We Will Remember

The 2000 "Conch"
Key West High School
2100 Flagler Avenue
Key West, FL 33043
293-1549
Enrollment: 1364

When we were small our lives were relatively simple. Our major concerns were whether to drink red or blue Kool-Aid and if our mom had packed us our favorite peanut butter and jelly sandwich. The course of our day was determined by simplistic needs and our main goal was getting out to play.

In elementary school, responsibilities grew. We began to discover the special talents and interests that each of us possessed. Some of us followed an artistic lead, while others took an athletic one. Learning to read and write became the foundation for our future education.

In middle school, we began relationships that have lasted until the present. We began to discover who we are and what we want to be. The problems we confronted got harder and life's decisions became more complex.

In high school, our community expanded. We were confronted with dilemmas that could potentially impact the rest of our lives. Our small isolated world had changed. We left behind the comfort of childhood and our relative innocence to become independent adults.

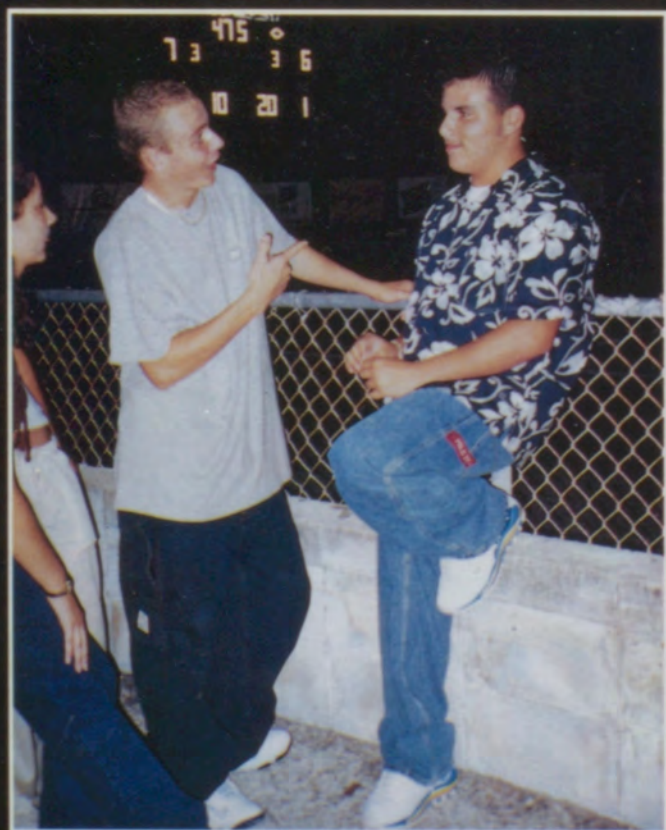

Understanding the past connects our present to our future. As we take yet another step towards the future, we are grateful for our experiences.

Twenty years from now, when we reexamine our lives, we will cherish our time at Key West High School. The time went quickly, but the memories will last forever.

We Will Remember.

Memorable Moments

The island of Key West is defined by its uniqueness and diversity, so it's no surprise that the lives of the students at Key West High School also possess those same qualities. Each individual participates in a different mix of clubs and sports, and each individual has different hobbies and ways of spending their time.

In school, students hang-out in different cliques, eat lunch in different places, make distinct fashion statements, and even express their school spirit in unique ways. Out of school, some students party all weekend long, some take to the ocean to relax and unwind, and others just like to spend time with their family and friends.

But no matter how different the students of Key West High may be, we all blend together to paint a colorful picture of Conch pride and spirit.

RIDING T

Seniors Ian Rowan, Lacy Pischke, and Peter Mychalcewycz pose for an underwater snapshot.

These students experience the waters of Key West through being a part of the Sailing Club.

Hydrosliding is a popular hobby in Key West. Junior Ashley Spoto shows us how much she enjoys it.

DE WAYS

Surf's up! Aaron Snell, a Senior, shows us how well he can ride the waves.

On hot days, these Junior girls know they can always cool off and have a great time at Snipes.

Anybody hungry? These expert fishermen, Nick Bentley, Greg Oropeza, and Stevie Ganister proudly show off their catch after a hard day of fishing.

Millennium Fads

Alison Greene, Shanel Pazo, and Josh Yarbrough look trendy dressed in orange.

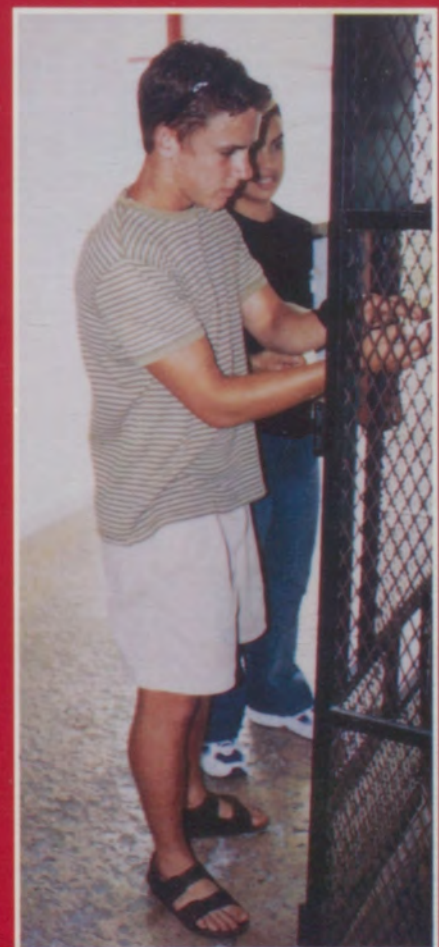

Liana Deutsch stands out in the crowd by covering her backpack with wild tiger material.

Baseball hats, T-shirts, and khakis are always in style. Seniors Ben Harrison, Billy Spottswood, Daniel Hersey, and Lucas Bacle are happy to model for us.

Scarlet Moore looks stylish in blue and black.

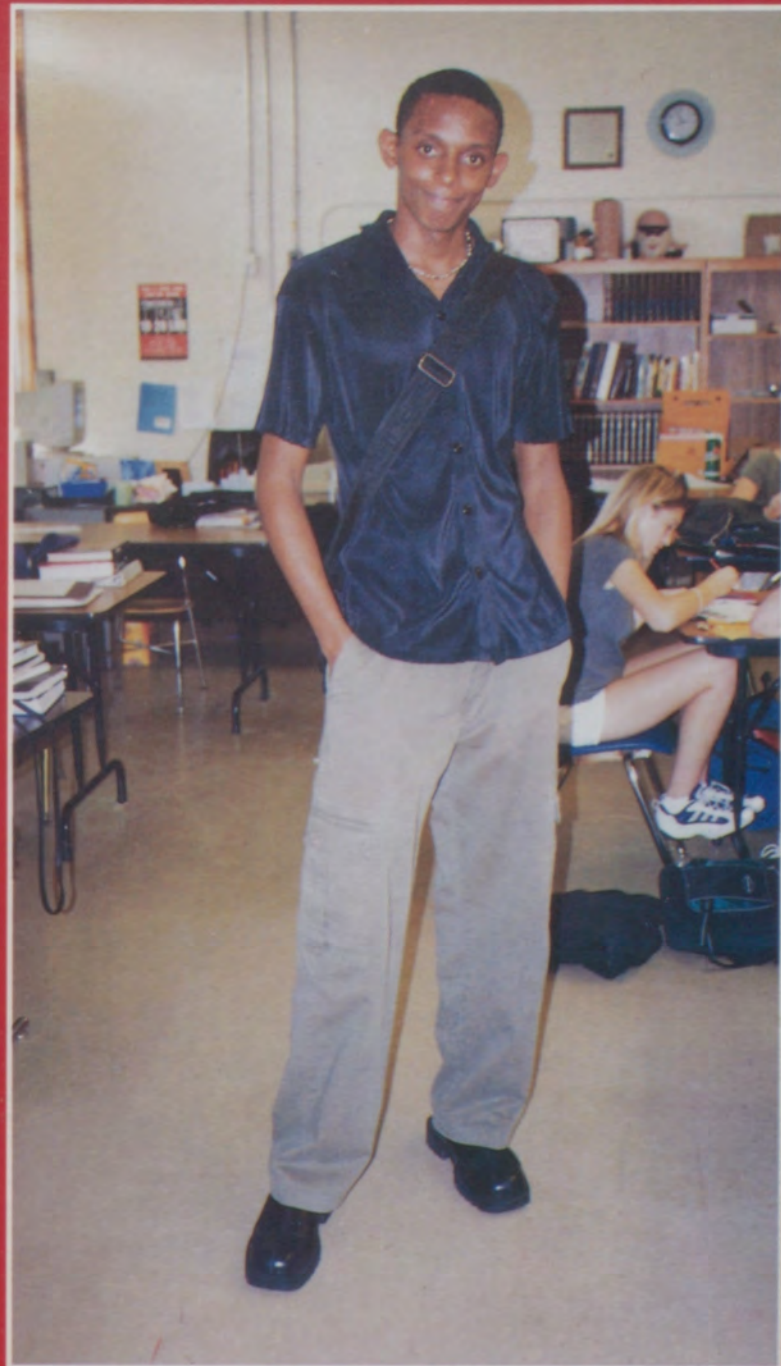

Peter Mychalcewycz sports sandals and sunglasses.

Senior Jennifer Everett makes her fashion statement by creating a cool hair-do with butterfly clips.

Junior, Christina Lolos wears a matching bandana to complete her outfit.

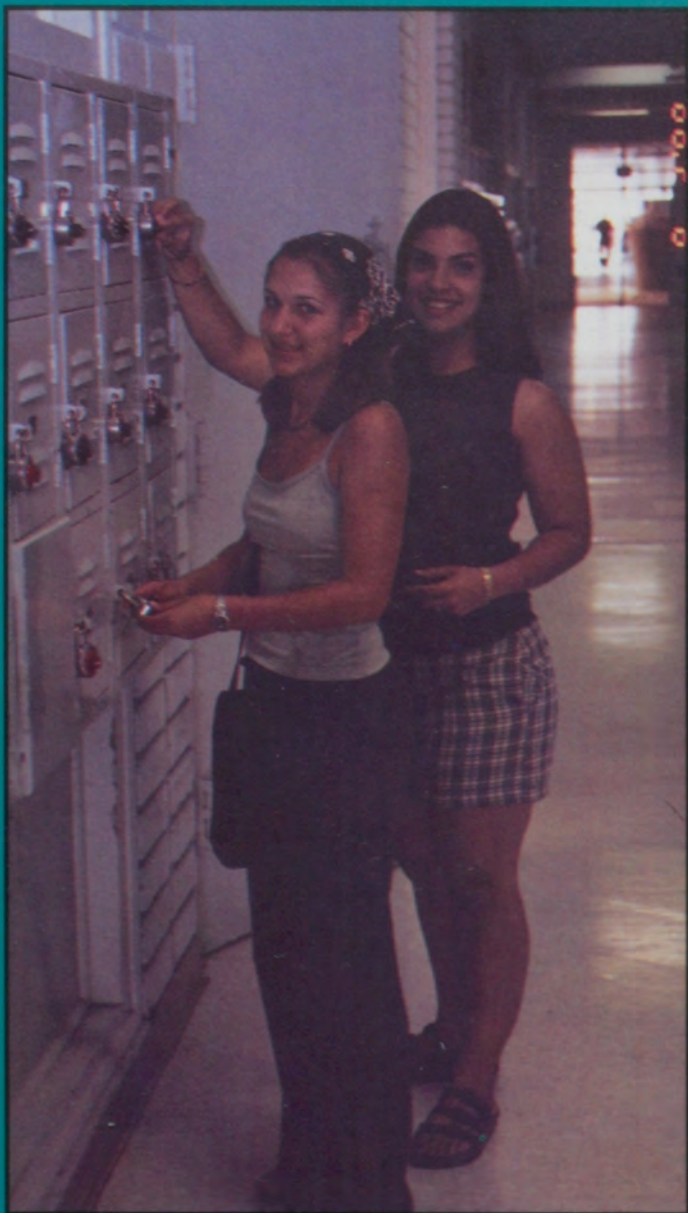

It's not hard to see why Isaac Ashe was nominated as "Best Dressed" Senior.

A perfect mix of style! These boys look like they came right out of a magazine ad!

Amelia Hinchcliffe, Ashley Spoto, and Christina Walterson "Hear no evil, Speak no evil, and See no evil."

Friends Life

These Three Amigos are having a chat before class.

Becky Gonzalez, Adam Reich, and Marsha Ward, all Seniors, take a break to socialize with each other.

These friends sure look like they are enjoying themselves at this home football game.

For A Time

Sophomores Katie Tsaganis and Jessica Pazo spend time together between classes.

Before school, these friends meet to talk and socialize.

Conch Pride

Juniors Christy Felix, Shannon Leathers, Jessica Sotis, and Ashley Roberts show spirit for their junior class.

Not even rain can stop these JV cheerleaders from showing true dedication to the Conchs.

Allison Greene and Sandra Perez walk down the hallway full of pride for the class of 2000!

Never Dies

Lunch...

These Juniors use their lunchtime to catch up on some studying.

Whether it's first lunch or second lunch, the best part is always the time spent with friends.

Lynn McNeill seems to be very happy that it's time to eat!

Students look forward to lunch everyday as a time to catch up and have fun.

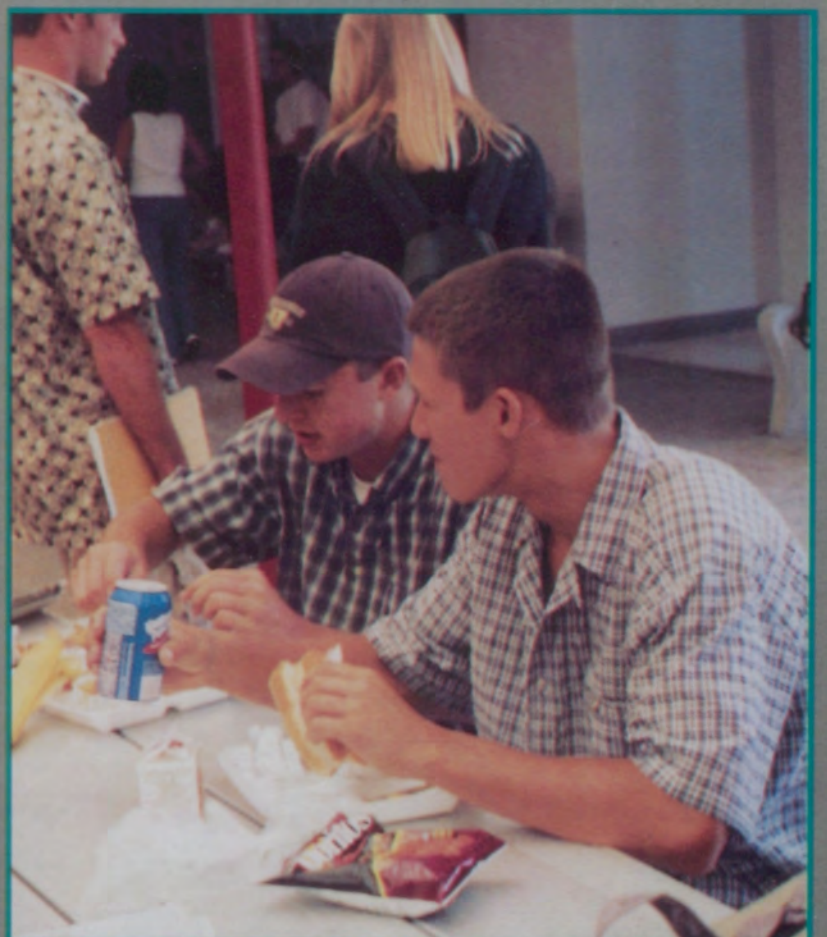

14 Student Life the millenium doesn't

These friends are full of smiles while they socialize and eat their lunches.

Phil Kirouac and Sean Reyngoudt eat their food and talk on the patio.

change everything!

Homecoming

The Juniors earned second place for their float. They recreated the popular 50's outdoor movie theater The Islander. You can easily see the time and effort that was put into this float.

"The class of 2003 Sea Beneath the Stars" and earn third place for it. It was a great debut for the Freshmen class and there will surely be more great floats for them in the future.

Parade

SENIORS!!! The class of 2000, once again, proved themselves to be number one, by creating an out-of-this-world float equipped with a rocket, flying saucer, and dancing aliens. Being the first class ever to win as Freshmen, and continuing to receive first place 3 out of their 4 years, this class will go down in KVHS history, as being expert float makers. "All hail class of 2000!"

The Sophomore class greatly improved this year with their version of "Beneath the Stars." They did a fabulous job of presenting their float with all the movie stars that Hollywood has to offer. Good Luck class of 2002!

The Junior class of 2001 gets pumped up right before the big parade.

Freshmen Megan Jones and Britney Hardin are proud to be a part of the class of 2003!

The class of 2002 takes a break after working diligently on their Hollywood float.

Desi Amez, better known as Alex Vega, practices playing the bongos before the big performance.

The Freshmen created their very own B.O.'s Fish Wagon to conceal their stereo system. Very clever guys!

Behind

Hot dog Mark Boyer gets into character before performing for the judges.

Take me to your leader! Dara Arnold is one spirited alien!

The Seniors are nothing but smiles as they celebrate another first place victory!

The Sophomore class is anxious and full of excitement at the Spirit Night pep rally held annually at Tommy Roberts Memorial Stadium.

the Scenes

Beneath

David Cottar and Phillip Medina take a break from dancing to pose for the camera.

Seniors Natalie McIntyre and Kristin Story show off their beautiful smiles.

Andrea, Shiri, and Sam look like they're having a blast!

Seniors Nick Lehmann and Justin Cline are some hot studs in their tuxes.

the Stars

These three "cuties" group together to smile for the camera. Lookin' good guys!

Kim McCrory and Samantha Reynolds get ready before a night full of fun!

Christina Walterson, Alison Pelletier, and Marina Burton take a quick break from dancing.

Karla, Brook, and Ingrid share a group hug.

Larazia Brown with her escort Alvin Scott.

Natalie McIntyre with her escort Ben Wells.

Homecoming Court 1999

The 1999 Homecoming Court stands proudly with their escorts. The Homecoming game was played on Tuesday, October 19th, after being postponed due to Hurricane Irene. The Conchs played the Forest Hill Falcons and won 27-8!

Key West gets

This wild bunch take time out from a busy night of bead collecting to smile for the camera.

Ahhhhh! This student likes to celebrate Fantasy Fest early.

Heaven must be on strike, because all the angels are right here. . . and ready to have one wild time at Fantasy Fest.

Warped in Time!

Nick Meyer, Shiri Kainan, and Caitlin Stepan share a group hug in the crowd on Duval Street.

These Freshmen look so cute while they pose before heading out for Fantasy Fest.

Samantha Reynolds, Kim McCrory, and Lindsey Benvenuto get glittered up for the parade.

Sophomores Christine Pierce and Erica Ernst can't wait to get warped in time!

Senior Maria Bellido makes a cool combo with a leather jacket and a lei for Hawaiian Day.

Spirit

These seniors look like they're ready to hop in bed and go to sleep.

What school spirit! The camera spots Blake Freer and Tiffini Miller chatting in the hall, while sporting their togas.

Hey, where's the T-birds? For twin day, Erica Delgado, Amber Ernst, and Ashley Estenoz dressed like Pink Ladies.

Week

Oh look- it's twin day! Or maybe it's quintuplet day? These girls are having a splendid time posing for a photo.

These friends come together for a group hug in their PJs.

How cute! Seniors Thomika Taylor and Alexis Rameriz are best friends forever!

Don't mess up! Natallie Araujo signs Dara Arnold's toga. Signing togas is a tradition that Seniors have done for years.

Watch out- it's double trouble! Ashley Payne and Marialys Rodriguez dress the same to show their spirit.

How cute! After watching a beautiful sunset, these friends share a group hug.

Louis Paez and Michaela Gonzalez like to spend their weekends out on the boat.

Senior Blake Freer and Junior Vince Leone are ready for a night full of fun!

Erica Gonzalez and Julie Hennigan like to hang out together on the weekends.

These Seniors like to lay out at the beach all weekend long.

Watch out! These senior girls know that weekends mean that it's time to party.

It's Time

Andrea Alvarez and Andrea Gallardo spend their weekends supporting the Conchs.

Yahaira Serrano and Tal Yardeni meet at a friend's house over the weekend.

This beautiful group of girls are dressed up and ready to dance all night long.

Jenny Sterling, Andrea Leto, Erica Diaz, and Audra Gootee enjoy a night out on the night.

Katie Ryan, Amber Rivas, Stephanie Thompson, and Mary Meyer show off their bright smiles.

To Party!

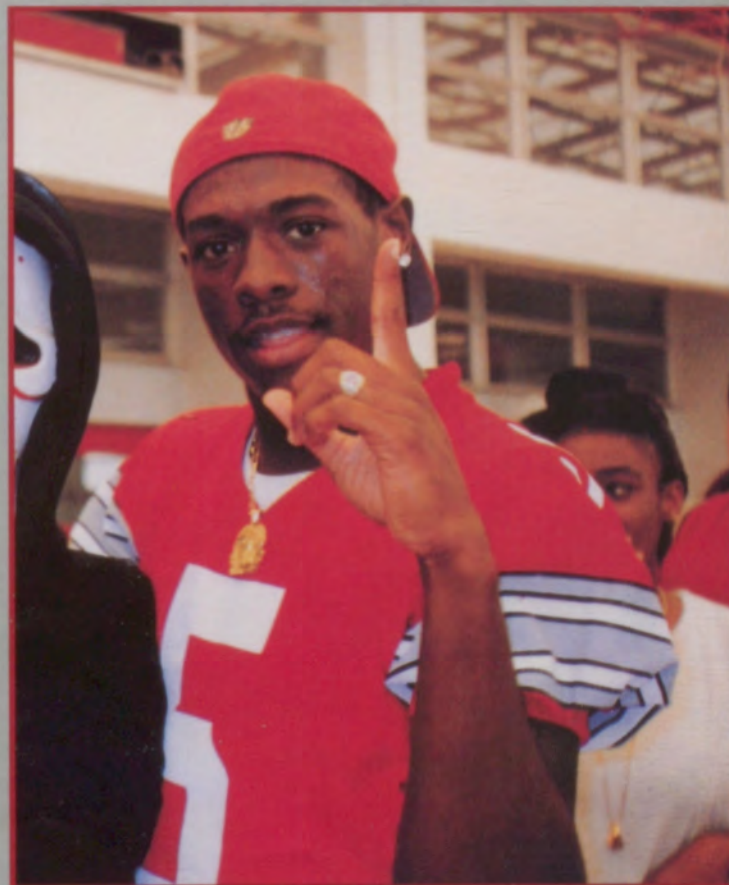

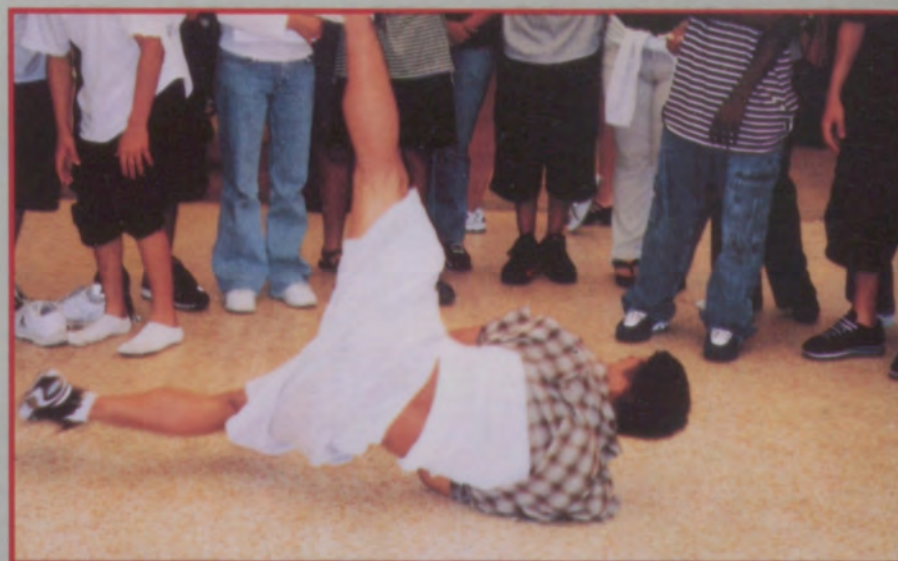

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders pump it up on the patio.

These Varsity cheerleaders work hard to boost school spirit throughout the student body.

Everyone watches as Robert Llompert break dances at the pep rally.

Pep Rallies!

Larazia Brown, Malcolm Munnings, Lily Cohen, and Alvin Scott enjoy the excitement of the pep rally.

Mmmm! Freshman Jaime Laino eats some yummy ice cream at the pep rally.

On with the crimson! On with the gray! Listen to us while we say. . . The band is always there to entertain and support the Conchs.

Unforgettable Faces

We will always remember our years at KWHS. Our good times will be treasured. Our bad times, well, they'll be in our minds too. But, more important there are people that made it all possible. There are our friends, we've laughed and cried with. We have our acquaintances we always say "hi" to in the halls. Then, there was that person you always had a crush on, but never had the guts to ask them out. There are also the people you never met. All these people help to shape our lives and we'll never forget their faces because they're here on the following pages. You might recognize the names or recognize the faces. Here are the people we learned to love, hate, or just tolerate.

