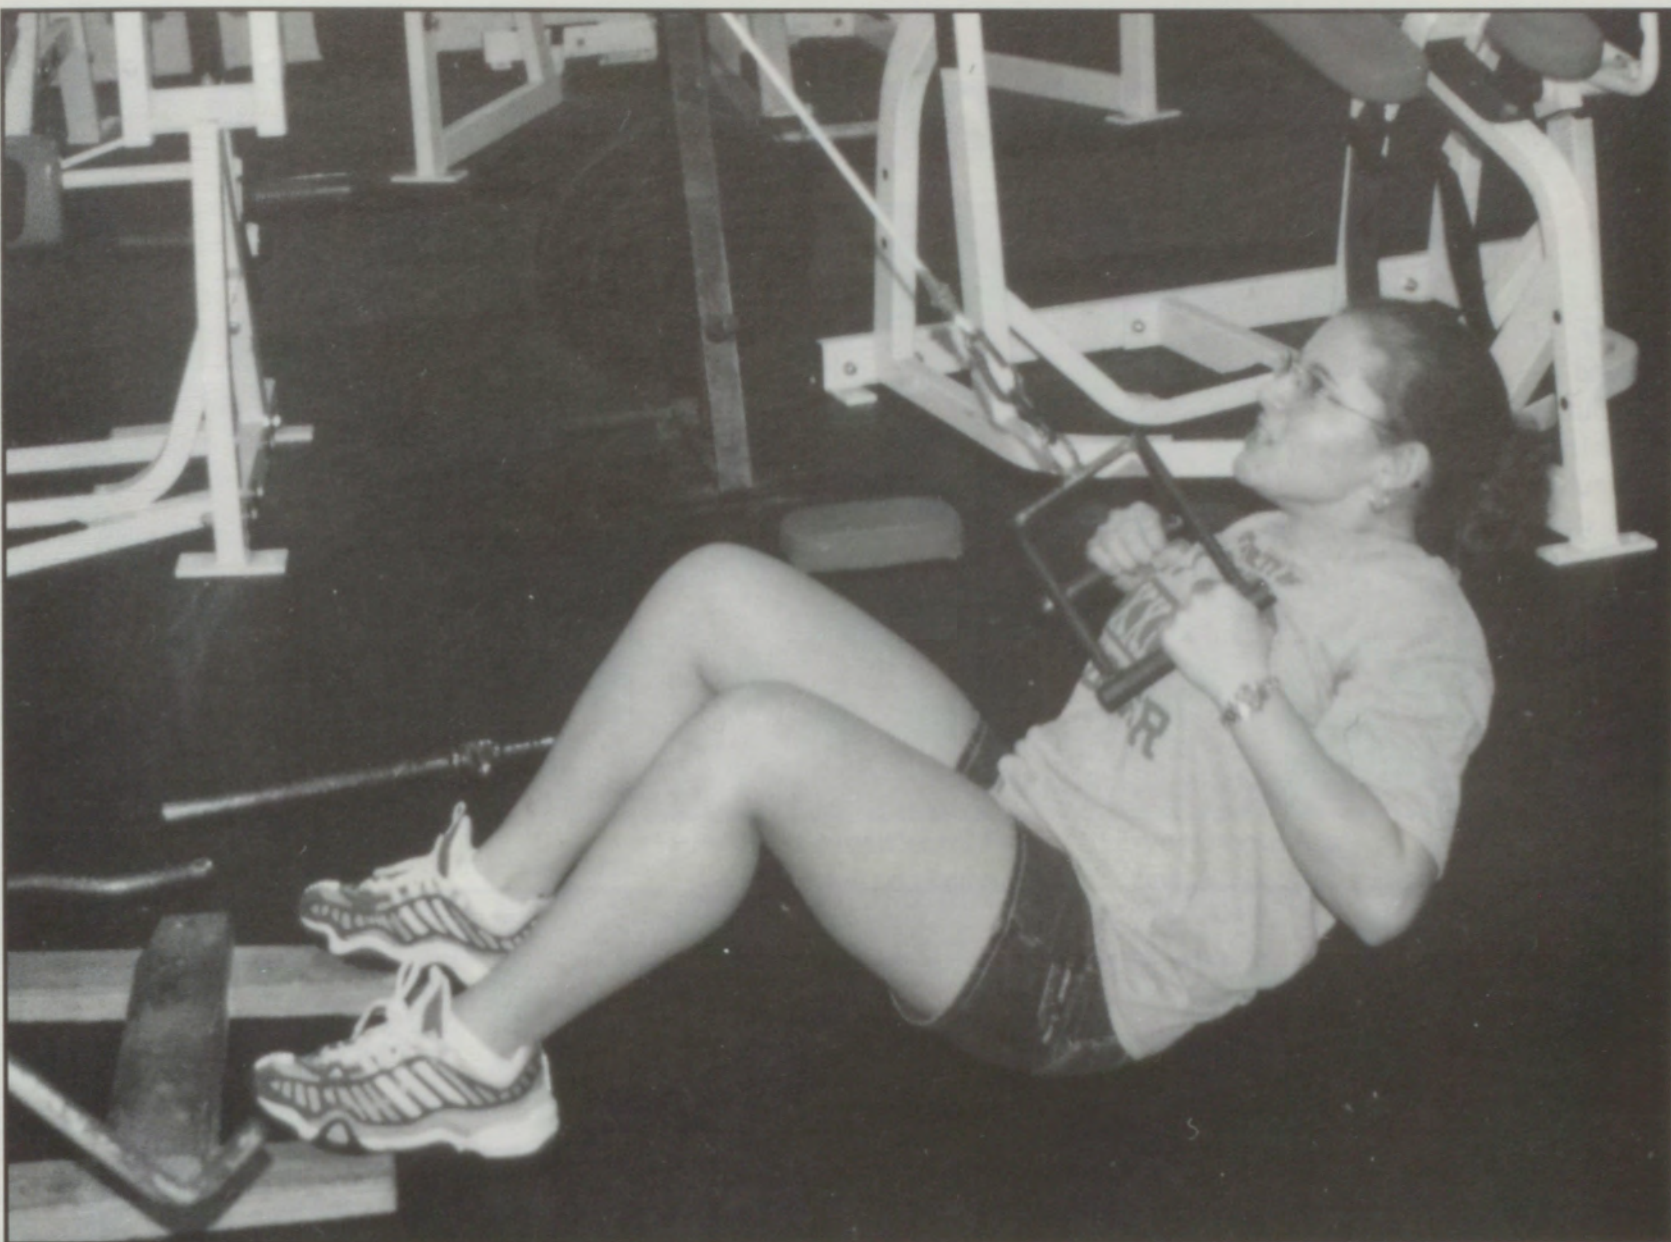

Ms. Parmer

Ms. Theil

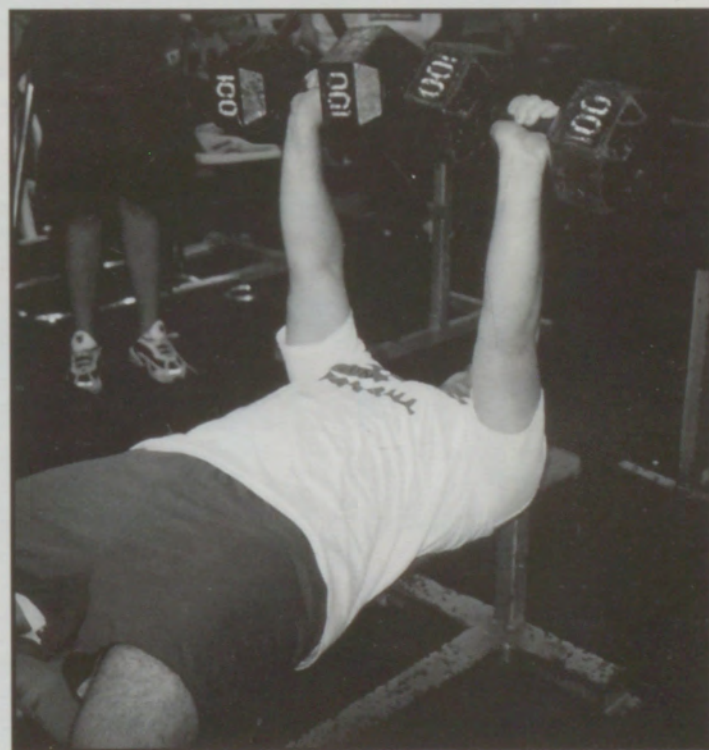

Mr. Wise

Freshman Candi Rodriguez proves that girls know just as much about weight training as the guys. All of our school sports have implemented weight programs for thier athletes. This training improves endurance and the overall performance of the athletes.

Ms. Theil guides her students through stretches. It is important to warm up your muscles before you exercise.

This student is bench pressing an ^{Electives} amazing 200 pounds!

Key West High School offers a variety of organizations for its students. From traditional groups like Cheerleaders and National Honor Society to new and unique groups like Hope and the Investment club. The commitment to organizations may at times be overwhelming but the memories and benefits a member receives last forever, and all it takes is an hour of your time.

LEADING THE SCHOOL

"Student Council is an organization that exists to represent the student body. The goal of the group is to be the students' voice in administrative affairs and to improve the quality of life for KWHS students. Several activities that Student Council organizes are the homecoming parade and dance, pep rallies, and the annual "Teacher Appreciation Breakfast." A new activity that Student Council helped organize this year was "Cookie Day." This fundraiser made $463.00 in the first sale of cookies (there will be several more). All of the proceeds will be donated to the American Cancer Society in the name of "Cookie" Garcia, a KWHS security guard who has overcome cancer. This fundraiser was created by Tim Kirchner." -Lande Spottswood

"Senior Executive Board is a club that organizes major events like Prom, Junior-Senior Field day and many fundraisers. We go on trips which this year included the Dry Tortugas. This year's officers were very creative with fundraising ideas such as selling flowers for Valentine's Day and a bowling tournament." — Marina Burton

This year the Seniors tie with the Sophomores for first place in the Homecoming Float competition.

MOVING ON UP

"The class of 2002 Junior Executive board is a club that decides what major events the junior class will be involved in throughout the year. To name a few, we build a yearly homecoming float, we hold many fundraisers such as car washes, sponsor pictures, class t-shirts and a christmas fair booth. We intend to raise enough money for the different responsibilities each class carries with them. We love to have fun in all our activities and to get our fellow Junior classmates involved."

It takes a lot of enthusiasm to make your class organization work, and this group of sophomores proves that.

These sophomores put in countless hours working on their float. You can't win the competition if you don't put in the effort.

The Homecoming tradition continues and the sophomore class worked hard to tie with seniors for first place.

"Executive Board is a way to get our class involved in school and the community. We participate in the fundraising and building of the Homecoming Float, which shows our talents and school spirit in the parade. It is also a time of bonding for our class. Sponsoring the Homecoming 'King' is also part of Executive Board. The King is voted for through donation jugs with senior football players' pictures, and helps fund our organization. We also plan to run in the Relay for Life to raise money for cancer research. These and other activities make our years at KWHS memorable and make us proud to be in the Executive Board." -Jaime Laino

"The Freshmen Executive Board has had a great start this year. We surprised many by coming in second in the Homecoming float competition. We are planning many fundraisers such as car washes and candy sales all for a class trip we plan on taking sometime in the next three years. We also plan on giving back to the community through community service. The Freshmen Executive Board provides a great opportunity to get involved with the school and to make new friends." -Talia Fernandez

HELPING HANDS

"Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an organization set up to help students encourage one another to keep their faith. Every Friday morning they have breakfast where students have the opportunity to speak and share their faith. FCA is also involved in the community. Occasionally a pastor from a local church will be a guest speaker at one of the Friday meetings. FCA also does canned food drives where canned goods are collected and distributed to those in need. On Thanksgiving they will also work at the soup kitchen, where they will serve a traditional holiday dinner."

Misty-fying

"Mistys has been an awesome experience these past three years. The girls come up with great ideas and we work perfectly together. We have a lot of talent and have given the best performances I've ever seen."

*— Shanel Pazo

The Mistys are most recognizable in their dazzling red dresses. They continue to dazzle and mistify the crowd each performance.

The Hill-Billy Polka was one of the highlights of the Mistys' Christmas performance. It was authenticated by bare feet, freckles, and banjo's.

Here the Mistys prove that their talents encompass more than just singing.

"VIPs is more than a class...it's more like a fraternity. We all have a lot of fun but we always work hard. You can really see how in sync we are at the concerts; we all give 100% and have a blast in the process."

"This year the French Club is comprised of a select few who come together with a common goal: to raise enough money to go to Paris. Our mantra maintains that only with the complete submersion in French culture, can we ever expect to be truly comfortable with speaking a foreign tongue. In order to attain this, we bring to Key West a variety of projects that are tinged with French influence, such as cooking and selling French food during Goombay. As we continue to conjure up more ambitious money-raising plans, our sponsor and French teacher, Madam Orr, is always there providing a unexhaustible supply of sage advice and intense motivation." - Fenna Krienen

Members decide as a group what stocks to invest in and how much to invest at our bi-monthly meetings. The club members invest at least ten dollars a month. Mr. Avant has helped our club a great deal by showing us how to read reports and understand in basic terms the complexity of the investment world. Members volunteer time and effort in taking a specific stock and researching and then presenting the information to the entire group at the next meeting. We then decide on what stocks we want and how much we will invest in those stocks." -Antonio Gil

The hot sun beats down, the air too stifling to breathe, but the players keep on. Through blood, sweat and tears, the Conchs continue to practice and continue to compete. Many seasons end in disappointment with hope for next year, while others come out on top proving that hard work and dedication pay off. Team members learn the value of one another and the true meaning of All For One.

Going The Distance

As the sun rises over the green, rolling hills, the runner approaches the starting line. His mind is filled with confidence as he imagines his victory in the race. At the sound of the horn, he darts using every muscle in his body to get his starting lead. His competitors have the same fire in their eyes, but he knows he has the heart. This strength of will is visible in the entire cross country team. Every runner exerts 110% of our Conch Pride. These strengths are what keep our spirit alive. All for one. One for all.

Tony Romero doesn't have time to enjoy the view. He must stay concentrated on the task at hand, winning the race.

DID YOU KNOW?

*Cross country is originally a British sport, invented to develop tolerance and respect.

