The Conch

Key West High
School
2100 Flagler Ave.
Key West, FL
33040
(305) 293-1549
Enrollment: 1306

What do you mean something there?

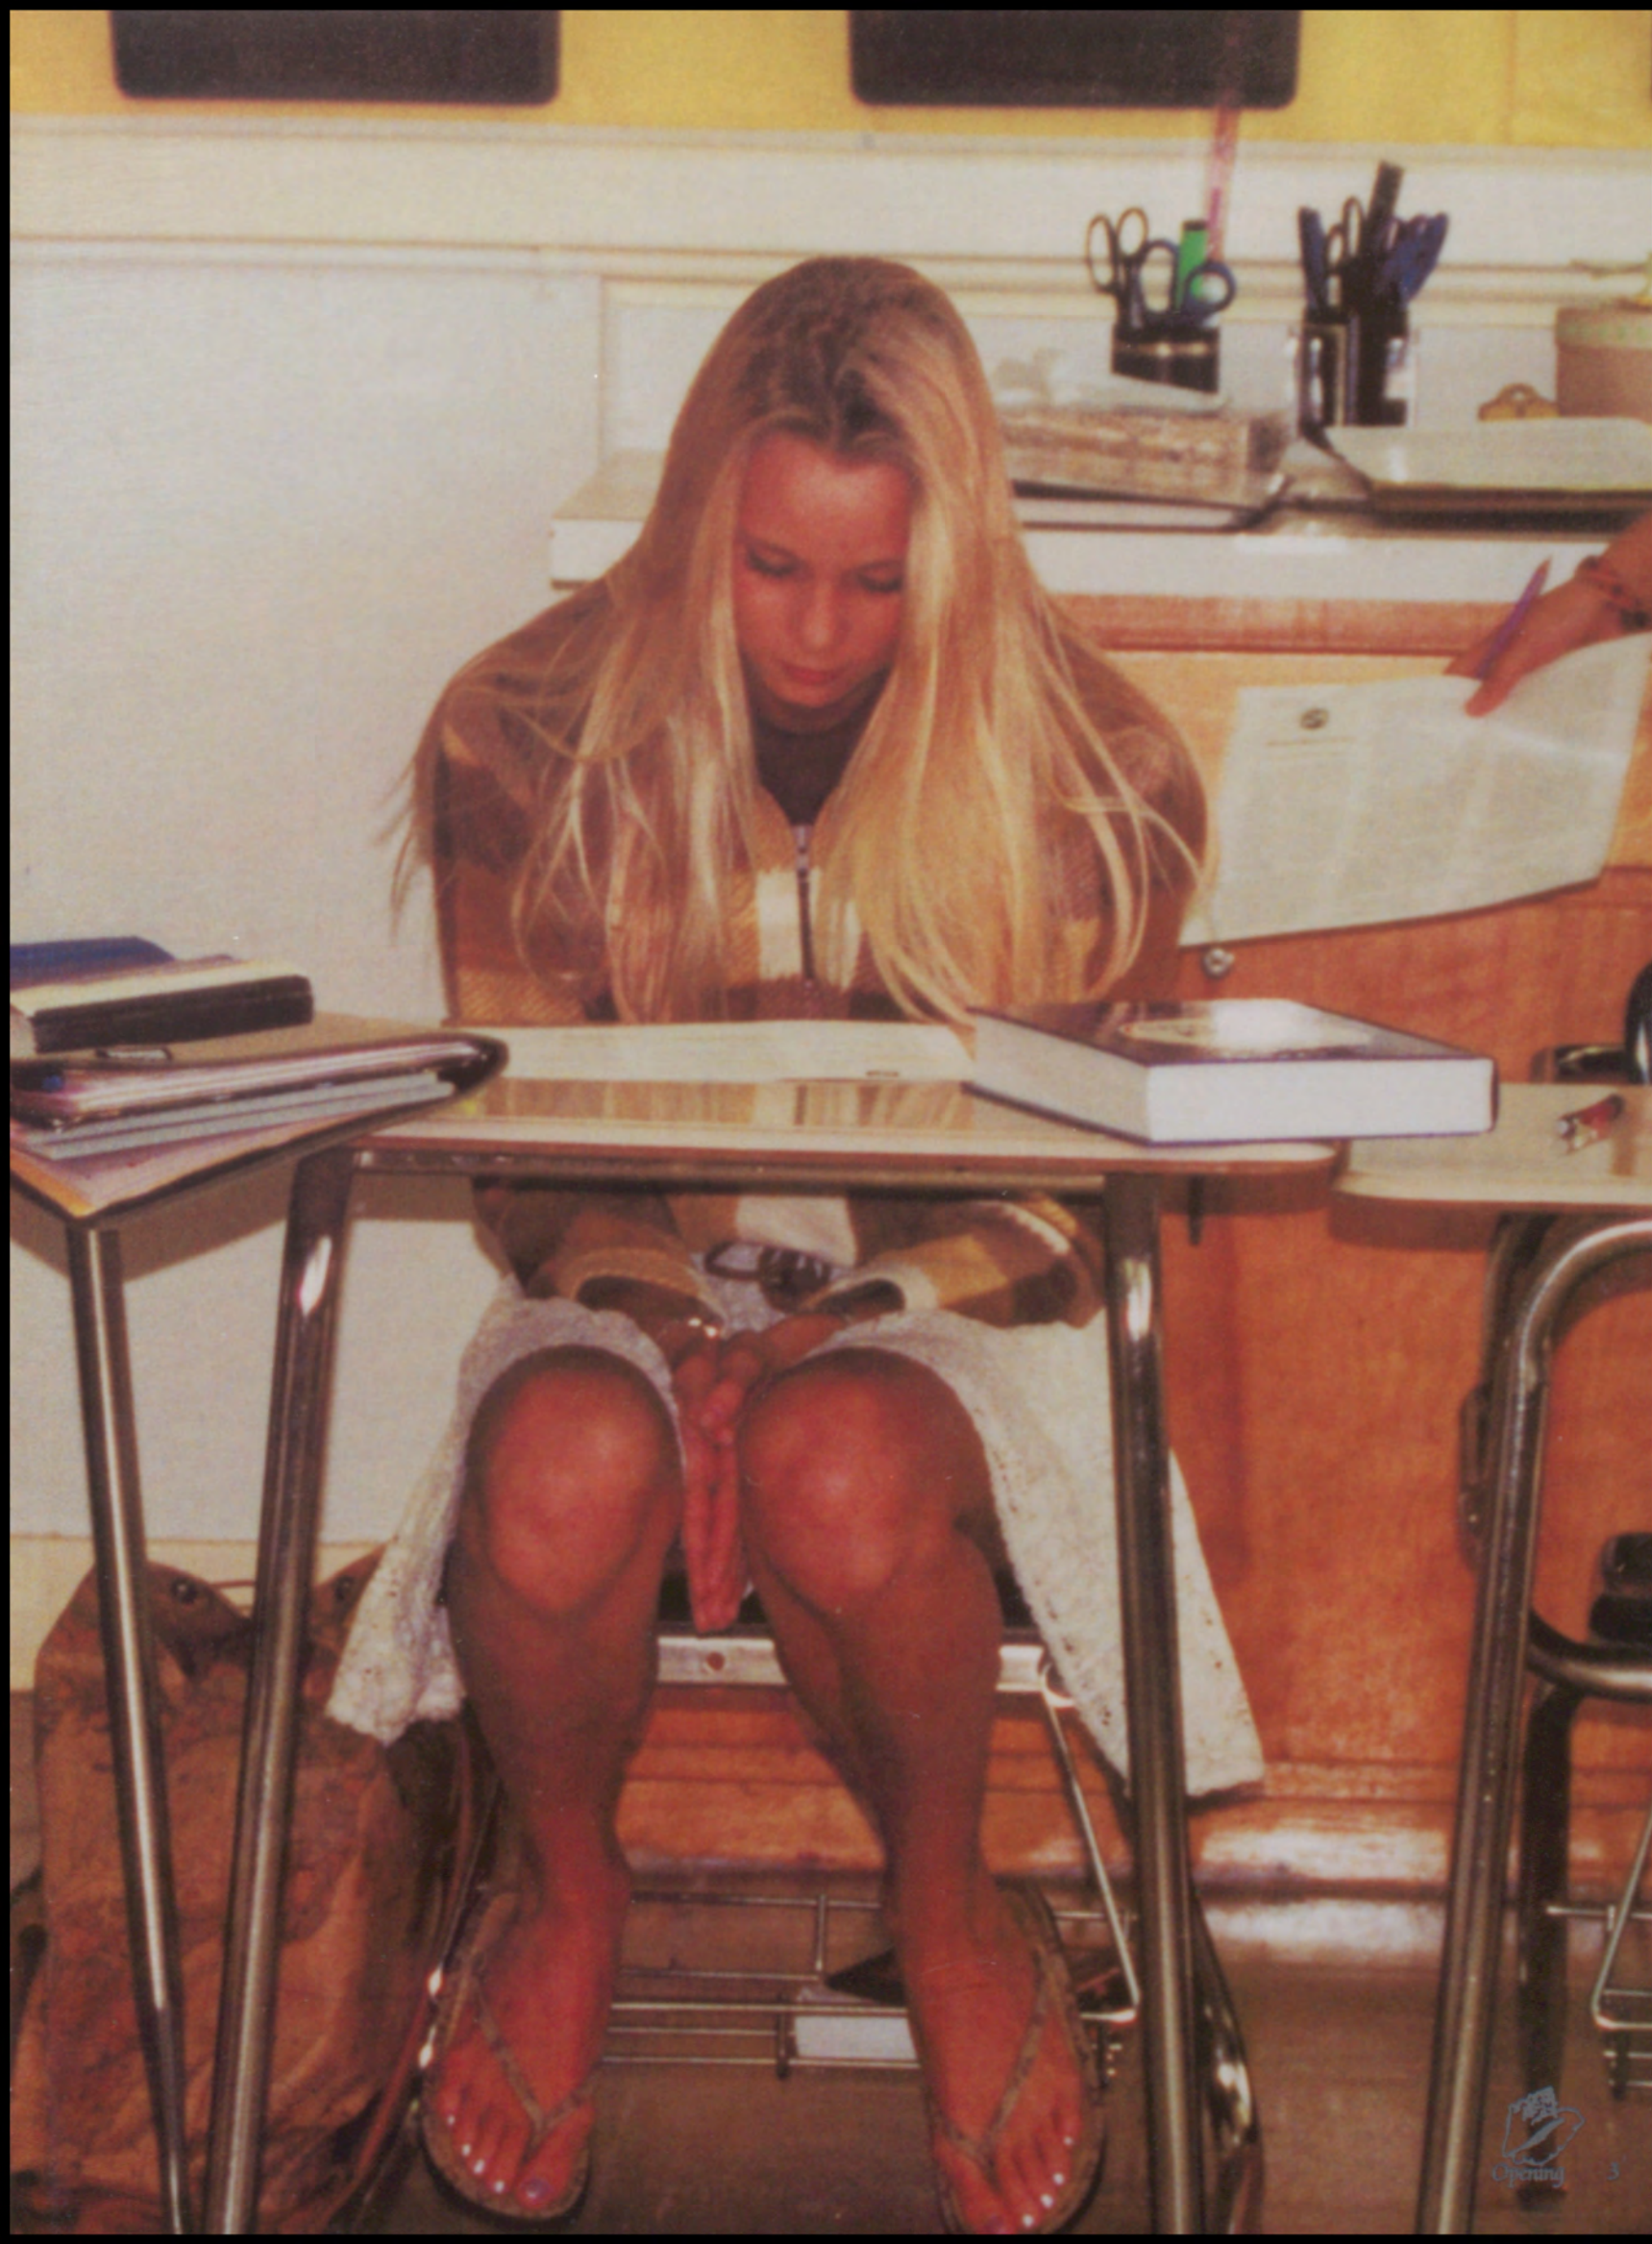

With every decision we make in our lives, every footstep we take and every path we choose to follow there is a hidden agenda.

A meaning to the madness that captures our lives. Even though we may not know what lies ahead or realize what we have already been through.

There is always
SOMETHING
THERE
that holds our passion and drives us forward.

Ever since we were young our parents and guardians have cheered us on at everything we do. Even if we weren't the best on the team or the squad, or the loudest in the choir, no matter how many lines we missed in the play our parents and guardians still thought we were the greatest thing in the world. It is now at this time that we've learned to take pride in ourselves.

Where there are Conchs, there is...

Pride

While anticipating the flames, some students and faculty take in the entertainment put on by our own spirited cheerleaders and band.

On with the crimson, On with the gray... The Marching Conchs start the night off with familiar band chants.

Break it on, Break it on, Break it on down! Antwon Williams and Mrs. Webster show off their moves while Chad Willis, Terrance Moore, and Willie Rogers spectate.

IGNITING SCHOOL SPIRIT

1. Only five more minutes until show time. The senior cheerleader and football players gather around the coffin before the bonfire starts.

2. Everything is set. Aaron Barker, Max Labrada, Michael Brooks, and Adron Barnes place the coffin on the bonfire.

3. Let it burn! On September 4, 2002 we engaged in our first bonfire in four years.

4. As the tradition begins again, senior captains Adron Barnes and Aaron Barker lead their team with the coffin to predict a win against American Heritage.

Key West #1! Ariana Corsi-Leto, Megan Jones, Sarah Estenoz, and Alissa Bosco are all smiles after performing at cheerleading camp in 8th grade.

Key West is still #1 and these girls are still smiling. Seniors Megan Jones, Sarah Estenoz, and Alissa Bosco stop for a picture together before the first football game. You still can catch them cheering together.