I am going to take you back, back in the days when we all were in Kindergarten playing on the playground at recess. Remember that. Back then we never thought, we never hoped or dreamed of being a Senior. We probably never even knew it existed. Then our biggest decision was what color Kool-Aid we wanted. Now we have to choose a college or career. Our class, the class of 2000, has been through a lot. We have been through canceled bon fires to hurricanes. We have all grown up together to become who we are now. Now we are ready to embark on the journey of the rest of our lives. And, through everything, we will always have the memories KWHHS has given us. We may not remember every experience, but I know we won't forget where we came from. We'll never forget the crimson and grey.

As the class of 2001, the graduates of the new millenium, we will remember all of the events and struggles that have led us to this point. Over the years we've had to overcome many obstacles to reach our destination. Amber Walser states that, "Ten years from now, no one will remember the classes you took or care about the grades you received. People will remember the good times they had with you." Now that we are almost to the end, remember to make the most of everything because memories will be all we have left.

We will remember when we were lowly Freshmen, rushing to find our classes. We survived that year and became Sophomores, more familiar with the routines. Now, we are Juniors, in a position we have strived for since the beginning.

Congratulations Sophomores! Isn't it great to look down on someone? Well, as you can see in the picture above, the Sophomores are an animated bunch. They have everything and then some to make a great graduating class. With a mix of talent, ambition, wit, and a little craziness this class is definitely going to go down in Conch history. Being a Sophomore, you have blossomed and gotten a little wiser. Other pluses will be gained as you use your rank to help those less fortunate. Those Freshmen are always in need of advice, directions, and all around withitness training so they can survive the high school experience as well as you have.. Take pride in where you are and know that the only way is up. Be sure to remember where you came from. Don't let your rising status take away from your winning personalities.

Lessons to Remember

School may be full of clubs and sports, but academics brings it all together. Classes of various subjects may teach different concepts, but they all work together to prepare students for everyday situations. English teachers better communication skills, while mathematics teaches better problem solving skills. Students will learn about their surroundings in science. They will learn about their beliefs and cultures in social studies.

Aside from the four basic "core classes", students also take electives, humanities, and vocation classes. these classes help students learn how to be fit, be creative, be social, and be aware of job skills. The administration and staff help students learn how to be disciplined and organized. Students will learn many lessons during high school that they will remember long after these years are over.

Administration & Staff

The static of walkie-talkies reminds the students of the security guards roaming and monitoring the halls. "I constantly remind students to comply with the rules," says security guard Stephen Pla. The security guards work together year-round to keep students in line and to protect their safety. The guidance department is also an important part of the school staff. They work hard to make sure students have all the credits for graduation, and they console them in times of need. The principal and the assistant principals also play a big role in the student's lives. Every decision that they make is for the school's benefit. "I like to help the students in a positive way- I hope," says Mr. Welsh, "I also like to tease them." Mr. Welsh shows that the staff also has a sense of humor. The administration and staff is provided to help the school in every way possible.

English

How does the school feel about English class? "English is my favorite, and my strongest subject. I consider it as the poetry of my life. What can I say, it's a challenge that I intend to take," says sophomore Jessica Pazo. English is a challenging, never-ending learning process because it is constantly changing. By taking English classes, students can keep up with grammar, spelling, and writing skills. Tarrin Brown says, "Each year in English gets harder and tougher, but with good learning skills, it will take me into a higher level." The English teachers do their best to challenge and prepare students for college. Even though they may have different teaching styles, the teachers try to help students learn in fun ways. Miss Oman says, "I want to have a positive effect on my students' lives, hopefully, even if it is at least one of my students. The students would have fun in my class while they learn things that they would carry them through college and the rest of their lives."

These Juniors seem to be having a happy time in their English III class.

Another exciting period in Mrs. Stevens English class: a time to nap for one student.

Mrs. Sommers is giving a lecture to her reading class.

Mathematics

Most students dread going to Math class. They think Mathematics is only useless information. According to Ms. Nystrom, "You will need Math in every facet of your life."

Other teachers agree that Math is a beneficial subject. "I think Math develops logical thinking which allows a person an orderly fashion to deal with the problems that arise in life," says Coach James.

Students should have a good outlook on Math since it is used in everyday life. Mrs. Jones says, "I hope that all my students will realize that Math is so much more than just the study of numbers and letters. It is the study of all patterns in life and can unlock the secrets of the universe. Math is power!"

Mrs. Henderson assists a confused student in her Math class.

Sara Meyer is having a lot of fun while she finishes up on her Calculus homework.

Science

There are so many different kinds of Science classes: Environmental Science, Chemistry, Biology, Physics; the list goes on. All Science classes share one thing; they are all fun! They use hands-on learning to teach students about the environment and everyday laws. "Hopefully they (students) will learn about nature and learn to respect it. Also, they will learn how to make better decisions as an adult," says Mrs. Smith about her Science class. Science class teaches the students of the keys about the common environment of mangroves, beaches, and salt ponds. It also teaches students by giving them experiments that demonstrate theories and laws. Watching things combust and creating strong toothpick bridges are only a few projects that are done in Science class. Physics teacher Mr. Mathy says, "I think my class makes students better thinkers." Students learn a lot of valuable information from far-from-boring Science class.

Mr. Mathy uses anything he can get his hands on to motivate and teach his classes about the laws of Physics.

Social Studies

History... Some students think of it as a free nap period. Though it may seem boring and useless, History is something to take interest in. "History is about the flow of events. Some things happen by chance, but many more occur as a result of previous happenings," says Mr. Scott Paul. Not all students understand history, but Eli Gutman says, "I like learning how our past affects us today." If history makes no sense to you, think about it for a second. Don't you want to know how life got to be as good as it is today?

Electives

Electives is not all about having fun, it is also about learning how to be a responsible person. The Electives section includes Personal Fitness/ Life Management Skills, Leadership, Student Aide, and Special Educational classes. Each course helps students retain important everyday skills. Personal Fitness/ Life Management Skills teaches students about their own body, their own health, and how to stay physically fit. Leadership gives students the ability to be more independent, more outgoing, and more social. As a Student Aide, students learn valuable organization and management skills. And Special Educational classes provide students with special needs the ability to become more independent. No matter which Electives course students wish to enroll, they will ultimately learn how to be an independent and responsible student during and after high school.

Humanities

Humanities classes are always a favorite for many students. These courses familiarize students about various cultures, and how these cultures may affect the future. Students also gain self-confidence and organizational skills from these classes. The Humanities classes that are offered include Spanish, French, Art, Photography, Chorus, and Band. All of the Humanities "subjects" offer students the opportunity to learn about their own culture. They also offer students the opportunity to learn and be familiar with different cultures and ways of life. From Humanities courses, students are given a chance to find and express their hidden talents; they also learn how to utilize these talents in the "real world." Students taking Humanities courses are sure to have fun learning about the "Arts."

Vocational

There are a wide variety of Vocational classes. These helpful classes interest any high school student. "They give you a chance to retain knowledge for things you may need to know in the real world," says Junior Brandy Wilkins. Whether it is Cosmetics, Health Careers, or Woodshop, Vocational classes teach students about today's career choices. "These classes provide students with a trade which will hopefully push them towards the work force. The on-the-job training provided in these classes will prepare students for any work place," says Mrs. Gootee. These classes broaden perspectives and give hands on expetience to prepare students for their future career paths.

Remember the Committment

For many, participating in clubs includes the "Tuesday night ritual" of hanging around J-wing auditorium for a few hours, learning of new opportunities for community service. Drove of students arrive and interact with their teachers and fellow classmates in a different way than that of school. Through their experiences they learn about one another. They discover who was born to lead, and who only paid their dues to be in the yearbook. Those who show dedication inspire it in others.

These events occur not only in the traditional clubs of KWHS, such as Student Council and Interact, but in the newer ones as well. The high school provides an organization for every interest and purpose. There are academic honor societies, service clubs, and performing arts clubs. All these provide Key West High School students with the opportunity to give back to the community.

Tiffini Miller and Lacy Pischke organize the ornaments to put on the tree. Even during a party, Student Council remains organized.

Chimere Jones guards the pizza. Looks like we're going to have to be extra nice to get a slice!

Jessica Oakes loves her candy cane. Go ahead and eat it, Jessica!

What a great example of how Student Council brings people together! Looks like they've become a circle of friends.

Tal Yardini and Yahaira Serrano smile and say "Merry Christmas"! These girls are raging with the holiday spirit.

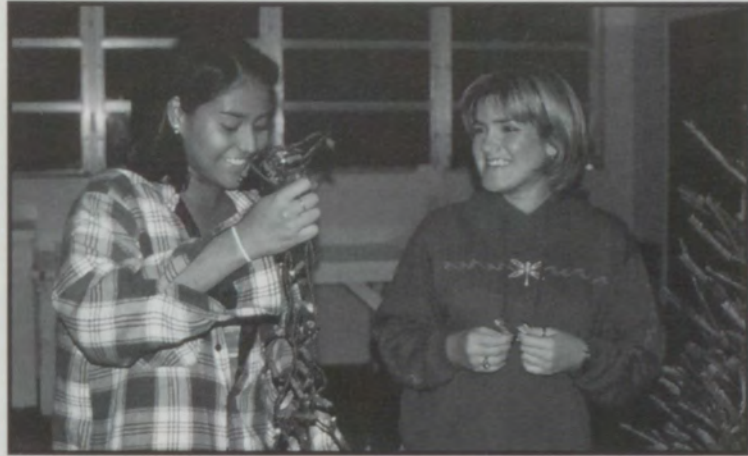

While focusing on each branch, Dara Arnold carefully sets lights on the Christmas tree.

Student Council

By the People, For the People

Student Council represents the student body as a whole. Making important decisions that benefit the student body is important to them. For example, they went to the school board to petition for the exemption of final exams. With president Ashley Estenoz, vice-president Lacy Pischke, secretary Rebecca Tarantino, and treasurer Sarah Revelin, they have made the 1999-2000 school year an eventful one. From fundraising around the community to organizing an unforgettable Homecoming Dance, Student Council has flourished, making it fun for everyone.

As Ashley Estenoz and Beverly Perez prepare to hang lights on the tree, they socialize.

This happy group of seniors tell everyone that they are number one, again! Looks like they'll be celebrating for a long time.

Most school spirited Dara Arnold spends her nights working on the senior float. That's dedication!

Senior Executive Board

The Alpha and the Omega

Leading our students is the prime goal of the Senior Executive Board, members of the class of 2000. There are many activities that these members participate in including Children's Day, Junior/Senior Field Day, coffin week, and creating floats. The Senior Executive Board also have fundraisers for senior events. In their final year, they are keeping the school's traditions fun. Also, there are meetings, the homecoming float parade, and various activities which keep this club involved in school. The Senior Executive Board looks toward promoting conch pride.

Junior Executive Board

Third Time's the Charm

The Junior Executive Board had a good start this year. They surprised everyone by coming in second place in the Homecoming Parade. Their success in fundraising helped them throughout the year. The money they earned aided them in putting on the Junior/Senior Luau and the Junior/Senior Field Day that helped liven up the year. With dedicated officers president Lisa Jones, vice-president Lauren Gonzalez, secretary/treasurer Marina Burton, and their dependable sponsor Mr. Clifford, the Junior Executive Board soared to new heights to get ready for their senior year.

The Junior float looked alive with nostalgia from the fifties. I think these guys want to bring back the idea of the drive-in.

Sophomore Executive Board

Looking To the Future

The Sophomore Executive Board has planned many community events for this year. These include fundraisers and get-togethers. However, their most important event is designing and building a float for the Homecoming Parade. They put all their heart and soul into their float for the parade. Despite, their tremendous effort, the sophomores only came in third place. Their officers Michaela Gonzalez, president; Shiri Kainan, vice-president; Christine Pierce, secretary; and Michelle Swartzel, treasurer lead this group into a very beneficial year.

Freshmen Executive Board

A Fresh New Start

The Freshmen Executive Board consists of committed freshmen who provide services for different community activities. These kids dedicated their time to activities such as carwashes and Midnight Madness. But this club is not all hard work, they also have some fun. The freshmen built a great float, which came in third place in the Homecoming Parade. For their float, they had an ocean theme. This year's Freshmen Executive Board sponsor was Mrs. Parker. Interact

Committed to the Community

Interact is a club based solely on community service. This year one of Interact's activities and Children's Day. They also bought presents for Big Brothers/ Big Sisters and helped run the blood drive. Interact is proudly the largest club in Key West High School. People enjoy being in Interact because it makes them feel good that they are participating in helping the community as well as creating new and lasting friendships with fellow members and officers Martin Greene, president; Phillip Kirouac, vice-president; JP Robless, secretary; and Amber Ernst; treasurer.

MU Z-Club THELA

Zealous Zontans

Among the many of Key West High School's community service organizations lies a Z-Club, a division of the Zonta Club. Consisting of about 50 members, Z-Club was involved in many community service activities. One of those activities was Children's Day. Every couple of weeks, Z-Club also volunteered to work at the animal shelter, bathing and cleaning the animals. This year's Z-Club officers were Kristen Scott, president; Tony Gil, vice-president; Tal Yardini, treasurer; David Digou, recording secretary; and Christina Lolos, corresponding secretary.

HOPE

Hope for Humanity

The students that are involved in HOPE are students that have a great interest in the environment. The people in HOPE do not mind getting messy for Mother Nature. They do what they can each year to keep the Keys clean, and they have a lot of fun doing it. The president, Kim McCrory, along with the vice-president, Karen O'Brien, secretary, Phillip Kirouac, and the treasurer, Chloe Mailer, plan to help other people protect the environment through all of their years at Key West High School. In addition to keeping the earth clean, they also worked at Children's Day.

Kimberly McCrory, Samantha Hart, and Joyce Ho use their fine food preparation skills to raise money for HOPE at Children's Day.

Mu Alpha Theta

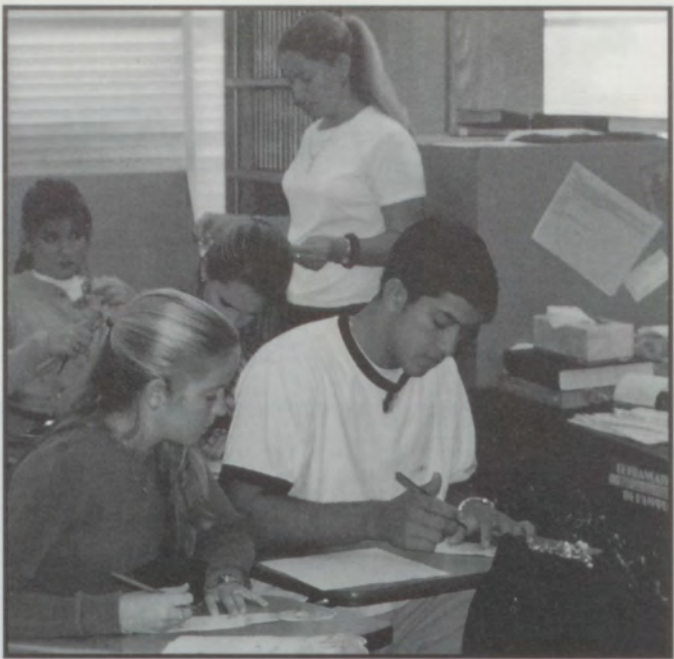

The Equation For Success

If you know the simplest equation, you might be eligible to join Mu Alpha Theta. This academic math club participated in six tests each year. The sponsors, Mrs. Nystrom and Mr. Flatt, helped give pointers and encouragement to each student. The members of Mu Alpha Theta are required to have taken at least Algebra 2 and have received no grade lower than a "B" in any previous math course. Working closely with Basia Bujak, president; Jessica Jones, vice-president; Gosia Bujak, treasurer; and Sarah Revelin, secretary, Mrs. Nystrom and Mr. Flatt managed to uphold a year of success. Hard work and dedication pays in the end.

Truly an Honor

Yahaira Serrano is president of National Honor Society, or NHS, this year and has a definite pride in her position. "NHS is an extremely prestigious organization, where you must have a good academic record and be dedicated to providing the community with time and service," Yahaira said. Ryan Condella and Lisa Jones agree that NHS "makes you very proud and is an advantage when colleges look at you." NHS is a hard-working group that participates in St. Mary's soup kitchen and the Angel Tree project every year. Thanks for all the help in the community. Keep it up!

Beta

Mindful of the Community

Like many of KWHS' clubs, Beta is a community service club. However, it also has the distinction of being an honor socceity. In order to be in Beta, you must have a minimum of a 3.0 G.P.A. You must have the desire to serve your community. "I like Beta a lot because you get to interact with the community hands on in an informative and enlightening way. It's really inspiring," says Jesse Webster. Beta gives you a college advantage, one for the community service hours that most colleges require, and it also shows your determination and willingness to put effort in community oriented projects.

Yearbook

The Way We Were

The yearbook is a club that is all about capturing the traditions and the memories of the school year. It is also about many deadlines, picking out pictures, and typing in captions. Along with pictures, there are spreads that have to be edited and corrected. The most important part is to see our final result and that the students made it possible. Also, it is a great feeling to know that they have captured the memories of the school year and put them together for the yearbook. The yearbook sponsor is the talented and lovely Ms. Dina Kinnune.

Alex Anderson and Josh Batten work on their personal works of art, some might call them oil paintings. It's for the Art Club at one of their meetings after school.

Josh Benny gives a fellow Art Club member a suggestion to make his sketch better. Maybe he will be our very own famous art critic one day!

Aurora Stevens is determined to get that clay the way she wants it. That must take lots of work, but it's bound to look good when it's done! Everything Art Club does looks great!

Art Club

Making Life More Colorful!

Our Art Club is a group of young, aspiring artists. Mr. Henderson has a very full year of fun artistic projects planned for them. They will be doing everything from a haunted house at Childrens Day to school enhancement by painting doors. They will be using the money that they raised to fund their artistic endeavors for this year. Last year the Art Club began the tradition of giving a small scholarship to a graduating student who is planning to major in Art, and they hope to continue urging the budding Van Goghs to go on and further their education. Key West High is lucky to have an art club because most schools are limited to only certain basic activities and sports.

The members of Art Club are just hanging' around! Portraits like this are priceless!

Christina Lolos and Lauren Gonzalez smile pretty for the camera. They look like they are ready for the silver screen.

These budding actors study hard in preparation for Bye Bye Birdie. It takes long hours and determination to produce a good show.

Teegan Swindle and Sarah Bender look like their up to something. They are practicing "Telephone Hour" for their upcoming play Bye Bye Birdie.

Lona Hall, Katherine Spalding, and Jaime Laino look very anxious as they hang out in the dressing room. Don't worry, girls! You'll do just fine.

David Digou and Jamie Laino get ready to perform. David doesn't look excited about wearing make-up.

Looks like the wall of the dressing room is the perfect place for a rest as Sarah Simmons prepares before O ur Town.

Productions

Bit By the Acting Bug

Lights, camera, action! Mr. Bonnet and company put a lot of hard work into their productions. They started off the year with Our Town. This play was the more serious of the two. Our Town gave students the chance to show and exercise their acting abilities to the fullest. A few months later, the students put on the spectacular musical Bye Bye Birdie. The spring musical has become a tradition at Key West High School since 1996, when the students put on Grease. Hopefully, our local thespians will continue to sing and dance their way into our hearts.

Samantha Hart, Ericka Gonzalez, Julie Hennigan, and Michaela Gonzalez help each other prepare for their performance.

Mr. Bonnet directs the teen choir in Bye Bye Birdie, a sure hit!

"What else could we be doing with our time early this morning?" these drowsy students seem to say. Maybe eating breakfast!

Michaela Gonzalez is practicing charming the audience. Julie Hennigan does not look impressed.

Jill Cranney looks like she needs something. Where are you going, Jill? Oliwia was talking!

Amber Mulcahy and Kyriaki Tsaganis look really excited before they perform. It's good to be sure of yourself.

James Bunch beckons the crowd to play the toilet seat game. Hope things don't get too messy, James!

Katherine Spaulding rehearses with a friend for opening night. Practice makes perfect!

Christina Lolos with a smirk. What's that for, Christina? Tired of wearing that costume?

Mr. Bonnet takes a minute to smile for the camera, but hard-working Ericka Gonzalez continues to scope out potential customers.

Drama Club

All the World's a Stage

Within all of us, there is something that longs for stardom. Some of us shine in the classroom or on the athletic field. Others desire to do it on stage. For those such people, there is a Drama Club. The Drama Club puts on the school involved productions. This year they put together "Our Town" and the musical "Bye Bye Birdie". The members of Drama Club do not just act in the plays. They also work behind the scenes putting together sets and controlling the lights. Also, the members of the Drama Club usher during the performances and work at the concession stand.

Children's Day was more work than fun by the way these guys look. Well, smile, it's for a good cause.

The VIPs sing "A Bug's Life" with their bug-eyed glasses. They can probably see all the way to Kansas.

Tal Yardini and Lauren Gonzalez sparkle like stars as they dance across stage. Of course, we always knew they were stars.

Everybody loves the "jumpy thing", so it was a good way for the VIPs and the Mistys to gain support at Children's Day.

The VIPs finish their song and look happy to do so. Try not to lose your balance!

I bet it was hot out there as the VIPs performed the national anthem for the new mayor.

Junior Danielle Parker sings a solo at the first choir concert of the year.

Mistys and VIPs

Vivacious Vocalists

The Mistys and the VIPs are subgroups of the Concert Choir. They perform at all of the concerts held throughout the year. In addition to this, they make appearances at events around the community. This year, for example, they performed at Children's Day and for the new mayor, Jimmy Weekley. The Mistys and the VIPs are an elite organization. In order to be a member, you must go to an audittion that is graded a lot more closely than that of the Concert or Freshmen Choirs. But trying out is worth it because you become part of an organization of highly talented singers and gain friendships galore.

The girls are still, intently concentrating on their performance

Mr. Wilt shows us his "bluesy" side by singing and playing the piano.

These girls are getting ready to sing. From the smiles on their faces, you know they're going to give a killer performance.

The Concert Choir finished with a big bang. With such a great show, we could expect nothing less for the finale.

The girls started out with an unsuspected wardrobe. Junior Amber Mulcahy must be feeling cold.

Concert Choir

Sing a Song For Me!

Have you ever been to a choir concert? If so, then you probably know how good they are. Other than performing four major concerts a year, the choir also performs for Children's Day, the elementary and middle schools, and other organizations throughout the community. "I think all of the hard work and determination are what makes us a good choir," says David Digou, choir president. In the middle of all of their hard work, the choir took a trip to Orlando, where they performed and, of course, saw a few theme parks.

Guitarists Chet Barton and John-Paul Brennan really impress the audience with their duet.

Bonner Stave gives us a heartfelt performance that really had the girls swooning. I'm sure Bonner had no trouble getting a date after this concert.

The Freshmen Choir seem to be having as much fun singing and dancing as the audience does watching them.

Freshman Lena Robles is posing for her debut. I hope she realizes that it doesn't rain inside.

Tara Diaz and Francisco Gutierrez are almost mesmerizing on stage. At least, our cameraman thought so.

Francisco Gutierrez really puts all his heart into this song. Being able to show emotion is a sign of talent.

By the looks of it, these boys are enjoying their first year in choir. Maybe one day we will hear them on the radio.

Freshmen Choir

Fresh Voices

If you want to sing at the high school, you have to start somewhere, and that place is the Freshmen Choir. The Freshman Choir has a boys group and a girls group. These two groups performed at all of the major concerts. They also worked at Children's Day, car washes, and other activities that help the community. Both groups consist of about 30 people. Being in Freshmen Choir is a great opportunity to gain good stage presense and become comfortable performing in front of large groups of people. This way they will be better prepared when they join in the more elite groups.

Hope you don't have to sneeze! Darro McKnight stays perfectly still as the band stays at attention.

Band

Turn Into the Rhythm

Most people think that all the band does is perform at half-time. They are not only an aspect of the school, but also of the community. Performing at the football games are just a small portion of all that they do. Throughout the course of the year, the band participated in various parades, such as Veterans' Day, Christmas, and the opening of the Customs House. Aside from the community activities, the band participated in competitions. In the fall, they attended the Florida Bandmasters District Festival and received the highest rating possible.

Auxiliary

Catch the Spirit!

Before the 1999-2000 school year even began the Auxiliary was already hard at work. They attended Penny's Camp, KWHS Twirling Camp, and Band Camp to sharpen their skills throughout the course of the summer. Color guard captain Gosia Bujak, co-captains Jessica Jones and Basia Bujak, and majorette captain Jennifer McWhorter used their leadership skills to help everyone have a good time. From performing at games and parades to going to competitions, the auxiliary had a busy year. They ended the year by competing at Marching Auxiliaries and Solo and Ensembles.

Conchettes

Once a Conchette, Always a Conchette

This year they concentrated on quality, not quantity, as they only had twelve Conchettes. Conchettes is a tradition Key West girls have been proud of since the 1930s. "The biggest advantage is the exercise, friends, and the sense of belonging to a group," says second year Conchette Marialys Rodriguez. The captain is Tiffani Miller with Kamie Nolan as co-captain. Besides performing at football games, Conchettes continue to participate in parades and in Children's Day to show the school spirit the Conchettes are famous for.

These Conchettes stand at attention before entering the field for their Homecoming performance. For Homecoming, their performance differs from the traditional line routine.

Varsity Cheerleaders

A Spirited Socieity

The cheerleaders of the school cheer many different events. They are there for events like football, volleyball, basketball games, or pep rallies. The cheerleaders support all sports through posters and fundraising activities. Being a cheerleader requires an amount of athletic ability, intense dedication, and practices everyday, sometimes at nights or on the weekends. Besides traditional cheerleading duties, they prepare for their own events and competitions. The captain is Amber Ernst. The co-captains are Blake Freer and Ashley Estenoz.