*To prevent injury, follow these smart training tips: wear good running shoes that fit well, and replace them before their mid-sole cushioning wears out; increase mileage by no more than ten percent a week; stretch and strength train regularly.

*The International Amateur Athletic Federation World Cross Country Championships hold cross country to be as much a means of getting to know oneself and others as a preparation for middle and long distance running on the track.

Shoot To Score

Soccer is a sport that is all about team work. This is something the Conchs knew they would need to complete a great season. Practicing two to three hours a day and five days a week, on top of keeping a 2.0 gpa, is a challenge for the players of boys varsity soccer team. The major goal of the team is to go and play well in the district game. With the help of their new coach, Mr. Clifford, the team hopes to strengthen their mind and body as one. This will help them to capture the spirit of conch pride, and possible carry them to a winning season.

Kicking For Victory

Although sometimes it does not get it's credit, soccer is a game filled with complexity and concentration. You must have the strength and the heart to do well in the game of soccer. Key West High has always excelled with it's sports programs, yet in the past few years, our soccer teams have brought unimaginable victories. This year the J.V. Boys Soccer team is expected to go far. With the help from Coach Clifford and encouragement of fans in the stands they are sure to accomplish their goals this season.

Achieving our Goals

The team started the season off with confidence and optimism. Even though half of the team had never played before, their 3 hour practices, 4 days a week helped them improve their skills and better their plays. The great effort these girls put in was definitely noticeable in their first game against Southridge, score 6-0. Not only did this pump them up, but it allowed them to realize that they learned how to play as a team, and their new coach, Rodney Castillo, was without a doubt doing an excellent job. By the end of the season, these girls not only learned how to play soccer, but they gained endurance, were taught respect, discipline and the most important of all, a love for the game.

Hoop It Up

"Swish!" The sound that all basketball players dream of. To the Conchs, it has become a repetitive sound. The team started off very slow, but as the season progressed, they bonded and made it to districts. Many of their goals have been accomplished this year, and with the help of Coach Butler, the players have improved technically and emotionally. Their success shows how important strength and determination is for a team. Basketball is a sport of concentration and physical endurance, and the members of the Conchs seem to show their outstanding performance with ease.

Damitrius Coleman dribbles across the court in hopes of making a basket for his team.

Fact Box:

Basketball has been evolving ever since it was invented by Dr. James Naismith in the winter of 1891, when there were nine players on each team.

It was only 50 years ago there was a center jump after every basket, discontinued dribbling with two hands and a lot of extracurricular activity under the boards.

"We have a lot of young and fresh faces who will help us do better than ever this season." - Brett Smith

"I think we did good this year, we had a rough start, but we came together as a team." — Adam Price

Nothin' but Net

This year's Junior Varsity Boys Basketball team had a successful season. It took hard work and perseverance, and during each practice, and at every game, they played with 110 percent. With much determination and high-set goals, they defeated their opponents.

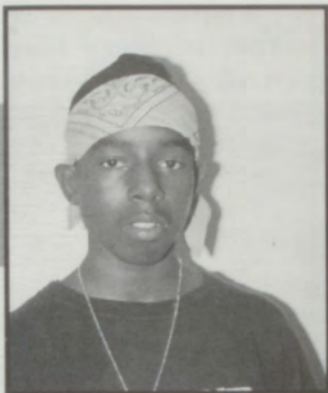

They accomplished the goals they set for themselves, and with good advice and encouragement from their coaches, Bacon and McDowell, they have improved greatly from last year. They played a great season and looked like varsity material.

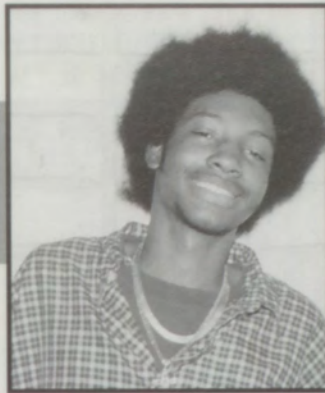

Adam Price blocks an attempt from a Lions' player to make a basket.

Antwon Williams ducks by two opponents just before the game's end.

"Basketball involves a lot of thinking and fundamental skills and all of our players have been working hard this season to improve their game."
- Alex Harris

"We've been practicing hard and playing well together, hopefully it will pay off."
— Deon Jackson

Avery Jones, Jessie Kehoe, and Alex Harris get a word of advice from their coaches during half time.

Dexter Butler is too fast for this Lions' player to nab the ball.

"This was a hard year on the team, but I really enjoyed it. We just need to work a little harder, so we can accomplish more goals. Next year we will improve even more." -Ria Philipps

"Teamwork is the root of every team, and this year we would have been a better team, if we all worked a little harder. Hopefully the team will improve even more next year." -Miriam Clear

Practice Makes Perfect

This year's team has really made a mark in Key West High School history. Even with a new team, they never lost hope. They pulled together and played their hardest. Practice was a major key in the team's success. They had to play as hard in practice as they did in every game. When games would come down to the last second, the team would not give up. Pushing the limit on their abilities and strengths is what a basketball team is all about.

Elane Spottswood makes both of her foul shots, and Key West gains two points.

Desiree Calitri steals the ball from an opponent and adds two points to Key West's score.

"We've had a rough season, but if we keep a good attitude, we can play better as a team. The key to success is teamwork as well as confidence. Hopefully we will function better as a team next year." - Crystal Dukes

"This season was fun, and I'm glad that I was a part of the team. We haven't had the best season, but we have learned from it. If we keep our heads up and keep trying, we will see improvements in our game." - Mejoy McIntosh

Mejoy McIntosh shoots and makes her foul shots. Mastering this skill is a must for basketball.

The team runs to the bench and forms a strategy to win the game.

The team waits for the ball to come back down, so they can put it back in the net.

The team sets up a block to put Key West up two points.

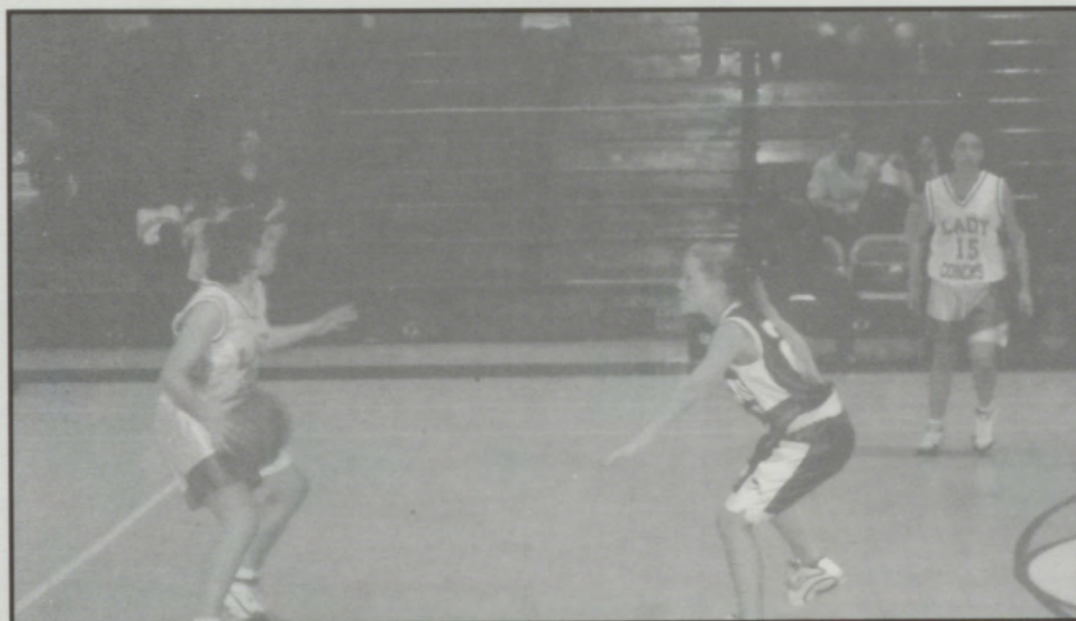

Mejoy McIntosh dribbles up the court, and spins past an opponent to score again.

Desiree Calitri zooms past her opponent and puts it in the basket. Speed is valued a lot more than strength in the sport of basketball.

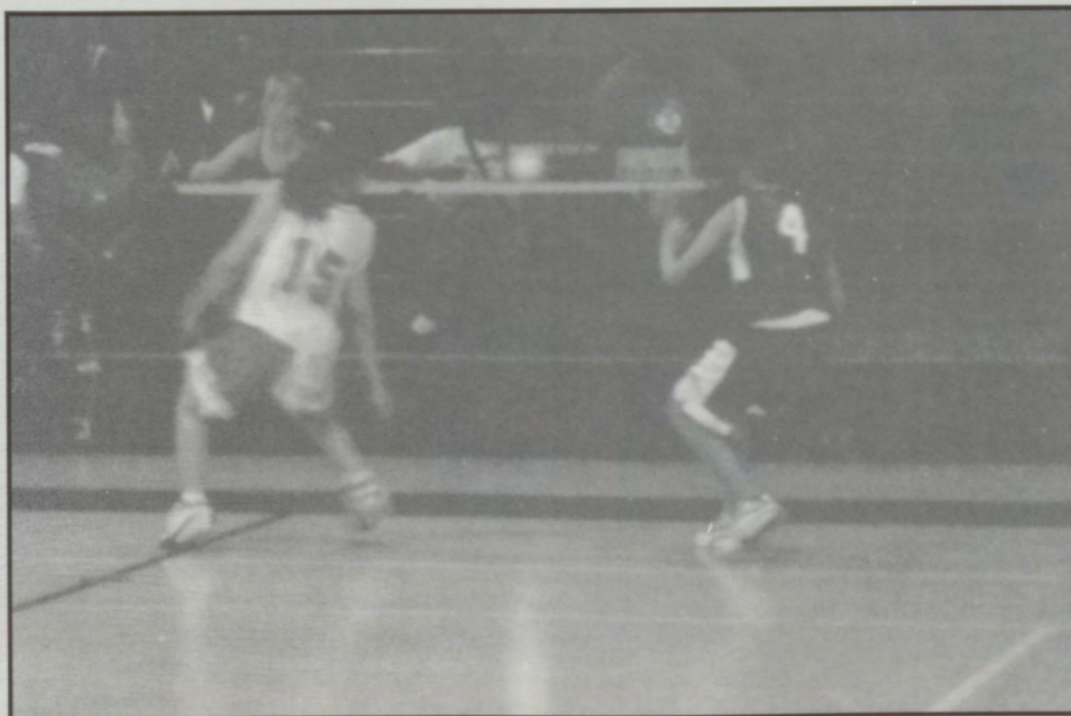

Thania Diaz and Desiree Calitre use their defensive skills to get the ball back to their side of the court.

Desiree Calitri passes the ball to Thania Diaz up the court. When a player is in trouble they should always pass the ball. Teamwork is the key to success in every sport.

Thania Diaz gets ready to steal the ball, and take it down the court.

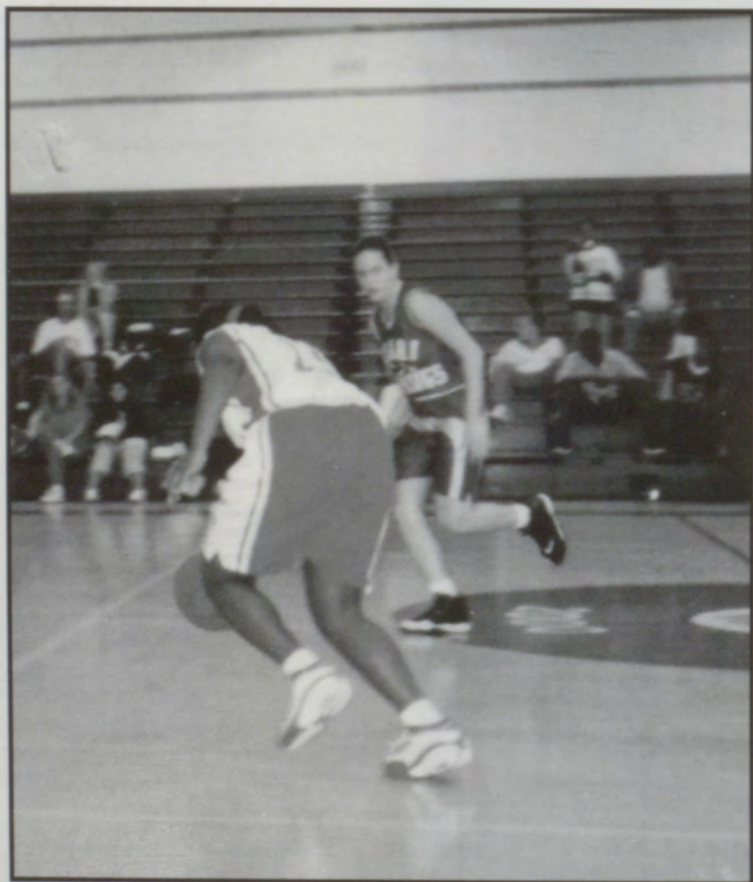

Shooting for the Top

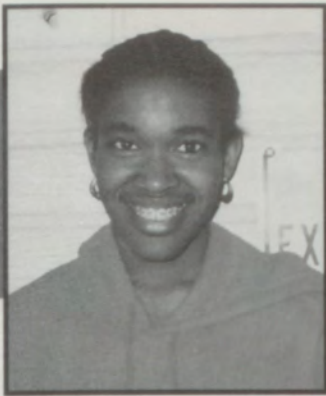

The JV Basketball team has worked hard this year. They've played every game with strength and tenacity, really coming together as a team. Although they had fierce competition, they had devotion. With determination, they have learned how to work well together, showing their opponents that no matter what, we will never back down. Despite the tough competition, the team fought hard to keep the pride going.

Quanitra Thurston dribbles down the court. This game was very close and ended in a victory for the Lady Conchs.

Dasia Wilson makes a basket for the Conchs, helping to raise their spirits in a very close game.

"There has been a lot of improvement in the team and this year it's all about getting out there, having fun, and playing basketball." - Keena Blocker

"If we keep practicing we will get better, by my senior year hopefully we'll make it to districts." - Quanitra Thurston

Destiny Rivas dribbles down the court while her team mates run ahead to catch a potential pass.

Destiny Rivas dribbles down the court with the ball. The opposing team is in hot pursuit.