Brotherly Love!!! Senior Argelio Alayon and Freshman Danilo Alayon are caught together for a picture. Being in the high school together makes it easier to find time for each other.

1. Swing those clubs girls. Tara Walterson, Coral Etshman, and Rachel Walterson take a quick break from miniature golf to show off their colorful outfits.

2. This trio of Tara Walterson, Coral Etshman, and Rachel Walterson still find time to stop and take a picture of their catchy outfits.

THROUGH THICK AND THIN

Look! It's Batman with a ballerina. No wait it's just Curtiss Richardson and Ariana Corsi-Leto dressed up for Halloween.

You won't see these two dressed up for Halloween. Curtiss Richardson and Ariana Corsi-Leto stop for a quick friendly picture in the hall.

Don't get too comfortable. Jaqueline Goldstein and Aarika Cates look like they're getting ready for bed.

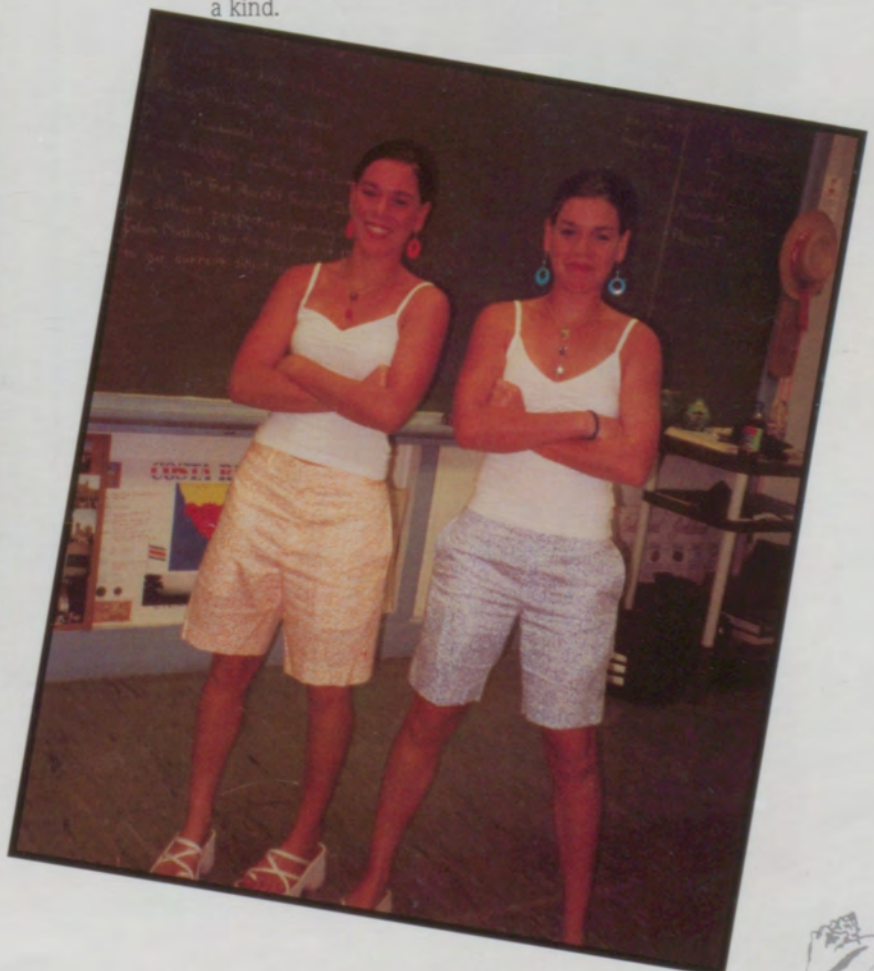

You won't catch these two getting much sleep. Jaqueline Goldstein and Aarika Cates stop for a quick picture.

Even at a young age Martina and Deborah Hindsley show that twin love for each other. Together since birth, it is rarely that you find these two separated.

Styling and profiling! Seniors Martina and Deborah Hindsley have no problem showing off the twin look. On Twin Day these two have no problem pulling off the look alike trend. Tina and Deb are always two of a kind.

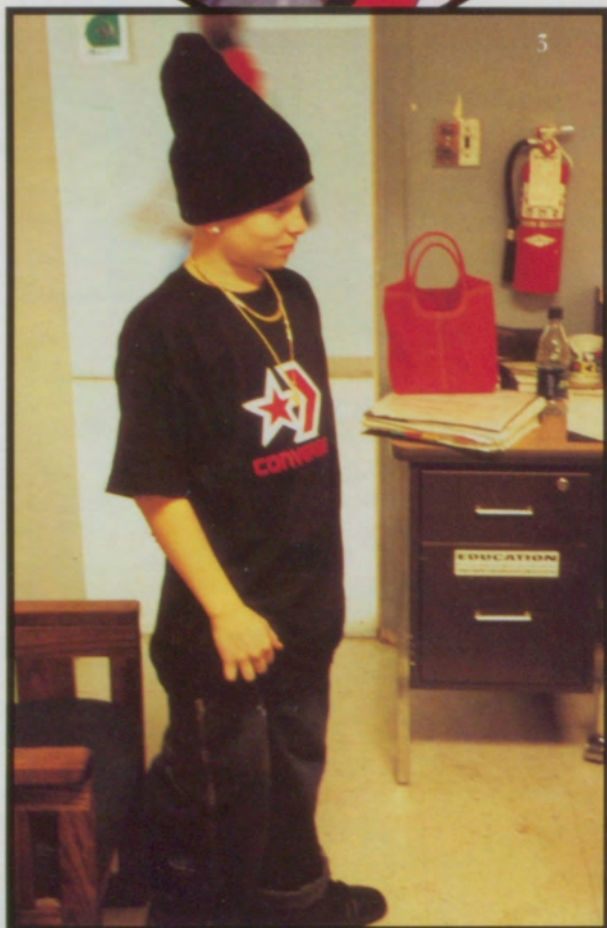

1. Look at those braids! Junior Dexter Butler wears corn rows during football season because he says it offers more cushion in his helmet.

2. Jeans and a tank top seem to be the typical attire for the students at Key West High as Hunter Boyle demonstrates here.

3. The "thug" appearance is a popular trend among the boys. Joseph Schober shows off his version of this with his gold chains, baggy pants, and matching beanie.

4. A peasant blouse is usually associated with a good girl style, but Marguerite Madrigul's corset style top and slitted skirt blend in with the wild side too.