A New Spirit

Committment, spirit, flexibility. These are just a few words to describe the outstanding performances of the J.V. Cheerleading Squad. With a big squad this year, they traveled to state and made Key West proud. It wasn't an easy job, but with the hard work and dedicaation of captain Erica Ernst and co-captain Rosie Curry they were able to do it. Fundraisers such as a booth at Children's Day and car washes helped pay for the trips. The squad soared to new heights this year making it a very successfuul one. Just imagine the things they will accomplish the rest of their years at KWHS.

Pep Squad

The Sound of One Team Clapping

What group of people are always there to pep you up before a game? Pep squad! Pep squad is at most high school athletic events. They are always there to prepare our teams to beat their opponents. Not only do they excite the teams and the community, but they also perform community service. For example, the pep squad worked at Children's Day in October. They also marched as part of the Homecoming parade. Although the Key West High School pep squad has only been around for three years, it is clear that this is one organization that is here to stay.

Empowered by the call of God, these students showed up at Glad Tidings Tabernacle Church early on Thanksgiving morning to help feed the homeless. They demonstrate why it is called the season of giving.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

It's the Christian Thing To Do

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is another one of Key West High's esteemed groups. Sponsored by Mrs. MacPherson, it gives students a chance to express feelings on religion. It is the only club we have that allows students to discuss religion on campus. Lande Spottswood said, "FCA is a good organization to express individual beliefs while in a unified group. It includes all branches of Christianity and removes barriers of communication." Lacy Pischke, another member, said, "FCA is an uplifting and refreshing way to start each Friday morning. We are all brought together through faith in God, and any differences are forgotten. We are all equal." Ashley Roberts says she thinks its a positive program that sends good messages to teens and helps with life situations. Alison Pelletier mentioned that it strengthens her relationship with God and is an opportunity to get together with friends.

Sailing Club

Fair Winds and Following Seas

Many of us love being out on the water. We enjoy soaking up some rays and admiring our beautiful surroundings. Sailing Club is a great organization to join if you want to be involved, but don't want to give up valuable water time. They meet several times a week to sharpen their skills. "The students have made tremendous progress in both individual and team skills by participating in Wednesday night regattas," said Coach Fant. Officers Jesse Combs, captain, McNeill Mann, commander, Tiffany Schaffsma, Lt. Commander, and Robert Combs, Lt. Commander, kept things running.

Renaissance Club

Having a Goode Olde Time

The Renaissance period was a great revival of learning, literature, and art in Europe. It began in Italy during the 14th century and gradually spread throughout Europe. The Renaissance marked the change from medieval to modern. This group of kids embody the great rebirth of creativity and emotion that is connected with the Renaissance era. Throughout the year, Ms. Mason and the members of the Renaissance Club went to various Renaissance Fairs. Commissioner's Academic Challenge

The Great Thinkers of Key West High School

The Commissioner Challenge is a relatively new group here at Key West High School. Composed of a maximum of five members, the team participates in competitions. Their main competition was on January 22 in Marathon, where they went head to head with last year's district winner, Coral Shores High School. However, this was not their only competition. Prior to going to Marathon, the team played the coligate squad from FKCC. Also, they played against the students from the home school.

French Club

A Love for Linguistics

The French Club is the latest addition to the list of extracurricular activities at Key West High School. Unlike a lot of clubs, the French Club's goal is not community service. Instead, they are aimed at traveling to France at the end of this year. While most of us would only consider this a dream, they are making it into a reality. During the Cuban American Heritage Festival, the French Club sold drinks and french pastries downtown. Also, they held a garage sale here at Key West High School. If they keep up the work, they'll get there yet!

The French Club got festive when they put on all the clothes from their tag sale. Looks like they're trying to start a new fashion trend.

Victories Remembered

Sports is an important extra curricular activity. It adds many characteristics to everyone who gets involved. Discipline, dedication, and many more qualities that can be used for the rest of your life are learned from being involved in sports. In sports, however, not only should you be fit, but dedicated to your school work and your team. For every away game, a player must get the work that will be missed and keep up their grade point average. Athletes don't get as much credit as they deserve. It is hard to keep up grades, stay in shape, keep their priorities in order, and still be dedicated to their teammates, games, and practices. If you get involved with sports, it will make your years in high school more fun and enjoyable. Later, you will be able to look back and reflect on your memories as a Conch at KWHS

Varsity Football

The 1999-2000 Varsity Football Team politely kneels for an opposing player that got roughed up by some of our tough defense members. Our team may not have ranked as high as they had hoped, but they sure learned agility and endurance of pain.

Sophomore Mikey Edwards is running to the end zone as his teammates block for him.

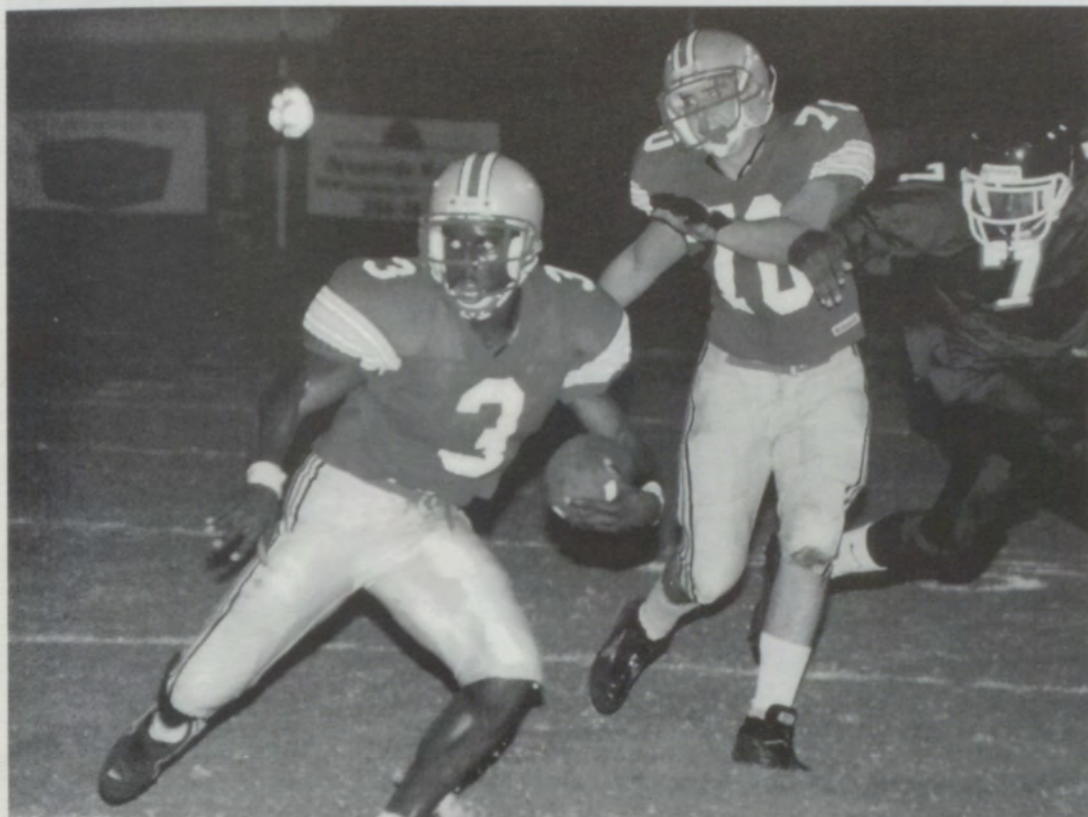

The Key West Varsity Football Team lines up yelling out plays that will help them score a touchdown.

Senior Jonathan Gonzalez earned a free safety for the team. He shows true dedication playing with his broken arm.

Breaking All Boundaries

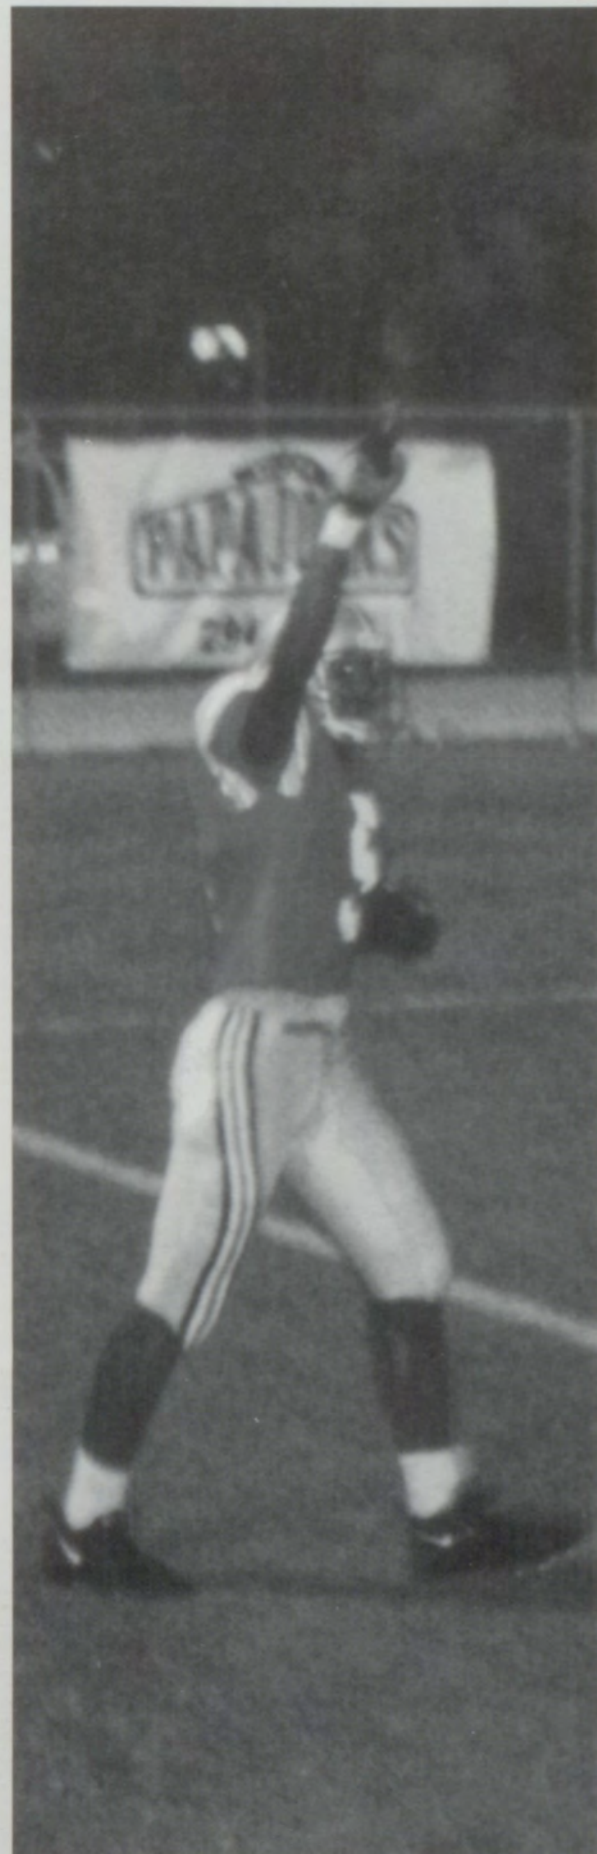

Senior Malcolm Munnings runs for the touchdown while a teammate blocks the linebackers.

This year the Varsity team has had to overcome a lot of obstacles. Despite their many challenges the team managed to keep up. All of the hard teams that were on their schedule made it difficult to keep up the hope, but they managed to stay alive. The way that they kept up to potential was by starting off with a positive attitude and motivation that could conquer anything. Due to injury, hard opponents and other obstacles, the team did not rank as high as they would have liked to. We will not take away the spotlight from the Mighty Conchs because they did play extremely well, and with great intensity. The Varsity boys also played with Conch Pride in their heart. Every single one of these boys has a promising future ahead of them and talent in their blood. Conch fans have always been, and always will be proud of our Varsity football team. Go mighty Conchs!

Junior Chaz Jimenez goes for the tackle while Senior Justin Cisneros gets the assist. This proves that teamwork makes everything possible.

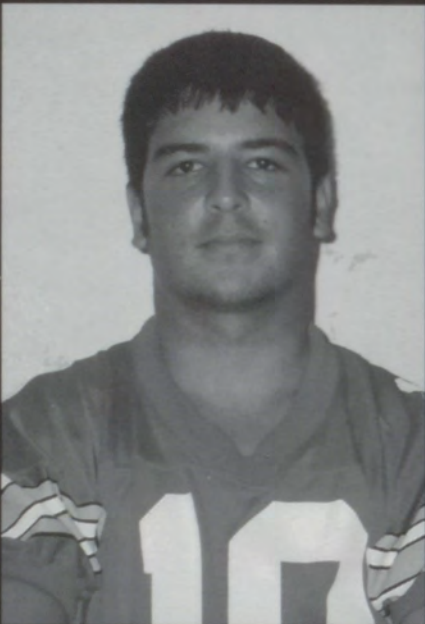

Senior Carlton Thurston rejoices at the end zone after making the first touchdown of the season! Carlton is one of the leading scorers on the team.

"The team has come a long way since the beginning of the season. We finally pulled a win on the Homecoming game and we thought that was a turning point for us, but we still have some touching up to do." — MalcolmMunnings

Senior Malcolm Munnings looks for a hole to run through for the punt return as Sophomore Jimmy Greene blocks a Coral Shores player from getting to Malcolm.

Junior Mark Boyer anxiously awaits being called onto the field. As he stands on the sidelines, he helps the awaiting players get ready for the next play.

Junior Keith Hernandez shows his high endurance for pain as he blocks an opponent from getting to our quarterback. Blocking is important in football because it makes up the whole defense half of the sport.

"Even though the team was let down by our losses we did learn a lot of strategies and became closer as a team. The memories will definitely not be forgotten." — Pipo Hernandez

"More concentration and seriousness would be a major help. We would have done a lot better if we would have been more disciplined. The team had a lot of fun together, though." — Carlton Thurston

Junior Pedro Lara is seen here going for the tackle against Forest Hill. He helped the team out tremendously in that victory.

Junior Varsity Football

The Junior Varsity Football team this year was an extraordinary one. These young men have been the best team that JV has had in a while. It was composed mostly of freshman. These young men however, showed the most dedication to the team in a long time for the Junior Varsity Conchs. They practiced strictly every day and showed outstanding dedication and discipline. Their love for the game shined through these boys' hearts at every game as they played as best as they could. They had an excellent record this year only losing a few games out of the whole season. If these boys continue to be as dedicated and aspired as they are now, they will make there Varsity coach proud very soon. Because of their wonderful learning experience this season they have a promising outlook with the Varsity Conchs in the near future and have a great chance in the professional leagues in years to come. Every one of these players has made Key West High School very proud and will continue to do so in the next four years of their high school life as an Honorary Fighting Conch!

It looks like a promising point for the Fighting Conchs as Freshman Patrick Freeman hands off a great pass to the running back.

Here, Sophomore Philip Benvenuto is making the run for the team. Nothing is going to stop him or our runners from scoring.

While Freshman Thomas Bouchard has the ball, the Conchs know that no one else is going to get it.

Freshman Max Labrada has a shot at a touchdown, giving the JV Conchs a win.

Freshman Scott Ballard looks like he will have a hard time getting past the Coral Shores defense.

Roger Fonseca tries his hardest to catch his opponent. Once he makes this tackle, his goal is achieved.

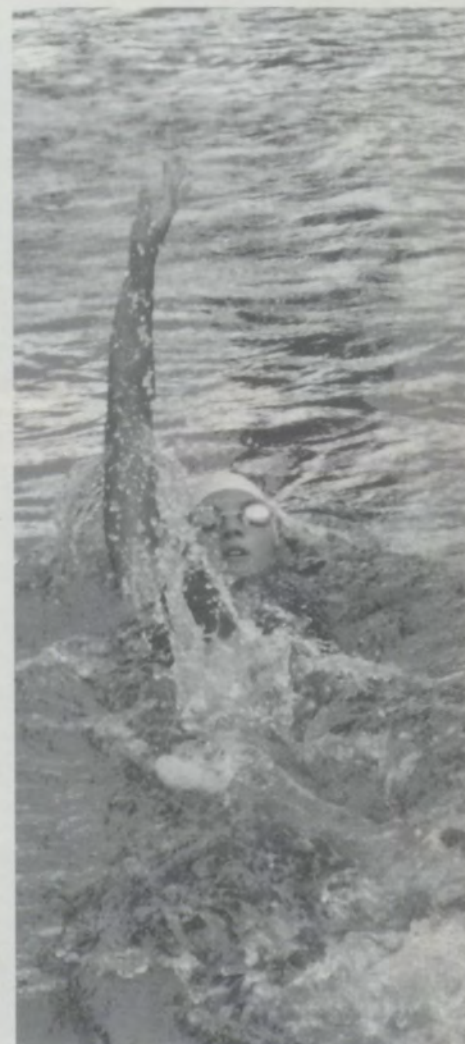

Speed is the key to Glen McDaniels making this tackle.

Force and skill are used by Le'Brunt Medders to stop the Canes from making it to the goal line.

Swimming

Throughout the 1999-2000 school year, the Key West High School Swim team has proved to be a tough competitor. Whether it be at their long practices, or swimming their hardest in a meet, the swim team has displayed true grit and put forth every ounce of effort that each and every girl has. This year's team knew what being a Lady Conch was all about. Swimming takes a lot of dedication and hard work. Even though some fans don't realize how hard it is to be an excellent swimmer, every one of these girls does. They especially do not take for granted their coach Lori Bosco or all of their hard work as a team. These girls also never forgot that teamwork has everything to do with being successful and reaching your goals and dreams. What made this team so successful, and our high school so proud, is that not one girl on this team hesitated to do what it took to obtain victories and prove to their opponents that we at KWHS truly are the "Mighty Conchs".

Elaney Vestal dives into the pool practicing to beat her own time in order to qualify for State competition. Practicing is what makes Elaney a top swimmer on the team.

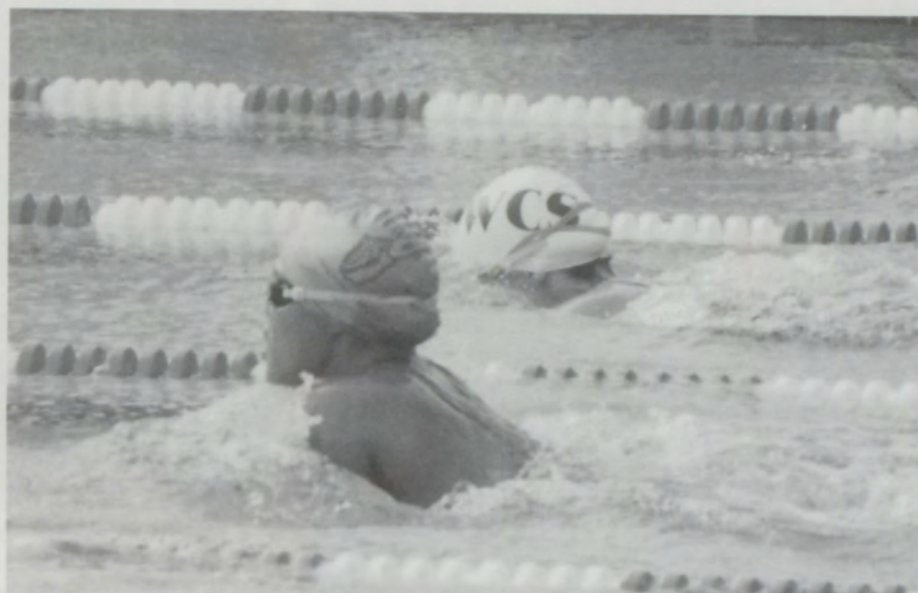

The line up looks good as Julia Heath tries to take the lead during a short relay against Coral Shores.

Seen here with her beautiful back stroke is Kate Patton. She is trying her hardest to win the race for the team.

Approaching New Waters

Senior Lacy Himelright comes up for a breath of air half way through the pool to finish the relay with a bang.

Deborah Hindsley is swimming neck to neck with an opponent close behind. The end of the pool seems so far away for her, but is actually just arms length away.

Feshman Paulina Czerniaski comes up for a breath of air in between laps. She is an excellent underclassmen that contributes a lot to the team.

Junior Melissa Ginsberg concentrates as she carefully listens for the signal to dive across the pool and return before any opponent gets there. She also shows excellent posture in her dive.

With a perfect form of a breast stroke, Caitilyn Stepan reaches to touch the wall with a record time for the team.

"Nobody really knows how hard swimming actually is. People think that is just relaxing in the pool, but swimming, takes a lot of agility and training to get yourself to make it through the last couple of laps in a meet." —Dianne Herlihy

"Swimming is a competitive sport, believe it or not. You have to learn to compete against other swimmers and manage your energy wisely. It is a blast though." —Liza Davia

Anxiously waiting to start the race, is Mary Schmitt. She and her teammates hope for a successful win and will do what it takes to make their dream come true.

Here we can see a beautiful example of perfect form and back muscles from Martina Hindsley.

Amanda Alander gets off to a shaky start as she dives into the pool. She does straighten out quickly and nicely, however, to mark a great time in that relay.

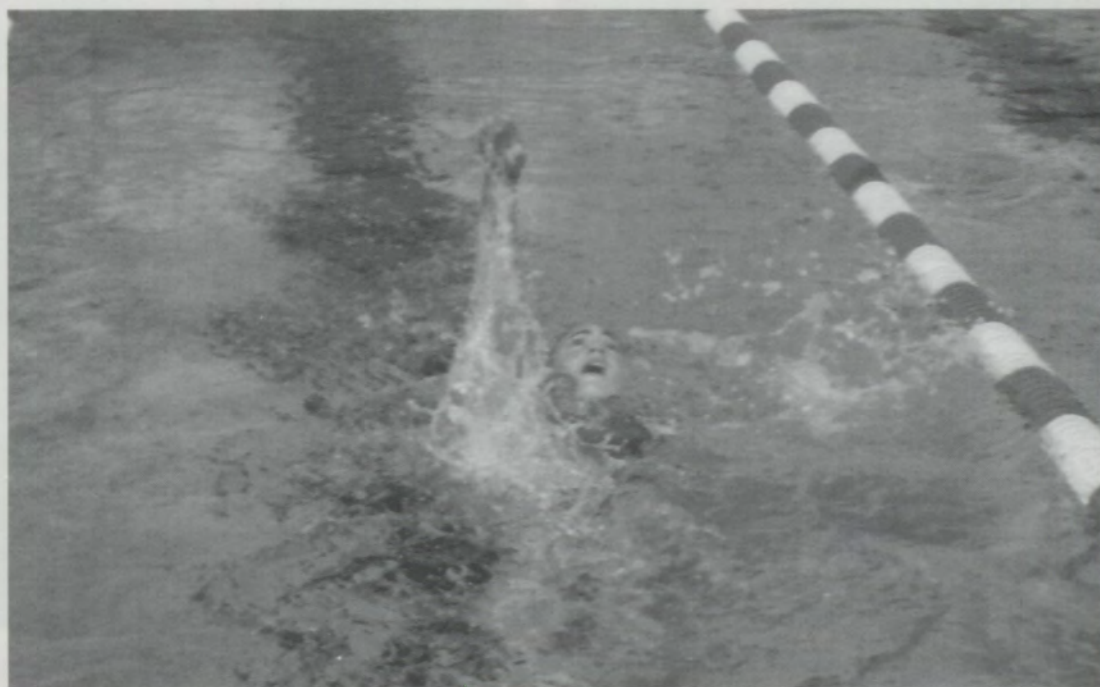

Senior Lacy Himelright dives into the pool with style and grace. If she keeps up this gracefulness, she could win it for the team.

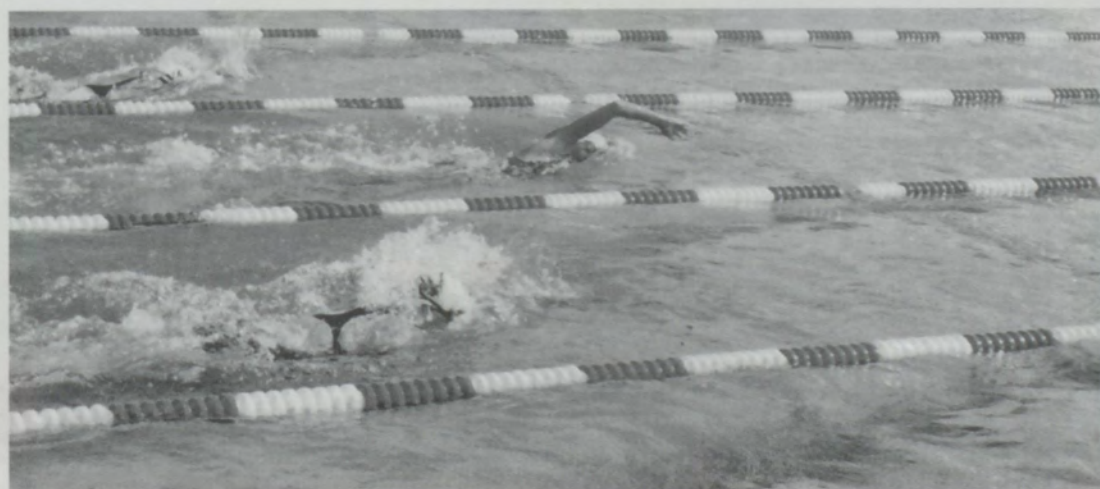

This is an excellent shot of the girls showing dedication and hard work. This exercise strengthens their legs and back muscles by holding on to the board and kicking their way across the pool.

Jessica Glenn takes a break in between laps to give Elany Vestal a pep talk. Sometimes swimmers need to be reminded that determination is the key.