The Lady Conchs and their opposing team watch tensely as they wait to retrieve a basket made by the Conchs.

"I've improved greatly since I went to wrestling camp with Pedro, Chaz, and Justin." - Joseph Cresce

"Wrestling is very challenging. This is the second year for wrestling and I think we were doing pretty good so far." - Pedro Lara

Strength and Agility

As the referee blows his whistle, the two athletes lunged at each other, each trying to pin the other. The wrestlers try hard to take each other down, and as they try to execute their moves, the crowd goes wild.

It was an exciting year for the Key West High School Wrestling Team. This year, the Conchs had more home meets, which gave the community more chances to see them in action. The Conchs practiced hard day in and day out. Their hard work payed off and the Conchs had a successful season.

Kieth Williams tries to hold his opponent down to earn points for the Conchs.

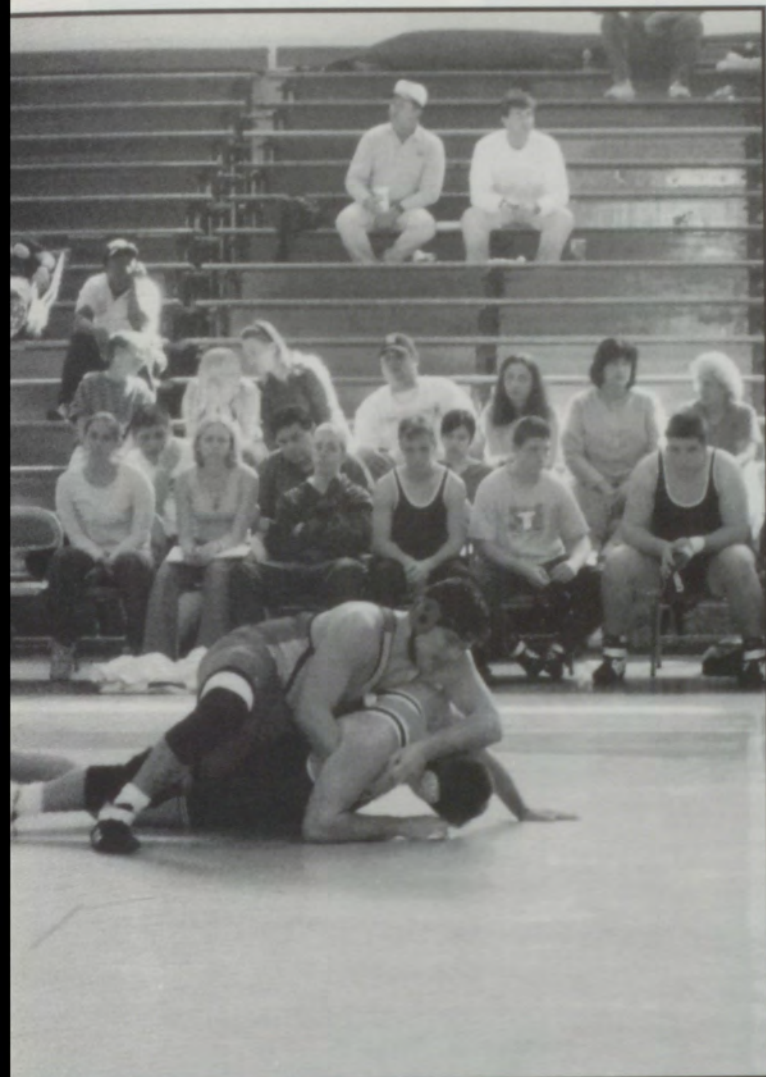

The wrestling team stands to cheer on one of their teammates at one of the many home meets this season.

"We have a lot of new guys this season. It's going to be interesting to see what happens since we have a J.V. team now"- Christopher Herlihy

"To be a wrestler you have to have dedication, and a lot of will power."- Justin Duck

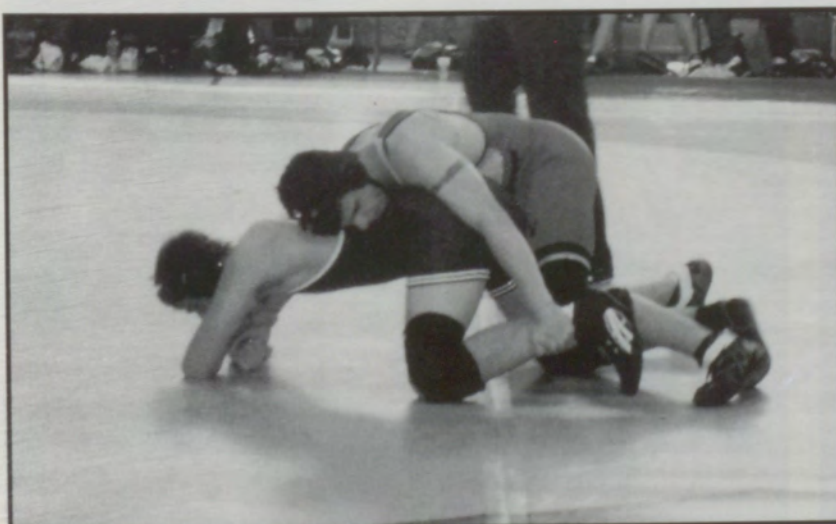

Pedro Lara forces a Coral Shores wrestler to the matt.

Chaz Jiminez wins his match by pining his opponent

Justin Duck walks back to the center of the mat after earning a point for the Conchs.

Joseph Crecse attempts to flip his opponant on to his back and pin him.

Coach Bowe pulls Ryan Langston aside during a match to give him advice on how he should take down his opponent.

"We have a lot of good players which will help us do good in the long run"-
Russel Simmons

"It's a fun experience. I think we have a great team and in a couple of years we're going to be really good."- Daniel Curtis

Guard the Net

When people think of tennis all they think of is the ball going back and forth over the net. Most people fail to realize the amount of energy it takes to play the sport. The tennis players have to be ready at all times. The ball moves very fast and the players have to run back and forth chasing after it. This year the boys tennis team is very young, made up of mostly underclassmen, which gives them hope that they will grow as a team. The boys team practices hard and is ready for whatever the future holds.

"We didn't start off the season too well, but with our outstanding coaches and teamwork we'll finish the season well." - Zac Covan

"This year's team has a lot of young and inexperienced players that have the potential to become great" - Michael Vianna

Devin Gregory chases down the ball and uses his back hand to return the ball to his opponent.

With a high follow through Michael Vianna pushes the ball over the net.

Volley for Wins

As the sun beats down, the players stand on their toes waiting for the ball to come flying over the net. As the ball approaches them, they attack, swinging their racket with all their might. The ball soars back over the net and past their opponents for a point. This year, the girls' tennis team worked hard to do their best. They practiced long hours and never gave up. Their hard work payed off and the girls proved to be a tough team to beat.

Zoe Pischke focuses on the ball as she prepares to serve it to her opponent. It will take all of her concentration to complete the serve.

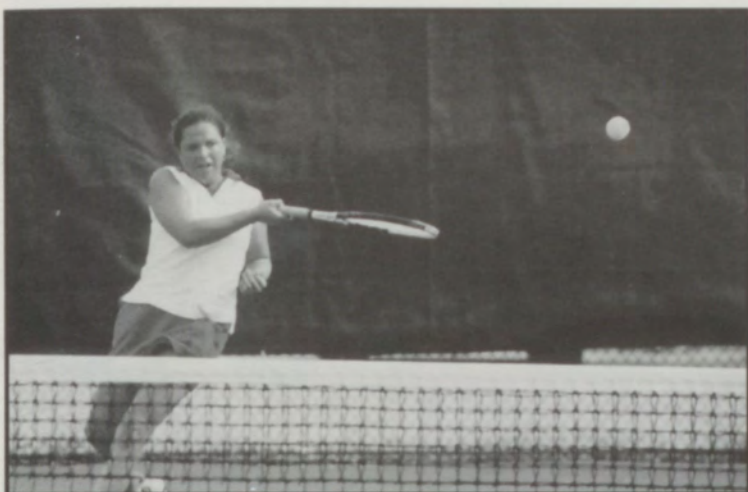

Katie Smith's perfect form while serving is an excellent example of how practice pays off.

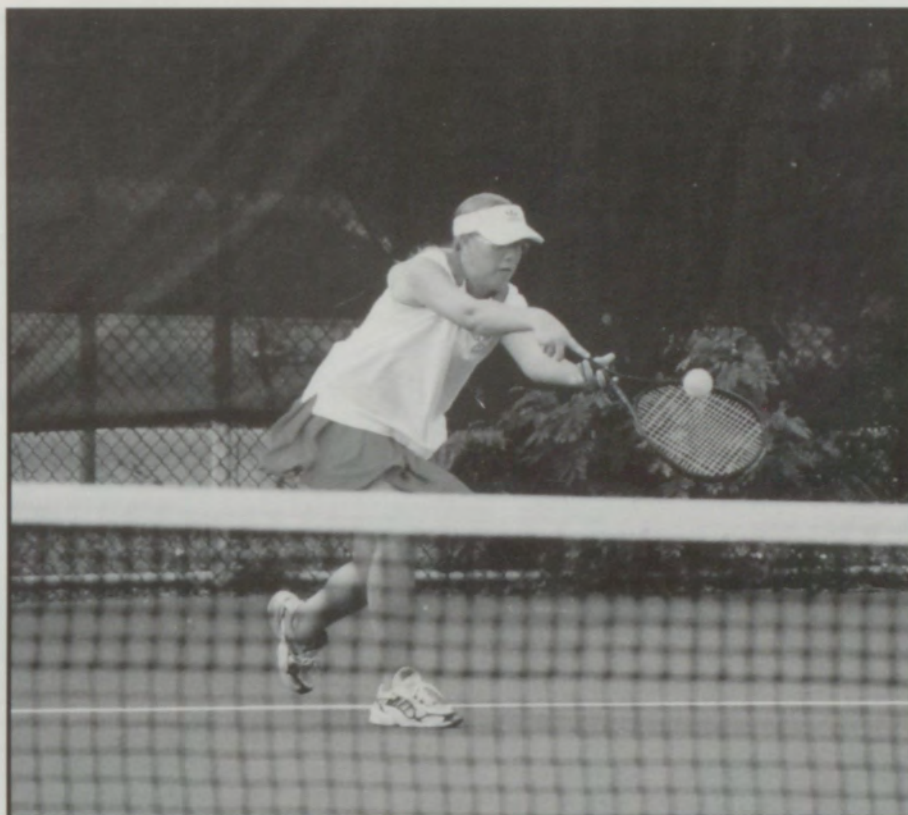

"I think that we'll do good because the stronger players will help the weaker ones."- Jordan Willis

"I hope we will succeed this season and I hope to work hard and accomplish many goals."- Katie Smith

Jordan Willis rushes to the line just in time to send the ball back to her opponent's side of the net. All team members must work on endurance as well as skills so they can last through difficult matches.

As the ball heads towards the ground, Coral Etshman stretches her arms as far as she can to return the volley.

Alissa Thompson watches as her serve soars over the net and past her opponent. Serving is an important part of Alissa's offense.

Running to Victory

The gun cracks and the players are off, the wind whipping by them as they run towards victory! This is the excitement that our track players feel at each meet. This year's team has done a great job due to their hard work and dedication. This season, Coach Perkins worked hard to get the team into shape and prepare them for their competition. All of the hard work has payed off and the team members have had a great time competing, showing every one their great conch spirit.

Krzysztof Labanowicz, Antwon Williams, Max Labrada and Alan Capraro swiftly run the track towards victory.

Michael Brooks makes a strong landing in the long jump. This is an event that the Key West High School boys excel in. We are lucky to have a strength in our field events.

"Track is cool. It's a great way to stay in shape. Being a freshman, it was kind of hard to prove myself to the rest of the team." - Joshua Barnes

"I like the competition of track and the opportunity to try something new. This season has helped with my conditioning and coordination." - Joseph Morgan

Alan Caprara shows his speed and agility as he pulls out in front at the start of the race. His ability to get a good push off gives him the leading edge he needs.

Michael Brooks perfects his high jump at practice after school. This is one event in which mistakes can be very costly.

Mickell Frazier enjoys his lead while his teammates cheer him on. Distance events have long been a strong point for this team.

Sean Reyngoudt passes off the baton to fellow team mate Timothy Kirchner during a relay. A clean exchange can be the key to victory.

Timothy Kirchner speeds down the track during a relay with an opponent in hot pursuit. Tim's ability to kick it in his final lap often surprises the runners trying to catch up.

Practice makes perfect! Michael Brooks hurls the shot put during practice. He is an asset to the field event section of this year's team.

Taking the straight and narrow...Joseph Morgan practices his approach for the pole vault. Speed is a necessity for this event. Vaulters use that momentum to get their bodies over the bar.

Colton Butler sails easily over the hurdles. His height and leg strength propel him to the finish line.

Brett Smith shows that he too can be a contender in the high jump. With Coach Ridenour's expertise, Brett has improved his approach and height.

Nathan Rogers works on his followthrough in the throwing circle. As a freshman, he has worked hard to become a solid contribution to the team.

Flying through the air, Dionte Dunning uses his full body length to increase the distance of his long jump. Height is definitely an advantage in this event, and Dionte uses his to its full capacity.

"We have a lot of talented athletes this year. If we train hard, some of us will be able to make it to state." -Toni Merkey

"We have a smaller team this year, but that will not affect our performance. I believe we will do outstanding, and I hope we will go far." -Katie Gonzalez

Keep On Trackin'

On your mark, get set, go!! The Key West High School girls' track team races towards new records with solid determination. "Right now we are a fairly young team, so we will be building for next year. Some of our individuals have the potential to do really well," comments Coach Price. He has worked hard this year to get the team in shape and keep them focused. With dedicated team members all around, every performance is a job well done.

Lindsay Thommes and Michelle Oden prepare to take off in the 100 meter dash. A good start will allow them to take the lead against their opponent Coral Shores.

Sheena Kwaterski keeps her focus and concentration as she paces herself in the long distance run.

"This year's track team members are dedicated and hardworking. Our strongest asset is that we are all determined to do our best." -Amber Walser

"I believe we will have a good time this season, and we will work hard to accomplish a lot together." - Michelle Oden

Margret McAndrews flies down the straight-away. She is just steps from making her way across the finish line.