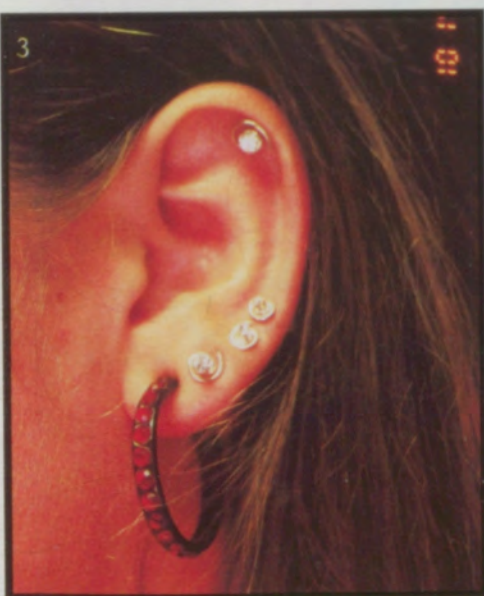

1. Finishing off her ensemble, Madison Labrada helps Paulina Czerniewska fix her cross necklane.

2. Autumn washes over Key West High students with beige and floral prints become the newest fad. This is evident in the floral embellishment on these shoes.

3. Multiple ear piercings are becoming trendy this season. Different shapes, sizes, and colors help to brighten any outfit.

4. Acrylic nails and jewelry are crucial accessories to spice up an outfit.

5. The SpongeBob SquarePants craze takes over clothing, accessories, and even lunch boxes.

STRIKE A POSE...

WORKING FOR THE FUTURE

Preparation is a key factor in weightlifting. Senior Rosalee Koenig and friend demonstrate proper cleansing procedure at her work place.

"It's a hard job but someone has to do it," states senior Brian Shipman at the check out line at Publix.

1. Knowing that nothing is free in life, Noelle Niblack works hard at Winn Dixie to earn a little extra cash.

2. Snap! Kinga Madro spends some of her free time developing photos for the Conch Tour Train. I'm sure she has seen some interesting pictures.

3. Stop that thief! Cory Sarver places ink tags on this rack of shorts to prevent shoplifting at Champs.

4. While entering Replay information into the computer, Renatta Saunders remains polite and remembers that the customer is always right.

Now it's your turn. Tiffany Curry finds time during class to go over dance moves with Leah Heinrich and Talia Fernandez.

Boys will be boys! Matthew Baldwin, Michael Burchett, and Jonathan McDonald prove this by playing a prank on another camp mate during a summer outing.

Let them eat cake! Maren Ridenour, Elizabeth Manaher, Melissa Muniz and Kelly Knowles sure know how to indulge in life's little pleasures.

LIFETIME

1. What's with the fish faces? Juniors Kristi Wilbourn and Tara Walterson pucker up for a quick picture during class.
2. Paulina Czerniewska and Kinga Madro prepare to represent their class by decking themselves out in the senior color red.
3. Now that's a way to catch the crowds eye! Brittani Harden and Jaime Laino, the two members of the varsity cheerleading squad that were on homecoming court, lift the only male cheerleader, Anthony Lombardi, with the assistance of Noelle Niblack, Brittany Roberts, and Melissa King. Those girls won't let their dresses get in the way of some real cheering!
4. What do you do with Thing 1 and Thing 2? Britney Berman, Alissa Bosco, and, Audreana Ansell ham it up at Universal Studios Islands of Adventure.
5. Just a little bit farther! James Painter and Jafre-Paul Hicks participate in a game during band camp. These activities help the band work as a unit for the upcoming year.

1. Happy Birthday! Jamie Lanio, Nicholas Grassi, George Quintana, Rosalee Koenig, Chia Ho and Michael McGraw encourage the cake cutting as Ryan Capas gets ready to dive in.

2. The finishing touches are added to these girls outfits before a football game. Martina Hindsley, Justyna Czerniewska, Alyeen Herlihy, Paulina Czerniewska and Kinga Madro, help each other out so they can show off their spirit.

3. Splash! Making an entrance Erica Beebe jumps into the pool at her party.

4. Trying to pull a fast one on Marshall Montalto, Rhett Bacle slyly puts his hand behind his head for a chance to place bunny ears on him.

5. What a spiffy outfit. Natalie Hinchcliffe shows her new, stylish belt off to Martina Hindsley.

1. Robert Spottswood helps out his class by eating four crackers as fast as he can.
2. Alejandro Figuerora looks over his shoulder as Robert Spottswood gets ready to leap over him.
3. With a dry mouth, Tyler Kocis still manages to munch down her crackers.
4. Marguerit Madrigal races with two water balloons while blindfolded and led by her teammates to the finish line.

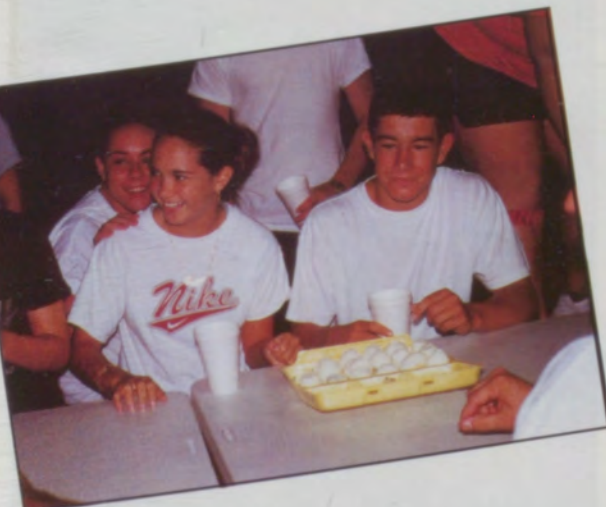

Freshman Yaima Gonzalez is "Doing the Dew" while chugging a can of Mountain Dew at the clash of the classes.

Freshmen

Jaclyn Gillman and Roman Orofino prepare themselves to eat a crate of hard-boiled eggs and drink pickle juice before their opponents beat them.

How 'bout them crackers, Clayton Straughn? Reaching for more, he shows everyone that he's not ready to quit yet.

Supporting their class, these freshmen relax in the stands watching the crazy events at a safe distance.

Antwon Williams runs like the wind carrying Hela Emanuel on his back, crossing the finish line with time to spare.

"Chug, Chug, Chug,!" Christina Pellitier proves that a little Mountain Dew won't hurt anybody.

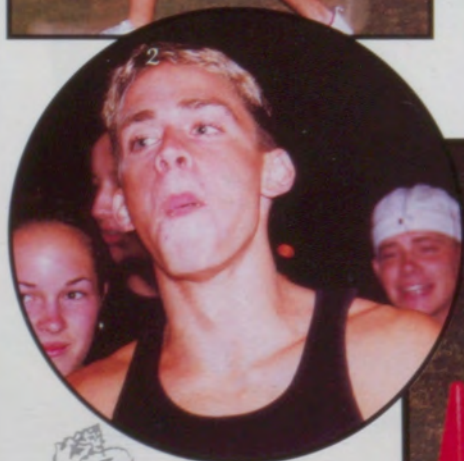

Eew Gross! Matthew Baldwin looks as if he might not be able to hold down his eggs.

Juniors

Flooding out onto the field, the Junior class takes the trophy after an exciting night of laughter and games.

"The Clash of the Classes" that's what we call our new tradition just started this year. With a new way to have fun on his mind, Mr. Vinson made up this annual event with wild yet exciting line up of relay such as: eating eggs and drinking pickle juice, finishing 24 cans of Mountain Dew the fastest, running a course with someone on your back, leap frog, and a few other events. It was undoubtedly unforgettable. The final results were juniors in first, seniors in second, and sophomores in third, leaving the freshmen in fourth.

1. Run Gus, Run! While carrying Evelyn Summer, Gustavo Alfonso paces himself as he runs toward the finish line.
2. Robert Killen desperately tries to chew and swallow the saltine crackers without laughing.
3. Groping his way to the finish line, Antwon Williams grabs another victory for the junior class.
4. These juniors prove that winning this game is literally a hop, skip and a jump away.

Run, run like the wind! Timothy Bouchard maintains both speed and balance while carrying Mandy Wardlow over the finish line.

Showing her class spirit, Kenya Blocker lets the other classes know exactly how she feels about the activities ahead.

Stuff em in! Brett Jackowski looks very calm eating his crackers during such a heated moment.

Bend and hop! Marisa McLaughlin leaps over her classmate bringing her class one hop closer to the finish line.

Seniors

4. Plug your nose and chug! Megan Jones closes her eyes and throws her head back, as she chugs one for the class.

5. Carefully and gracefully with her pinky out, Gina Chiello eats her crackers.

1. Eager to be #1, Tina Godfrey, Timothy Bouchard and Maren Ridenour all prepare to inhale eggs and guzzle pickle juice.

2. Totally relaxed, Nicolas Grassi downs "the Dew" with ease.

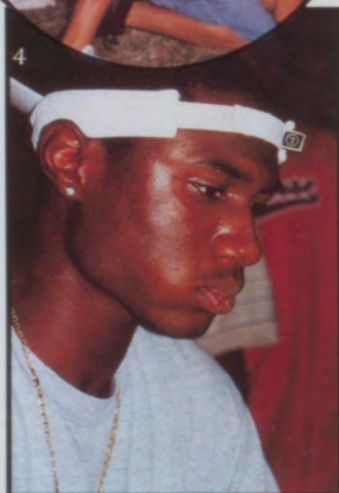

3. Mandy Wardlow will never look at babyfood the same way again after being pushed by Adron Barnes while downing the mush.

1. So close! Kyle McLeod searches frantically for the cone to help her class get a higher score.
2. Fast as he can, Shannon Butler runs the course carrying Brittany Commander on his back.
3. Megan Coe fights a giggle fit as she sets up to leap over Nicholas Turso.
4. Cheeks stuffed full of cracker, Marquis Butler concentrates on swallowing the last of it.

Right: Working together, Jamie Mattingly and Seamus Kehoe steadily work through their crate of eggs and cups of pickle juice.

Taking a big bite out of the cracker, Elaina Bonar works toward polishing off her pile.

Sophomores

Crouched down, David Gonzalez waits anxiously as Talia Liz jumps over him.

Almost done with her can, Megan Coe makes sure she gets every last drop so that the next person in line can go.