Swimming the fastest backstroke ever seen, is a Lady Conch Swimmer taking the lead against a North Coral Shores opponent.

The entire swim team gives it all they have to finish the last lap in a close, competitive meet.

Boys Cross Country

The Boys Cross Country team lines up for a team picture. From left to right: Bonner Stave, Andy Morey, Steven Welsh, Simon Lange, Blake Meyer.

This is my first year and I found it really challenging. I was surprised with how my strength and endurance improved with practicing with the team. I enjoy being on the team so much I'm going to join the team again next year.
—Chris Palladino

The team this year had a good season, but there was plenty of room for improvement. We worked hard enough to give us a good finish so that we made it to state.
—Blake Meyer

Senior Simon Lange stretches out during practice so that he can lengthen his quality endurance.

Senior Brendan Milligan shows off his skills at the Disney World Classic Race. He remembers from practices that pacing yourself is the key to a winning race.

On The Path To Victory

Cross Country is a sport that especially takes a lot of hard work and dedication. The team runs in all conditions and every type of weather. They vary from intense tropical heat to pouring rain. Cross Country has given our school many reasons to be proud of them. They always gave 100 percent at practices and meets. Eventhough the they compete as a team, it also takes individual discipline and practice to be the best athlete that you can. Not only is being a member of Cross Country a chance to get in shape, but it is also a learning experience. You learn how important team support is to you. Obtaining good standings at the Walt Disney World Classic was among their many rewards for their time and dedication for the sport that they love the most. Our Cross Country team this year acheived almost every goal that they had, which is what it is all about.

It must be a great feeling that Senior Andy Morey is feeling right now. He crosses the finish line with an excellent time in Orlando.

Senior Steven Welsh gains just enough speed to fly by a runner. Although the race proved difficult, Steven made a great finish.

Freshman Chris Pallarido eagerly awaits his first big race for the Conchs. Coaches Parmer and Price are right along next to him giving him some last minute pointers.

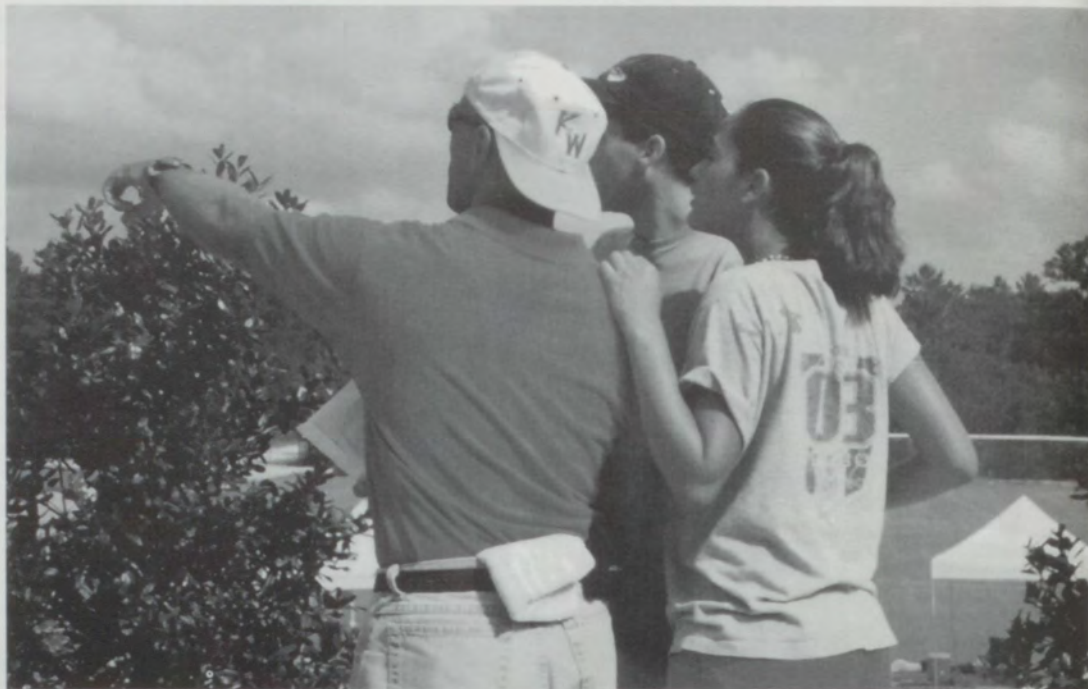

Girls Cross Country

"We worked really hard and practiced hard this season. Coach Parmer and Coach Price really helped us become dedicated." — Rebecca Tarrantino

"I've enjoyed being in Cross Country the past few years. We have had a lot of fun. This year has been the best. I look forward to being part of the team next year."
— Marina Burton

Here, Coach Price takes time out to show Sophomore Katie Gonzalez and Senior Andy Morey the course. Knowing what's ahead of you is always a good idea.

"Strong-willed" and "long-winded" describe a dedicated cross country runner. This sport not only challenges runner against runner, but against time as well. With the help of Coach Parmer's determination to be the best in the state, and gruelling practices at the Golf Course these girls accomplished many things. The girls competed against their personal best records at each meet. Through the entire season there was a balanced team effort to strive for improvement. The sportsmanship and dedication were outstanding.

This year was Sophomore Mary Meyers' first year as a Lady Conch Cross Country Runner, she proved to be a tough competitor.

Sophomore Katie Gonzalez and Senior Sarah Meyer are doing excellent in their stride outs. Most runners dread doing them, but these girls show dedication to help improve themselves in whatever way possible.

Senior Irene Cromp knows what being a dedicated runner for the Conchs is all about. She is seen here running to a victory!

Sophomore Katie Gonzalez dominates the course leaving her teammates in her dust. She had an explosive start and proved steadfast to the end.

The Girls show off their skills at the away meet. Their long hours of practice paid off because they ranked well.

Varsity Volleyball

Smacking the ball over the net is Senior Michelle Moore. She hits the ball over ending the volley and earning her team the point.

For a long and hard season that has gone by, you must put your hands together for the 1999-2000 Varsity Volleyball Team. A team with great strength and dedication has shown the school was school spirit and hard work really is. Volleyball demands a lot from a lady. It expects that you are in good physical condition and mentally strong as well. Throughout the game you are forced to make split-second decisions that can make or break the game. Some of the teams goals are to be State Champions and to at least qualify for districts. These girls are doing everything that they can to reach their high aspirations. Not only should the team be credited for their hard work, but the coach should as well. None of the things that were accomplished would have been possible without the guidance of Coach Kim Butler. When asked, some fans said that it was the discipline that held the team together, and others said that it was the practices. But if you were to ask a Varsity Volleyball team member, they will tell you that it is both of them that make it possible.

Senior Joyce Ho leaps off of the ground making a succesful play. She uses her leg muscles to jump and hit the ball for the point. Having strong legs is the key to getting good jumps for volleyball.

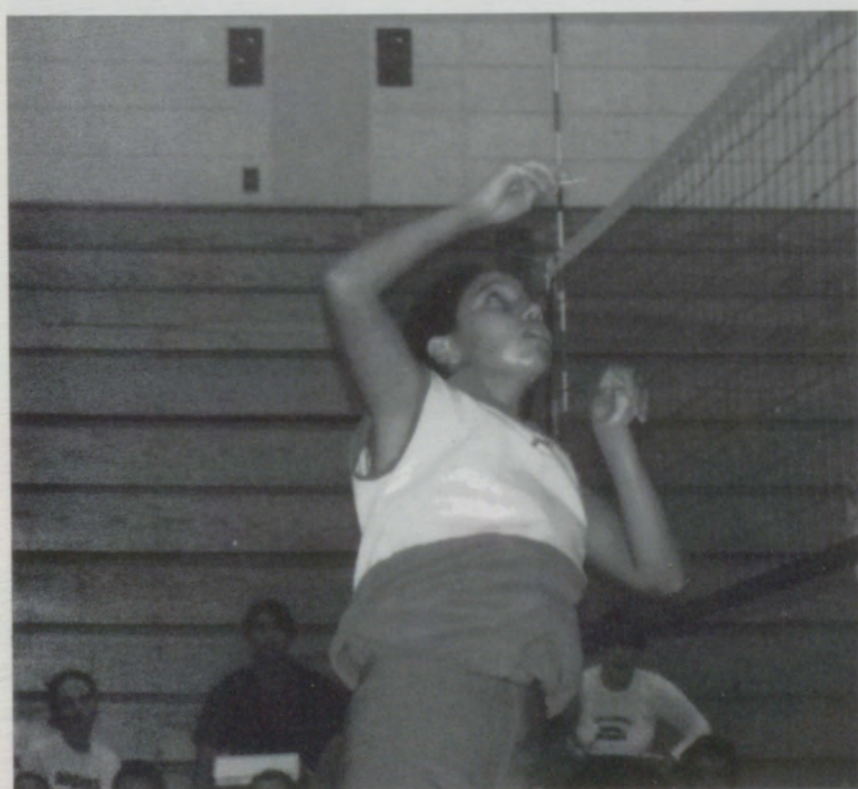

Spiking the Competition

Junior Jessica Eden hits the ball high over the net as her team mates support her in case they need to help the ball over the net.

Senior Joyce Ho spikes the ball over the net surprising the other team with her quick actions.

Senior Marta Jimenez uses all of her strength to make sure that the ball is over the net. She gave the offense a taste of Conch.

Here, Coach Kim talks to the girls getting their heads back into the game.

"We could have done better if we would have practiced more, but we had a lot of fun." — Joyce Ho

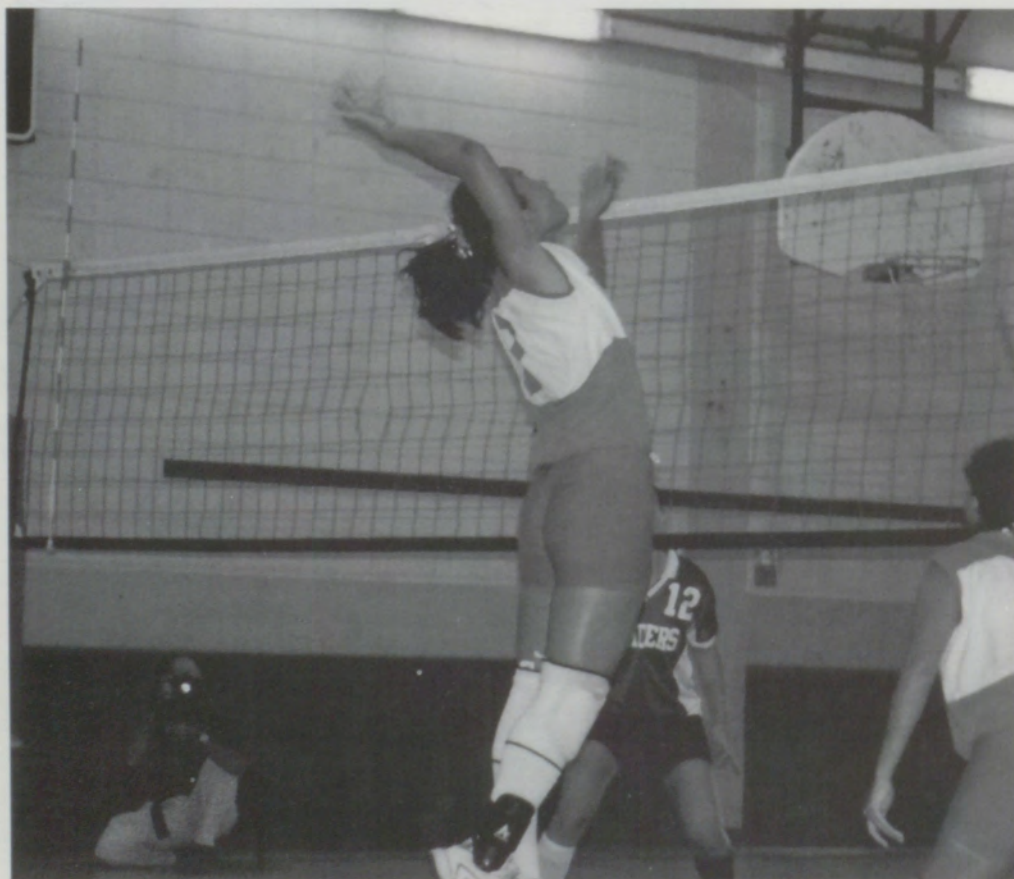

"Discipline was what we were lacking this year, we made a lot of memories, but could have done better." — Michelle Moore

Being on any Varsity team for the Conchs takes dedication. Senior Michelle Moore displays her dedication by setting up the ball for a team mate.

This picture shows the girls setting up their floor lay outs. Setting people up in the right places is important.

Senior Joyce Ho gains great height jumping to spike the ball over the net while the team doesn't expect it.

Senior Iris Arthurs bumps the ball over the net just slowly enough so that nobody can get to it, giving Key West the point.

Junior Jessica Eden practices her serves. Before every game, the team shows off their skills to the opposing team by taking turns doing drills on the court.

Senior Joyce Ho practices setting the ball up during one of the drills in their practice rounds before a big game.

Senior Michelle Moore has a 'determined to win' look in her eyes as she serves the ball with confidence to start off the game.

Senior Joyce Ho spikes the ball over the net as she soars through the air. Joyce knows that spiking is necessary to know in Volleyball.

Junior Liz Manaher bangs the ball over the net showing the other team that their attempt for a volley does not phase us.

Junior Varsity Volleyball

Ready or not...Freshman Maren Ridenour uses her serving skills to help her team to a victory.

The Junior Varsity volleyball team was in a learning stage this year. Support from their teammates, fans, family and coach is what helped them achieve their goals. Volleyball is an intense sport that requires plenty of time and strong upper body strength and leg muscles. With the old members on the team, they help the new members learn what it takes to overcome any obstacles that may get in their way of their goal to being State Champions. Each girl gave their all at both their practices and games in order to end the year with a bang. Whether they were old members or new. The girls on this Volleyball team should also be recognized for their potential to be the star players on the varsity team in years to come.

Jenny Ho is prepared to return the ball. With worthy opponents, the JV team had to be ready for anything.

The JV team is confident that they will be able to continue the volley. They are a unit that works together at all times.

Just Spike It!

Serving is the key to a tough offense. Sophomore Chelsey Snell proved her ability.

Follow that serve. Sophomore Karen Badgett watches as her serve goes over the net. This one was hard to return.

Warm ups are key. Maren Ridenour and Nichole Ortero warm up before a game. You must be read for a match in order to reach a victory.

Teamwork, Teamwork, Teamwork. Coach Kim gets her team ready for their opponent. Mental state means just as much as physical ability.

Senior Blake Meyer kicks the ball away from an opponent as Senior Adam Burton backs him up to take it all the way down the field.

Key West High School was blessed with an excellent team this year. Everyone of these boys were dedicated and showed team spirit. During practices and games they displayed concentration and devotion to the team and to themselves. Everybody believes in themselves and in each other. As long as that stands, the team continues to do as well as they have been doing. Faith and sportsmanship are what keep the team alive. These guys made Key West proud and continue to keep up the high scores. Attending practices, high rankings, and proud fans and coaches prove that these boys have a love for the team and will make a successful life for themselves if they stick with soccer.

"We have a good team with a lot of returning Seniors. This is the last year for a lot of us, so we are trying as hard as we can and we had a strong start." — Simon Lange

"We have had the best team ever since I have been in high school so I think that our record should continue to be good." — Blake Meyer

Junior Danielle Avel is about to score another point for the Lady Conchs during a very important game for the season.

She Shoots, She Scores!

The 1999-2000 Varsity Girls Soccer Team had an excellent year this season. Their support for each other and teamwork helped them achieve their goals. They recognized the key things to having a successful soccer team, and pulled it together in time to finish the season with a great record. New players on the team will continue to strive for victory throughout high school as Seniors on the team will have wonderful memories of being a Lady Conch and making the school proud. As long as the school and community continue to support the Lady Conchs, they will continue to shine for years to come. The tradition of success in girls soccer will prevail. The Lady Conchs may not win every battle, but they will win the war!

Go Lady Conchs

Here, Junior Wendy Van Leuven keeps up with the runners on the soccer team. Speed is key to soccer, and Wendy has it.

Sophomore Samantha Hart looks to Junior Jesse Brown for a pass from the sidelines. These girls display teamwork.

Sophomore Katie Gonzalez keeps up the spirit even as the odds try to work against her.

"We worked very hard this year and had a lot of leadership. I am happy with our season. I will have many memories from The Lady Conchs." — Kim Clynes

"We have a very strong and talented team this year with a lot of heart. If we work together and focus, there's no stopping us." — Keia Hughes

"There is a lot of talent on our team this year and we have the potential to go very far. I think this was more of a building year, and the underclassmen should carry the team to a victorious season." — Dianne Herlihy

Senior Dianne Herlihy gets to make an extra goal by doing a corner kick directly into the net. She uses her accuracy and strong legs to assure the team of the point.

Junior Ceridwin Kelley fiercely kicks the ball down the field. Don't let those juvenile pigtails fool you, she is a fierce player.

Sophomore Lindsay Thommes displays strength and stability, kicking the ball to a teammate.

This sport takes dicipline and talent, and Sophomore Katie Gonzalez moves the ball swiftly down the field.

Senior Keia Hughes shows an excellent display of defense. She doesn't let many balls past her for the team.

The Junior Varsity bench sits across the field and cheers on their team mates. With the growing number of girls interested in soccer, not all get to play at one time, but everyone shows support for each other, and everyone displays sportsmanship.

Kicking For The Goal

Junior Christina Buckmaster takes the ball down close to the goal. Sophomore Aisha Orofino gives her support.

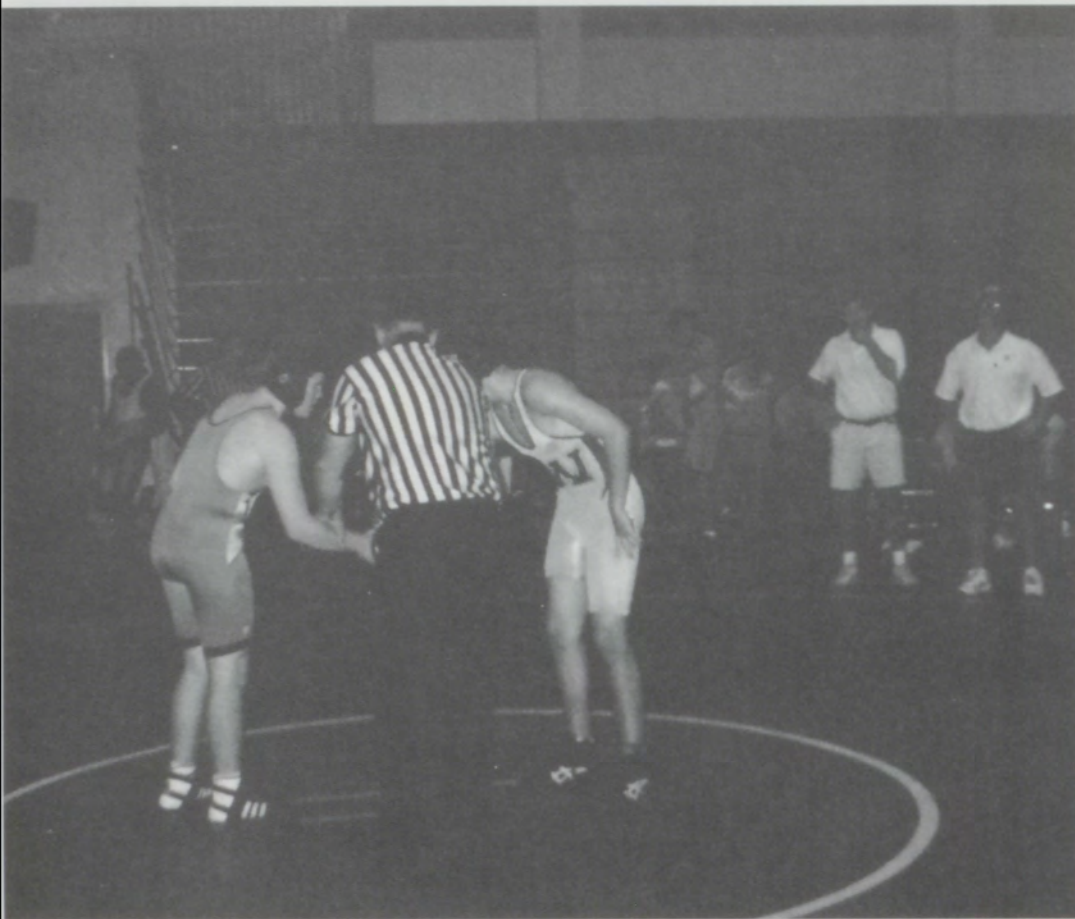

Freshman Justyna Brown steals the ball from the other team and looks for a team mate to pass it to.

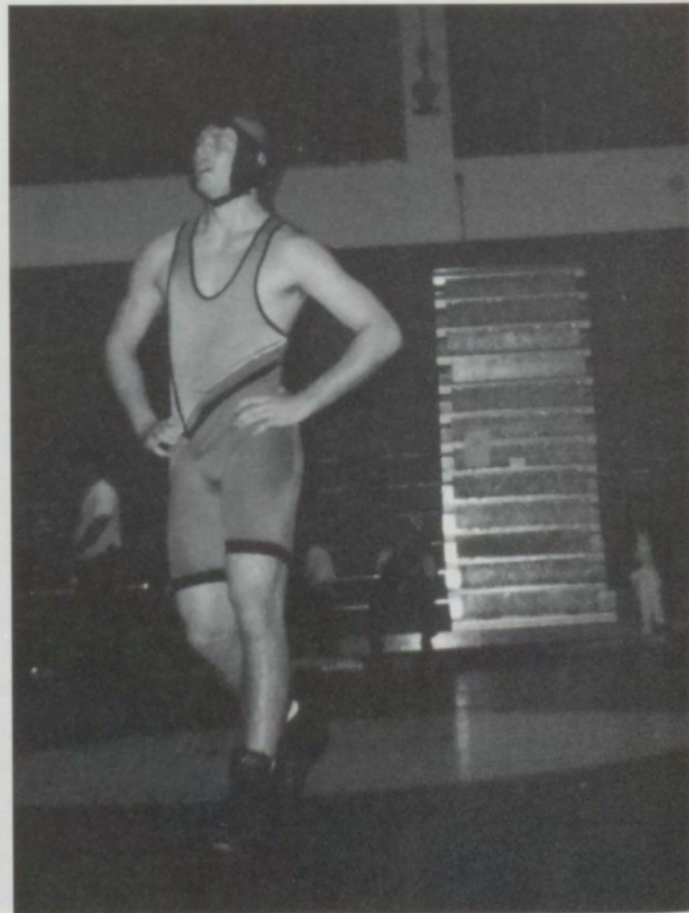

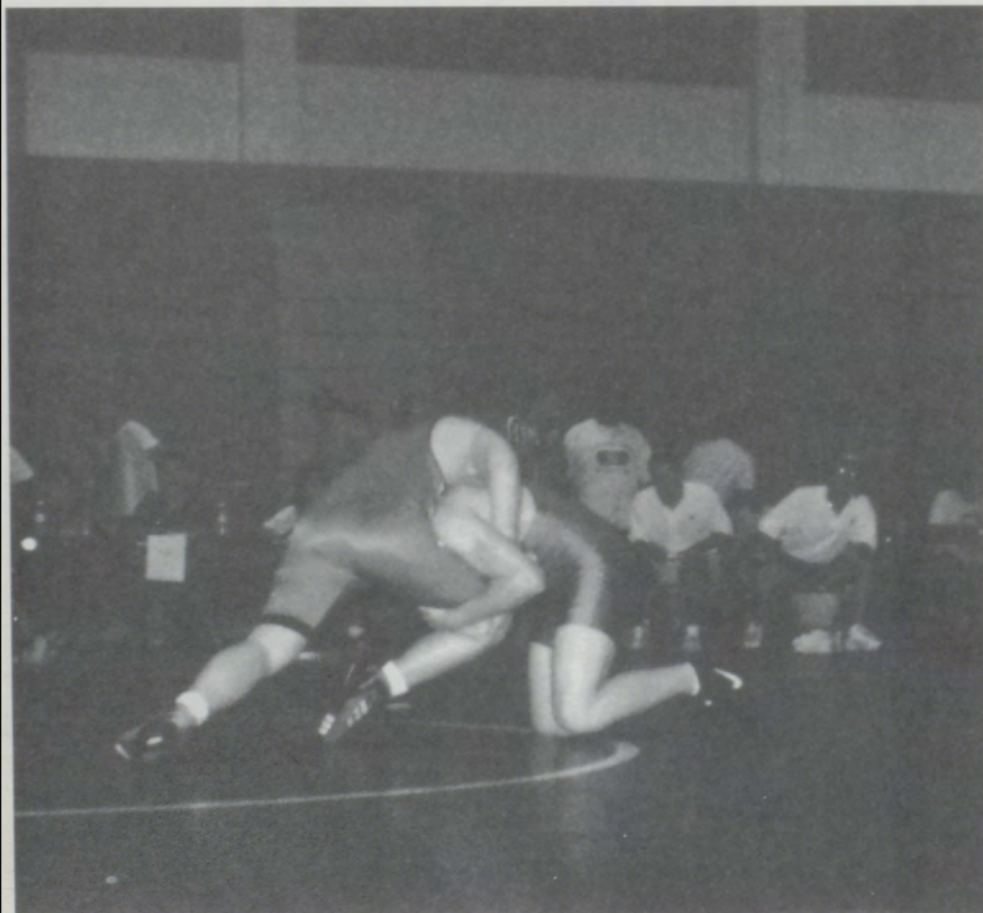

Wrestling

Wrestling takes agility and strategy to master. These guys on the team practice very hard to learn strategies that will be the mastermind of winning techniques. Being a wrestler is not easy because you have to be disciplined enough to have a good diet and determined enough to stay in shape.