Senior Miriam Cleare maintains great height as she soars through the air. She is moments away from a perfect landing in the long jump competition.

Junior Casey Kehoe uses every muscle in her body to propel upward in one of the toughest competitions. Her agility has allowed her to set new KWHs records for the pole vaulting competition.

Sophomore Ayleen Herlinu has no problem clearing the hurdles with ease in her 100 meter run. Her determination takes her team one step closer to victory.

Lindsay Thommes successfully passes the baton to Janna Van Essen in the 4x4 relay. This handoff is an essential part of the race and they have mastered this technique.

Michelle Oden and Amanda Phelps don't slow down even at the end of the race. They know that every second counts.

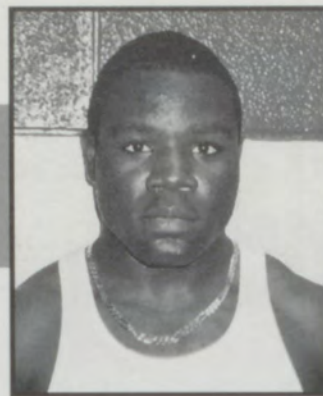

Sophomore Kristin McKenna demonstrates good form as she competes in the long jump competition.

Morgan Scorby uses all of her strength to catapult the shot put into the air. This event requires great concentration and power, both of which Morgan has.

"This season was a hard season. We really had to push our hardest to accomplish the goals that we were going for. Hopefully, after this year, we'll be trained even better for the next season." - Jesus Blanco

"I think this year we are doing pretty well. We all worked hard to get where we did. Next year's team looks like it will go even further." - Michael Edwards

Follow Your Dreams

Baseball is America's pastime and one of our most cherished sports. As the home of the Fighting Conchs, Key West is known for its history of success in baseball. At every game, Tommy Roberts Memorial Stadium is filled with excited fans who support the team on their journey to victory. Our school's history is rich in baseball success. We have won numerous state championships, and have been ranked among the top high schools in the nation. Baseball is a sport that will last forever in Key West.

Anthony Roberts is ready for the ball, so he can hit a homerun and score one for the Conchs. Many thoughts must be running through his head as it must be nerve racking to have the whole team depend on you in close games.

Louis Paez and John Fallon strategize as to how to strike out the other team's batter. Players need to plan ahead in order to keep their position in the game.

Jesus Blanco gets a runner out on second base. Decisions like these are made in a split second and the players must react on their instincts to complete plays.

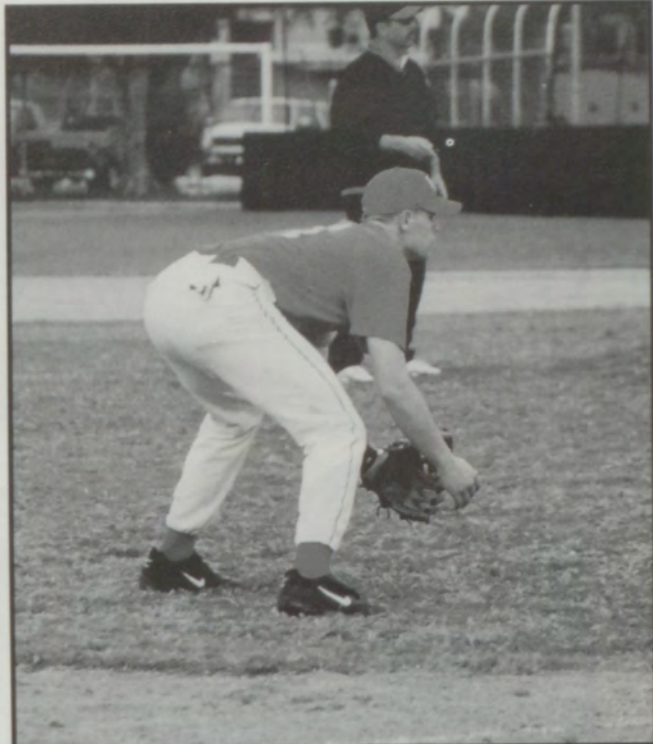

Thomas Bouchard transfers all his strength into the bat as he hits the ball. It is just as important to excel in offense as it is to keep the other team from scoring.

John Fallon picks off a runner trying to steal second base. A solid defense is needed in order to advance to the state finals.

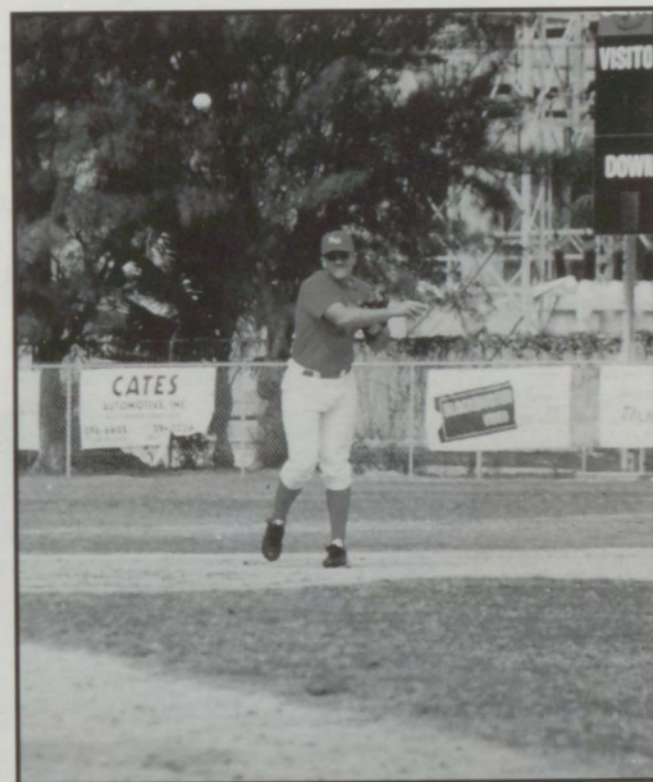

Above, Edward Roberts is in position to trap a ball that comes his way. Being prepared is essential to winning games.

To the left, Louis Paez tags a runner out, keeping the Conchs ahead. The pitcher often has to leave the mound to make the play.

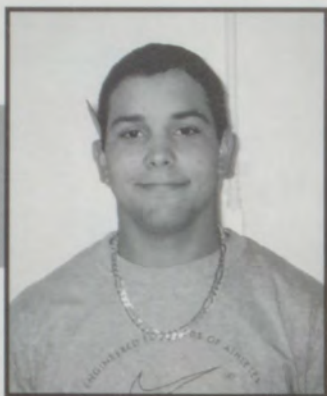

Patrick Freeman shows perfect form as he delivers a pitch. One slight change in form can make or break the pitch.

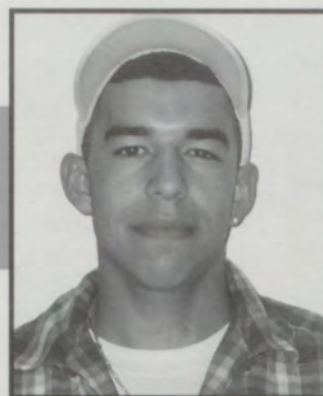

Jesus Blanco takes the time to warm up his arm before game time. This time helps him to prepare for the game and prevents injuries caused by throwing with cold muscles.

"With the guys we have, I think we'll definitely have a good season." - Richard Roberts

"This is my first year playing high school baseball, and I think it'll be a successful season" - Rocky Ramirez

Out of the Park

People underestimate the junior varsity teams in all sports. They think if you are good, you are put on the varsity team. This is not always the case. Playing on junior varsity takes a person with a high endurance and the will power to never to give up. With all the new talent and team cooperation, this team expects to go a long way. This year's team is made up of hardworking and determined players. The Conchs junior varsity team shows pride and spirit both on and off the field. They are great students in the classroom, and always willing to help out.

Gary Hersey runs over to back up Brett Jackowski as he makes the play. Richard Roberts is in the outfield. It is important for members of the backfield to be ready if needed.

Brett Jackowski backs up his teammate Adron Barnes while he makes a play at second. Gary Hersey is overlooking his teammates ready to give assistance if necessary.

Ryan Capas takes a swing at the pitch during batting practice. The team must have an effective offense in order to score runs. Batting is a skill that is always part of practice.

Kyle Cabrera warms up his pitching arm before stepping to the mound. Warming up muscles reduces the risk of injury.

"If everyone gives it their all and plays with dedication, we can go far this season." — Jessica Rivera

"Compared to last year, we've come a long way as far as our teamwork and coaching." — Breanna Kight

Rounding the Bases

The Varsity Fastpitch Softball team is looking forward to a successful season with the help of returning coaches Steve Vinson and Kim Hetherington. The girls will also welcome Coach Judd Wise, who is resuming his coaching career after a five year break. The team has several returning key players as well as many newcomers. With sophomore Breanna Kight, pitcher; senior Jessica Rivera, catcher; senior Ashley Spoto, center field; and junior Lisette Cobo, short stop, it is sure to be a record holding season. The girls are very confident in themselves and have high hopes for this year.

Senior Ashley Spoto lays down a bunt during batting practice. Ashley's famous for adding a little "spunk" during the game!

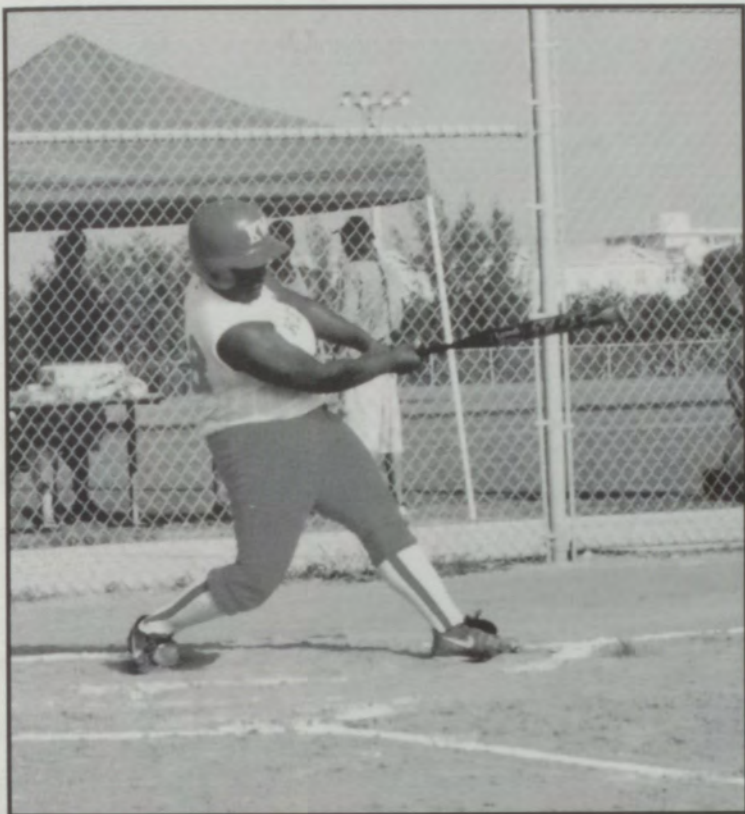

"I have to say, my abs are much stronger this year thanks to Coach Wise's 'drop and give me 25 system'." - Ashley Spoto

"We have a young team this year, but we work together and play hard." - Marissa Malone

Ashley James, a starting Freshman for the Lady Conchs, hits a nip down the first base line during a game.

A Hit to Success

This year's junior varsity softball team has notably done a great job. They have worked hard and defeated their toughest opponent, Gulliver. They beat them even when varsity failed to do so. These girls have practiced for hours after school, and on weekends.

They started out with a fresh group, stuck together, and maintained their motivation and confidence. Many are filled with hopes to move on to varsity next year and, conceivably, many will. With new talents discovered this year, the team had a great season.

Jessica Pita, Heidi Taylor, Erica Lopez, Laura Herrera, and Jamie Kloza try to make the best of their long bus ride. Living in the Keys, travel is something every sports team must get accustomed to.

Many of us have been friends since before we can remember, and yet others of us have formed our friendships during the course of our high school career. Soon, we will all walk together to graduate. Before we know it, we will be going on our separate journeys through life. One thing is for sure, we will always have the common bond as friends and as the class of 2001!

I, Joseph Whalton, do hereby bequeth the following: Amber- Nnnickelodeon, halloween and Fantasy Fest. Jen- " Note to self..." and lunch. Kevvy G- sleepy time, does Joe owe you $50?. Conrad- (and your spaceship), my senior seat, sexy Joe, and our lunch bench. Mikey- 2 am boating trips, ridin in the 'stang downtown. Nate- Cap and Gown and 2 am boating trips. Annie- keep smiling, I'll never forget you, don't touch my toga! Toni- thank youu for everything you have done for me, I will always love you!

I, Samantha Weech, do hereby bequeth my Cap and Gown to my "Sister" Tiffany. I leave my senior seat to Candi. For Ryann- "Stewart!", our fights, and some funny faces. Priscilla- Cheez, $1.50, and some buckets for your sand. Angela- A certain football player and artistic sight. Ariel- kicks and giggles. Maria- thanks for diversity. John- some gas and radiator fluid. Katchen- a purple cookie. Last but not least, Tyson- A shovel, the Gerudo witches, a fake plastic submarine, our divine language, and the planet BOB. For everyone else, I leave your friendships and support. Take care you guys!

I, Emily Whyms, do hereby bequeqth my cap and gown to my nephew Andre and my senior seat to my nephew Damon. I'd like to thank God for getting me this far, and to thank my sister for helping me along the way, I love you. Mic- a big screen TV, and a rocking chair; Monty- a bib to dribble on; Son- friends for a lifetime; JC- "Good times"; DG- "memorable times"; RH- a spot on Epoc's dance floor; VC- girl I leave you a "whoopin for all those female hatas"; To the class of 2001- much love, You heard me!

I, Amy Wiltsey, do hereby retire my cap and gown and my senior seat for I am the last of my family to come through KWHS. To Beth, I leave all those talks about guys, the many weekends across the street, and memories at Margaritaville. To Shirnell, I leave all the gossip of Margaritaville: I was "sick" and best wishes to you in your marriage. To Alana, I leave aselekt few articles from Cosmo, you know which ones, and all the funny stories that go us through Drama.