Eric Industrious smiles at the thought that he's almost finished his turn at eating crackers.

IN OUR SPARE TIME

Catlin Stepan laughs at her friends, Elizabeth Hogan, Deborah Hindsley, Melissa Muniz, Kelly Knowles, Tiffany Beeman and Paulina Czerniewska as they have a little fun rolling down the hill side.

A game of cards can only be fun if it is played right. Elizabeth Hogan and Martina Hindsley show the proper way that Rummy is played to Michael Spottswood and Michael Irwin.

After a fun night camping out Stacy Huff, Allison Peryam, Megan Coe, Jamie Kloza and Kinga Madro enjoy their last minutes before packing up.

Nice catch! Donovan Bowers proves that he is resourceful as he catches lunch for his hungry friends out at Boca Grand.

1. Having the last laugh, Richard McChesney pulls Martina Hindsley into the water during their wrestling match.
2. Way to miss Ryan! Well at least Ryan Capas can blame it on the water.
3. Taking advantage of her day off, Kristin McKenna returns from an enjoyable yet tiring day of diving.

Doing the stingray shuffle, Michael McGraw makes his way back to his friends, while Nicolas Grassi still waits on the boat contemplating getting in.

Shouldn't this be the other way around? The feel of seaweed between his toes grosses out Jorge Quintana, so he makes Tiffany Curry carry him to the comfort of the sand.

Captain Robert Trosset looks like he's ready to lead his friends out for a good time.

Even the coldness of Colorado's falls can't keep Erica Beebe and Caitlin Stepan out of the water during their vacation.

Looking excited to be on their way, Kourtney Dobbs, Melissa Muniz, Natalie Hinchcliffe, Charles Hyatt, and Maren Ridenour leave land behind for a fun time on the water.

Looking for lost treasure, Donavan Bowers and Ryan Capas check out an old shipwreck.

CAN YOU TELL THEIR CONCHS?

A DAY IN THE LIFE

6:45 Rise and shine! Every morning Sarah Estenoz sits up in her bed and does a early stretch before getting ready to go to school.

8:50 George Fernandez struts into school a little too late to catch the first period bell.

7:45 Brittani Harden struggles the daily battle of having a bad hair day. Looks like she's doing good so far.

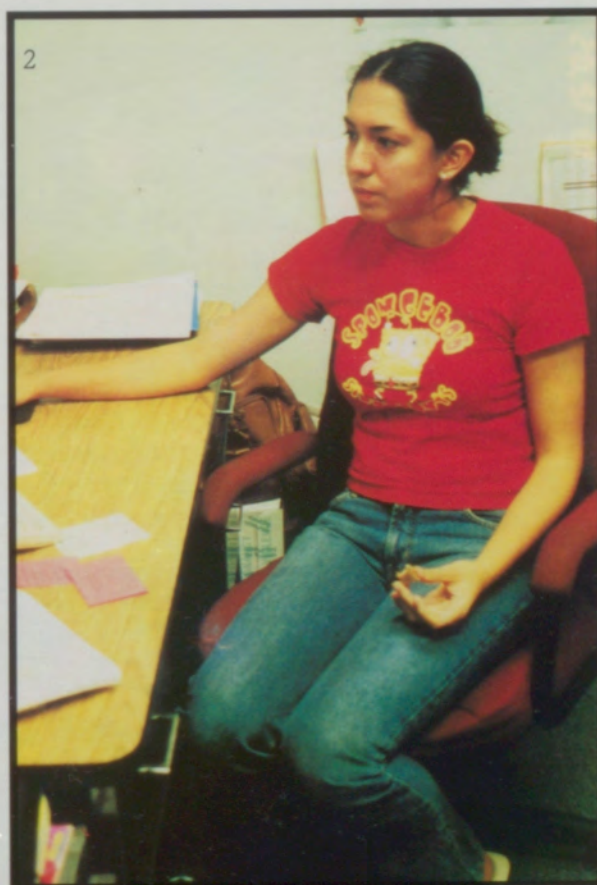

1. 3:15 Not an ordinary day! James Malby works on a special project during Art 3-D composition class.

2. 1:00 Surfing the net! Elizabeth Diaz clicks away at the computer in Mr. Murphy's office to take a quick break from school work.

3. 10:00 Capturing the moment! Lauren Marshall focuses on taking a picture during Photography class.

4. 3:30 Pay attention! Aixa Torres-Maysonet listens intently and takes lecture notes while in class.

9:30 Time to eat! Gina Chiello likes to have fun while eating after a choir concert. Many of the students usually go out to eat after the concert to talk about the successful show.

3:45 Schools out! Ariana Corsi looks happy that it is the end of the day and she finally gets to go home.

4:45 Ready to go! Mandy Wardlow reverses carefully out of the parking lot after cheerleading practice. Plenty of the students usually have an extra curricular activity right after school, so they get to stay for an extra hour or two.

LIFE CONTINUES

1. 10:00 Home sweet home! Deborah Hindsley looks happy to come home from a long day at school and work. After school jobs keep a lot of students busy for the rest of the day.

2. 6:00 Bumping it up! Elizabeth Manaher takes her time to carefully hit the ball for a great save for the Conchs Volleyball.

3. 10:30 Don't let the bed bugs bite! Melissa Muniz accidentally falls asleep while preparing for "The Sound of Music" play.

7:00 Hitting the books!
After school, Richard Roberts goes home to study the lessons that he had learned in school that day. Studying takes a lot of time and work, but it always seems to pay off in the end.

1. Accompanied by the varsity cheerleaders, senior Michael Brooks breaks it down at a pep-rally.

2. Color Guard member Katelyn Wise look on at a pep-rally.

3. What a mouthful! Escort Ryan Capas participates in a pie eating contest for the Homecoming pep-rally.

Homecoming court candidate Olivia Gootee shows us what pie eating is all about.

On with the crimson,
On with the grey,
Listen to us while we say, hey:
Fight down that field again
Men of the Crimson and Grey
Get on that ball and then
We'll mow 'em down like new mown
Hay, hay, hay, hay
Fight on to Victory,
Fight, Fight with all your might.
For there's naught to fear, The Conchs are here,
And we'll celebrate with you tonight.
We don't mean Tuesday,
We'll celebrate with you tonight!

CONCH PRIDE!

Junior Lavon Gunn and sophomore Alexandra Almeda, take advantage of the free icecream at a pep-rally held on the patio.

Conchette Theresa Hernandez shows us what school spirit is all about while dancing during a pep rally

Key West High all hail!!! Senior William Castillo is proud to be a KWHS Conch.

It's a dirty job but someone has to do it, Mrs. Shana stacks pizza boxes after a pep rally on the patio.

1. As the days get longer and the year gets shorter Raelyz Palmero looks forward to activities she will participate in at college.
2. As the Senior class gathers once again they proudly stand for school spirit and unity.
3. Underclassmen can only be jealous of Michael Brooks' spirit as he proudly walks the school in his toga so he can be bowed down to.
4. Early Monday morning the senior class met in Mr. Vinson's room to assemble their togas. Marisa McLaughlin, Marshall Montalto, Caitlin Hemphill and Carly Eisenzimer spray paint the front of their togas.
5. Waiting for their photo shoot, Noelle Niblack, Charles Hyatt, Brittani Harden, Caitlin Stephan and Elizabeth Hogan meet on the patio.
6. Even on Toga Day, Martina and Deborah Hindsey represent Twin Day.

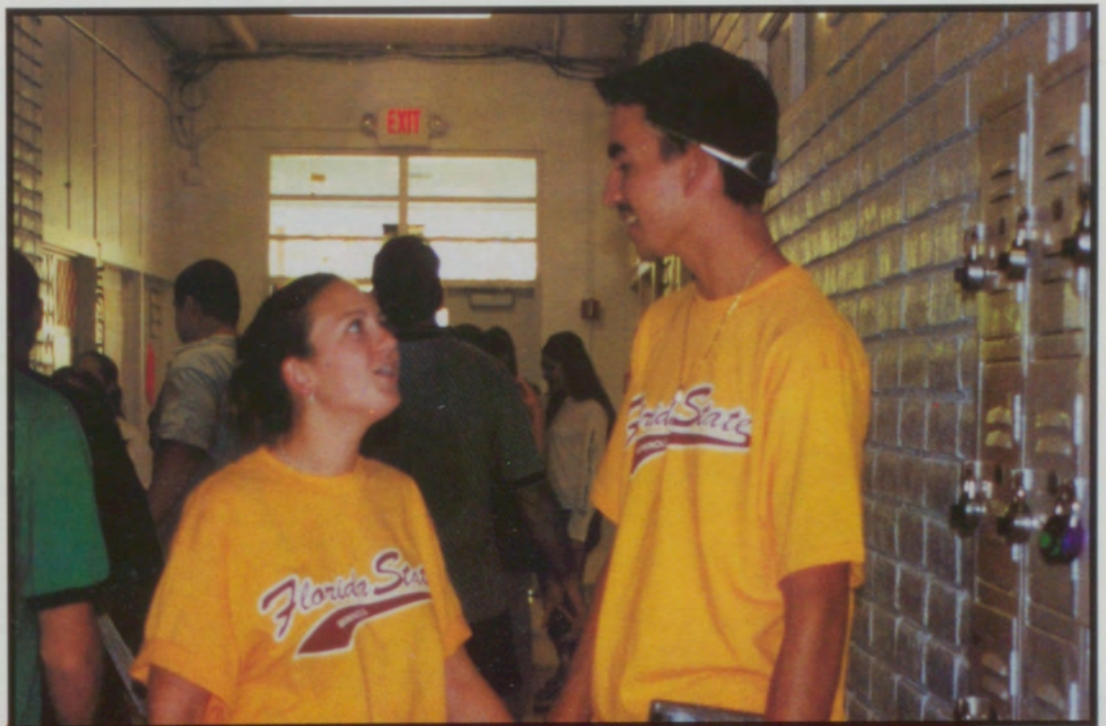

Coloring in math class comes much easier to Michael Lieberknecht when in pajamas and able to relax.

Getting in touch with his feminine side, Michael Brooks looks great in this pink floral moo-moo that reveals his excellent legs.