Wrestlers also have to think quickly while their on the mats, because one wrong move could cost the team the round. This year's team did very well and made it to the final tournaments and placed high. We are proud of the 1999-2000 wrestling team for their first official season. We hope that their record will be as good or better for years to come.

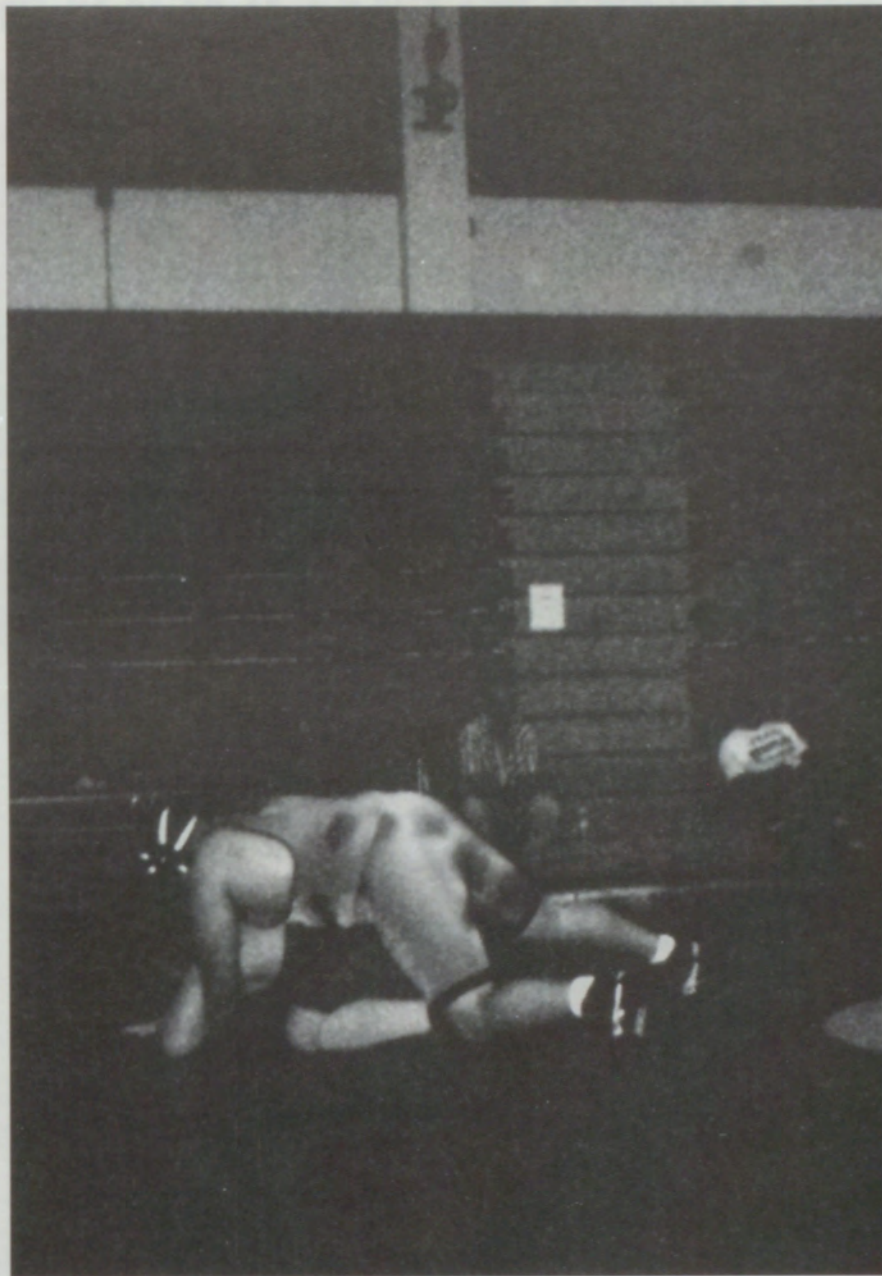

Junior Ryan Hemphill shakes the hand of the Okeechobee wrestler that he is about to slam. Sportsmanship is the key to keep wrestling from getting serious and remaining a fun game.

Junior Justin Duck tries to get his opponent to eat the ground. give up and lay down,by putting all of his weight on him.

Junior Chaz Jimenez gets ready to flip this wrestler over to get closer to winning the tournament.

Junior Miriam Cleare races down the court with the ball.

This year has been full of many events for the Varsity Girls Basketball Team. It displayed how team mates work together to form a winning season. School mates joined to show support, and everybody focused on the things that were necessary to have a positive ending. This year's team had great unity and made a lot of wins. However, when they did lose, they showed wonderful sportsmanship and practiced on their weaknesses. Key West High School really has a lot to be proud of as far as these girls are concerned, and they should be proud of themselves. If they continue to display such good qualities, the Conch team excellence will prevail and Conch pride will stand.

Sophomores MeJoy McIntosh and Miriam Cleare work together. They fight to keep the ball in Key West's possession and work their way down the court.

Senior Thomika Taylor executes a magnificent lay up against the defense. Thomika has strong legs that she uses to her benefit to get closer to the net.

In The Swing Of Things

In athletics it is often stated that the older a team is, the better they are. The 2000 Tennis Team, rackets in hand, will take that assumption and drown in a sea of victories. The team begins their quest determined to win a district championship. The Conch Tennis team will be working hard independently and together to make a strong team. A lot of chemistry, practice, and experience will make them a strong contender for state champions. They feel confident about their performance and feel that they will have a good standing at the end of the season. If they keep setting the good example and following it, then they will have a very strong season.

Concentration and determination. That is what Junior Alex Machado uses to defeat his adversaries.

The 1999-2000 Golf Conchs had an extremely impressive year. Whether it be their captivating swing, precision form, or their flawless victories, the Key West High School Golf Team did everything it took to have a fascinating season. It did not come easy to them, however. The Conch boys had to be very disciplined and dedicated during practices. The Conchs maintained the best record ever in Conch Golf history as they finished the season at a spectacular 17-3! These boys displayed incredible talent and steadfast Conch Pride. As loyal Conch Fans, we are very proud of our guys this year. We would like to recognize and thank every player of the Golf Team for their hard work and dedication to the team and school. Go Conchs!

Junior Brooks Ortega goes for the "Mighty Conchs" swing as Sophomore Nick Bentley shows support for his teammate.

Junior Brooks Carey and Senior Jon Krathen talk about golf between holes. With the easy competition this year, our guys made it to the top ten!

Senior Jon Krathen does a practice swing just before a long drive across the Golf Course.

Boys Track

(Top L to R) Ernesto Cabrera, David Digou, Doug Meeker, Carlton Thurston, Malcolm Munnings, Colton Butler (2nd row L to R) Jeremy Edwards, Avery Jones, Dionte Dunning, Alex Godoy, Michael Brooks, Lebrunt Medders (3rd row L to R) Andrew Wright, Andy Morey, Blake Meyer, Chris Herlihy, Robert Huffman, Allan Caelleyra, Steven Leland (Bottom L to R) JP Brennan, Tony Romero, Nick Posada, Ian Rowan, Brendan Milligan Maykel Frazier

Up and over. Senior Adam Burton flies over the bar as Nick Posada spots him.

Perfect form. Senior JP Brennan shows how the discus should be thrown.

Time to warm up those muscles. The boys take a few laps before they begin their daily workouts.

Building up speed, Junior Nick Posada makes an attempt at vaulting over the bar.

Counting his steps, Sophomore Lebrunt Medders figures out his stride length for the long jump.

These team members warm up their legs for the field events.

Time is important. Senior Robert Huffman sprints the track attempting to lower his time.

Getting a running start. Sophomore Dionte Dunning works on increasing his distance for the long jump.

The Success of the Boys and Girls Track team are earned from long, hard, and dedicated practices held everyday. They practice hurdling, and many other field activities. Coaches Perkins, Mathy, and Price are teaching the teams to work hard as a team and master their individual skills. Everybody provides support for each other and helps each other in any way that they can. These boys and girls have knitted a family and constantly work together. The team is also trained to reach for the top. It is obvious that the Boys and Girls Track Teams are prepared for excellence and will be for years to come in Key West High.

Always on the run. Seniors Brendan Milligan and Blake Meyer run their laps at the beginning of practice. This is a daily ritual for track members.

Watch it fly. Senior David Digou launches the discus during practice. He is trying to increase his distance.

Stretching is vital to keep injuries to a minimum. For these pole vaulters, it has become a daily ritual.

Track is a perfect end to school sports season. This way, I never get out of shape. — Malcolm Munnings

I like doing the field events. They take a great deal of focus and determination. - Doug Meeker

On The Right Track

These boys work on their sprints. It is vital that they increase their leg strength and speed.

Girls Track

Endurance and strength will assist Senior Natalia Duke as she completes her two mile race.

The last few feet are the hardest for Senior Bonnie Ripin. She must push herself to the limit.

One, two, three, jump! Freshman Hunter Boyle refines her technique for an upcoming meet.

The 4 x 100 is a strong event for this team. Jennifer Everett and Michelle Oden make a flawless transition.

Track is a melting pot. We have athletes from the fall and winter sports, and there is something for everyone. - Lacy Pischke

We have a lot of potential. I know we'll do great! - Natalia Duke

This year's track team increased in number. Part of this is due to the addition of a large amount of Freshman runners.

Practice makes perfect. Toni Merkey passes the baton to Lacy Pischke. The faster the transition, the better their team time will be.

This is what we call determination. Senior Pauline Patterson gives her all at practice.

Time out. Sophomore Aisha Orofino relaxes as she waits for her next event to be called.

Crossing The Finish Line

It's all about the wait. Diane Herlihy, Amber Davis, and Natalia Duke take a break together during a meet. Pens in had, they relax and play games to pass the time until their next race begins.

Timing is critical as Sophomore Kelley Haack hands the baton to Senior Lacy Pischke. They don't want to lose any precious seconds.

Senior Diane Herlihy charges off for the final leg of the race.

Niles)

Warming up his arm, Junior JJ Fallon tosses a few balls to his teammates in the outfield.

Don't worry about us. Seniors Lucas Bacle and John Paul Castro supervise practice from the Conch dugout.

So, how are they? Coach Valdez and Trainer Mariah Parker take time out to discuss team injuries. It is important to keep the team healthy.

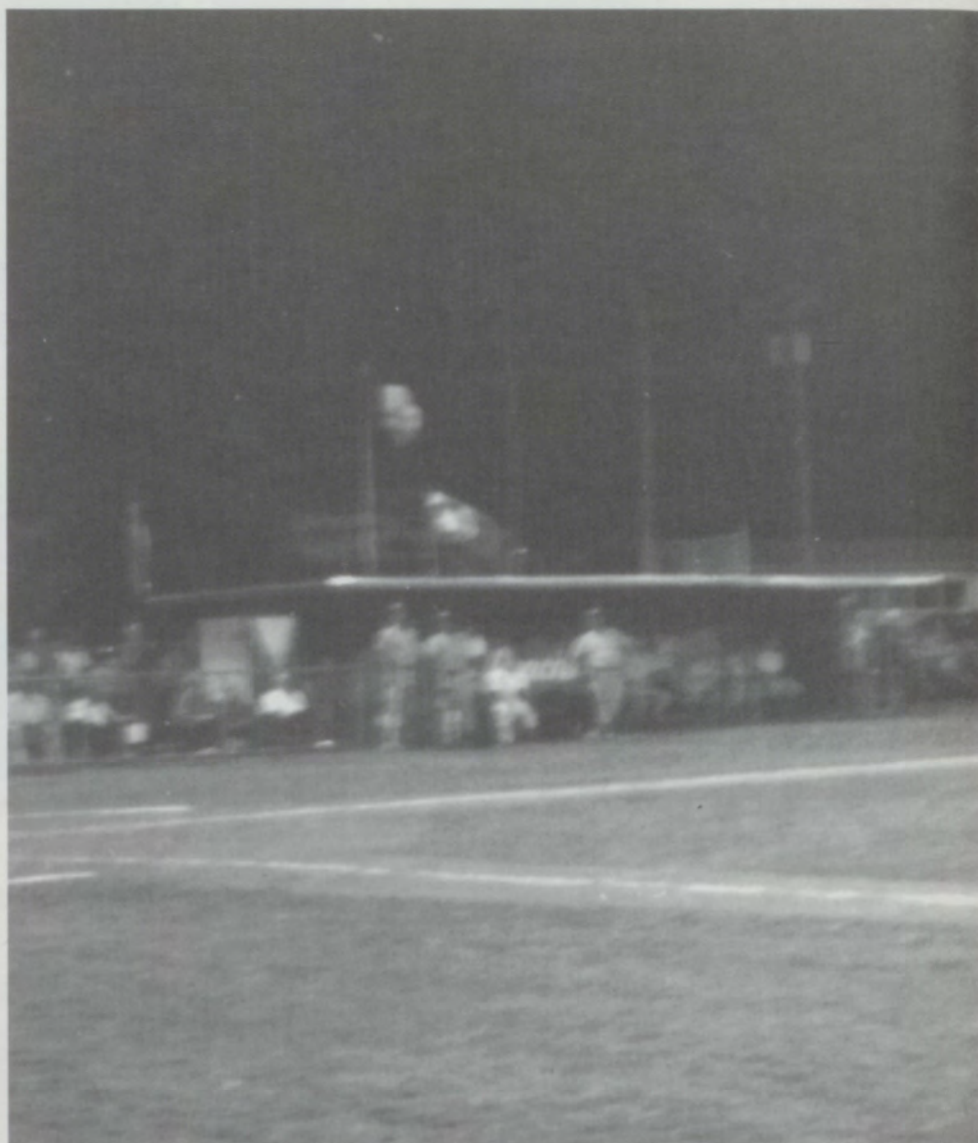

After a long practice, Senior Damian Varela jogs off the field to take a breather.

Field Of Dreams

Follow it through and concentrate. Senior Marcus Davila warms up his pitching arm before a Saturday night game.

The Coaches of the 2000 Varsity Conchs Baseball Team look on from the dugout with anticipation, making sure that the fielders are in position.

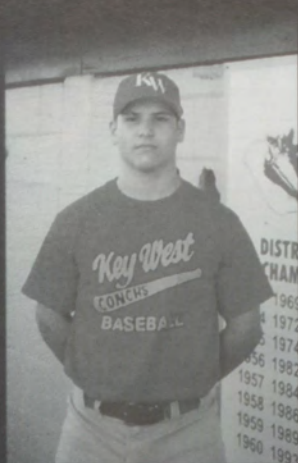

Good Game! The Conch Varsity Baseball Team congratulates each other on yet another victory.

Through decades of tradition and Conch pride, the Key West High School Baseball team has displayed extraordinary enthusiasm and the utmost dedication it takes to be a leading force in high school baseball.

Through the years, the Conch Baseball team has been regarded as one of the finest athletic programs in the nation. The talent these guys possess is by far unmatched and this talent is evident through the entire season as well as the off season. They are continuously dedicated to the team as a whole and to every one of their individual teammates.

Practicing hard and consistently, the young men worked on their weaknesses and overcame several challenges, making them the extraordinary organization that they are today. Conchs approached the season headstrong and know that with perseverance they will end the season victoriously.

Freshman Patrick Freeman prepares for the Belen game.

That's dedication. Sophomore Michael Heller displays quick reflexes as he jumps to catch a foul ball.

Way to go Frankie! Freshman Frankie Gutierrez slides into third base to avoid being tagged out.

And he scores! Sophomore Xavier Perez runs home to increase the lead over Belen. Go Conchs!

Great effort! John T Davila and Patrick Freeman successfully tag 2nd and 3rd base as the ball rolls past Belen's shortstop.

Sophomore Danny DiFabio runs to the pitcher's mound to provide back up.

Varsity Fastpitch

They Got Game!

We have a lot of talent, we just need to work harder to tap it. - Pauline Patterson

We have the potential to do well if we work together as a team. - Donniece Diehl

This year's Varsity Softball Fastpitch team spent most of the season rebuilding after losing key players and getting off to a rocky start. The head coach Mr. Vinson claims that they will have a good year. He states "We will finish well above 500, and should be able to compete with any team that we play."

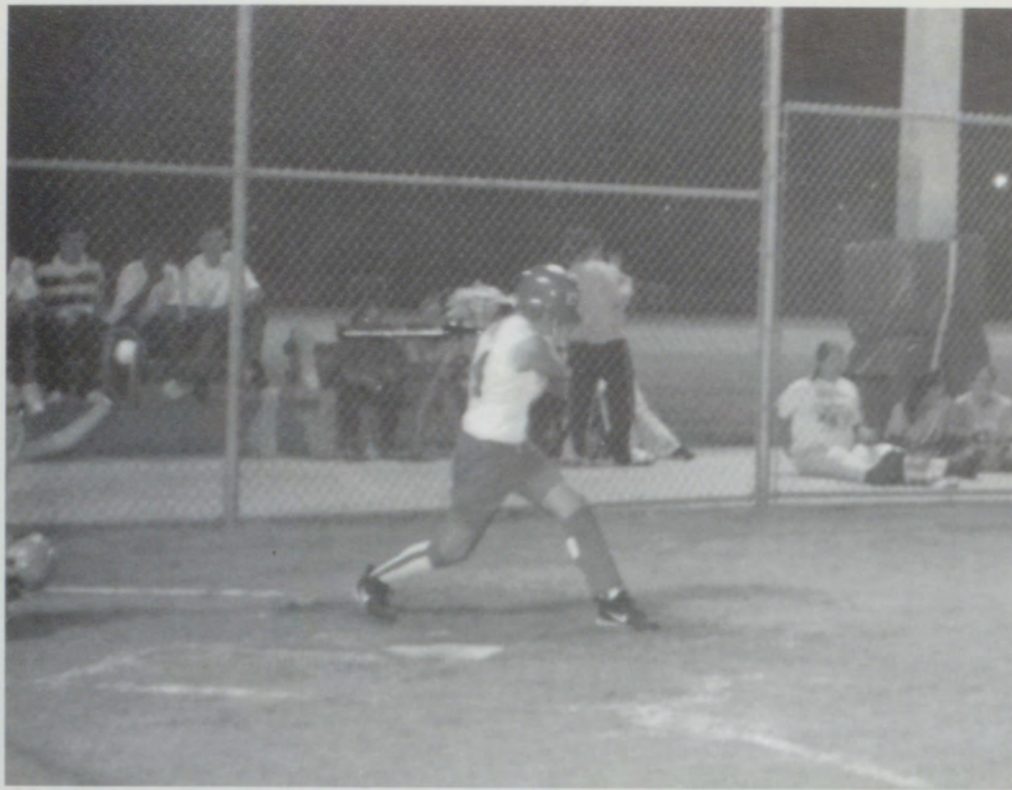

He also says that the strongest points of the team are very good hitting and good athletes with excellent potential and skills. Three excellent pitchers also help the team tremendously. Keeping a positive attitude and an open mind also helps the team in their victories. Working well together and everyone supporting one another are major parts of their contribution. Coach Vinson says that the team has a lot of raw talent and could go to State if they continue to work hard.

The Varsity infielders gather before the start of the inning to talk about their defensive strategy.

These freshman girls work together. First baseman Yvette Ferrer picks up the bunt, as Breanna Kight tells her where to throw.

Practice, practice, practice. Coach Vinson expects 110% from his team at all times.

Senior Donneice Deihl blocks a bad throw to keep the stealing Gulliver player from advancing.

Sophomore Mejoy McIntosh fields the ball and gets ready to make the throw to first.

Freshman Breanna Kight fires the ball down the plate, striking the batter out.

Junior Jessica Rivera frames the pitch, hoping the umpire will call it a strike. That is a skill you learn from being an experienced catcher.

Freshman Yvette Ferrer stands on deck as Tina Godfrey watches the game.

JV Softball

Always ready. Freshman Summer Brown gets the ball at second base and throws it home. She kept the runner from scoring.

Freshman Terese Smith has to be quick on her feet to cover third base.

New to the sport and ready to rise. Freshman Breanna Kight proved herself to be a valuable asset. Within the season, she was able to move from JV to the Varsity team. We can expect good things from her in the future.

2000 Memories

Looking back at the last four years brings back many memories. Mostly good and some bad, but all are parts of growing and learning. Friends, foes, and first loves have taught us a lot about ourselves and the people we want to be.

Winning first place in the float Freshman, Sophomore, and Senior years, has taught us that competition and hard work really pays off. This is obvious if you look at the excellents and superiors that our band has won, the state titles our baseball team has won, and in general the success of all our Key West High School clubs and organizations. Over the years we have worked long and hard with our classmates to be the best we could be. Class of 2000 will now and forever continue to rule!!

Senior Leaders

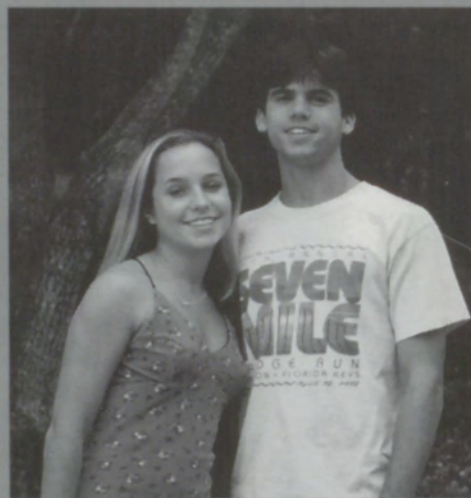

Our leaders of today will be your leaders of tomorrow. The class of 2000 prides itself on having many extremely bright individuals to guide our class into the new millenium. These leaders have set goals for all future leaders of Key West High School to follow. Each and every senior leader has done more than their share of work to make our senior year the best. Thanks to their leadership and dedication, made our four years memorable. To the class of 2000, may you continue to shine.

Roger Clemens helps the New York Yankees beat the Atlanta Braves in four games to win the 1999 World Series.

The Dallas Stars capture the Stanley Cup with Brett Hull's game-winning goal in triple overtime.

In sports, it was a year for firsts.

Forty million viewers tuned in to watch

the U.S. Women's Soccer Team triumph over China and Tiger Woods win six straight PGA tournaments. The Dallas

Stars became the first team since the

1994 New York Rangers to win both the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup

in the same season. In addition, Lance

Armstrong overcame a bout with cancer

to win his first Tour de France.

Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain lead the team in a 5-4 narrow, penalty-kick victory over China to win the Women's World Cup.

Chicago Cubs' right fielder Sammy Sosa hammered out a big 63 homeruns in 1999.

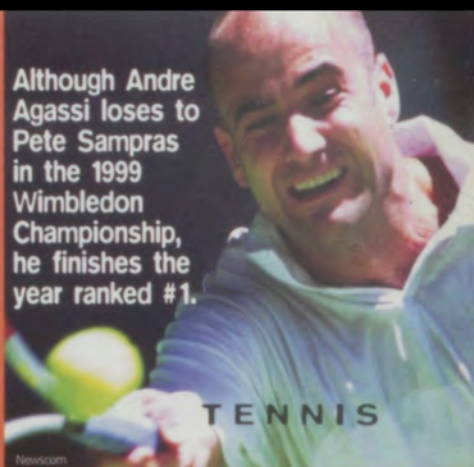

Tiger Woods' PGA Tour winning streak comes to an end when he is beaten at the Buick Invitational.

Quarterback Kurt Warner leads the Rams to a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

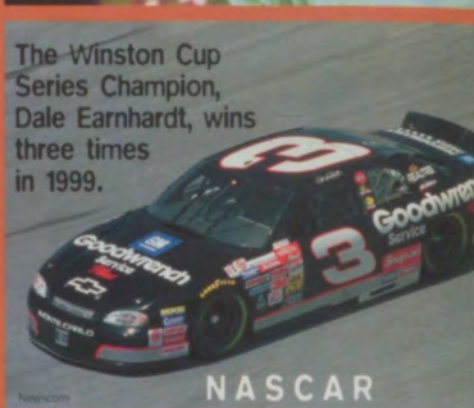

Although Andre Agassi loses to Pete Sampras in the 1999 Wimbledon Championship, he finishes the year ranked #1.

The Winston Cup Series Champion, Dale Earnhardt, wins three times in 1999.

NASCAR

David Robinson and Tim Duncan triumph against the NY Knicks in the NBA Finals.

SAN ANTONIO SPURS

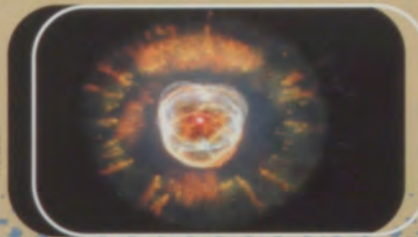

Even die-hard skiers jump on boards like Ross Powers to try the sport that's taking the slopes by storm.

USA SNOWBOARDING

SPORTS

The year 2000 was greeted with celebrations across the globe, including a fantastic fireworks display at the Eiffel Tower and religious ceremonies in Jerusalem. Looking back on 1999, we see a year filled with hope for the future, but also a year plagued by war and natural disaster. The conflict in Serbia kept the world on the edge of its seat, while earthquakes, tornadoes and winter storms focused our attention on international relief efforts. In 1999-2000, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities including John F. Kennedy Jr., Walter Payton and Charles Schulz.

WEATHER

The century came to a close with an upsurge of natural disasters. Hurricane Floyd caused $4.2 billion worth of damage on the East Coast while snowstorms crippled regions of the Northeast and Midwest. Internationally, earthquakes killed thousands in Turkey, Columbia and Taiwan.