I, Tal Yardeni, do hereby bequeath the following to: Senior seat - Shiri, Cap - Julie, Gown - Tati, Danielle - Mambo, Exorcist, Marina - "I'm coming home right now", Sarah - fight in DC, happiness, Kristen - Karate, nights at David's, Phil - philbert, always keep your head held high, Melissa - hellie hellie, Spoto - Margel Shella, a night out with AM, Amelia - Hilton, screaming at 4am, Greg - Tipping your car, Matt - the best homecoming ever, Michael Jackson, Katchen - ballet days, Lolos - Queen, Julie - Tips, brush, Roberts - Tail light, Sam - spider, Ms. Oakes - Thanks for allways supporting me, Conchettes - I love you all and will miss you.

I, Tonya C. Young, do hereby bequeath the following to: Pandasala Robinson - my senior seat; my sister Tiffany H. - my cap and gown; Elimelech Risse - all our memories our 11 and 12 yr. and long live friendship; Vanessa Mayorga - all the good times we've had with our kids and in the daycare together with me you have a friend forever; Josvanni + Jose - the rest of our lives together; Everyone else - best of luck in the future. And last but not least to all the underclassmen - Good luck in the future.

I, Frankie Zamora, leave those who I know with this drop if knowledge: Look inside yourself and the knowledge that you have collected in your four years heare let be your guide to propel you to your goal in life, whatever that may be. Keep pass'en on the love C/O 2001.

I, Jennifer Allison Zubek, leave the following; my cap and gown to Gary E. Senior seat to Trevor, plus white bathing suit, hot tub nights. To the girlies - love, nights downtown. Christina - "shopping", friendship, underclassmen. Rachel - secrets, vanilla chocolate chip, "I GOT CAME", varsity boys soccer '99. Taron - Jokes, phone..., senior pictures. Bryan - pickle kiss. Katchen - From the pit. Ceridwen - crushes, SW. Joe W. - Lunch. To Billy - Your Welcome! the truck, BEST FRIENDS, my ring finger, 18 mile stretch. I love you, your my angel. Seniors - strength to follow your hearts.

WE LEAVE TO YOU...

I would rather be ashes than dust!
I would rather that my spark should burn out in a brilliant blaze than it should be stifled by dryrot.
I would rather be a superb meteor,
every atom of me in magnificent glow,
than a sleepy and permanent planet.
The proper function on man is to live, not to exist.
I shall not waste my days in trying to prolong them.
I shall use my time.

Congratulations

Amy Wiltsey

To Our Daughter Amy, The last, but certainly not the least of our "Wiltsey/Thomas" clan. The time that seemed so far away is finally here! Where did the years go? You have come so far, Amy, and we are very proud of you. You have blossomed from an extremely shy and timid little girl, into a beautiful, intelligent and confident young lady. Always keep your love for life, and drive to get out of it whatever you dream. Thank you for being our friend as well as our daughter and the respect you've shown to us in knowing the difference. We wish you the best of luck and success at whichever college is lucky enough to get you!

All of our love no matter where you are,
Mom and Bob (your "other" dad)

Christy - We gave you a beginning 18 years ago, but now it is time for you to grow and become a woman. We've been blessed with a wonderful child who has enriched our lives with her laugh and her smile. We are so proud of her compassion and helpful nature. It is because of qualities like these that we know she will make the world a better place. Always remember to trust your intuition and you will achieve all of your goals in life.
Love, Mom, Dad, Jeff, and Grandma

Forever and always - When I'm with you, eternity is a step away. My love continues to grow with each passing day. This treasure of love, I cherish within my soul, how much I love you, you'll really never know. You bring a joy to my heart I've never felt before, with each touch of your hand I love you more and more, whenever we say goodbye, whenever we part, know I hold you dearly deep inside my heart, so these seven words I pray you hold true, "Forever and always I will love you." - Love Daniel

Janell Shirk

Janell - When you entered the world on October 18th, 1982 at 1:57pm, it was the most memorable day of our lives. Your father had the best birthday present ever, YOU!! Now our little girl has grown up to be a beautiful young woman. Words cannot express how proud we are of your achievement. It's been a long road, but you were able to go the distance and succeed. We wish you the best of luck in all that you do and we love you very much.

Lisa L. Jones

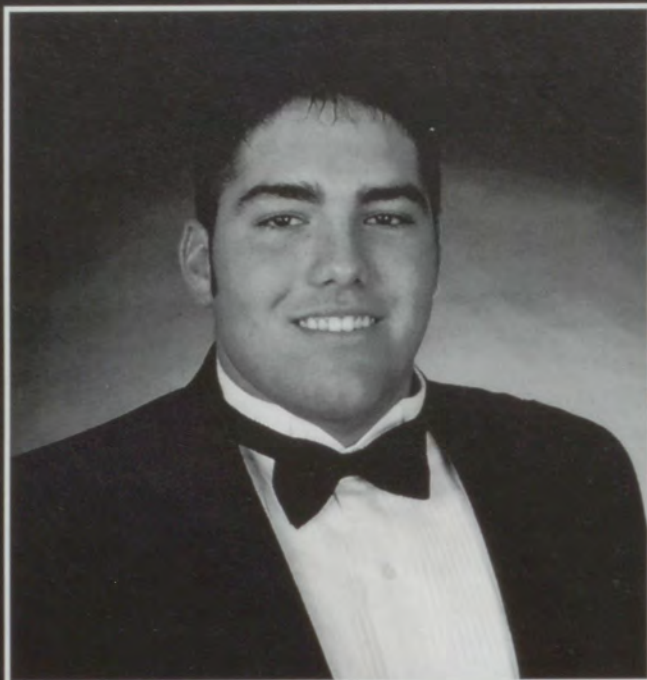

There is no boundary to the depth the heart may fathom. Love is said to be blind, yet it sees furthest into your soul. Love binds the world together, and tears it down again. Today I knew I was loved, and loved, and do love. I have found a truth, and honesty, in the arms which embrace me. They are for always: my family and my friends. I know the road which lies ahead is rigidly unworn and hazy, but I am confident love will see me through the trails.

Alejandro A. Machado

Chaz Jimenez

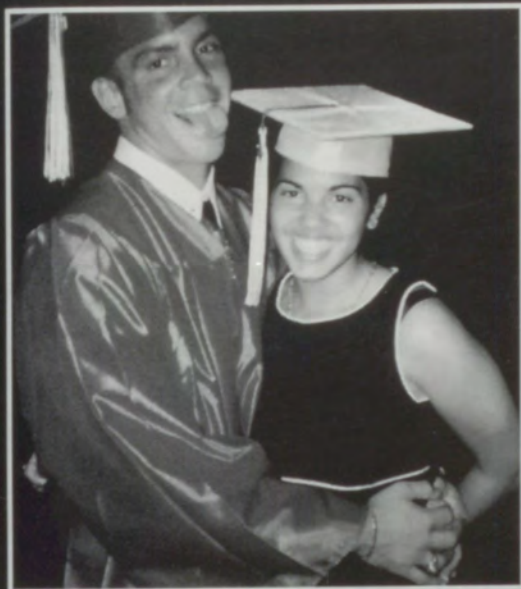

Chaz - From the day you were born you were so special, so smart, so sensitive, so good. It has been fun and exciting to observe you as you have grown and developed. The memories are precious and priceless. You have evolved into your own person with your own ideas and your own individuality. Here you are mature and firmly independent and you are still special, still smart, and still good. You are a very rare person and your entire family is so very proud of the person you are. You are everything parents could wish for and we love you more than any words could convey.

Love you always, Mom and Dad

Zuki Hernandez

Zuki, You've brought a special glow in our lives. You've put smiles on our faces of happiness, you are a joy to me and your family. We have had lots of hard times but you were there by my side. Always reach for the stars and you will get what you want. You have made your family proud and we love you. Keep up the good work because this is only the beginning of your adult life.

What an amazing young man you have become, Joey. Smart and funny, kind and loyal... and totally "You". We are VERY proud of you, Joe! Stay on the path, ask for directions when you are not sure, listen to that "still, small voice" and you'll continue to grow and prosper always. God bless you and keep you safe...

All our love,
Mom, Dad, Bonnie, Grams, Grandmom and Grandpa.

Philippe Francois Kirouac

Phil - It is honor and a joy to be your parents. You always give fully of yourself to whatever you undertake. You truly care about life around you, and have the strength of character to be true to your goals. Your courage, honor and integrity will take you as high as you can dream.
Love, Mom and Dad

Jessica Alanna

Jessie,
I don't think I have a single memory from childhood that doesn't have you in it. You were always there with me trying to do everything I was doing, whether it was learning to ride a bike or going to school or losing our front teeth. But you were never satisfied with just doing what I was doing; you had to do better. I have always admired that ambition and dedication and believe it or not I will miss you greatly when we are on our separate ways next year. I'm proud of all that you have accomplished so far in life and I know that you will continue to surpass me in the many years to come. Remember that I love you and I am always here for you. Jenny

Maydeleydis Martinez

What a gift from God you have been, to watch you grow into the wonderful young lady you've become. You are our sunshine and joy. Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Always keep your dreams alive and keep them coming true.

May the good Lord be with you down every road
you roam

And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home

And may you grow to be proud dignified and true

And do unto others as you'd have done to you
'Be courageous and be brave in our hearts you'll stay forever young

May good fortune be with you and your guiding light be strong

Build a stairway to heaven with a prince or vagabond

May you never love in vain

In our hearts you will remain forever young
And when you finally fly away, we'll be hoping
That we served you well

For all the wisdom of a lifetime,
No one could ever tell, but whatever road
you chose, we're behind you win or lose

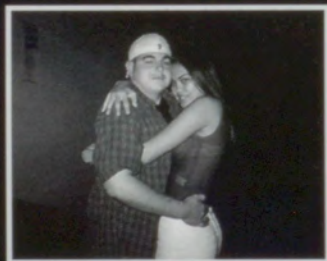

Forever Young

Mrs. Oakes,
We can never thank you enough for coming back for our senior year. We have defiantly had our share of ups and downs but you have always been there with a reassuring smile and good advice. When we stepped out on the field for the last time our hearts were filled with sorrow and with pride. We will never again dance on the field but we made a mark as the Conchettes that wouldn't let go. Thank you for the memories and Thank you for the continuous support. We will always remember "Once a Conchette always a Conchette" and to keep on smiling.

Yearbook Seniors

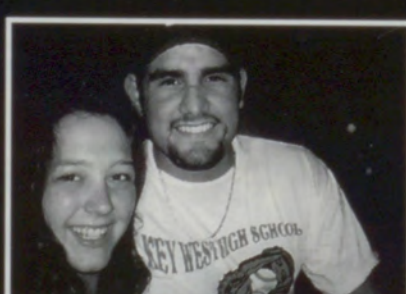

What can I say to this great group of seniors? Many of you have not been involved in the production of the book before, but you took the initiative and you rose to the occasion. I am very proud of all of you. Keep reaching for your dreams and remember that anything you dream is possible. Best of luck in all you do.

When we look at you, we see the past
Of days gone by, they just didn't last
Many memories most good, a few bad
But we experienced life, hardly any sad
For that we are thankful, yes we are blessed
We leave you in God's hands, we did our best
Yes in life you will reap what you have sown
Your thoughts, feelings & actions are your own
Be thoughtful, responsible, diligent & smart
In becoming a man please watch your heart
We look at you now, we see a young man
Organize, think out, set up your life's plan
Be safe, be balanced and do have some fun
You made us proud, we're glad you're our son.

Friends

High school is the four years of our lives where we build the ties that last a lifetime. Twenty years from now, we will look back fondly on the friends we made and the fun we had. We may be leaving the building, but we will stay in each others' lives as members of the class of 2001.

to the End

A View From the Top

Sheila Kravitz

Q: Who is your role model?

A: My loving father!

Q: What lessons have you learned?

A: Getting an education is all in what you make of it.

Q: Do you have any advice for underclassmen?

A: Think positive, motivate yourselves into getting good grades and to look toward your parents for guidance. Never follow the wrong crowd.

Gosia Bujak

Q: Who is your role model?

A: My cousin Magdalena, she is very kind to everyone and she always succeeds.

Q: Where do you see yourself 10 years from now?

A: Far away from Key West.

Q: Do you have any advice for underclassmen?

A: Be yourself.

Jessica Jones

Q: Do you have any advice for underclassmen?

A: Aim for the moon. If you don't succeed at least you'll be among the stars.

Q: What is your dream goal?

A: To know that I have lived the best life I could.

Q: What lessons have you learned?

A: You can do anything if you put your mind to it, and smiles are free.

Q: What was your motivation to succeed in high school?

A: I like school and succeeding.

Lande Spottswood

Q: Who is your role model?

A: I do not have a role model. There are qualities that I admire in so many people, that there is not a particular person I aspire to be like.

Q: Where to you see yourself ten years from now?

A: I will probably be interning after my medical school graduation. I will have a degree, hopefully magna cum laude, from Harvard University and a medical degree from Harvard Medical School.

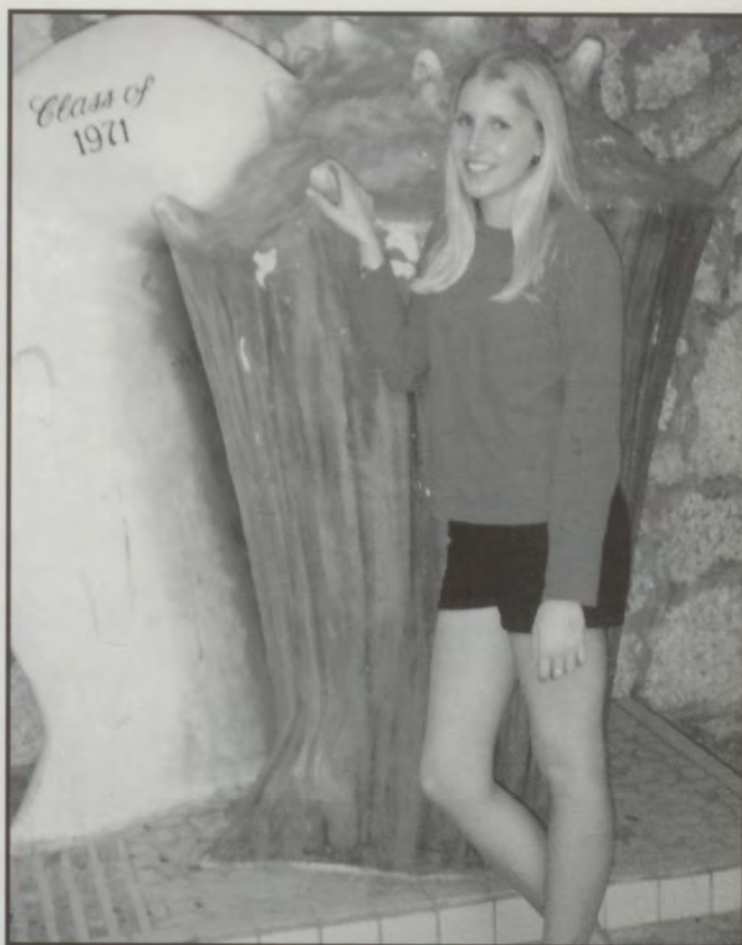

Kristen Scott

Q: What is your dream goal?