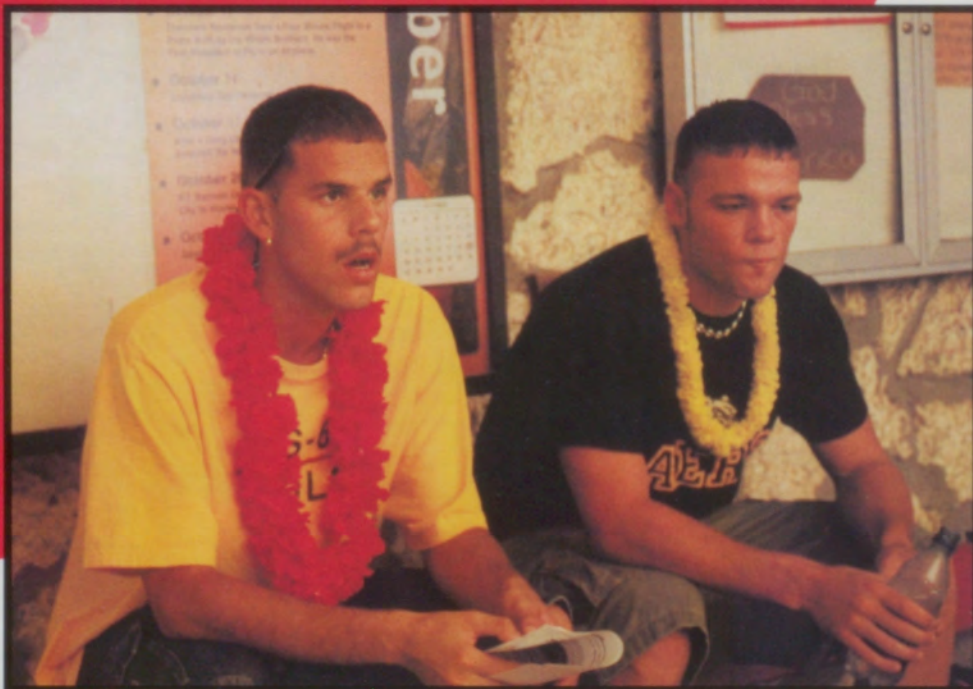

Crystal Ferrell and Jerral Fain show their school spirit together by dressing alike on Twin Day.

ALL ABOUT PRIDE

LET IT SHOW

What more can we expect from boys on Hawaiian Day. Timothy Bouchard and Patrick Freeman show their support during spirit week by wearing leis. A little is more than none.

Known for her crazy outfits for every holiday Mrs. Maxwell brings Jessica Geide into the mix. These two are what spirit is all about.

Kelly Knowles is always shining with her great personality. Kelly puts a new face to Hawaiian Day by not wearing the usual floral patterns but rather coconuts and grass.

School colors are the new trend. This entire table of seniors proudly represent the Class of 2003.

Even freshmen know to be proud of their class. Kayley Green and Matthew Roberts exemplify this pride while fighting over a seat for lunch.

1. Freshmen Sarah Rodriguez not only helps out the school by participating in the Student Activities class but shows her school pride on Color Day.

2. Senior class President Elizabeth Manaher better have her class colors on. Even on a day of class spirit and pride Liz still finds time to make a couple phone calls to help organize future events.

3. The sea of black shirts allows the rest of the school to acknowledge that the wall by the Student Activities room is junior domain.

Giving orders was Brittany Davis' specialty. Making sure that all was in the right spot was a tedious job but one that had to be done for the freshmen to be successful in the parade.

For it being the freshmen's first year building a float they did a remarkable job on the little flat bed they had. The Little Mermaid was colorful and put together nicely to create an overall impressive float for these float making rookies.

Final touches of spray paint were necessary for the freshmen float to sparkle. Madison Labrada spent enough time touching up the paint work for her fellow classmates so no newspaper would be showing.

A WATERY TALE

1. Teamwork is a key point for success. This group of freshmen girls get the job done together efficiently.

2. While getting supplies needed for the float Anders Pantelis takes the opportunity for a quick rest. However so none notices him he tries to blend himself in qith the supplies for the float.

3. Mighty King Triton, Jason Henton, shows off his newly found power with the swoid that was captured from his classmates.

4. If mermaids were to exist hopefully they would take on the look of Scarlett Osborn, seen here about to mount the freshmen float.

Future construction workers of America, Andre Garcia and Tom Sawyer assemble the two by fours used to support the back boards that held up the sophomores amazing scenery.

As one of the main characters in Alice In Wonderland, Rebecca Cobo, the caterpillar, offers advice to Alice in her quest for a way home.

Hard work and time really do pay off. Riding down Flagler, the sophomores had nothing but cheers and excitement for the spectators.

Teamwork is the key to success. Ashley Scott, Josephine Schreder-Guhl, Tiffany Greer, Dana Brown, Tom Sawyer and Andre Garcia support the beams while being attached to their float.

KEY WEST'S WONDERLAND

A striking float by the Class of 2005 offers a wonderful site to see during the Homecoming Parade. Their interpretation of Alice In Wonderland, was one to remember and won them a third place prize. These sophomores are ones to look out for in future contests; they offer a heavy competition.

Over looking their subjects, the king and queen of hearts reign over the territory of the sophomore float. Eric Industrious and Brooke Pazo have no problem representing royalty.

Trying to fit a ten foot table in a five foot truck bed doesn't seem likely. Sorry Christopher Cervantes, Andre Garcia, Joseph Stockton and Zachary Rogan but you might have to walk the rest of the way with it.

While drawing the clock for the junior float, Natalie Hinchcliffe and Erica Lopez are making good time, literally!

1. Erica Lopez is taking her time piecing together the top of the castle.

2. Megan Oropeza and Chezare Rivas are paper macheing the pieces of the junior float.

3. Zoe Pischke, Kyle Cabrerra and Jeff Rohlman clean up after and long day of hard work.

Being careful not to mess up, Damonica Rivas and Heidi Taylor work hard drawing the windows of their castle.

Alberto Blasco and Chezare Rivas add glitz and glamor to this homemade bush.

1 Talía Fernandez shows Megan Oropeza and Natalie Hinchcliffe the princess wave.

Bert Budde and Tony Tarracino put the finishing touches on this piece of art. Good job guys!

2 Chezare Rivas and Jessica Geide are chillin' on the junior float after the parade.

.....THEN THERE
WERE 4

ON TOP ONCE AGAIN

The senior class ties in the theme of "Fairy Tales" with their adaption of Stone Soup; adding spirit, pride and determination to the pot. Their creative concept tied in with the theme and pride of the school allows the Class of 2003 to capture first place, once again.

Sponging the backboard's trees and ground helps the float to look more realistic. Tina Godfrey and Martina Hindsley wear out their knees while contributing the beauty of the senior float.

Shining with bright creativity, Elizabeth Manaher adds the finishing touches to the sun which will help the senior float glisten the night of the parade.

1. As the Class of 2003 float comes together for the last time, Timothy Bouchard checks measurements before installing the backboard.

2. There's nothing like getting dirty. Jaime Laino and Raelyz Palmero assist each other with the papier-mache to create the pot used to make "Conch Soup."

3. Molding the chicken wire and stuffing newspaper behind it is what Richard McChesney, Maren Ridenour and Raelyz Palmero spent hours doing to contribute the first place Senior float.

4. The pride of Key West, the conch, was made due to excellent efforts by Julie Gonzalez, Elizabeth Hogan and Maren Ridenour.

Looks like someone is having fun. Donovan Bowers is just being himself having a good time while trying to give his friend Nicolas Grassi a little lick, while Renatta Saunders and Nathan Wheeler just laugh.

While taking a little break from the dance, Laura Font checks to make sure she's still looking good, and her tiara is still in place.

OUR OWN LITTLE

Aww, how sweet! Excited and ready to go, Jude Brogli puts the final touch, the corsage, on Tara Walterson before heading out to dinner.

After the dance Lauren Marshall helps Gina Chiello take out all of her hair pins which isn't an easy task.

FAIRY TALE

Homecoming Queen for 2002, Elizabeth Manaher, looks beautiful as she glows with happiness.

1. Seems like something interesting is going on by the looks on the faces of Berna Alvarez and Maria Soto.
2. All that dancing has obviously made Hela Emanuel hungry. Well, the food looks good.
3. Looking like they're having a good time, Kerry Bresler and Britney Baffer, sit down for a few minuets to take a break.
4. Breaking it down on the dance floor, Brittiny Burgohy sings along to the words.

Olivia Gootee escorted by David Gootee

Brittani Harden escorted by Kyle Cabrera

Jaime Laino escorted by Ryan Capas

Alyssa Ogden escorted by Robert Spottswood

LADIES IN WHITE

To keep on with the tradition, this year's homecoming court proudly displays their decorated shoes to represent what they have been involved in during their high school years.

Here they are. This year's court along with their pages, Lindsay Vinson and Eric Vinson are treated like true royalty during their photo shoot.