MILLENNIUM

While some stockpiled Y2K supplies and safeguarded their computers against the "millennium bug," others rang in the new century with fireworks, parties and religious celebrations. While merchandise branding the date 01.01.00 filled stores, millennium countdown clocks were seen everywhere from billboards to post offices.

DISCOVERY

The Hubble Telescope, Earth's orbiting eye to the heavens, beamed back pictures of new planets and nebulas, while kinks in the NASA Mars Polar Lander mission delayed hopes of discovering more about the mysterious red planet.

GOODBYE

As we said goodbye to the century, we also said goodbye to some of the world's most beloved celebrities. John F. Kennedy Jr. was killed in a private plane crash while Charles Schulz passed away on the night before his last "Peanuts" comic strip was to be published in Sunday papers around the world. Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

RICKY MARTIN

"Livin' La Vida Loca" and "She's All I Ever Had" take Ricky's first English album multi-platinum.

BRITNEY SPEARS

"Boy Bands" and Latin superstars lead the 1999-2000 music scene. 'N SYNC and Backstreet Boys keep fans screaming for their good looks and slick dance moves. Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

THE MATRIX

Incredible special effects and kung-fu fighting make this sci-fi thriller an instant classic. Keanu Reeves trained for months to pull off moves like this.

George Lucas makes history again with the 1999 release of "Star Wars: Episode 1 - The Phantom Menace." Star Wars fans waited in line days before the premiere in hopes of being one of the first to see the prequel.

"10 Things I Hate About You," a remake of The Taming of the Shrew, introduces newcomer Julia Stiles as a high school student who presents a challenge to her suitor Heath Ledger.

Keanu Reeves stars as a 21st century hacker in "The Matrix." This ground-breaking science fiction film excites audiences with computer-generated effects and superbly choreographed fight scenes.

Natalie Portman, Liam Neeson, and Ewan McGregor star in the highly anticipated prequel to the original Star Wars trilogy.

The networks presented us with a dazzling variety of shows, many of them teen-oriented. The WB Network led the way with "Buffy the Vampire Slayer," "Dawson's Creek" and newcomers, "Roswell" and "Popular." Jennifer Love Hewitt ventured out on her own, tackling the concrete jungle of New York City in "Time Of Your Life." Animated sitcom "The Simpsons" remained popular while cartoonist Matt Groening's newest series, "Futurama," gained a wider audience. Finally, talk show personality Regis Philbin crossed over to game shows asking the country, "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire?"

Rachel

Dear Rachel,
It's been the most fun thing I've done so far - being your mom. I'm proud of the way you've been able to carry yourself through these really tough times to be a kid. And though you'll be graduating soon and starting a new direction in your life, you'll always be "my little peanut"! At the age of 4 when we were camping, you took the hammer out of my hand and said "I can pitch the tent Mommy!" And you did. I knew then that you'd be a confident woman with a mind of her own when you grew up, and you certainly are! I'm very proud of you and look forward to watching your bright future unfold.
I love you! Mom

*To Heather,
From the moment you were born, you brought us joy, gave us love, and each time you smiled our lives were given a reason. We love you with all our heart and wish you love, health and happiness in the years to come. And always remember, you are our baby and always will be. You are never too far from home. Love, Mom and Dad*

If you can talk with crowds and keep you virtue,
Or walk with kings - nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run-
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And - which is more - you'll be a Man, my son!

A Message for a Very Deserving Graduate
 Many things come to mind when finding the right words to tell you how proud we are of you and all your accomplishments. Graduation is a special time to cherish because it brings so many wonderful memories into focus. Begin to pursue a new path of excitement and fulfillment; reach out for the next stars and achieve many things that are so important to you. You are a unique and special person and only you can do whatever it takes to follow your dreams. May all your dreams in your heart come true for you Jennifer!

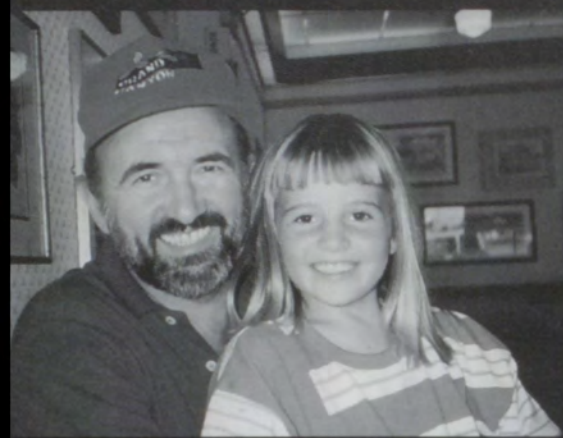

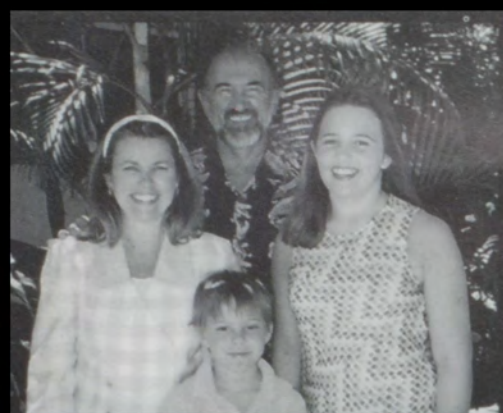

We love you!

To Mom, Dad, and Family,

You're Always There

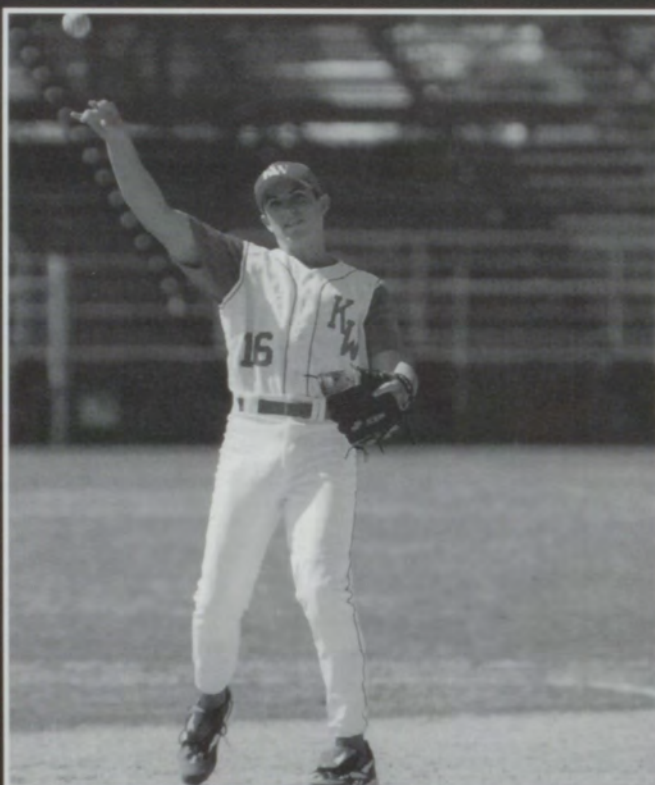

*You're always there to hear me out
When I have something to say.
You're always there to pick me up
When things don't go my way.
You're always there with open arms
When things start getting rough.
And when I start to hang my head
You're always there to say "be tough".
You're always there to show support
In things I like to do.
Who else will come to every game
And cheer me on like you?
Although at times I argue back
And sometimes disobey,
You're always there to sit me down
And show me the right way.
And though I may not show you much
By things I say or do,
I want you to know that I'm sincere
When I say I Love You!*

*Love,
Carlton*

It's not how much you accomplish in life that really counts, but how much you give to others. It's not how high you build your dreams that makes a difference, but how high your faith can climb. It's not how many goals you reach, but how many lives you touch. It's not who you know that matters, but who you are inside. Believe in the impossible, hold tight to the incredible, and live each day to its fullest potential. You can make a difference in your world.
We Love You, Mom, Dad, Steven and the Family

Ingrid Tuckler

Children are a gift from God, and you are the most precious gift. Now that you're moving on to pursue your education, I'm going to miss you dearly. I know that you'll accomplish all your goals and that your dreams will soon become a reality.

Love you more than words can say,
Mom

SAMANTHA DEHLIA

On 11/29/81, I brought you forth into the loving arms of your family. As I gazed into your cherubic face, you peered back with "old soul" eyes, and it was love at first sight! As a child, you were blessed with humor and strong ideas. Often, as I cuddled you, you would ask, "Mommy, how much do you love me?" As I covered you with kisses, never wanting to let you go, I would reply, "I love you all the way to Mexico, Timbaktu, Oshkosh, Kalamazoo, and all the faraway places." As you grew into a woman that I respect and admire, I knew you would be strong and determined, sensitive and loving. It is with joy and some pain that I kiss my little girl goodbye, but rest assured, sweet one... we are immeasurably proud of your accomplishments. May you soar with expansive wings to the heights of happiness and to the limits of your imagination. May you always return to the nurturing roots of the family that loves you. Pursue your dreams, dearest Sammie, and know that we will always be here for you.

Love always, Mom, Dad, Carlos, & Waz

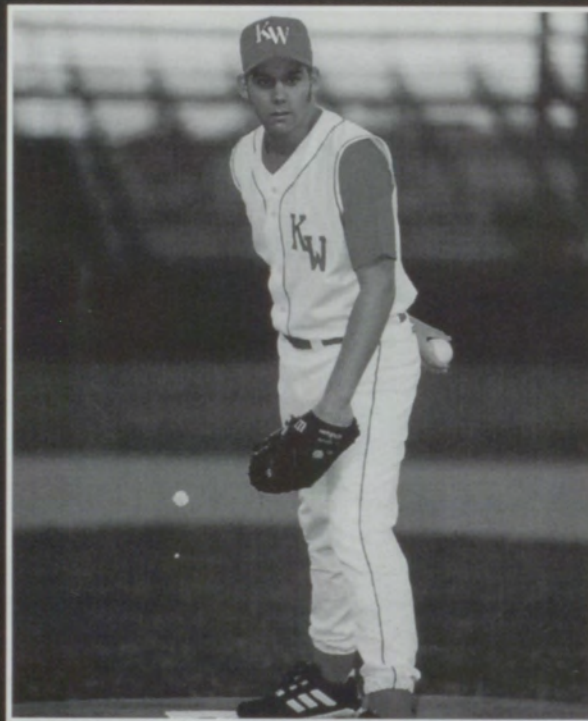

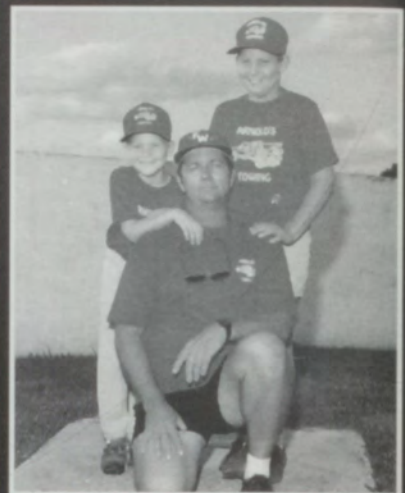

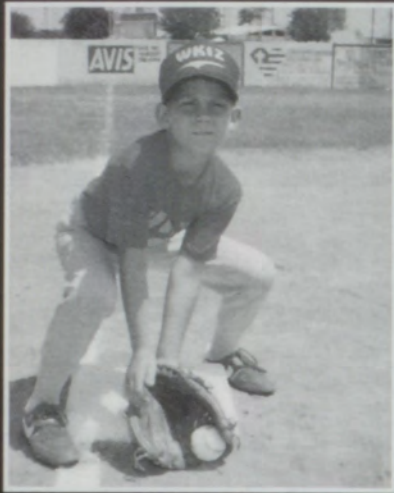

Fallon S Creel

I wish you the satisfaction of seeing your goals achieved, and also the true contentment that is born of simple things - work well-done, friends well-loved, moments caught and cherished. And my greatest wish is that you will always remember how much you are loved - for you are a beautiful, special person...a woman I am proud to have for a daughter.

Daniel Jay Hersey

Daniel,
Congratulations, we are so proud of you on a job well done. May God be with you in the future and for what it holds for you.

Michael Anderson

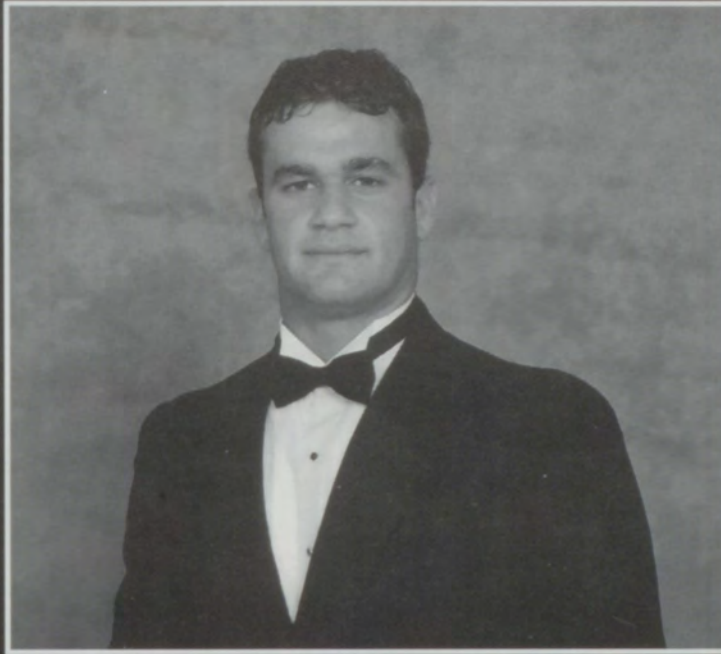

Michael,
There isn't anyway else to say it. We are all so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We love you and know, without a doubt, that the future is yours at hand, and for those extra tough times, remember these words from the book of Proverbs 3:5-6...Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Love, Dad, Mom, Alison, & Jessica

Candice Rodriguez

*On April 2, 1982, God blessed me with my most desired wish, a baby girl.
Words can't express what I feel.*

Candice has always been an easy going child, never any problems at home, school or any other place. She has blossom into the most beautiful, respectful, responsible and mature young lady any mother can be proud of.

Candice, you are half my heart and soul (your sister the other), the most important thing in my life. I'm so proud of you and know that you'll continue to do the best things in life. Never change the way you are and always be true to yourself. I will always love you with all my heart and soul no matter what, and until my last dying breath I will always be there for you. LOVE, MOM

*Candice, even thou you are not my biological daughter, having you has been the greatest feeling in my life. Thanks for being my family and making it complete, you're one special young girl I'm proud to call "my daughter" Candice!
Love your stepfather, Carlos*

Dearest Alexis —
 You've always marched to the beat of a different drum, but we who love you realize that your individuality and uniqueness are what make you so special. You've enriched our lives with laughter and your spontaneity.
 Follow His leading and God will bless you with a fruitful and abundant life.
 Love always,
 Mom, Dad, Marisa and Family
 P.S. Be careful, Harry!

Clay Fraga

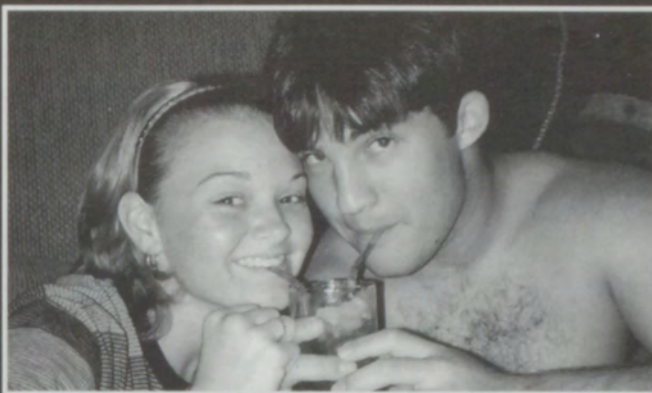

Clay, It's easy to take things for granted in a family...to assume that you just know the things that somehow never get said...but maybe you don't know how special you are...how easy it is to be proud of you. Maybe you've never guessed how much you're admired for the coolheaded way you think for yourself...or for the warmhearted way you think about others. Maybe you don't know how nice you are to be around...how your cheerful enthusiasm adds such life to ordinary days. Maybe you don't realize how much it's always meant to have you for a son...to see you grow up so beautifully without ever growing away from those who love you. Well, in case you don't, this is coming just to let you know what a very dear son you are.
We love you special!!!

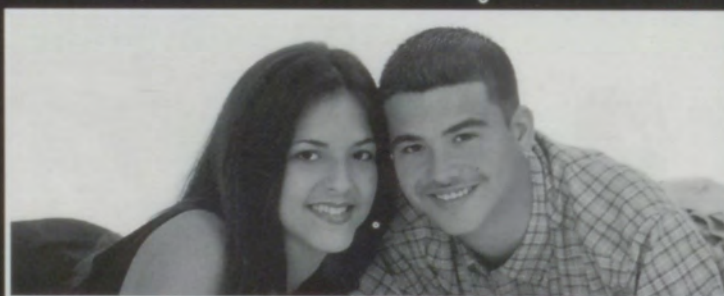

Kristin Elaine

Kristin
There are really only three things that I hoped to instill in you...Unconditional love, your roots, and your wings. Fly away...fulfill your dreams...And as all of your tomorrows open themselves to your wings...
Never forget how proud we are of you...
And how much you are loved...

Our Daughter,
 There are so many things we want for you, so many wishes in our hearts as we watch you grow into your own life and leave your childhood behind... We wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence, along with the wisdom to choose your battles carefully... We wish you a world of adventure and experience, and also the serenity that comes from listening to your inner voice as the world rushes around you... We wish you the satisfaction of seeing your goals achieved, and also the true contentment that is born of simple things... work well-done, friends well-loved, moments caught and cherished. And our greatest wish is that you will always remember that you are a beautiful, special person... and that no one could ever love a daughter and believe in her more deeply than we love and believe in you.

To: My son,
Malcolm Carlton Munnings Jr.

Out of all the things I've done in my life, the one thing that I'm the proudest, is having a son like you. I've been truly blessed, being your mother; you're like no other. Please, remember always to say your prayers. Be careful, be strong, stay true, remember GOD is watching you. Nothing or no one will ever change the way I feel and love you. Because, if I didn't have you, I would be lost without. And so, I take this time and place to tell the world about you. Malcolm Munnings, Jr. #2, remember #1 is always there for you. My thanks to GOD; my thanks to you; my thanks to everyone that has helped me with you.

Only yesterday a gorgeous, giggling baby girl captured our hearts as she ran across the sands of Hawaii to splash about in the clear blue ocean. Next came mischief in New Jersey, a schoolgirl in England, a skier and softball player in Germany and finally a young teenager overcome with concern over Anne Frank while visiting Amsterdam. There are a million more facets to this diamond, each one endears us to you more. That baby is now a stunningly beautiful woman and we can't wait to see what comes next.

Yearbook Seniors

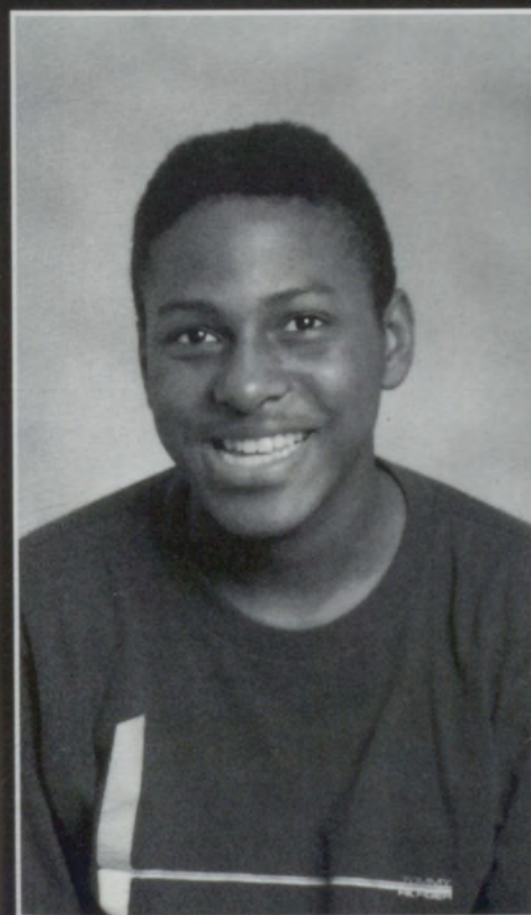

To the Seniors on the staff of the 2000 Yearbook: You have been wonderful! Thank you for all of your dedication and help. I would not have been able to make it through my first year as your advisor without your cooperation and support. Good luck with your future endeavors.
Ms. Kinnune

Joshua England

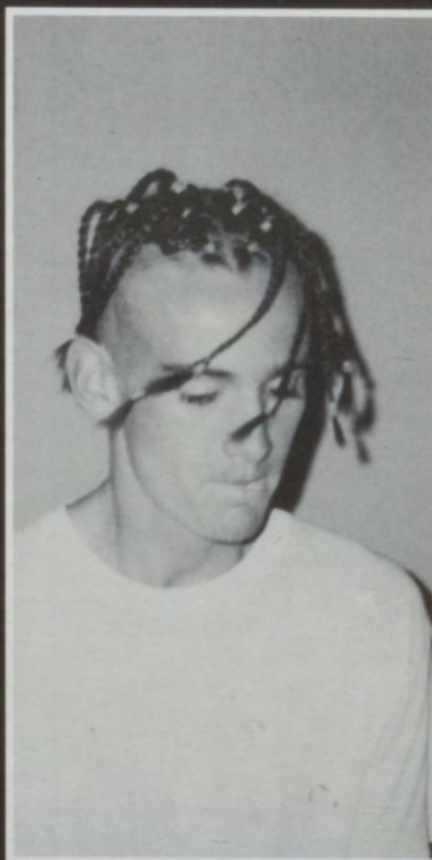

Joshua England was a lively 14-year-old who had an infectious smile and a bouncy personality. He loved cartoons, Nintendo, computer games, and pretty girls. He was fearful of many things before his accident. Today, he is demonstrating great courage as he is battling to come back to us. We continue to wish for Joshua to open his eyes and enjoy the Rugrats!

Their Unforgettable Support

Making the yearbook takes a lot of hardwork and dedication as wells as many materials and resources. In order to acquire these materials and resources we look toward the community for assistance. The yearbook staff would like to thank those businesses in the community that have advertised with us. They make it possible to publish a book that all of the students can enjoy.

Without the community's support, nothing would be possible. Because of these local businesses, we are able to add more pages, more pictures, more color, and an overall better book. The following pages contain ads for businesses that contributed to the publication of our Millenium Conch.

We thank those you continue to support us year after year, as well as those that are first time sponsors. You are our backbone and your generosity will not be forgotten.

As the summer lazily came to an end, I was consumed by eager anticipation for the upcoming year. Walking through the halls on that first day of my senior year, my thoughts were filled with the joy of seeing old friends and the dread of an interminably long school year.

As I fell into the routines of everyday life, time passed unnoticed. And before I realized it, the days had quietly slipped away. Now, as the year comes to a close, the impact of graduation finally hits. Only now do I realize the magnitude of what I'm leaving behind. How will I survive without the security of a safe and nurturing community, the fun times and many laughs with lifelong friends, and the infinite encouragement and commitment of my loving family?

As I examine the past, live in the present, and look to the future, I am grateful for the people who have been integral to my life. May this serve as my heartfelt thanks and a lasting remembrance. As the years pass, and we go our separate ways, trust in this... I will remember.

As a parting gift, the Senior yearbook staff dedicates the "Millenium Conch" to the people who've influence and supported us in our journeys;

To our teachers, who provided the spark of intellectual inspiration and opened new worlds for us to discover, your encouragement will be the foundation on which we build our future.