A: My dream goal is to travel all over the world. I love seeing new things and being able to experience something I have never done before.

Q: If you could go back in time what would you change about your high school years?

A: As a freshman, I would be more involved. I would have been in clubs or even gone to the only bonfire that's been held since I've been here. I would participate in another sport besides tennis, like swimming or volleyball.

Kevin McCarthy

Q: Who is your role model?

A: My dad because he always has something funny to say no matter what.

Q: Where do you see yourself 10 years from now?

A: Ten years from now I see myself back in New York working as a District Attorney.

Q: If you could go back in time, what would you change about your high school years?

A: I would not change anything because I have had a great time and I have no regrets.

Barbara Bujak

Q: Who is your role model?

A: My grandmother. She is hardworking and generous. She always thinks of others before herself.

Q: What was your motivation to succeed in high school?

A: To be able to attend college in the United States.

Q: Do you have any advice for the underclassmen?

A: Stay in school if you want satisfaction in life.

What does the "Conch" mean to you?

"It symbolizes a time of change and growth. It represents our laid back atmosphere yet our united school. It will always mean 4 years of laughs, friends, homework, tears, and the best times of my life." - Marialys Rodriguez

I envision the conch as a slow moving animal, so the conch means patience. "Patience is a virtue everyone needs to have in life. Sooner or later, you will make it there." - David Smith

"In order to really make a conch fight, you have to pick it up and throw it as hard as you can. Other wise they are pretty slow." - Ashley Spoto

"It symbolizes not only the beauty of the sea, but it also shows great strength with its hard shell. The strength of the hard shell also represents the strength of the students." - Alex Steller

"It describes the students of our school. It is a unique creature, as are our students. It also portrays the Keys' beauty while representing the spirit of the student body." - Cristy Spottswood

"Our mascot represents the uniqueness and originality of our school. The conch carries a spirit of pride and commitment that would make anyone proud to be a part of" - Ashley Roberts

Where is the perfect party location?

"Thailand would be a great party place. It is a beautiful tropical place away from all your worries and troubles. Prices there are cheap so you can party longer." - Alison Pelletier

"I'd go to Jamaica because there is beautiful women and beautiful scenery. It's a lot more isolated and there less laws and restrictions." -Nick Posada

"I would party at a McDonald's Playplace. You could play in the balls and there is good food and good fun. The safe environment and Ronald McDonald would make the party a great one." - Eddie Perez

"Alaska would be a great party place. Its really fun to throw snowballs and have a different surrounding than down here." —Allison Merky

"A great party spot would be Goa, India its the top party place in the world." — Christopher Mendola

"An exotic island because you don't know what's around, its more mysterious, and more like a personal party." - Vanessa Mayorga

What was your favorite toy when you were little?

"I was a dancer and a sailor, which took up most of my time. I always wanted a Barbie car, though." - Sarah Bender

"I would have to say that my bike was my favorite, because I wanted to get out of the house" - Brett Arsenault

"There wasn't much to do, so my bike would have to be my favorite, because it gave me something to do." - Justin Barrington

"My favorite toy was barbies, because I could pop their heads off and throw them at my sister." - Lily Cohen

"All I did when I was young was go spear fishing, so I would have to say that my spear gun was my favorite." - Brandon Bertini

"I was a tomboy, so I didn't really play with toys. I had my soccer ball and my bike." - Marina Burton

What does being a best friend mean to you?

Jaron Swofford & Tyler Swofford

"I will miss my brother when I leave for school in Orlando. We spend a lot of time together, and we enjoy playing video games with each other." Jaron

Amber Walser & Jessica Swaney

"Having a best friend means always having someone to talk to, someone to trust, and someone who will give you an honest opinion." Amber

Samantha Weech & Tyson Sands

"My best friend is my life. He is the most important person to me right now. It breaks my heart to know that after graduation we'll be apart." Samantha

Rachel Wilmot & Jennifer Zubek

Jen says "Rachel is my support and she brightens my day." "It will be hard when we separate come June," says Rachel, "but our friendship will withstand the test of time"

Maria Terpner & Eddie Perez

"Eddie is the only person who I feel I can always talk to. I tell him everything, we just connect. We will not be separating after high school." Maria Terpner

Christina Walterson & David Smith

"He has always been there for me. He laughs at my jokes when no else does, and he gives me a stable base. Going our separate ways is going to be hard. I am really going to miss him. My best friend is also my boyfriend, and I think thats going to be the hardest thing." Christina

How do you feel about interracial relationships?

"People should date whoever they wanna date."- Noel Diaz

"It don't matter. As long as you love each other that's all that counts. If she loves you and you love her, color should make no difference. It shows you are not racist."-Michael Edwards.

"I don't have a problem with it, you love who you love."- Steven Csombok

"It's all good, if you love that person you love them, regardless of race."- Franklin Cundiff III

"I don't think there is anything wrong with it. I don't think it should matter what race you are."- Priscilla Crompton

"I think it's ok. It's a different way of expressing yourself."- Suzanne Dayao

Where would you go for your dream vacation?

"If I could go anywhere I would want to go to Africa on a safari and travel by foot through the jungle in search of wild animals." - Angela Leggett

"I would take a private jet with my grandma to Ibiza, Spain because its one of the best party spots in the world." - Krzysztof Labanowicz

"I would go to the Bahamas because it has nice beaches, I could relax, go swimming, and mack on some girls." - Stephen Leland

"I would go to Vail, Colorado since I've never been skiing. I'd want to find a cute ski instructor to help me learn to ski and I'd pretend I didn't know anything!" - Christina Lolos

"I would go to New Zealand because the scenery is relaxing and it would be a great place to party and meet new people." - Kelly Krug

"If I could go anywhere, I would take Tim Thurston with me to Amsterdam to see all the girls and visit all of the coffee shops." - Mark Leach

Without the support of various community businesses the activities at Key West High School would not be able to continue on. Being such a small town, many of the same businesses support three or four school groups. We would like to thank the businesses of Key West for all their support to the production of the yearbook and to all school activities.

As the final bell rings we venture out into our new lives. The school that has been a part of so many triumphant and our most disappointing moments is now only a piece of our past. We've already begun the transition into the new phase of our lives. Acceptance letters have arrived and college life is now on our minds; all as the road that leads down to our future begins....