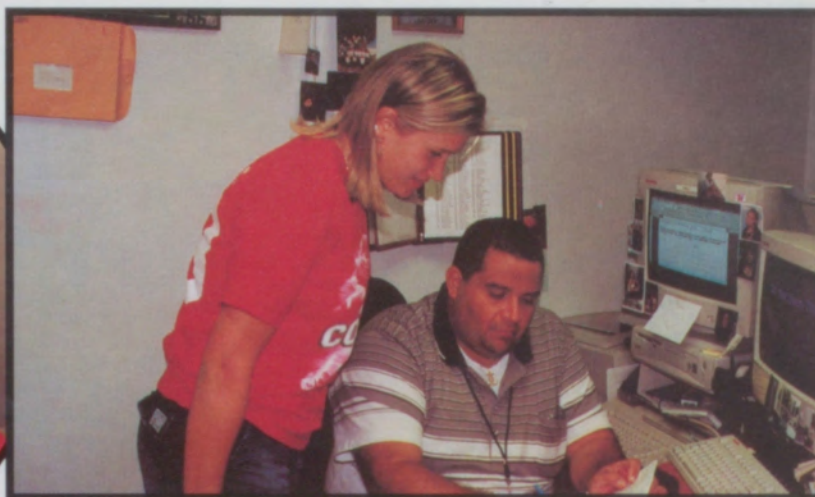

Homecoming Queen, Elizabeth Manaher escorted by Timothy Bouchard

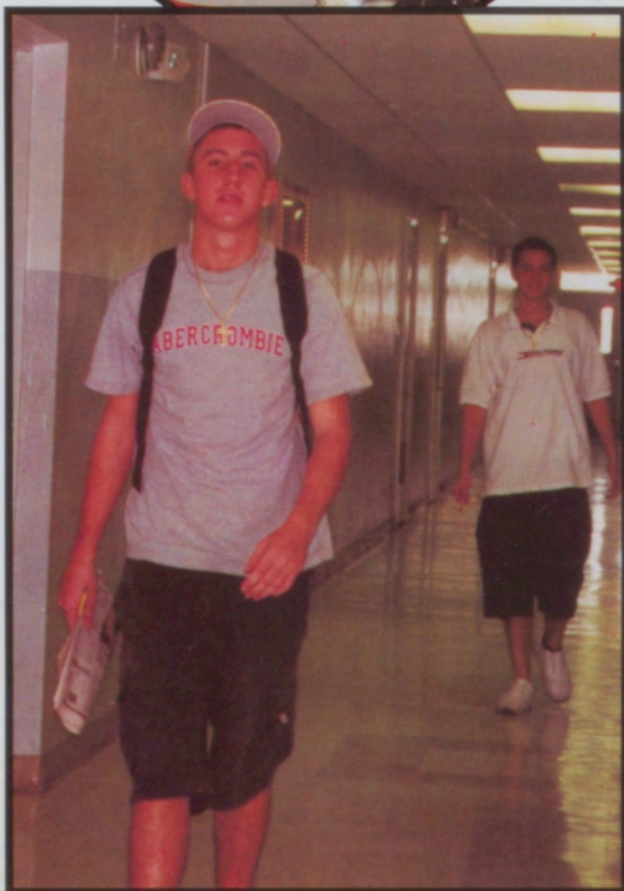

Brozi's Choice: Jose Lopez

"His leadership ability, adaptability, huge heart, and loyalty" makes Jose stand out in a crowd.

Boza's Choice: Alissa Bosco

"I've trusted other students and they've broken my heart, but Alissa has always been faithful, honest, hardworking and trustworthy."

Oman's Choice: Matthew Baldwin and Michael Burchett

"Matt and Michael stand out in my mind for several reasons. Mostly, I had them in class for two years, so I got to know them quite well, what they were like, the things that they liked to do and problems they had. I guess I have a type of rapport with them now."

Kalb's Choice: Linda
Dapieveova

"Linda makes an extreme effort to learn, is pleasant, respectful and truly appreciates the education she is receiving."

Bice's Choice: Adam Price

"Adam is a student aide in the library and is nice, friendly, tries hard at everything he does and is respectful to teachers and others."

Munoz's Choice: Megan Jones

"Biscuits (Megan) is involved in everything here at the high school and exemplifies a kind, personable and silly personality."

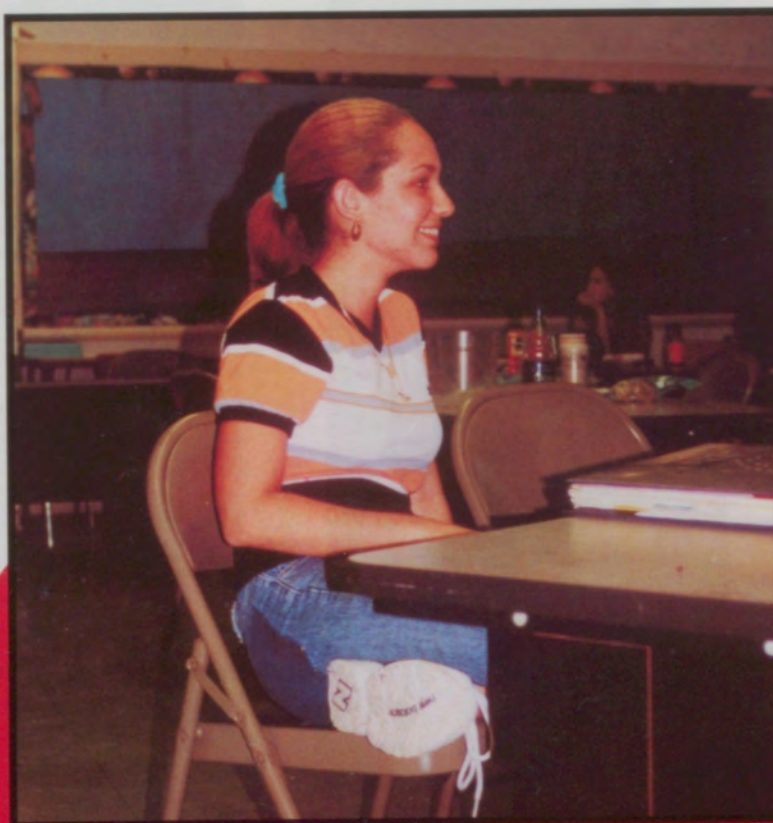

Jones' Choice: Juliet Bello-Correa

"Juliet stands out to me because she came to this country at the end of seventh grade with no English skills and quickly learned our language and became a stand out student. She helps other students who may be struggling and never compromises in the quality of her work. In addition, she is always on best behavior in the classroom and hallways and is a role model for others. She has shown incredible kindness and gratitude to her teachers along the way."

Bice's Choice: Crystal Rodriguez

"Crystal is a hard worker and I would love to see her recognized for being one of the 'good guys' at Key West High School."

A peer-helping group used across the United States and other countries, Natural Helpers serves high school students who want to strengthen their communication and helping skills. These students provide support to others in their school as well as serving their community. The simple premise is the creation of an informal "helping network" of trusted individuals that students can turn to in their time of need.

College Explorers, as they are fondly called, are participants in a state wide program designed to increase the number of students successfully completing a post-secondary education. The primary objective of the program is to strengthen the educational motivation and preparation of students. These students meet in grade level groups once a week to work with mentors. They also have enrichment programs where they are introduced to the opportunities available in numerous fields at Florida Keys Community College.

Dedication

they're here.

Seemingly endless nights, grading papers, making a phone call to find a place to have homecoming and prom, doing the things that need to be done to make everyone happy. We do these things, because sometimes, even though we don't enjoy doing them we know they're better than the things that make us unhappy. The extra push that gets us through the stacks of papers and chaotic meetings in j-wing auditorium, that's called dedication.

The Administration staff underwent some major changes over the last summer. Disappointment turned into pure success when John Welsh accepted the newly vacant position offered to him as our new Principal. Along with this great improvement was the promotion of Christina McPherson to one of the Assistant Principals. Christopher Valdez also delighted the school with his return to fill another position as Assistant Principal. With the combined efforts of Welsh, Valdez, McPherson, and Boza, the years to come are promising and will definitely be full of fun and memorable moments. We thank them for all their support.

Talia Fernandez asks Mr. Valdez to approve a fund raiser that the Interact Club is planning on doing later in the year.

The Junior Executive Board did a great job recreating the prince's castle as the backdrop for their float. Their colorful costumes, creative skit, and endless hours of work all contributed to the juniors' second place victory.

The Junior Executive Board has a busy schedule. This year they started off by concentrating on building their float for the Homecoming Parade. They also plan on doing lots of fundraisers in hopes of having a succesful Junior/Senior Luau which they are responsible for putting together. "The junior class spirit has been high this year. It was great to be the winners of the 1st annual Clash of the Classs following our 2nd place victory in the Homecoming Parade." -Megan Oropeza, Secretary

"From my previous experiences in President office at Horace O' Bryant. I can assure already that it has been a tougher but interesting time in Executive Board. Organizing and preparing to build the float was hectic, but since I have endured all of this along with the other officers and Executive Board members, I will be better prepared for next time. All that matters mostly is that we all have a great time in the end." said Freshman Class President, Yrenia Sala. The Freshman Excutive Board plans on doing many fundraisers in the year to come to improve the activites that are done around the school.

Mu Alpha Theta is an organization that has been going on for several years at Key West High School. To be in the club you must be enrolled in Algebra, and have a B or better. They meet periodically throughout the year. The club also takes standardized tests bi-monthly. The test is taken during first period. All students in Mu Alpha Theta worldwide take the same test at the same time, which is 8:45 a.m. The tests are difficult but our students at Key West High always do well.

Just for Kicks

Conchettes is an organization that has always been well known in our school and community for their pride, passion, discipline, and commitment. Since the 1950's this diverse group has wowed their audiences with kickline performances at the half times of varsity football games, showed their support in community events and parades and let their talent and spirit shine through at pep rallies and school sponsored activities. "This year we hope to restore our traditions and bring Conchettes back to its former standards." Erica Lopez, Co-Captain. Renaissance was a period of kings, queens, knights, battles over kingdoms, and a time of peace. Now it is a place where only dreams can take you and imagination fills lives with adventure and romance forever. Renaissance Club relives the medieval era with awe. Students of the club study the culture and the lives during that time. They go on trips to fairs and museums, whose main purpose is to revisit a part of history they respect. They perform plays and dress in archaic clothes. Many people find it inspiring, others find it adventurous. "Renaissance Club is about the exploration of our lineage and ties to the Renaissance times. I think that Renaissance Club is a good experience."

The boys varsity basketball team is made up of students from the sophomore, junior, and senior class. "Many people have high expectations for our team this year, because of the teams success last year. We as a team will do our best to meet those expectations," says senior Michael Brooks. Continually keeping the stands full, the players show their true athleticism and always meet up to their expectations.

He shoots, he scores! Marques Butler sinks one into the net to raise the score.

The Key West High School basketball program is one of the leading programs in the state of Florida. The junior varsity team might not get much of the spotlight, but they certainly deserve it. This talented group of sophomores and freshmen have kept an outstanding record this year, and most of them plan on sharing their talent with the varsity team next year.

Sink It In!

Watch out Spartans!

Right: Terrance Moore makes his way around the court to get a better shot at scoring.

The Hurricanes don't phase Charles Spottswood as he takes one to the hoop.