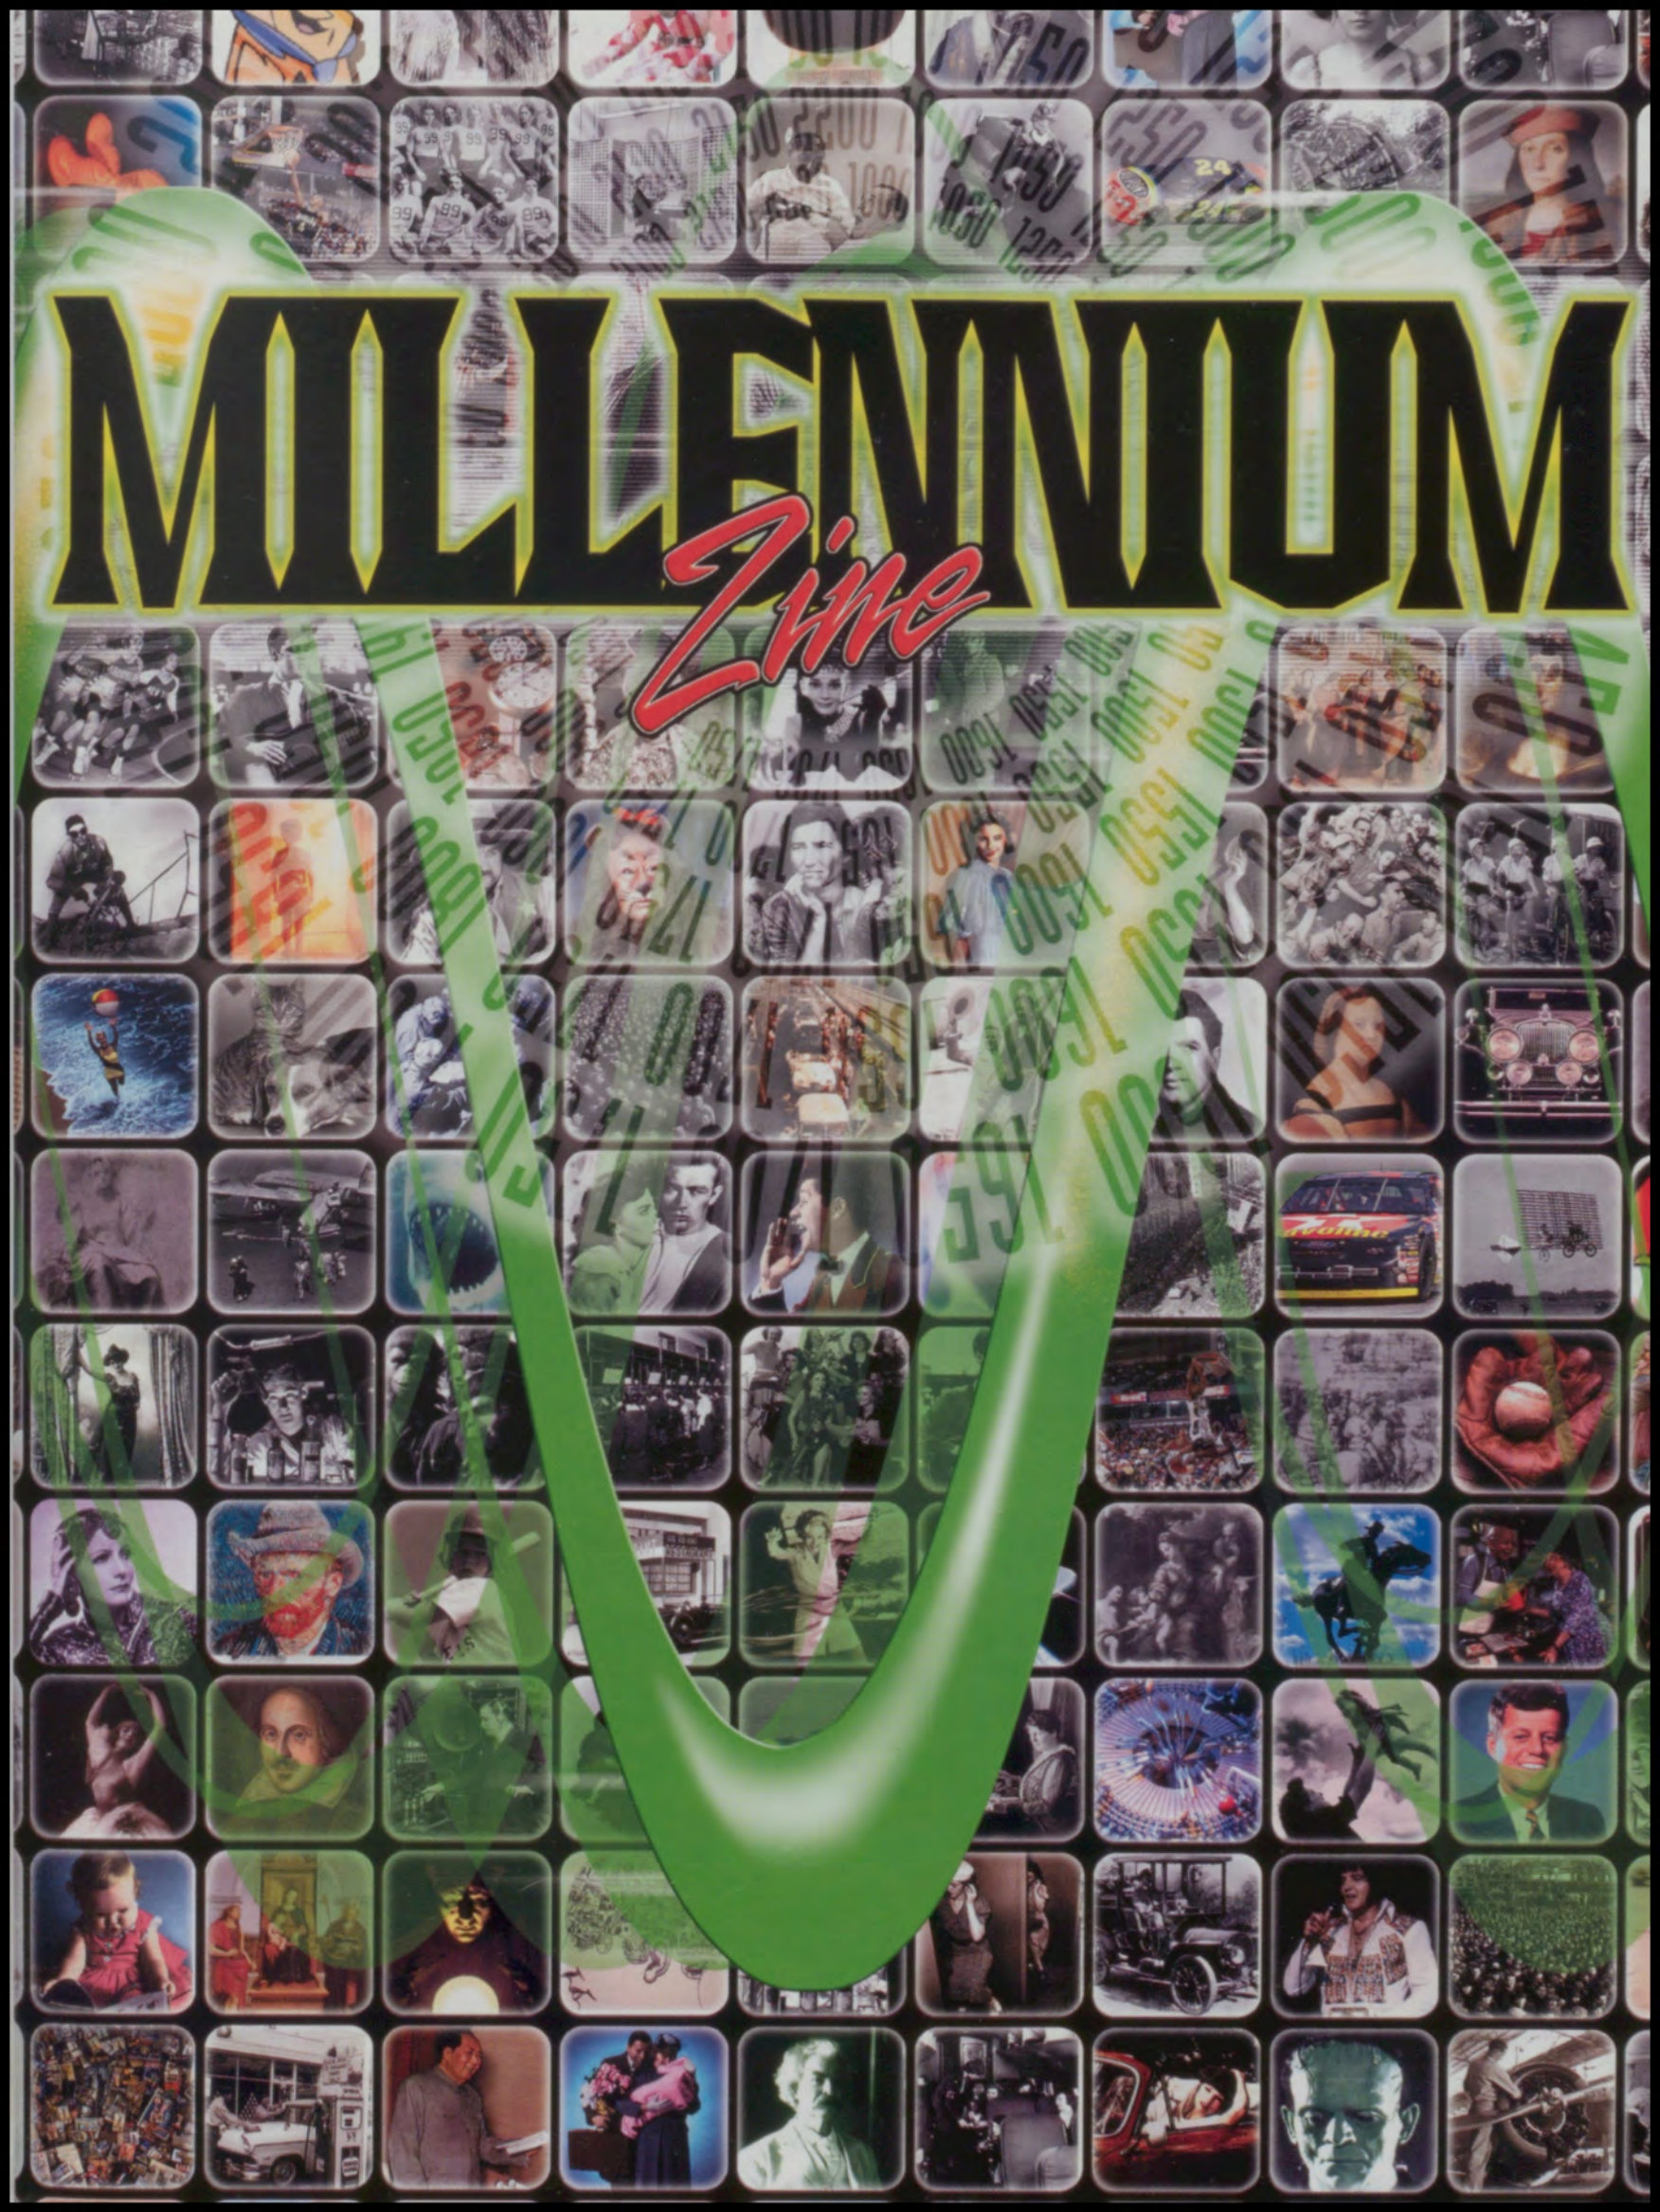

To the community, who's committment and generosity has provided us with a multitude of activities, nothing would have been possible without your contribution.

To our friends, who've been there through four years of laughter and tears, we cherish you and the experiences we shared.

And to our parents, who held our hands through life's small and great challenges, your love and guidance carried us when obstacles seemed too difficult to overcome. You were our backbone, giving us strength, courage, and confidence. Your compassion and support will not be forgotten. We Will Remember.

What On Earth Happened?

The world spent much of the past thousand years making some pretty amazing history. As the millennium began, Druids practiced dark rituals, while the Byzantine Empire dominated Eastern Europe. Conqueror Genghis Khan put the Mongols on the map in the 1200s, and the Great Wall protected China against would-be invaders.

The Middle Ages, though plagued by feudalism, heralded gallant knights and the governing ideals of the Magna Carta. The Renaissance and The Enlightenment both saw great achievements in art, science and exploration, followed by Romantic and Revolutionary periods in France and colonial America.

As industry and capitalism grew, so did Communism in the Soviet Union and beyond. The World Wars and other 20th century conflicts brought struggles for power amid vast advancements in communications and technology.

History's movers and shakers included Joan of Arc, the teenager who led France to victory against England in 1429, and Martin Luther whose religious reforms shocked the 16th century. King Henry VIII of England kept his head while several of his spouses lost theirs. Sir Winston Churchill helped England stand courageously against Nazi Germany. One recent hero is Nelson Mandela, South Africa's first black president and anti-apartheid activist. Time marches on...and the next chapter is already being written.

And The Wall Came Tumbling Down

In 1961, the Berlin Wall was erected to prevent residents of Communist East Berlin, Germany, from fleeing to non-Communist West Berlin for a better way of life. In 1989, the East Germans opened the Wall, lifted immigration restrictions and reunited Germany. Tearing down the Wall symbolized the end of the Cold War, which started when the Soviet Union created "Iron Curtain" countries isolated from the Western world. In the '50s, fear of communism in the United States resulted in the "Red Scare."

The Christmas tree began as an evergreen decorated with apples, symbolizing Eden in a December medieval German play. By the 1600s, trees in German homes were trimmed with candles, fruits and cookies. Currently, Christmas is a multi-billion dollar business with wreaths, mistletoe, stockings, movies, outdoor decorations and cards.

Crusading Towards The Holy Land

When Muslims took control of the Holy Land during the Middle Ages, Christians from Western Europe vowed to recapture the area. Nine major Crusades were organized with kings, nobles, peasants, and even children taking part. None was successful. Holy wars have continued to rage in such places as the Middle East, including the Six-Day War between Israel and Egypt in 1967.

Stare And Stare Alike

The 3-D thrill of the Viewmaster was love at first sight. Then along came Magic Eye, random dot stereograms that revealed 3-D images hidden in colorful graphics with holograms that practically jumped out. Life had become a virtual reality.

As The Rubik Turns

More than 200 million people twisted their way to the 3-D solution of the Rubik's Cube puzzle in the '80s. Some tried memorizing the cube's configuration while it was still in the package. Preoccupation with puzzles dates back to the first jigsaw puzzles in the 18th century. The world is still trying to solve crosswords, word searches, "Where's Waldo?" and other brain-busting challenges.

That's Pretty Fad-tastic!

Leaders. Followers. The millennium caught every generation a bit off-guard, but folks quickly had the lingo and the look down. When Elizabethan life got ruffled around the collar, everyone copied. Then poof! Powdered wigs, some several feet high, got nobles noticed in the 17th century. How about wooden teeth in Washington's time? By George, it beat having none at all!

As the years passed, women wore the bustle and disco freaks did the Hustle. The '50s poodle skirts bred '70s dog tags, '80s spiked dog collars and '90s Old Navy mutts. Who knew there'd be just as much fur-vor over Davy Crockett coonskin caps in the '50s as with raccoon coats in the '20s?

While some slipped on shining armor, carefree flapper dresses and Calvin Klein jeans, others followed different fads. Joysticks maneuvered Pac-Man into the arcade hall of fame. Suddenly everyone cared for Pet Rocks, squeezed into phone booths, pounced on Pog, pierced body parts and chose CB radio handles. Will there be as many "must haves" next millennium? Only the Magic 8 Ball knows for sure.

Arts Imitate Life

Nearly every civilization during the millennium expressed its culture and defining events through art and architecture. Great painters, musicians, authors and sculptors vividly captured the emotions of their day. Early Romans built coliseums and staged comedies. Byzantine mosaics and icons reflected Eastern Christian beliefs while Chinese painters produced deft landscapes.

The Middle Ages fostered the rise of Gothic cathedrals, poet Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales" and finely woven tapestries. In the Renaissance, William Shakespeare pumped up a volume of still-popular plays.

Michelangelo busily sculpted his marble marvel David. Novelists such as Jane Austen characterized the Romantic Movement of the 18th century while the 19th century promoted Impressionist painter Monet, socially-conscious authors including Charles Dickens and the riverside adventures of Mark Twain.

Ballet legend Nijinsky leaped on the 20th century arts scene. Picasso broke with tradition to pioneer Cubism and Dali turned dreams into surreality. Don't forget Dadaism, Momaism and Norman Rockwellism. Opera was a trill a minute with stars including Beverly Sills and Luciano Pavarotti.

Stephen King and Ann Rice chilled with horror novels, while Ernest Hemingway and John Steinbeck proved more down-to-earth. Broadway was Neil Simon-ized, then "Lion King"-ized.

Deep Thought
Number 2,714

When 19th century French sculptor Auguste Rodin created his bronze work, The Thinker, he used his knowledge of anatomy and movement to capture intensely human emotions as great Renaissance and Baroque sculptors Michelangelo and Bernini had done before him. Many 20th century sculptors crafted more experimental works, such as Marc Chagall's mobiles and Marcel Duchamp's creations from discarded materials.

Smile. You're On

Renaissance master Leonardo da Vinci's 1503 portrait of Mona Lisa, the wife of a silk merchant, was extraordinary with its dramatic dark/light contrasts and ultra-mysterious smile. A face immortalized in history was a cinch if one happened to know such artists as Rembrandt, Van Gogh, Toulouse-Lautrec or Wyeth. Many painters, however, opted for religious scenes, still lifes and landscapes.

Norwegian Edvard Munch's 1893 painting, The Scream, was an anguished cry of isolation and fear that influenced the 20th century Expressionist movement and reminded us of our own stressed-out lives. Vincent Van Gogh and Edgar Allan Poe were among other desperate artists and authors of the time.

Willie Make It Now?

Sixty-year-old Willie Loman spent his life way out there in the blue, riding a smile and a shoeshine, a salesman extraordinaire. Arthur Miller's drama, "Death of a Salesman," became one of the most riveting plays ever staged as it questioned the American dream and explored the depths of failure. During the 20th century, audiences have witnessed other gripping dramas such as "A Raisin in the Sun" and "The Glass Menagerie."

Clawing Its Way To The Top

After Andrew Lloyd Webber picked up T. S. Eliot's Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats at an airport, he grabbed the theater world by the tail as creator of "Cats," history's longest-running musical. The 20th century set the stage for vaudeville singing and comedy acts, as well as some of the greatest musicals to hit Broadway: "Showboat," "Porgy and Bess," "Phantom of the Opera," "Hello, Dolly!" and "The Lion King."

Sometimes You Feel Like A Nutcracker

In 1892, Russian composer Peter Tchaikovsky turned the The Nutcracker into a beloved holiday ballet with his remarkable suite. Twentieth century dance gained popularity as composers wrote musicals that were imaginatively choreographed, including George Gershwin's "An American in Paris." Music and dance partnered dramatically with the Tango—followed by the carefree Charleston, Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers' ballroom elegance, the Jitterbug, the Twist and Disco.

His other creations involved striking images of mass-media icons Marilyn Monroe and Elizabeth Taylor. Warhol helped other pop artists including Roy Lichtenstein and Leroy Neiman, enjoy their 15 minutes of fame.

Crank Up the Volume

Music of the millennium started on a somber note with the Gregorian chants of monks and ended on samba, "La Bamba" and "Living La Vida Loca." French troubadours roamed the countryside with poems and tunes in the Middle Ages. Lutes and flutes added richness to the Renaissance, while chamber music was Handeled well in the Baroque period.

Beethoven, Mozart and Tchaikovsky crowned the classical music of the 18th and 19th centuries. Strauss then waltzed in to share the spotlight and Sousa marched over to greatness. The birth of the Blues and Jazz brought Billie Holiday and Duke Ellington, followed by Big Bands and the easy-going Swing era.

With a twist and shout, Rock & Roll cruised in from Elvis Presley, Chuck Berry, Jimi Hendrix, KISS and Aerosmith. "We Are the World" provided musical relief and Farm Aid helped heal the heartland. Patsy Cline and Willie Nelson added that country twang, Sinatra made the songs so smooth, and folks listened happily ever after.

From Motown To Moonwalker

The Gloved One's 1982 "Thriller," containing such hits as "Beat It," became the best-selling album ever. Before the rhinestones, there was Detroit's Motown label, which signed Michael and his Jackson 5 brothers when he was still learning his "ABCs." With the toast of '60s soul—The Supremes, The Temptations, The Miracles, Stevie Wonder—music couldn't get mo' betta than Motown.

It Came From Deep Inside The Jukebox

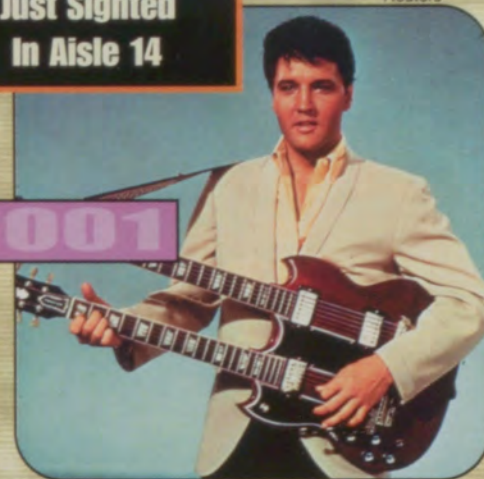

"Put another nickel in" beckoned the jukebox, the first electrically amplified automatic phonograph. From the 1930s to the 1960s, it held memories of teenage years and breakup tears. Covered in chrome, the jukebox magically queued up that special 45. The transistor radios, 8-tracks, CD jukeboxes and discmans that followed just couldn't carry a tune quite as well.

Going After A Cure

AP/Wide World

Despite numerous medical milestones, curing diseases such as AIDS and cancer eludes the population. In the '80s, Ryan White, a hemophiliac, contracted HIV through blood transfusions and later died. The AIDS virus is the latest epidemic civilizations have battled. The Bubonic Plague killed 40 million by the 14th century and the Typhoid Fever outbreak of the early 1900s claimed countless lives as well. Vaccines now prevent such diseases as smallpox, but any mutations could pose a threat again.

It Does A Body Good

Consumers have become more concerned about keeping healthy, germ-free and well-groomed from head to toe. During the Middle Ages, baths were rarely taken, but today showers and baths are taken daily in order to keep clean and healthy. Today toothpaste, deodorants and mouthwash are used daily. Vitamins and natural herbs are popular and medical advancements keep folks functioning better.

Numb And Number

Super Stock

Prior to the use of anesthesia during operations, early surgeons and barbers cut veins to drain "bad" blood, or sucked it out with leeches to cure patients. Boiling oil was sometimes poured on wounds to sterilize them. Before nitrous oxide and ether were introduced as anesthetics in the 1800s, most operations weren't performed at all. Surgical conditions were unsanitary, causing infections to spread rapidly.

The Fact of Life

In the Middle Ages, the average life expectancy in Europe was about 30 years; today it is more than 70 for both men and women. Improved nutrition, sanitation, disease prevention and disease treatment are some of the main reasons for the increase.

With the average life expectancy rising, people will try liposuction and tummy tucks, facelifts and collagen injections to stay younger looking. RK and LASIK procedures make contact lenses and glasses obsolete for many, and hearing aids are almost invisible. Heart, lung and other transplants give new hope, as do today's medicines compared to the quack cure-alls of the 1800s.

Curling Irons

Bodybuilding became a pumping iron passion after ex-97 lb. weakling Charles Atlas promoted his "Dynamic Tension" muscle-producing exercises in the early 20th century. In the '80s and '90s, Arnold Schwarzenegger wannabes bench pressed and lifted weights in the gym so they could burn fat and get fit. Harmful steroids were replaced by sports drinks, creatine and protein bars to fuel performance.

Health Yourself

The mysteries of medicine, better health and longer living were revealed as the millennium unfolded. Diseases prevalent in early times were conquered through improved medicine, sanitation, immunization and eating habits, although other factors such as high cholesterol, smoking and junk foods brought on such foes as heart disease, cancer and obesity. The Food and Drug Administration now ensures proper processing to kill bacteria and preserve foods longer.

In the 1800s, Austrian monk Gregor Mendel formulated the basic rules of heredity that led to genetics, and better understanding of human makeup. Florence Nightingale brought reforms to nursing in the 19th century including more sanitary conditions and scientific care for the sick. Instead of the guesswork so common in the Middle Ages, doctors now work to control, cure and prevent illness. Medical specialties were created, producing such authorities as pediatrician Dr. Benjamin Spock who knew all about babies.

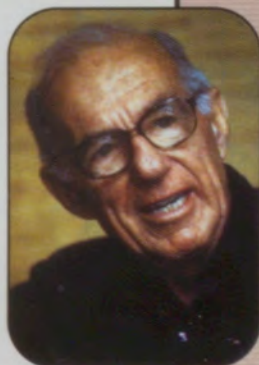

Exercise became almost an obsession as gyms, jogging tracks and Jane Fondas sprouted, and personal trainers zeroed in on targeted areas. Take a deep breath and say hello to yoga, stress reduction therapy, medications to feel happy/energetic/calmer, wrinkle creams, alternative medicines, just name it. Coming And Going Attractions

Getting around was slow and hard during the beginning of the millennium but somebody had to do it. In the Middle Ages, horses got saddled with pulling wagons transporting goods and passengers for long distances. Viking ships found rough sailing to Greenland and later America, but compasses and better construction of vessels in the 1400s made voyages and overseas trade possible.

Canals and paved roads hastened travel in the 1700s and the first major U.S. Highway, the National Road, created road rage in the mid-1800s.

After Robert Fulton invented the steamboat, British inventor Richard Trevithick helped develop the locomotive.

Life quickened as travel and hauling freight became more economical.

Electric trains, streetcars and gasoline-powered engines drove transportation into the modern era. Suddenly automobiles putt-putted along and sprouted everything from running boards to fins. Airplanes soared, subways roared and spaceships explored. The risks of progress have also been great, such as the loss of pilot Amelia Earhart and her plane on an around-the-world flight in 1937, the Space Shuttle Challenger explosion in 1986 and numerous airplane crashes.

Tomorrow's transportation could include human teleportation and faster-than-light travel. The ride's been pretty good so far, but inevitably some still ask, "Are we there yet?"

Gas Transit

Once steam-powered engines invaded 18th century Europe, a steam car, or horseless carriage, seemed a natural. The gasoline engine and pneumatic tire, however, made automobiles practical. Henry Ford's 1908 assembly line mass production of his Model T made owning a car affordable. This led to the growth of suburbs, superhighways, motels, road-trips, traffic jams, malls and, of course, fuzzy dice.

Folks with the need for speed rode horseback.

In the 1860s, the Central Pacific Railroad laid track eastward from Sacramento, California and the Union Pacific Railroad laid track westward from Omaha, Nebraska. The Transcontinental Railroad was finished in 1869 when both railroads met in Promontory, Utah. Coast-to-coast freight and passenger lines dramatically increased settlements and trade. Today's subways, light rail and ultra-fast bullet trains move commuters like crazy and make good action movie sequences.

Da Plane! Da Plane!

Leonardo da Vinci dreamed of flying machines with wings, but it took centuries to get the concept off the ground. The Montgolfier brothers were full of hot air when their balloon ascended in 1783. Orville and Wilbur Wright had the right stuff and flew the first successful airplane in 1903. Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart flew far and solo, and Chuck Yeager broke the sound barrier. Today, airplanes carry millions of business, pleasure and military passengers. But airline food still hasn't improved much.