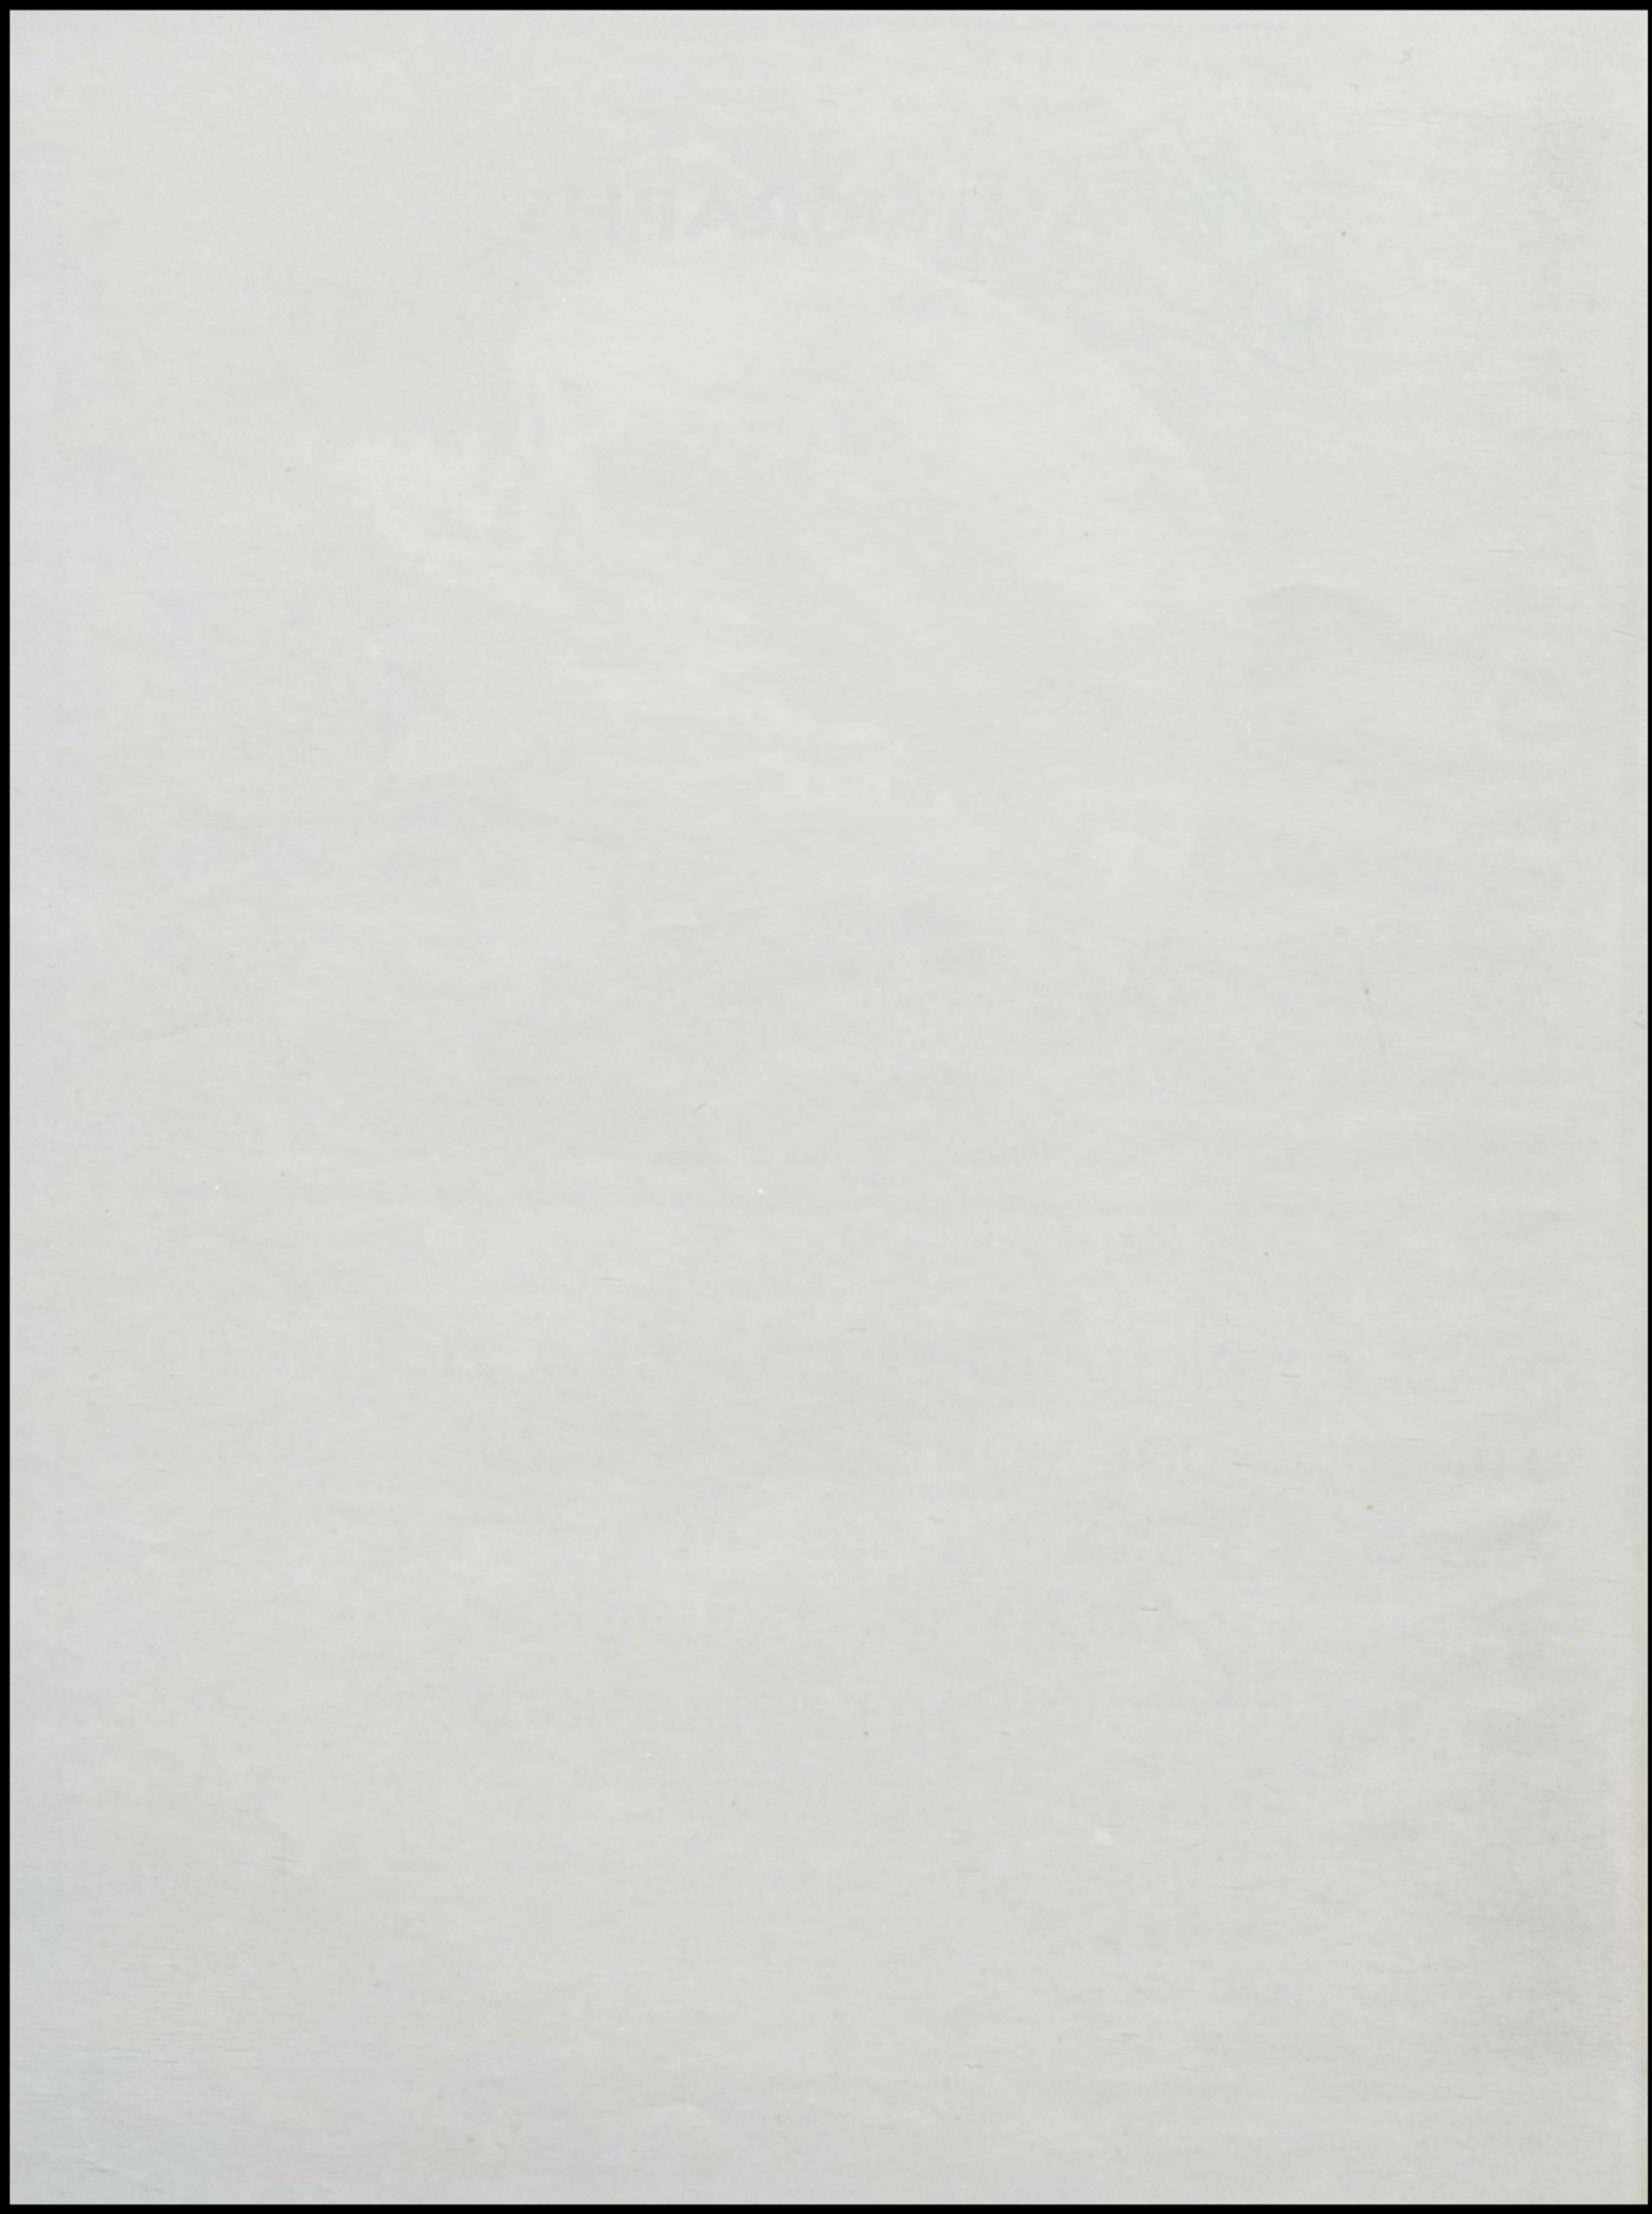

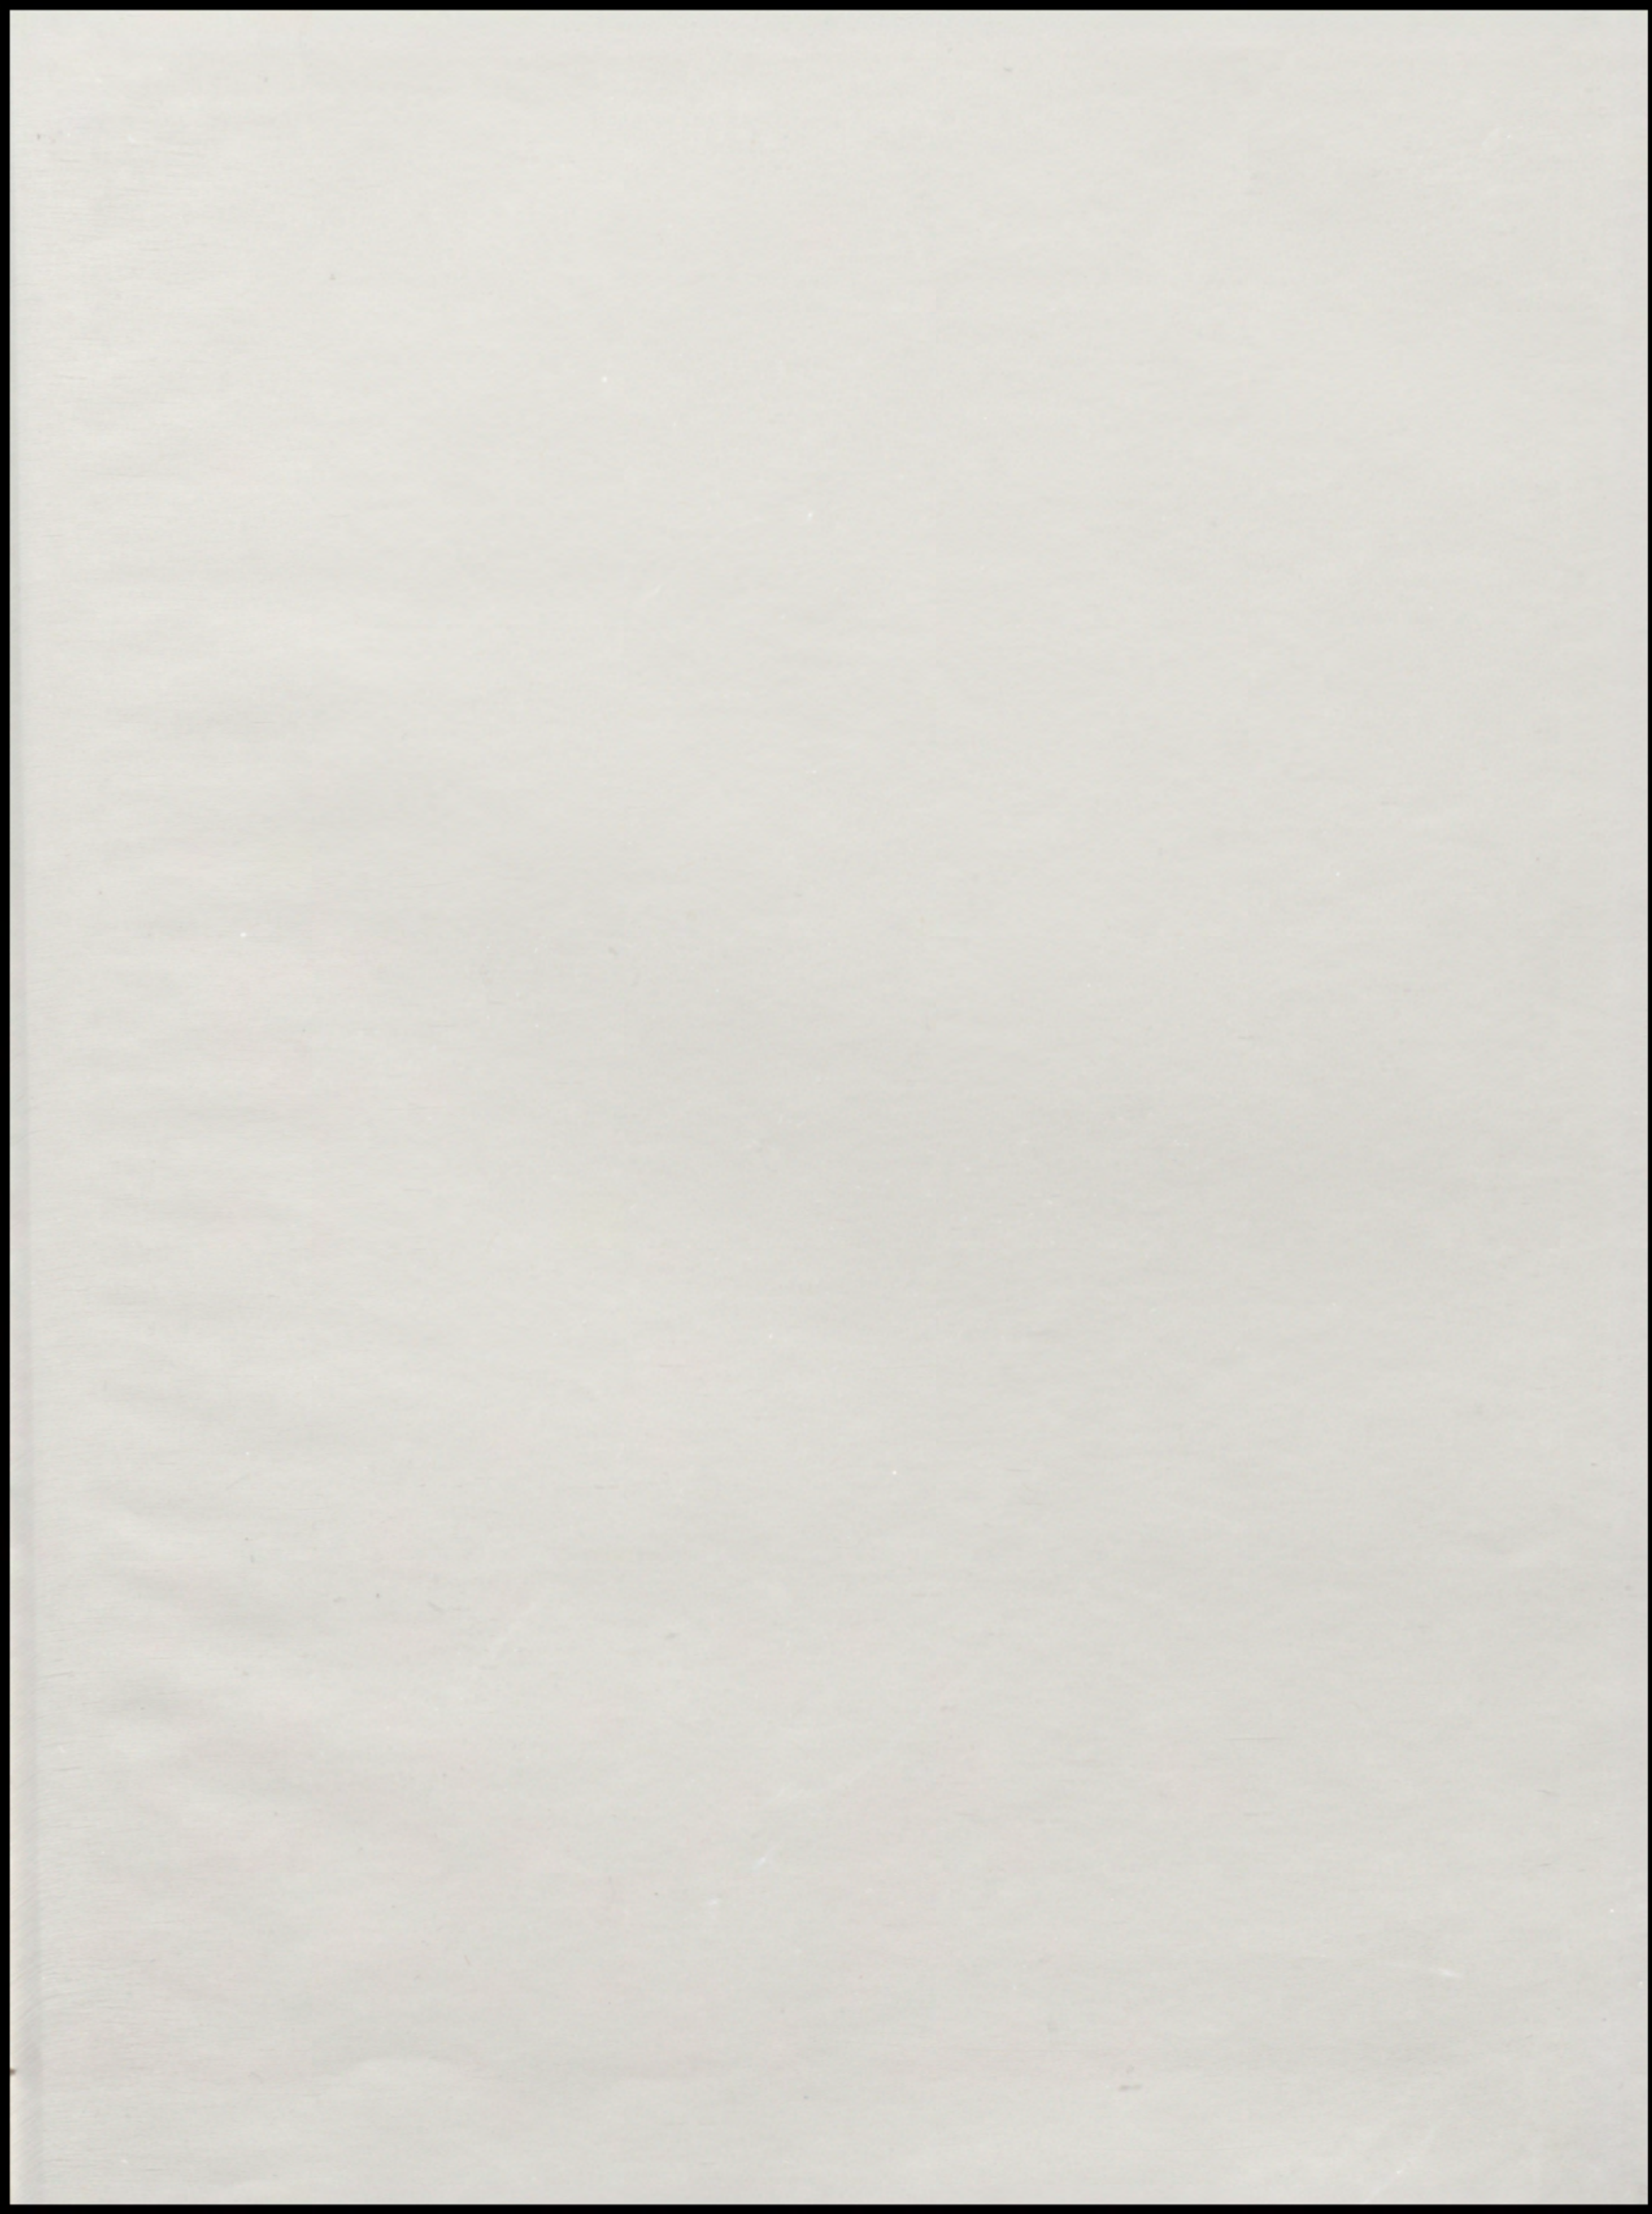

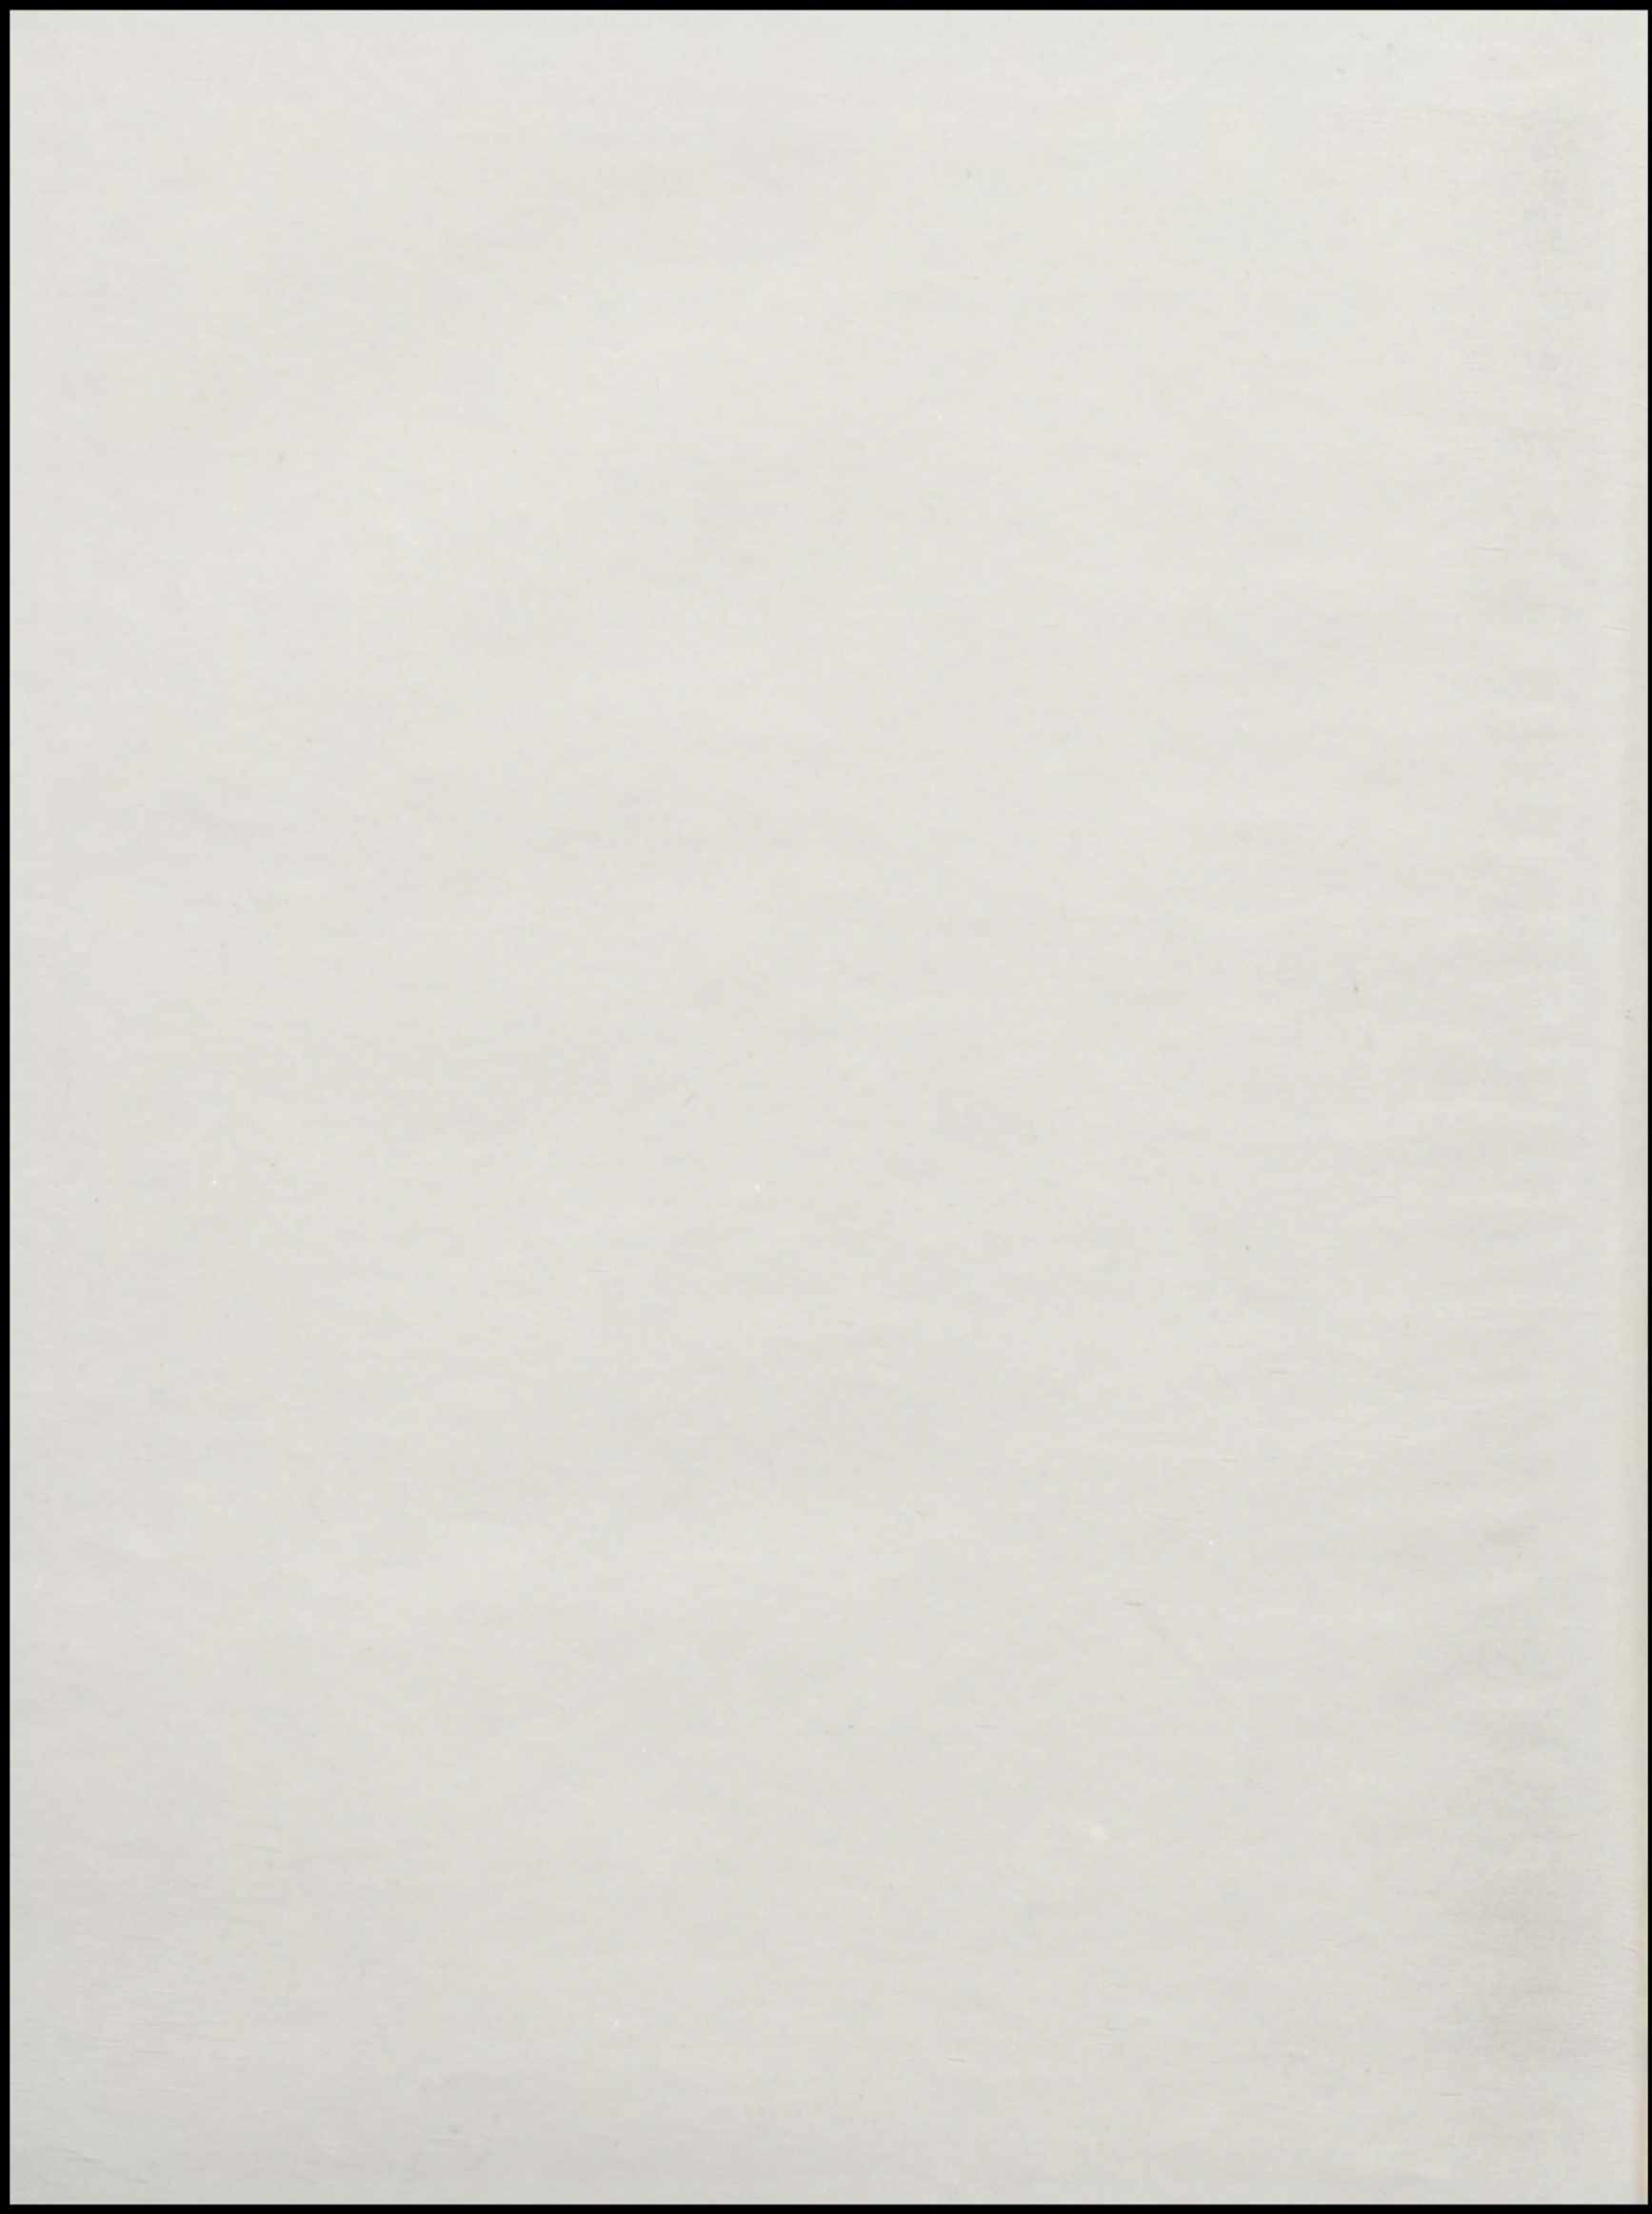

As the seniors walk across the field to accept their diplomas, shrieks of joy and pride are heard coming from the stands. The ones cheering the loudest for them are their parents. For their unending love and support throughout our childhood, the 2001 senior yearbook staff dedicates the “All For One” Conch to the parents of the senior class.

Colophon

All For One, the Conch 2001, was produced by the Key West High School Yearbook Staff at 2100 Flagler Avenue, Key West, Florida. Ms. Dina Kinnune, advisor, headed production. The book is 9x12 with a press run of 800 copies, 368 pages of 80 lb matte paper. The Conch 2001 was published by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas, represented by Ken Thornberry of Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The cover was designed by Angela Leggett and Shiri Kainan using 160-pt binder's board, a 4-color photo, black matte, silver foil lettering, and blind debossing. The endsheets are rainbow gray felt with Black 1. Fonts used throughout the book are Muse Script, Caslon Openface, Eric Italic, Athena Bold Italic, Athena Italic, Malibu, Malibu Bold Italic, Embassy Bold, Rinna Italic, Opus Bold Italic, Opus, and Copperplate Gothic Bold. The folio is the design of a hand pointing out.