Right: Shoot two again! Zachary Rogan reaches for the rim as the ball falls right through the net.

Watch out WNBA!

Left: In a huddle, Coach Coleman tells the team what they must focus on in the second half.

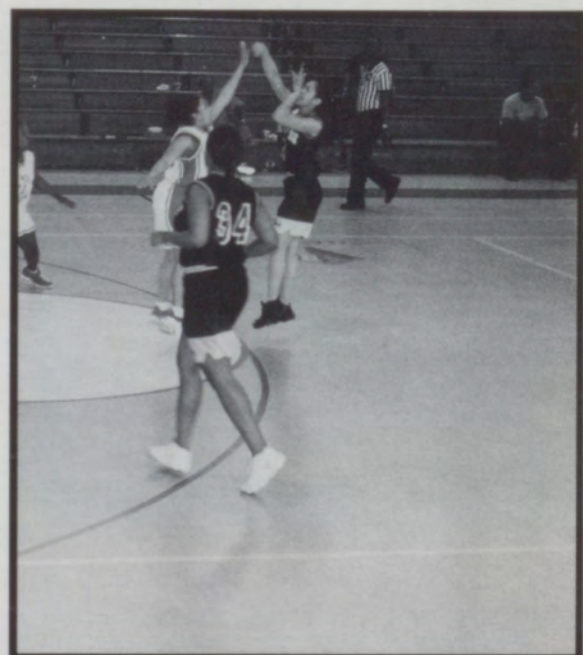

Right: It's all in the wrist! Destiny Rivas warms up before their game against South Dade by practicing free throws, while the team watches.

Right: Chaos breaks out when the ball bounces away. Martha Rivero scrambles to regain possession of it.

Below: Giving her all, Martha Rivero tries jumping her highest in order to prevent South Dade from getting a basket.

You may think to play basketball you have to be tall, but this isn't true. To play basketball, you need to have skill and endurance. Our Lady Conchs have shown that they have plenty of both! This team has a great shot at obtaining their goals with all their hardwork and practice. Watch out WNBA!!!

Soaring through the air, Quanita Thurston practices her jump shot, and is rewarded by a satisfying "SWOOSH!"

Below: The team circles up to give a short pep talk before the game resumes.

Using quick judgement combined with strength are two key factors of being a wrestler. "Wrestling is the most exhausting sport, mentally and physically," says senior Aaron Barker. "You have to push yourself as far as you can go." Although wrestler's compete individually, they always come together, giving the support one needs, which gives the true definition of a team.

Left: With his arm posted, Bayardo Gomez sits tight and waits for the referee to call the pin.

With her body stretched out over the baseline, Katie Smith hits a powerful serve over the net.

"This year's team has really come together to achieve many of their goals," says junior Zoe Pischke. Although the tennis team is divided into boys and girls, they still come together with the support each member needs. "Not only has the team given me some of my best memories," senior Rosalee Koenig feels, "it has also helped to boost my interest in the game."

Love Stinks

Raquet Up

Left: Focusing on the game at hand, Yann Findlay hits a powerful ground stroke to his opponent.

Right: Serving the ball with full force, Nicholas Batty begins the game with a triumphant start.

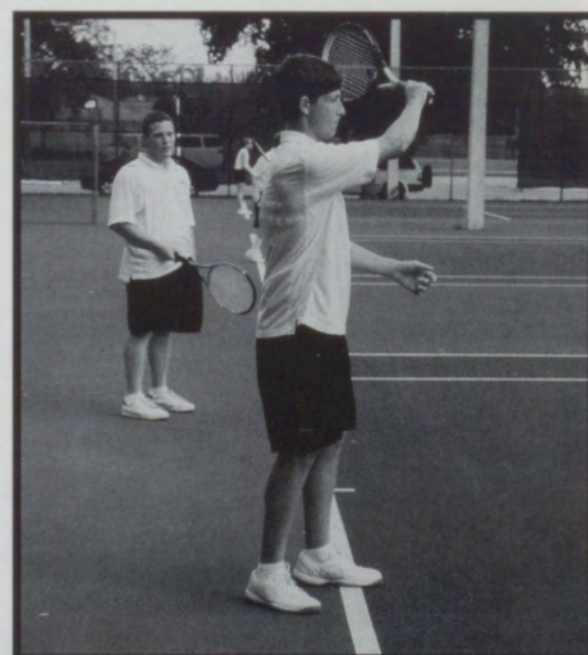

After receiving the serve, Daniel Curtis delivers a strong back hand over the net.

Below: Giving his teammate a few pointers, Daryl Williams looks on as Spencer Gates takes a few warm up shots.

Making the game look easier than it is, Brian Shipman returns the ball with ease.

Tennis is a sport that not only requires agility, but concentration as well. Not only can tennis be an exhausting sport for both opponents, but also a mind game for the two. With some members having been on the team for the past four years, the team unity is now stronger than ever. From Coach Findlay working them hard at practice, and teaching them how to improve their basic skills, the team as a whole will move their way up and win districts.

Before his match, Coach Findlay helps to work out team member Yann Findlay's cramped shoulder.

Putting in her last bit of strength, Whitney Eden strives to beat her opponents to the finish line.

This exceptional group of girls have given their all on the track this year! With their spirit, motivation, and dedication to this sport, they have surpassed many goals and showed us their improved skills. These girls not only participated in running, but also saw action in the long jump, high jump, hurdles, discuss, javelin, and relays. These girls have showed great sportsmanship and put a great deal of hard work into all of these events. We are not only proud of them, but also proud to say they have set a good example for years to come.

Above Right: Raymundo Diaz makes the high jump look like a breeze as he passes over the bar.

The boys' track team this year has a lot of new faces, and returning members. They work extremely hard at practices and show their ongoing dedication. All of their hard work pays off as onlookers can see at their meets. This group of boys show their pride in every event and always puts forth their best effort representing our school well.

Putting the fun back into the sport, Michael Brooks completes his race with a grin from ear to ear.

"With a little bit of hardwork and luck, we will have a good season," said Seniors Reidier Gonzalez and Thomas Freeman.

Above: When playing a sport such as baseball, stretching is crucial knowing we don't want our boys getting hurt.

Right: On the hop, Ralph Henriquez has little time to waste between water breaks and working on catching.

With dedication to their game, the varsity players are constantly revolving weekend schedules around practices and season games. "I'm priviledged and honored to be a freshman on the varsity team," says Santi Arencibia. "I have high expectations for our season." Although they make it look easy, their hardwork and ambition give them the drive to win. "Improvement is a key factor for a successful baseball season," says Assistant Coach Menendez. Improving their athletic skills as well as teamwork, the team will exceed expectations this season.

Play Ball!

Left: Practicing some fancy footwork, Clinton Storr uses this method of training to help him steal those bases!

Right: Batter Up! Gustavo Alfonso awaits patiently for the perfect opportunity to swing away.

In a League of Their Own

Showing us his inner strength, Kyle Malone fires the baseball to a fellow teammate.

Left: Demonstrating his athleticism, Blake Barber shows the proper technique to throwing a fastball. Right: Helping his teammate at practice, Santi Arencibia shows how to deliver a pop-fly ball

Below: Before hitting the field, the players stretch their muscles in preparation for the game ahead.

The team shows organization and cooperation as they receive their field positions from the coach.

The junior varsity baseball team takes to the field with the support of their schoolmates, parents, and fans. They strive to push each other towards victory through teamwork and perseverance. Learning the ropes from the varsity team, these talented athletes look to make an outstanding season, and earn their rightful position as state champions. They inspire one another to be the best that they can be. For with the times they share now, they will one day look back and see that they overcame adversity and became a team.

Batter up! A team of sixteen girls brought together to go all the way. How far will they go? "I think it will go well because we are working hard as a team," says pitcher Ashley James. "We have a lot of talent and it improves with every practice." This year the varsity will be playing various teams throughout the season. "Gulliver will be our biggest opponent, but I'm sure we will keep up with them this year," says pitcher Britney Commander. "Our team has a lot of potential, and if we continue to work together and work hard, then we will definitely go a long way!"

The junior varsity softball is beginning their season strong, practicing almost endlessly to improve their skills. The team's great potential and fantastic teamwork help them on their way to a wonderful year. "The season's going great and I think we're going to dominate the next few years." says freshman Jackie Smith confidently.

These girls should do just fine, seeing as the rest of the team is just as optimistic.

Giovanna Maribona prepares to stop any ball that comes her way and defend third base from any one who attempts to pass.

I, Luli Soriano, leave my cap and gown to Gaby. Eugene, all my love and years of unforgettable memories. To my family, thanks for your unconditional love and support.

To years of memories, Erica, the tree house and the pines, Ayanna exam night and to my crew many "memories" and the best of wishes! Love, Caitlin Stepan.

I, Teresa Stullken, leave Racheal, my twin, my cap, gown and senior seat. Aubrey Jaadawg Dutch, Baby's coffee; Neka Godiva; peculiar people, trips: Everyone, memories, happiness and love.

I, Quanita LaShawn Thurston, hereby leave my brothers my senior seat, cap and gown, also to my cousins all the fun at KWHS.

I, Robert Trosset do hereby bequeath the following: To my brother- my seat in choir; Bert- a sense of humor; Rachel AKA "Teresa"- Thank you. Tiff- pay me.

I, Valerie Ugartechea, leave love to those who seek it, peace to those who need it, and maturity to those who lack it.

I, Deniele Urrutia, leave Dianita (Nana) Hernandez, my senior seat; and to the Triple T's... AFLAC... WHAT?!... Love you guys! Ya Dig?

I, Maritza Victores, leave my senior seat to my brother Daniel Victores, and my cap and gown to my cousin Lauren Miller.

I, Mandy Wardlow, leave my cap and gown to Tina, my senior seat to Jesse, class of 2003- our memories, talks, laughs and tears. Keep it real. Much love.

I, Nate Wheeler, give my ability to sleep in any and every class to those that just don't care.

I, John Wild, leave my senior seat to Billy Miller; the shocka to Ivy; seat to Candi Clark; my messed up tenor to Jimmy Alexander.

I, Darrell Williams, leave behind my hope for my sister Samantha to grow up to be strong, smart and independent!