Let's All Funnel Through The Chunnel

AP/Wide World

Sure beats getting seasick in a bumpy hovercraft or swimming it. In 1994, the chunnel made the world smaller by linking the continent of Europe and the United Kingdom via railway tunnel underneath the choppy English Channel. The high-speed Eurostar train can transport riders from London to Paris in just three hours. Will the future bring travel under the great oceans? Across the universe? Or back in time? Oops...that last one's already happening. It's called the re-introduction of the Volkswagen Beetle.

Are We There Yet?

With the many modes of passenger transportation that have evolved, there are ever-faster ways to reach a given destination, especially for those with friends in high places.

So what's the best way to travel from Los Angeles to New York City (2,824 miles) nonstop?

On foot, 6 m.p.h.	19 days
On horseback, 40 m.p.h.	3 days
By car, 60 m.p.h. average	2 days

We Get Game

Sports gained popularity as time lunged forward. While forms of games resembling soccer were played during the 10th century, life rarely allowed time-outs for recreation. Thank goodness for the 1600s, when the English played Rounders, a baseball predecessor, and Scotland saw early rounds of golf. By the 1800s many people led the sportin' life, including James Naismith who invented basketball, and the students of Canada's McGill University who scored with the first hockey rules.

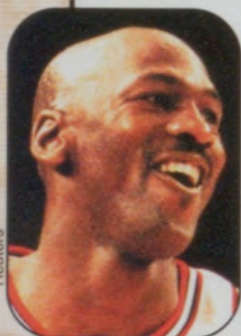

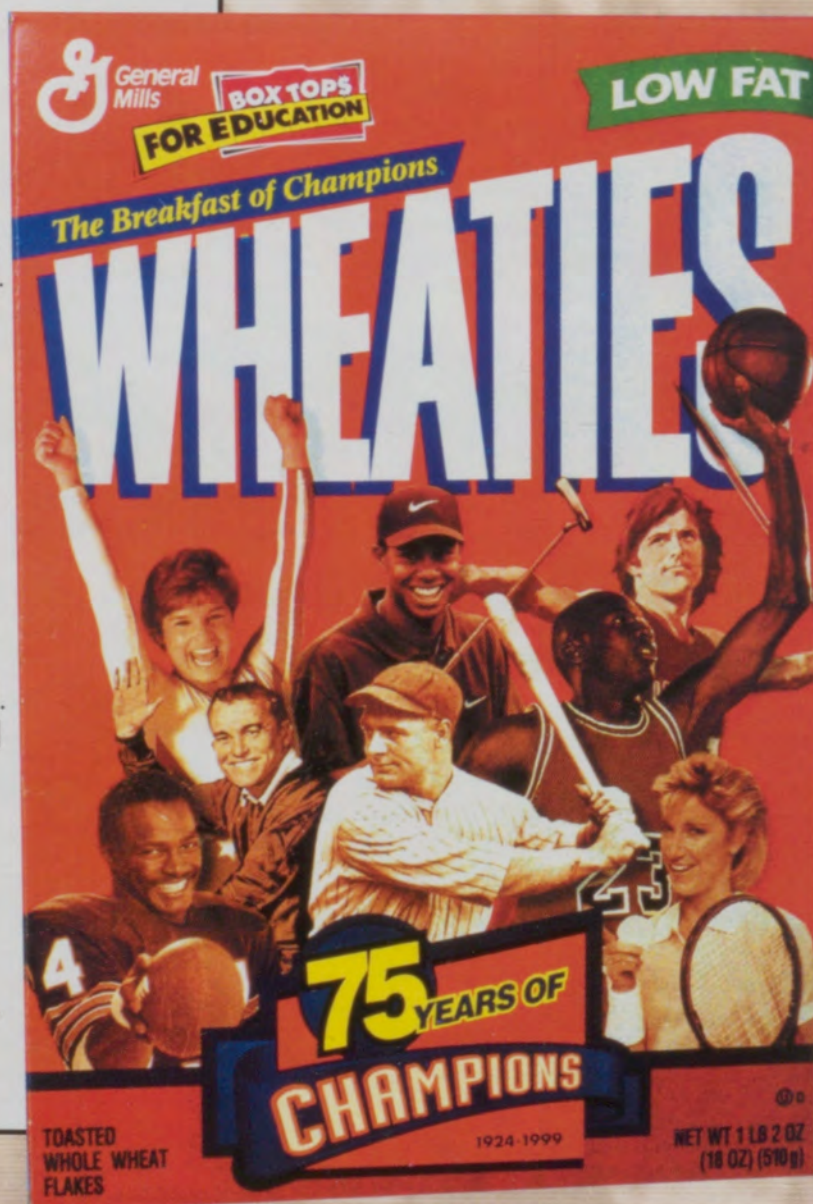

Native American athlete Jim Thorpe won fame in early 20th century Olympic track and field, as well as football and baseball. Babe Didrickson, his female counterpart, excelled in golf as well as track and field.

As baseball became a pastime and football a passion, Babe Ruth and Hank Aaron belted pitches "outta here," Jackie Robinson broke color barriers, Joe Namath threw footballs and John Elway busted Broncos loose in the Super Bowl.

Today sports revolves around such stars as heavy-hitter Ken Griffey, Jr., golf sensation Tiger Woods and hoops immortal Michael Jordan. Amateur and school sports are also serious stuff. Millions are on the fast track with NASCAR auto racing, on the edge for extreme sports and in the ropes for wrestling.

Champs For Sale

What really makes an athlete like home run king Mark McGwire a hero? Getting on General Mills' Wheaties cereal box, of course. There's nothing flaky about the morning mania created since 1924 by "The Breakfast of Champions." Sports merchandising—from corporate-sponsored Bowl games to endorsement deals—seems like the hottest game in town.

Doing Rings Around The Competition

The Russians hadn't lost an Olympic hockey game since 1968, but they were iced over by the 1980 U.S. hockey team's "Miracle On Ice" victory at Lake Placid—which led to an eventual gold medal. Since the modern Olympic Games began in 1896, heroes such as track star Jesse Owens, figure skater Tara Lipinski, platform diver Greg Louganis and the 1996 women's gymnastics team have inspired sports fans everywhere.

That King Could Sting In The Ring

Before modern boxing was introduced in the 1700s, the sport was brutal, with no rest periods or gloves allowed. Jack Dempsey, Joe Louis and Rocky Marciano emerge victorious in the 1900s. But no fighter jabbed and jested like Muhammed Ali. Quick, agile and boastful, "The Greatest" even wrote poems describing how he would defeat opponents. He also made heavy-weight contributions to the community and human rights.

Four Scores And Seven Yards Ago

The Green Bay Packers sent the Kansas City Chiefs packing 35-10 at the first Super Bowl in January, 1967. Today, it is America's most popular annual televised event with hype and million-dollar commercials galore. Not only are college and high school football championships also big, but the teams are just as good as the pros at the coin toss.

Served With Love

In the 1100s, the French originated tennis, calling it "jeu de paume" (game of the palm). Today it holds court as a major spectator and leisure sport. Star servers have included Don Budge, Helen Wills Moody, Arthur Ashe and 1973 "Battle of the Sexes" rivals Billie Jean King and Bobby Riggs. Recent top seeds such as Pete Sampras and Martina Navratilova have settled for anything but love by dominating Wimbledon and other championships.

The Ladies Who Win

America got a kick out of the U.S. Women's soccer team, which won the 1999 World Cup by defeating China. Their victory proved that anything men can do, women can do just as well. Big milestone: President Richard Nixon signed into law Title IX, giving girls equal access to school sports like football.

How Did It Come Into Play?

Baseball, bowling and other familiar sports didn't just appear out of the blue. Here's a roster of some game origins.

Baseball: Cooperstown, NY 1839. Abner Doubleday based his new sport on bat-and-ball games such as "one old cat." He adopted the diamond-shaped field for his game and assigned playing positions.

Bowling: Germany, third century. Every German peasant carried a club called a kegel for protection. In church, faith was tested by setting up the kegel as a target (representing the heathen) and rolling a stone to try to knock it down. Those who succeeded were considered free of sin.

Fencing: Italy, 16th century. Fencing began in ancient times as the practice of swordsmanship to prepare men for duels and warfare.

After Thomas Edison invented the commercial motion picture machine, the Kinetoscope, in 1893, projection machines greatly enlarged a film's image. This led to one of the 20th century's most popular forms of entertainment, the movie. Sunny Hollywood beckoned such film directors as D.W. Griffith, who revolutionized film editing with The Birth of a Nation in 1915. Silent films made quiet stars of comedian Charlie Chaplin, handsome Douglas Fairbanks Sr., Rudolph Valentino and Jean Harlow.

In the 1930s, audiences heard voices when "talkies" caught on after The Jazz Singer's premier in 1927. Screwball comedies including It Happened One Night thrust such stars as Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert into the limelight. Alfred Hitchcock made classic thrillers, and Frankenstein was a chiller. Casablanca dramatized war and Dr. Strangelove spoofed it. Marilyn Monroe and Audrey Hepburn lit up the screen, and Charlton Heston found fame of biblical proportions. John Wayne saved the day, and James Bond was never shaken or stirred. The Rat Pack cruised the Vegas strip and the Brat Pack cruised the halls in The Breakfast Club.

Blockbusters have ruled recent movies. Sylvester Stallone punched up Rocky. Harrison Ford dodged madmen and meteors in Star Wars and Raiders of the Lost Ark. Armageddon and Titanic astounded audiences with their mega-dollar budgets. Tom Hanks, Julia Roberts and Will Smith became idols at 24-screen multiplexes.

Seen In 3-D

Weapons flying past! Spaceships zooming above! Bwana Devil wowed tinted glasses-wearing crowds as the 3-D movie phenomenon burst from the screen in 1952. But high cost and poor quality made 3-D fall flat. Disney's Captain Eo gloriously revived 3-D in the '80s and became an audience-grabber at Epcot Center. Now seven-story IMAX theaters, IMAX 3-D technology and simulator rides truly immerse viewers in movies.

Doin' The Curly Shuffle

"Soitenly" audiences loved comedy teams such as The Three Stooges in the '30s and '40s. Those n'yuk n'yuk n'yukleheads pulled punches to make 'em laugh. Laurel and Hardy got into fine messes, while Abbott and Costello turned their antics into the monstrous classic, Abbott & Costello Meet Frankenstein. Groucho, Chico and Harpo Marx were top bananas in zany romps including Monkey Business and opened the trap door for crazies such as Martin and Lewis, Crosby and Hope, Steve Martin and Eddie Murphy.

Lights, Camera, Attraction!

Some movie pairings are so memorable, they have become legendary. Here are a few of Hollywood's most famous film couples:

- Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy (Woman of the Year - 1942)
- Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor (Cleopatra - 1963)
- Jessica Rabbit and Roger Rabbit (Who Framed Roger Rabbit? - 1988)
- Meg Ryan and Tom Hanks (Sleepless in Seattle - 1993, Joe Versus the Volcano - 1990 and You've Got Mail - 1999)
- Julia Roberts and Richard Gere (Pretty Woman - 1990 and Runaway Bride - 1999)
- Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman (Casablanca - 1942)

Gone To The Movies

"Oh Fiddle Dee Dee," mused Scarlett O'Hara (Vivien Leigh) over the men and misfortunes she encountered as the strong-willed and resourceful mistress of Tara Plantation in 1939's Gone With The Wind. Often called the greatest film made, GWTW told of a woman who could deal with the Civil War but not with losing the love of Rhett Butler (Clark Gable). Other unforgettable romances: The Way We Were, Breakfast at Tiffany's and Shakespeare In Love.

Here, Wizard Wizard

Oh, those ruby slippers! A brilliant technicolor blast brought Kansas' Dorothy over the rainbow and into audiences' hearts as The Wizard of Oz premiered in 1939. One of the best-loved movies because of its re-releases and annual television broadcasts, the film boasted wicked witches, munchkins, a cowardly lion and the magical Judy Garland. The Wizard of Oz inspired an African American musical and movie, The Wiz. And who could forget that dogged '70s rock band, Toto?

Box Office Force

George Lucas bet his high-tech space fantasy, Star Wars, would be a major force in movie history. Sure enough, the Star Wars trilogy and Star Wars Episode I: The Phantom Menace were "Jar-Jarring" successes. The special effects were out of this world, as Hollywood cranked up the thrill factor past Earthquake and Jaws to Jurassic Park, Armageddon and Independence Day.

Fate of the Union

From the wilderness came a nation ready to fight for freedom and survive all odds. Native Americans had lived in the continent long before European explorers and colonists arrived in the 16th century. Thirteen British colonies formed, and the Revolutionary War erupted when England tightened control, and Paul Revere warned of the oncoming British invasion. Independence and the United States of America were both declared in 1776.

The new nation weathered heat from France and Mexico, but acquired new territory such as the Louisiana Purchase. After gold in California was discovered in 1849, America heard the roar of the Civil War, Reconstruction and Native American warriors such as Geronimo. Industry growth fueled prosperity until

World War I and the beginning of the Great Depression. Two heroines, Rosie the Riveter and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt, emerged during World War II. Peace efforts chilled as the Cold War, Korean War and McCarthyism isolated the U.S. from Communist nations.

Life prospered in the suburbs and man rocketed into space, while civil rights struggles ignited. President John F. Kennedy was struck down, as were countless soldiers in Vietnam. Then President Richard Nixon struck out after the Watergate political scandal. The Gulf War, pollution and tragedies such as the Oklahoma City bombing hit hard in recent decades. Yet Americans still rally around the Stars and Stripes.

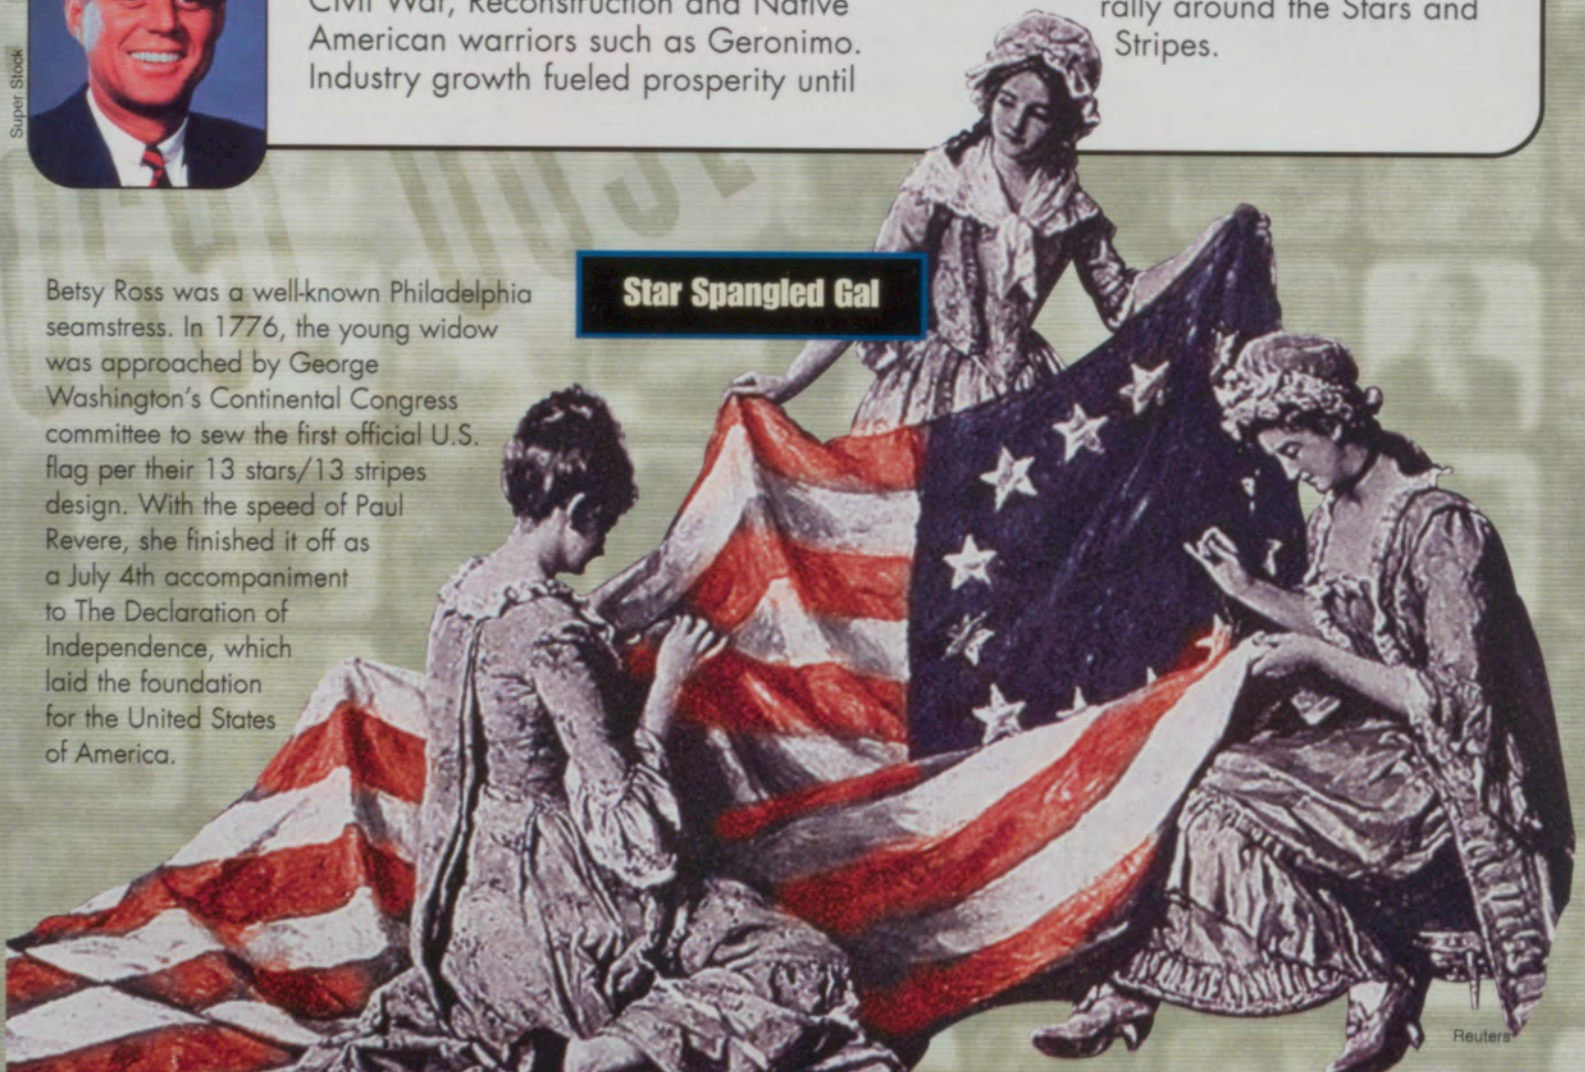

Star Spangled Gal

Betsy Ross was a well-known Philadelphia seamstress. In 1776, the young widow was approached by George Washington's Continental Congress committee to sew the first official U.S. flag per their 13 stars/13 stripes design. With the speed of Paul Revere, she finished it off as a July 4th accompaniment to The Declaration of Independence, which laid the foundation for the United States of America.

Deal-ing with Depression

Super Stock

The 1920s roared with prosperity until October 29, 1929, Black Tuesday, when the New York Stock Exchange crashed and millions of shares of stock were suddenly dumped, plunging many into poverty. Franklin D. Roosevelt defeated President Herbert Hoover in the 1932 election. Roosevelt worked to end the Great Depression with the New Deal. Since then, America has survived inflation, recession, tax cuts, and somehow, lunchroom food.

A Divided Nation

Super Stock

President Abraham Lincoln called it "A House Divided." The United States was unofficially split between the North (the Union), which sought to abolish slavery and modernize America, and the South (the Confederacy), which favored preserving slavery and an agrarian lifestyle. From 1861 to 1865, the bloody Civil War raged until General Robert E. Lee's Confederate army surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant's Union force. Slavery was abolished and the United States became one nation again.

"I Have a Dream that my children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character," said Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. to Washington, D.C., protesters in 1963.

His non-violent approach helped advance civil rights for all races. Other warriors for racial equality include anti-segregationist Rosa Parks, and Jesse Jackson, who pushed for African-American economic power.

When It Was Grander On The Verandah

It was a simpler time called "The Good Old Days." The front porch, or stoop, was the nightly gathering place for several generations of family and friends. Evening breezes and conversation filled the air while a passing parade of buggies and neighbors moved past. Maybe it was the coming of television, indoor air conditioning or the faster pace of suburban communities that caused the front porch to disappear.

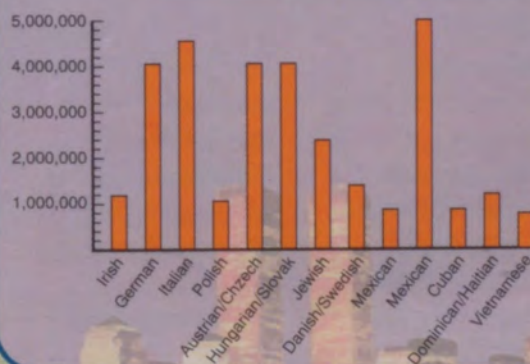

The Voice That Launched The Vote For Women

Super Stock

In 1869, Susan B. Anthony helped found the National Women's Suffrage Association to seek equal rights for women. Her efforts led to passage of the 19th Amendment in 1920, giving women the right to vote. Other women's rights leaders furthered the cause, including Gloria Steinem and Betty Friedan. Role models such as astronaut Sally Ride and Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor opened still more doors.

She Carries a Torch for Freedom

"Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to be free," beckons the Statue of Liberty. Revenge Of The CyberNerds

Going geek is a good thing if your name is Bill Gates. Computers revolutionized the speed and accuracy of information processing, ever since a punch card machine tabulated the 1890 census. In the 1970s, a computer's entire workings fit on a chip. Things got PC when Microsoft created software programs, making Gates a "bill"-ionaire. The Internet logged on in the '90s with waves of Web sites, interactive games, chat rooms and all-important e-mail. Pretty incredible.com, eh?

In the late 1800s, some newspapers took Freedom of the Press too far. To gain new readership, some of America's leading newspapers began sensationalizing accounts of Spanish oppression in Cuba to provoke America's entry into the Spanish-American War. After this outbreak of "yellow journalism," news media took great measures to heighten credibility, though tabloid-style reporting still exists. On the flip side, investigative reporting gained popularity in the 1970s by exposing government corruption, such as Watergate, as well as improper business practices.

Storming The Network

AP/Wide World

No sooner had the Persian Gulf War erupted in 1991 than Ted Turner's Cable News Network, CNN, covered it non-stop. Broadcasts had never been so immediate. The Big Three networks were also shocked by the popularity of such other cable offerings as HBO, ESPN and A&E as well as satellite dishes and pay-per-view. Television viewers, however, loved all the remote possibilities.

Ring Ma Bell

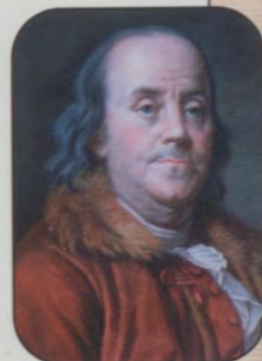

"Mr. Watson, come here," said Alexander Graham Bell into the telephone he developed in 1876. It's become one of today's most valuable communication devices, linking people throughout the world at lightning speed. From the telephone's humble beginnings have emerged high-speed fiber optic networks, fax machines, cellular phones, computer modems and videophones. There's some connection here.

Get The Message Already?

People spoke, wrote letters and sent messengers before this millennium but communication was usually local and slow. Most Middle Ages books were religious because church leaders were among the few who could read. Monks copied books by hand and town criers were heard since they announced news. Printed books of the Renaissance allowed the masses to read the Bible and other works. By the 1600s, newspapers enabled inquiring minds to read ship schedules. Benjamin Franklin helped establish regular postal service in the 1700s and the Pony Express ran mail cross-country in the 1800s.

While steamships and locomotives sped the spread of news, it wasn't until Samuel Morse invented the telegraph in the 1840s that coded messages were transmitted rapidly. Cameras, the typewriter, telephone, phonograph and motion pictures put communications on an even faster track.

Advances came in short and long waves when Guglielmo Marconi invented radio. Television was perfected, and tape recorders came into play. Since the 1960s, communication satellites relayed TV, radio and other signals across the planet. Computers and modems instantly processed data, and the Internet linked the world. Broadcast journalists, such as 20/20's Barbara Walters, fueled the rise of information junkies. Fiber optics, VCRs, CD-ROMs and HDTV not only furthered technology but gave adults lots of expensive new toys.

We Will Remember, the Millennium Conch 2000, was produced by the Key West High School Yearbook Staff at 2100 Flagler Avenue, Key West, FL.

Ms Dina Kinnune, Advisor, headed production. The book is 9x12 with a press run of 750 copies, 440 pages of 80 lb. matte paper. The Millennium Conch was published by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas, represented by Ken Thornberry of Fort Lauderdale, FL. The cover was designed by Samantha Reynolds using 160-pt binder's board, a four-color lithocote, and silver foil lettering. The endsheets used white parchment with Black 1. Fonts used throughout the book were Malibu, Amazonia, Muse, Nouveau, Gourmand, Rinna, Finesse, Embassy, and Freehand Script. The folio is in the design of the world. The yearbook staff would like to thank the faculty, staff, student body, the community of Key West, and Ken Thornberry. All of your contributions will be remembered.
