DEDICATION

MR. WILLIAM HIGGINS AND MR. THOMAS WHITLEY — the names are synonymous with extra effort and with the excellence that extra effort brings. These two men are the music makers of Key West High School and have been for years — Mr. Higgins for fourteen and Mr. Whitley for twenty. The honors that they and their bands and choral groups have won on district and state levels are a source of pride at KWHS. But of equal importance have been the pleasure and entertainment the band and chorus brought to our school and to the community. The band has presented an average of seven halftime shows and six concerts a year for fourteen years. Who could forget the wonderful production of Oklahoma by the chorus this spring! So, to Mr. Higgins and Mr. Whitley (we might almost call them Bill and Tom, they are so intimately ours) we dedicate this yearbook for 1970.

FOREWORD

Every year at Key West High School is a special year. Events, though nominally the same as in previous years, have their own individuality each year. People come and go. The student body changes. Even the same people change from one year to the next. Certain years are marked by events or accomplishments that make those years stand out in memory — the year we were state champions in basketball or baseball, the year our students won fourteen Regents' Scholarships, the year the new wing, track, and pool were completed. Perhaps 1969-70 will be remembered because the school maintained its Southern Regional accreditation after analysis by a committee of evaluators. There were other events and accomplishments which helped to make the year outstanding: All of our athletic teams were winning teams — basketball, baseball, and track going into post-season competition. Entertainment was of unusually high quality: the junior and senior plays, the Christmas program, the Conchette Capers, the chorus production of Oklahoma — all were excellent. But of course each student and each teacher and each administrator will have his own memories. This book will help to preserve those memories and to re-arouse in years to come the feelings which have been nurtured by Key West High School in 1969-1970.

A Definition

"Happiness is . . ." has become the phrase of the day. It is a fascinating phrase, because the question it poses would be answered in so many different ways by different people. For a teacher happiness might be seeing long lines of graduates being presented their diplomas. For one student happiness might be dancing at the Junior-Senior Prom; for another, learning Anthony's speech to "Friends, Romans, countrymen" in sophomore English class; for another, sitting in the rain at a football game watching the Conchs run up a record score. Key West High School is happiness in many ways to many people. But it is also much more than happiness. It is sometimes even sadness — ask those who saw our valiant football team so soundly beaten by Coral Gables! This year's CONCH will point up the variety of meanings our school has for those who have shared the happiness, the sadness, the successes, the hard work, the fun, of the year 1969-70. Our theme will be not "Happiness is . . ." but "Key West High School is . . .," and we begin our definition on the next two pages by stating that . . .

LEARNING

Life is learning; not a moment goes by that some new experience doesn't occur. At Key West this experience is simply enriched as much as possible: out of doors, on the playing field, and in the classroom.

CREATIVITY

Creativity is that elusive quality so sought after by society and so seldom captured. At Key West we try to find and nurture this valuable side of personality. It has many facets of expression: art, drama, or music.

Key West High School IS . . .

SERVICE

Service to others is one of our social and religious ideals. It is inculcated through examples and opportunities. Magazine sales provide funds for the student treasury, while the girls do their part for their alma mater by shining trophies.

Key West
High School
IS . . .

Students not only receive, they can give. These examples demonstrate the versatility of student talents and their ability to perform.

ENTERTAINMENT

A strong tradition of spirit carries on at Key West High. Strong teams in all sports inspire and draw inspiration from an enthusiastic student body. The French call it esprit de corps, we call it devotion.

SPIRIT

Key West High School IS . . .