I, Jordan Willis, leave Vaughn, luck; Winn Dixie Chicks: Summer, mashed potatoes; Neeby, lingering smell; Smoral, #1 doubles; Tara, the desk. Zoe, stairs; Leeny Bean, unbutton.

I, David Young leave the following, To Brandy- my heart and our future, Lil Sister- My senior seat and our memories, Stuart- the Kings till we die, Everyone Else- Much love.

I, Andrea Zeoli, leave Katelynn my gown, John my cap, Poncho my senior seat. Alexiys and Aneisha, all of our memories and lifelong friendship. Rodger, all my love.

I, Zimm, leave my corn collection to Philbrick, my hair to Harry, my monkey armor to Stuart. So long and thanks for all the fish.

*You have brought us so much love, joy and excitement into our lives. You are truly a blessing from God. We are so proud of the wonderful young lady you have become. Our love, support and prayers will be with you always. Remember the words of wisdom found in Proverbs 3:5-6 Trust in the Lord with all thine heart, and lean not into thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths.
Love Always Mom and Dad*

 From the day you were born, you were so special, smart, sensitive, and good. You became your own person with your own ideas and way of doing things. I am so proud of the person you've become. I burst with pride as I realize that my dreams for you have come true. Don't be afraid to make mistakes. Work hard to achieve success. Live life to the fullest and always remember how very much I love you.

To my parents- You've managed to put up with me for all these years even though I can be whiny and annoying. I know you worked hard to give me the best and to make sure I grew up with morals and led a great life. I think you did a wonderful job of raising me and I wanted to say thank you for everything you've ever done for me. I love you tons and will love you always. To my boarder sisters- Senti ragazzi! (or ragazze huh?) Voglio dire grazie per tutto que avete fatto per me. Remember the tea parties, the fun downtown, dinner after dinner, spaghetti or carabonara. Remember the borrowed (and missing) clothes, and the one really big out of control argument. Remember que vi voglie tanto bene & that I'll love you guys always, no matter what (okay for me). The Cactus Killer-the w. and the s., Taylor is mine. Craig David is my new husband. My butt is bigger. Let's build a fort. Kobe come here! OMG, Rich is coming. Andy's picture. Your 8 billion boyfriends. Nevaria (SHUT UP! STOP LAUGHING ALREADY!) Sweet. Turkey & Monkey Boy, Frankie & the Bikini man. Stephe & Keri. Count backwards from 27 to 3. Spice World, Weird. The Borrowers, catching frogs. Our story about Nikki, Rodney, Let's stay friends until we're old ladies so we can walk down the street in funny hats and tell stories about how we've been friends forever. Who woulda guessed that we'd last this long? I guess that you did b/ you're the one who managed to keep contact despite it all. Remember no matter what: "Cause even if we can't be together, we'll be friends, now and forever." I love you! Issy-May- The bottle over the side of the ship. Lemons & soap are not dinner, the Gaeta Gossip, walking to the Lions at night, "Moo, I'm a cow, eat more chicken!" Jaylill (Yes, I'm laughing) Don't bring up those boys or I'll mention the 1906 boy (no one will ever know who that is) Cross Country w/ more laughing than running. Basketball season, hitchhiking, trip in a squad car, balloon tower of love. Downtown Rome, The Island (NO PENII ALLOWED). "I'm gonna throw this plate at your head." I think we've gotten into an argument at least once a year. It's funny that we're still actually friends. You're more psycho than I am. Really. I guess you know I have to be all mushy and tell you I love you. David- Devo dire piu di anche a te? Penso che tu sai tutto che voglio dire. Grazie per tutto, despite everything horrible that you did, or that happened, grazie. Prunick- Mariah Carey shrine. Staying home & not going to the dances. Too many train rides. 1171 Via Cassia per favore. Do you think the cute guy will still be on the boat to Germany? Let's go to ghetto Italy (or maybe it's non-ghetto), our ugly mask. There isn't a cup holder. You're the true diva out of all of us, despite what Mr. Horne said. I'm sorry for everything I ever put you through in middle school & anything in high school. We've been through a lot together, sitting alone to fighting over chairs at dinner. Good luck with everything, you'll be famous some day. Love you tons. Ivor- I'm anti-social & you're a Croatian refugee. Woof-woof! Forza Lazio! Our psycho Italian stories, downtown cross-dressing. McDonald's & never getting kicked out. Mark the amoeba. You're getting married? No! OMG, something ate Neva! Mrs. Reykdahl or Mrs. Dougherty? Sorry things never worked out w/ Monica, but you moved on. I guess it doesn't matter because I'm always gonna be a dog to you & you'll always be the same psycho communist boy telling me about your planned dictatorship, who really does love the U.S. Lexus- My head angel, heartbreakism cofounder, I think I need my ring back, can you clean my room? the toucan, the rapist, ego, gay guy, big head, & winker, who stole the kitty? I know what you did @ the train station, who invited Robbie? Let's play little mermaid! Allen and the greyhound. The sheep. The haunted mansion, Ten things I hate about you. Alicia, Kimmy, stop fighting! Chocolate chip cookies, Neva the diva. We're both too stubborn & that's what killed it for us. Guess things can never be the same, but I hope you know I still love you. Brit- I pulled a Neva! TMI I think my uterus is falling out. Swing dancing in the quad in the rain, the freshmen clapping. Downtown cross dressing. Night and Day, Drunken Ship. He came over. Our third Angel. Photojournalism & Aliens built the pyramids. Really, they did! The chipmunk, the sheep, the turtle, the cat, the mouse, the poodle & the rooster. Our notebook. Basketball manager. I miss you! You've got an amazing voice & WILL get that record deal back. Love you always. Delie: Well, I guess a little bit of "Vice President Ranvolick" is in all of us. Your family loves you, despite what you think. G.G. & Grace the hippo singing I'm every woman. How now brown cow? Katie: mi hermana! I guess the one good thing to come of your broken leg was our friendship. Miss you tons & hope you end up at U of Tampa. We'll have a Floridian boarder reunion. Love you always. Ericka: Bubbles is MINE. Your ghetto Westlife dance. Dress up & managing Basketball. Kurt & David crying on your birthday. Prince Ali. Coming to Gaeta.. You'll always be my sister. Love you tons. Ricka: These mentos taste like whiskey, riding the 201 bus. Saturdays downtown & movies w/ Brit. Chris Roper, Fran. Dress up at your house. Roses. Planet Hollywood. You're still family to me. APH- Meet me in Florence. Laura- We stuck through it together. Coloring & singing on the way to Disney. There's a cute one. Key West Conchs, ha. If it wasn't for Kerry & Bree, you would never have known who I liked. Uh oh, Neva's driving. Thanks for everything. Kerry- You didn't get deported. Windshield wipers. I'M A GOOD DRIVER. Bree: Overachiever, Kerry's got a big mouth, I'm definitely going to church now. Scary movies. Good luck w/ everything next year. Jenny: Denny's. Picnic on the Beach, SHARK! Jeff- I'M A GOOD DRIVER. You'll get your license eventually. I did. Kristen: English & Government would've been so boring w/o you, thanks for the work. Mike: You abandoned us 7th period, you're not gay, when you go to Europe or the Pacific, find me and we'll see about you proving yourself. Good luck w/ everything. Chris: See you in NYU. Demetra: No more passes! Whitney- Do you have any Grey Poupon? Soccer Boys & Clifford: Sorry I'm a bad manager, but it was fun. AP Lit: Finally free. Anyone else I didn't mention: Sorry, I ran out of room. To all my teachers: Thanks for the good grades. Thanks Miss McLean, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Henderson for encouraging me. Thanks Mr. Murphy & Miss Calleja for making me work to go to college (and putting up with me) Finalmente, niente piu! To the class of 2003- It's over & I'm never coming back. "They haven't got brains, any of them, only grey fluff that's blown into their heads by mistake."

Darrell Williams

Son, Watching you grow up taught us that time moves many ways at once: Fast and slow, forward and backward, bitter and sweet. At times it seems as if we looked away for a moment, and you were grown. Other times, nothing much seemed to happen for years...school, summer, another calendar filled with the blur of events that make up our family life. And one day, while we weren't looking - a blink of an eye - you just jumped the fence into manhood, an adult with a life completely your own! What a mystery it is. What a man you are. and what gratitude we feel for the privilege of watching you grow, helping when we could, and simply being part of your life, marvelous son of ours. You have given our life purpose!! Thank you for the man you have become and the legacy that we will one day leave behind.

Love, Mom and Dad

Now look back at all the memories you've made in the past day, week, month, year, or decade. Your whole lifetime is made of memories that you will either laugh at and be glad to have experienced or you will regret and wish never happened. Either way these memories are a part of our life and, just like the ones your parents share with you of their childhood, you will share these with your children. Friends you may lose over time, but memories you will never forget. When you look back at your memories of Key West High School, there will always be

SOMETHING THERE.

As we grow, we love our parents and guardians of course, but we will never realize quite how much until it's time to leave them. When the thought of leaving finally sinks in we'll realize how much they've helped us and how it would have been impossible to make it through without them. For this reason, we dedicate this book to them. Whenever we get lonely or feel homesick these are the people who love us, and will never be too busy to pick up the phone and comfort us with the smile we hear in their voices. So parents and guardians we leave you with our eternal love and thanks, and dedicate this book to you.

Colophon

Something There, the Conch 2003, was produced by the KWHHS Yearbook Staff at 2100 Flagler Avenue, Key West, Florida. Ms. Kinnune, adviser, headed production. The book is 9x12 with a press run of 800 copies with 352 pages of 80 lb matte paper. The Conch 2003 was published by Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas, represented by Ken Thornberry. The cover was designed by Kristin McKenna and Tiffany Curry using red cover material over 160 pt binder's board with red and silver silkscreens. The conch design on the cover and folio was used with permission from Goal Line Embroidery. The endsheets are white with black screen, four color photos and X9146 Taylor Custom ink. The primary fonts used in the book are Black Chancery, Mickey, Malibu, Genesis, Jester, Shabby, and Seville. The folio is a conch to show a resurgence of school pride and that fact that it is always there.