FUN

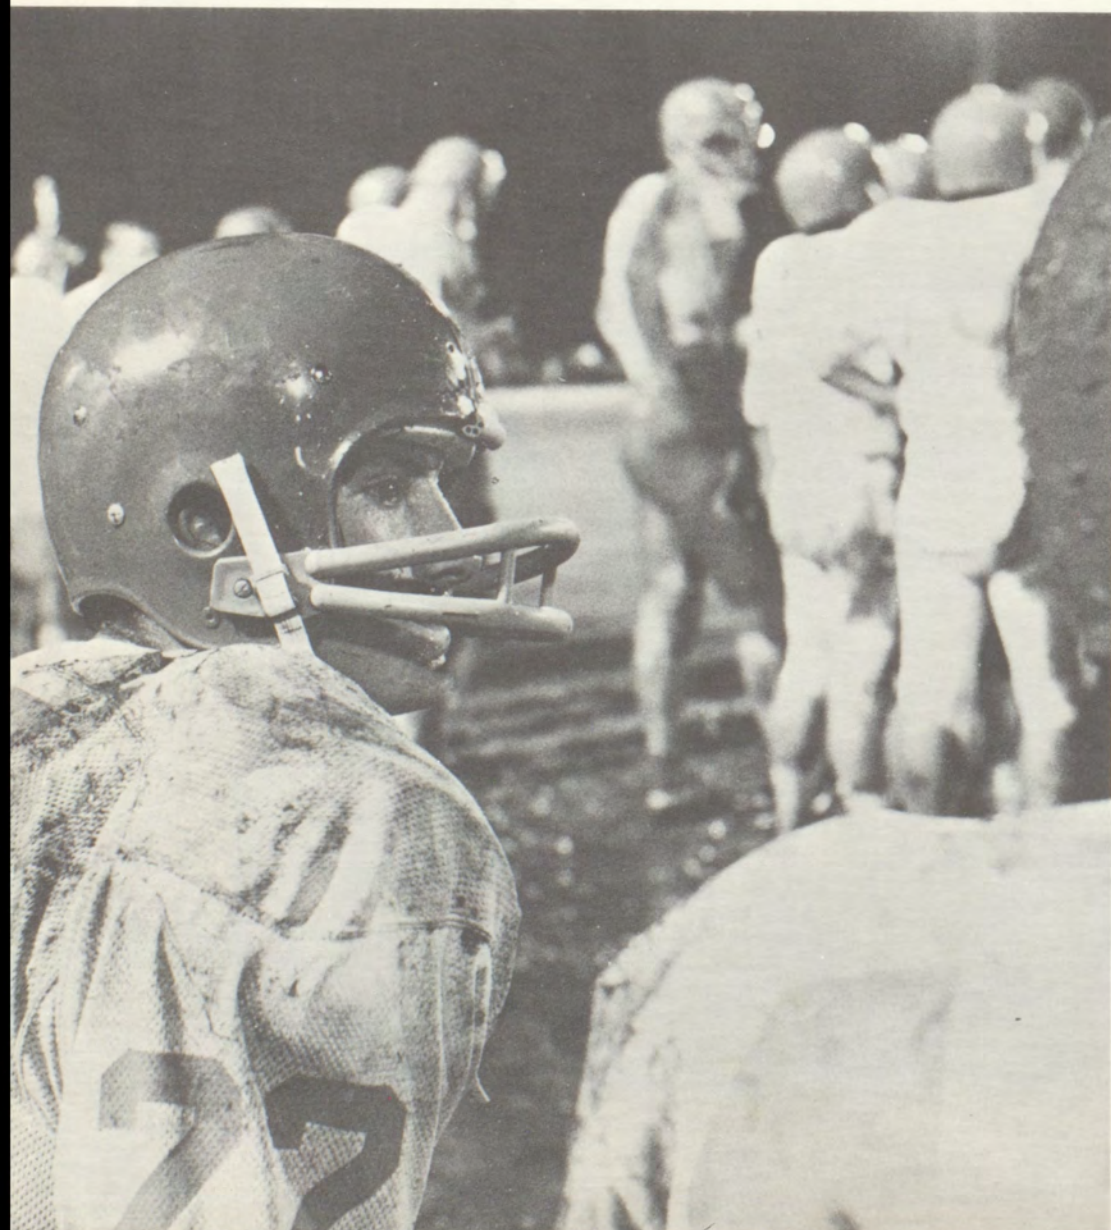

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." So runs the old saying. As one can readily see, Key West students are anything but dull! Fun becomes part of the curriculum when pupils discover the possibilities.

PEOPLE

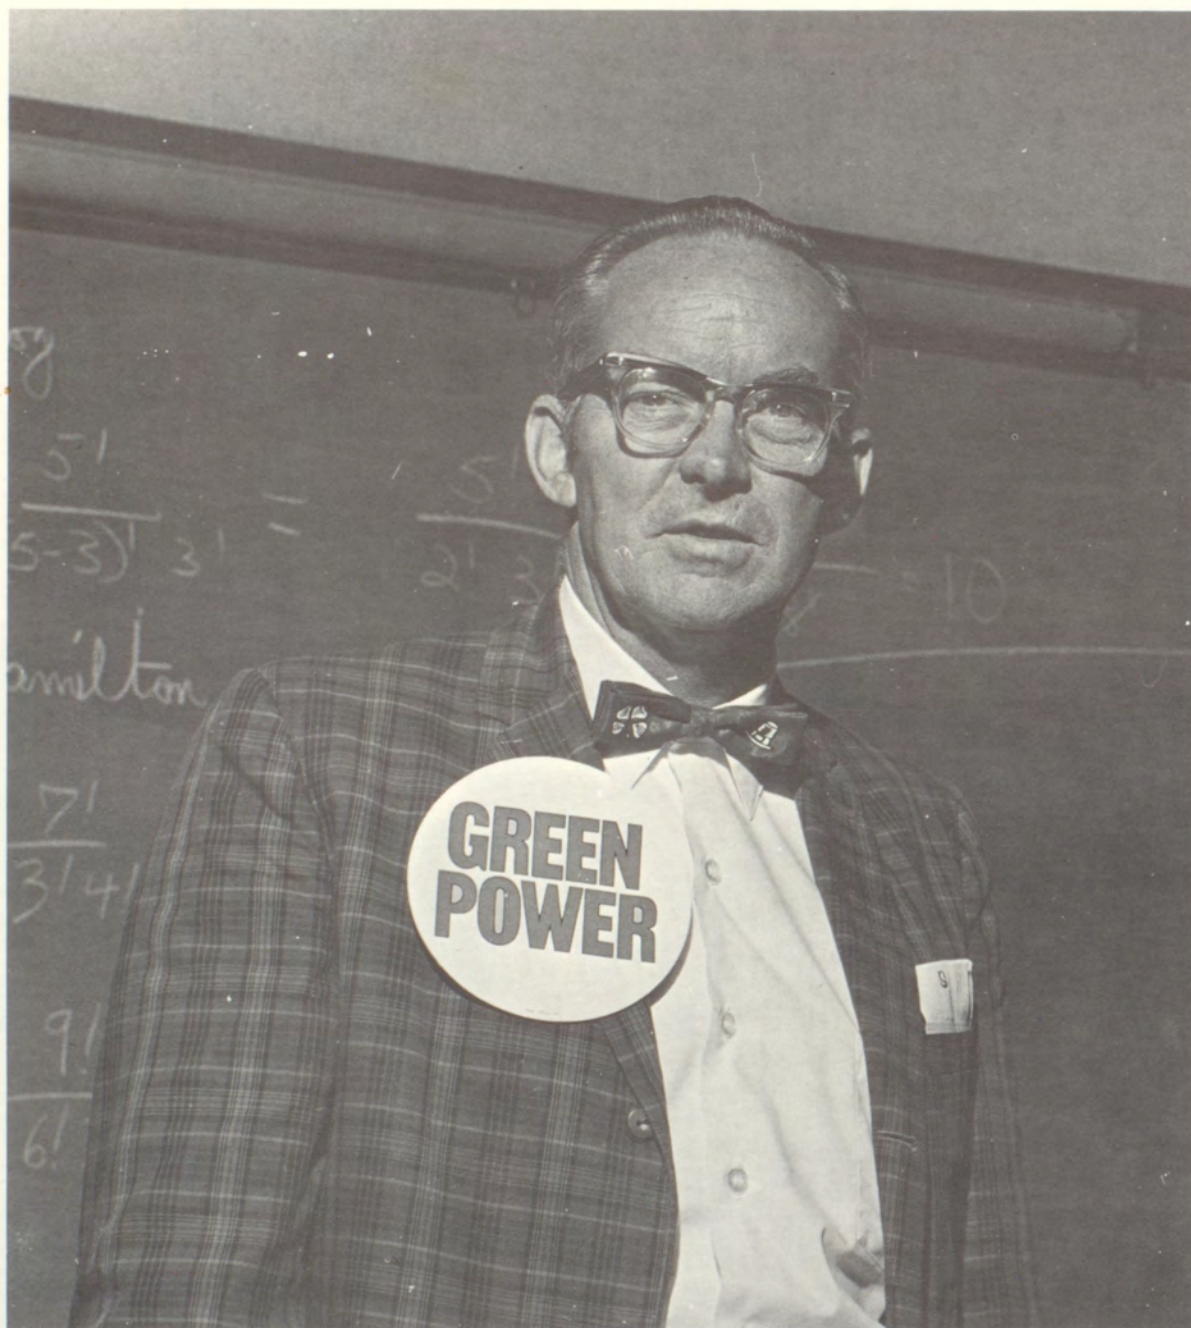

PEOPLE

People are our product, our process, and our means. We labor to produce a certain caliber of people through a process of social interaction with other people, by means of a selected faculty of educated people.

PEOPLE

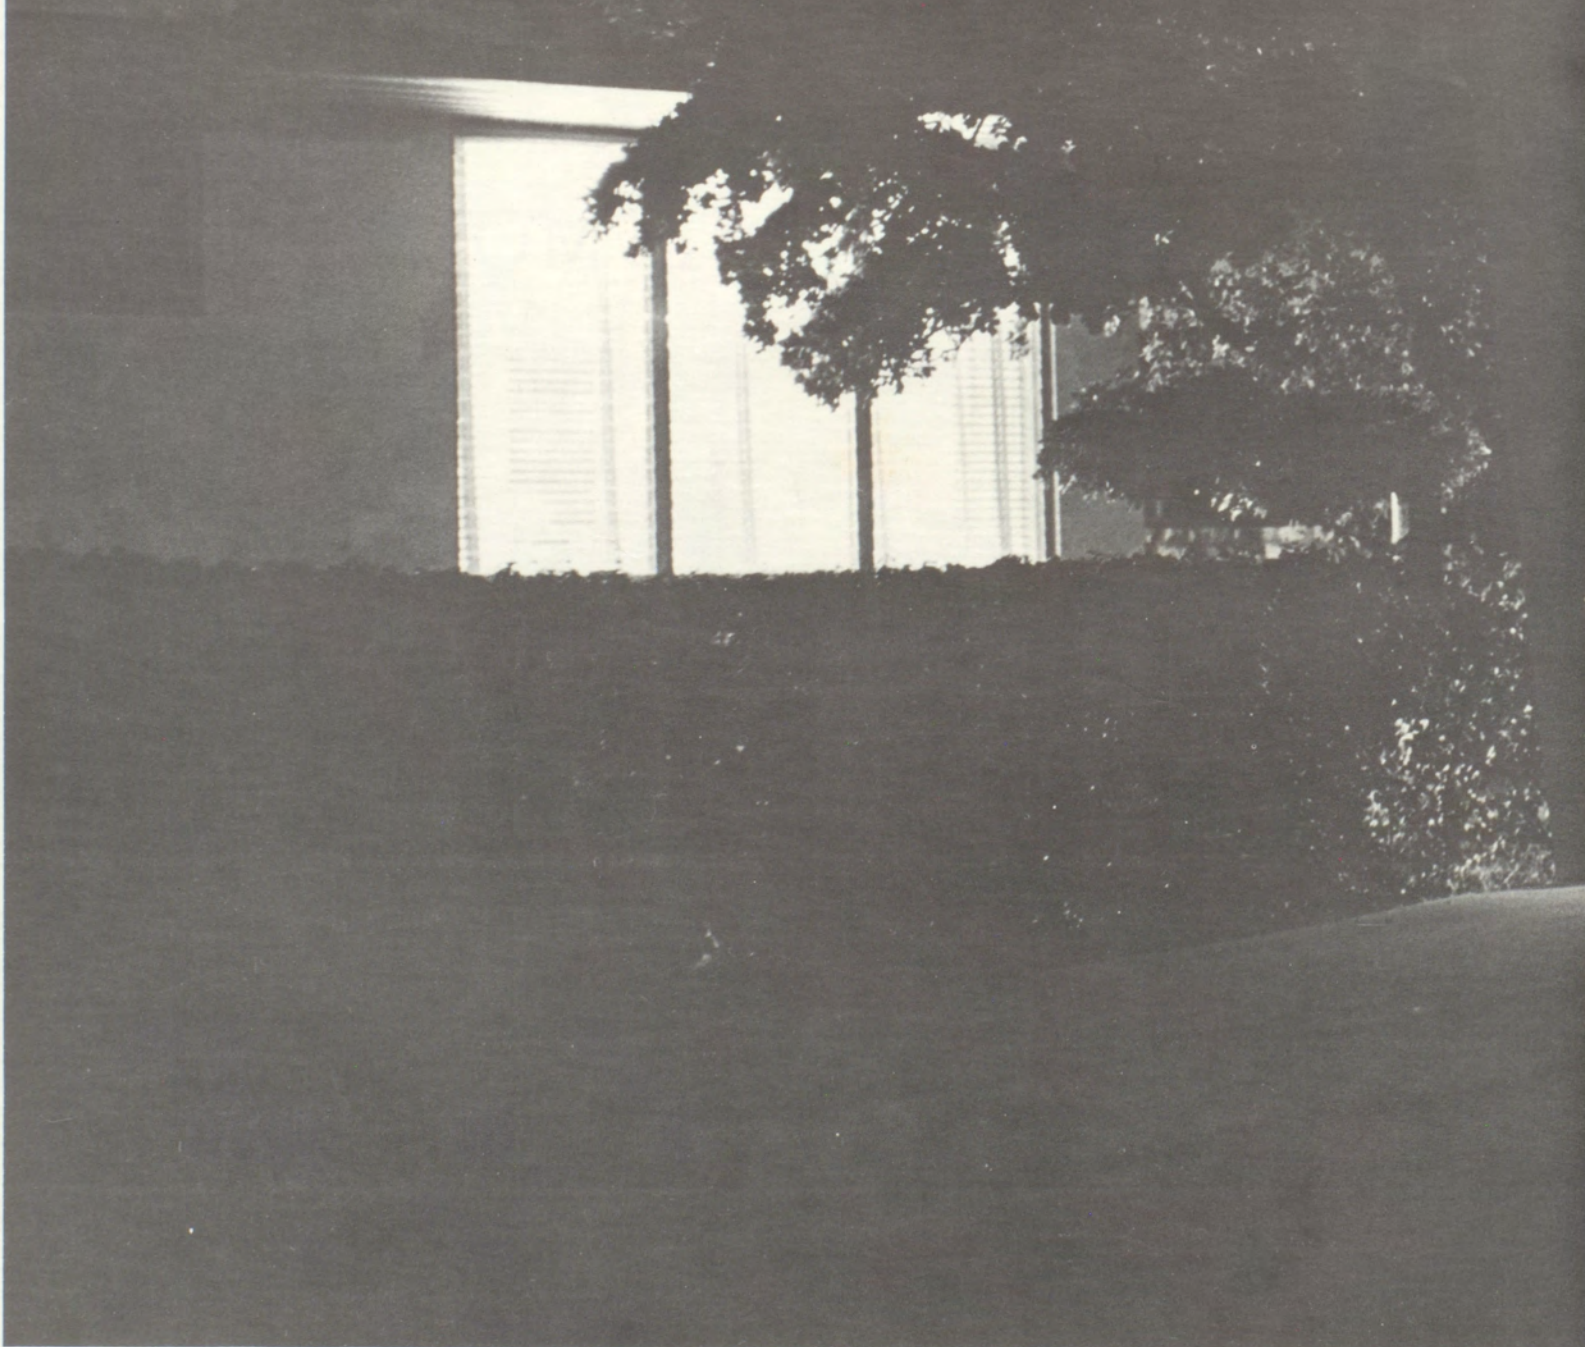

.... AND MORE PEOPLE

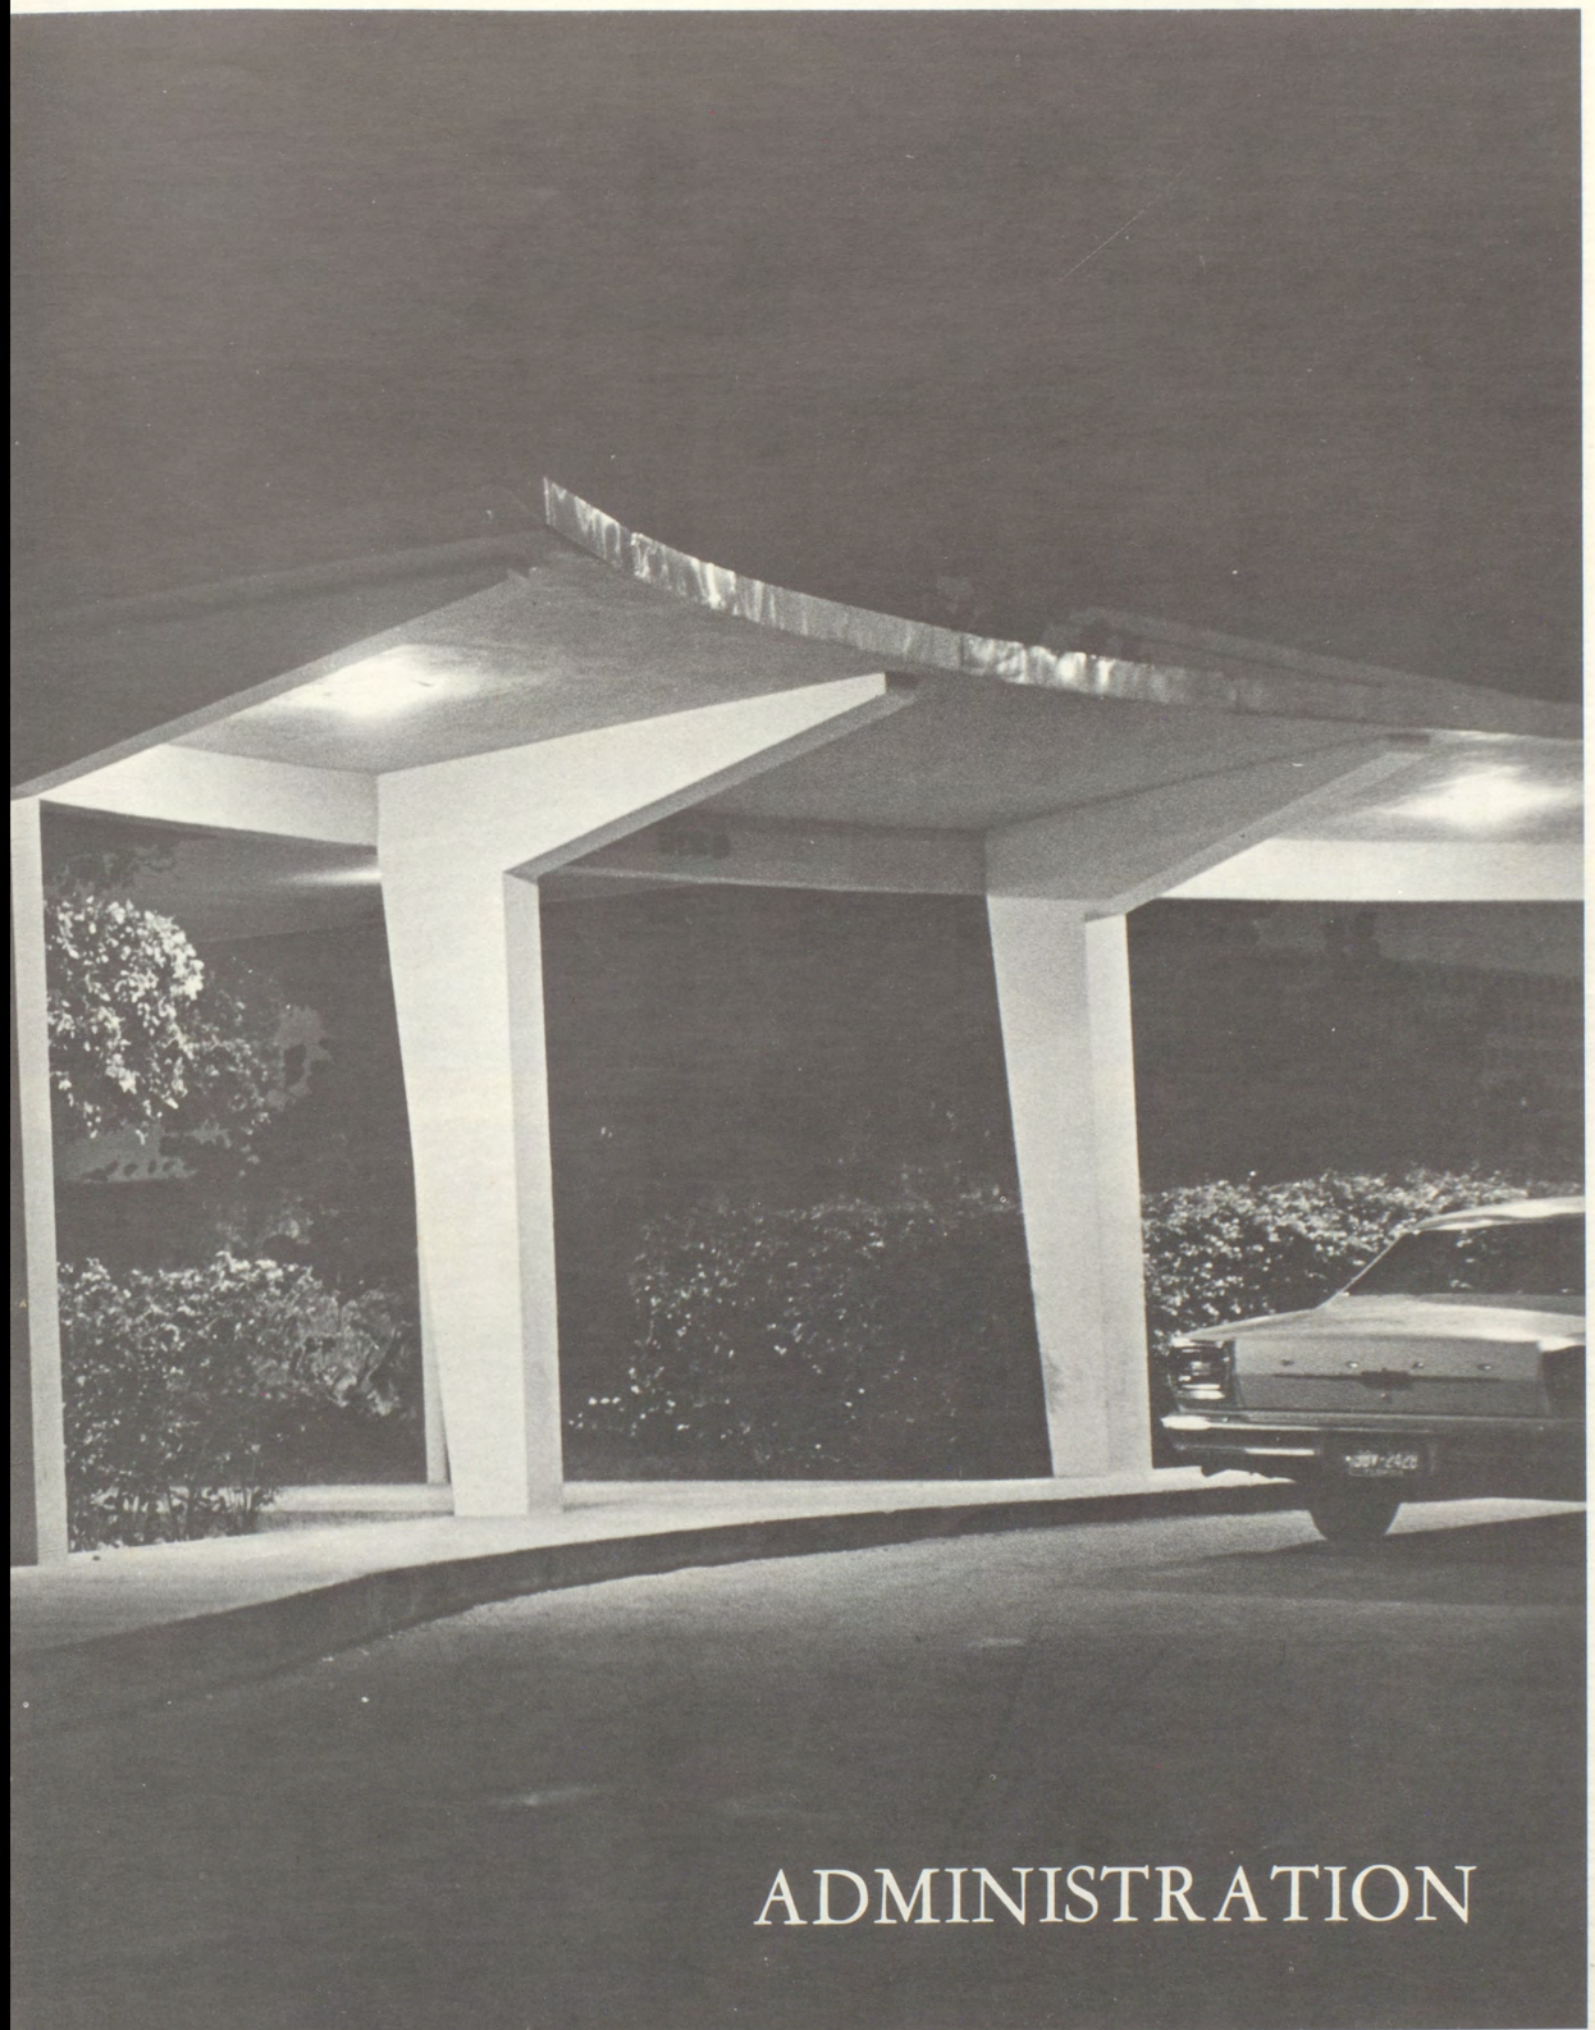

The interaction goes on for four years. In the halls and classrooms of Key West High, friendships are formed and pursued. Our concern is with the quality of these relationships, which we can only hope to influence the quality of the people who graduate from here.

Mrs. Rosejane Hawxhurst

I N M E M O R I A M

Dedication to their task and love for their students are traditional among school teachers. These qualities contribute to the sadness which comes when a teacher dies, and when these qualities are exceptional the sadness is more severe. Only those students who were helped by Mrs. Hawxhurst and Mrs. Poe and only those teachers who knew them well can appreciate the great loss to education which their passing represents. But there is a sadness, too, which comes from the memory of these two ladies for their personality even apart from their teaching — their warmth and energy and friendliness and love.

Mrs. Patricia Poe

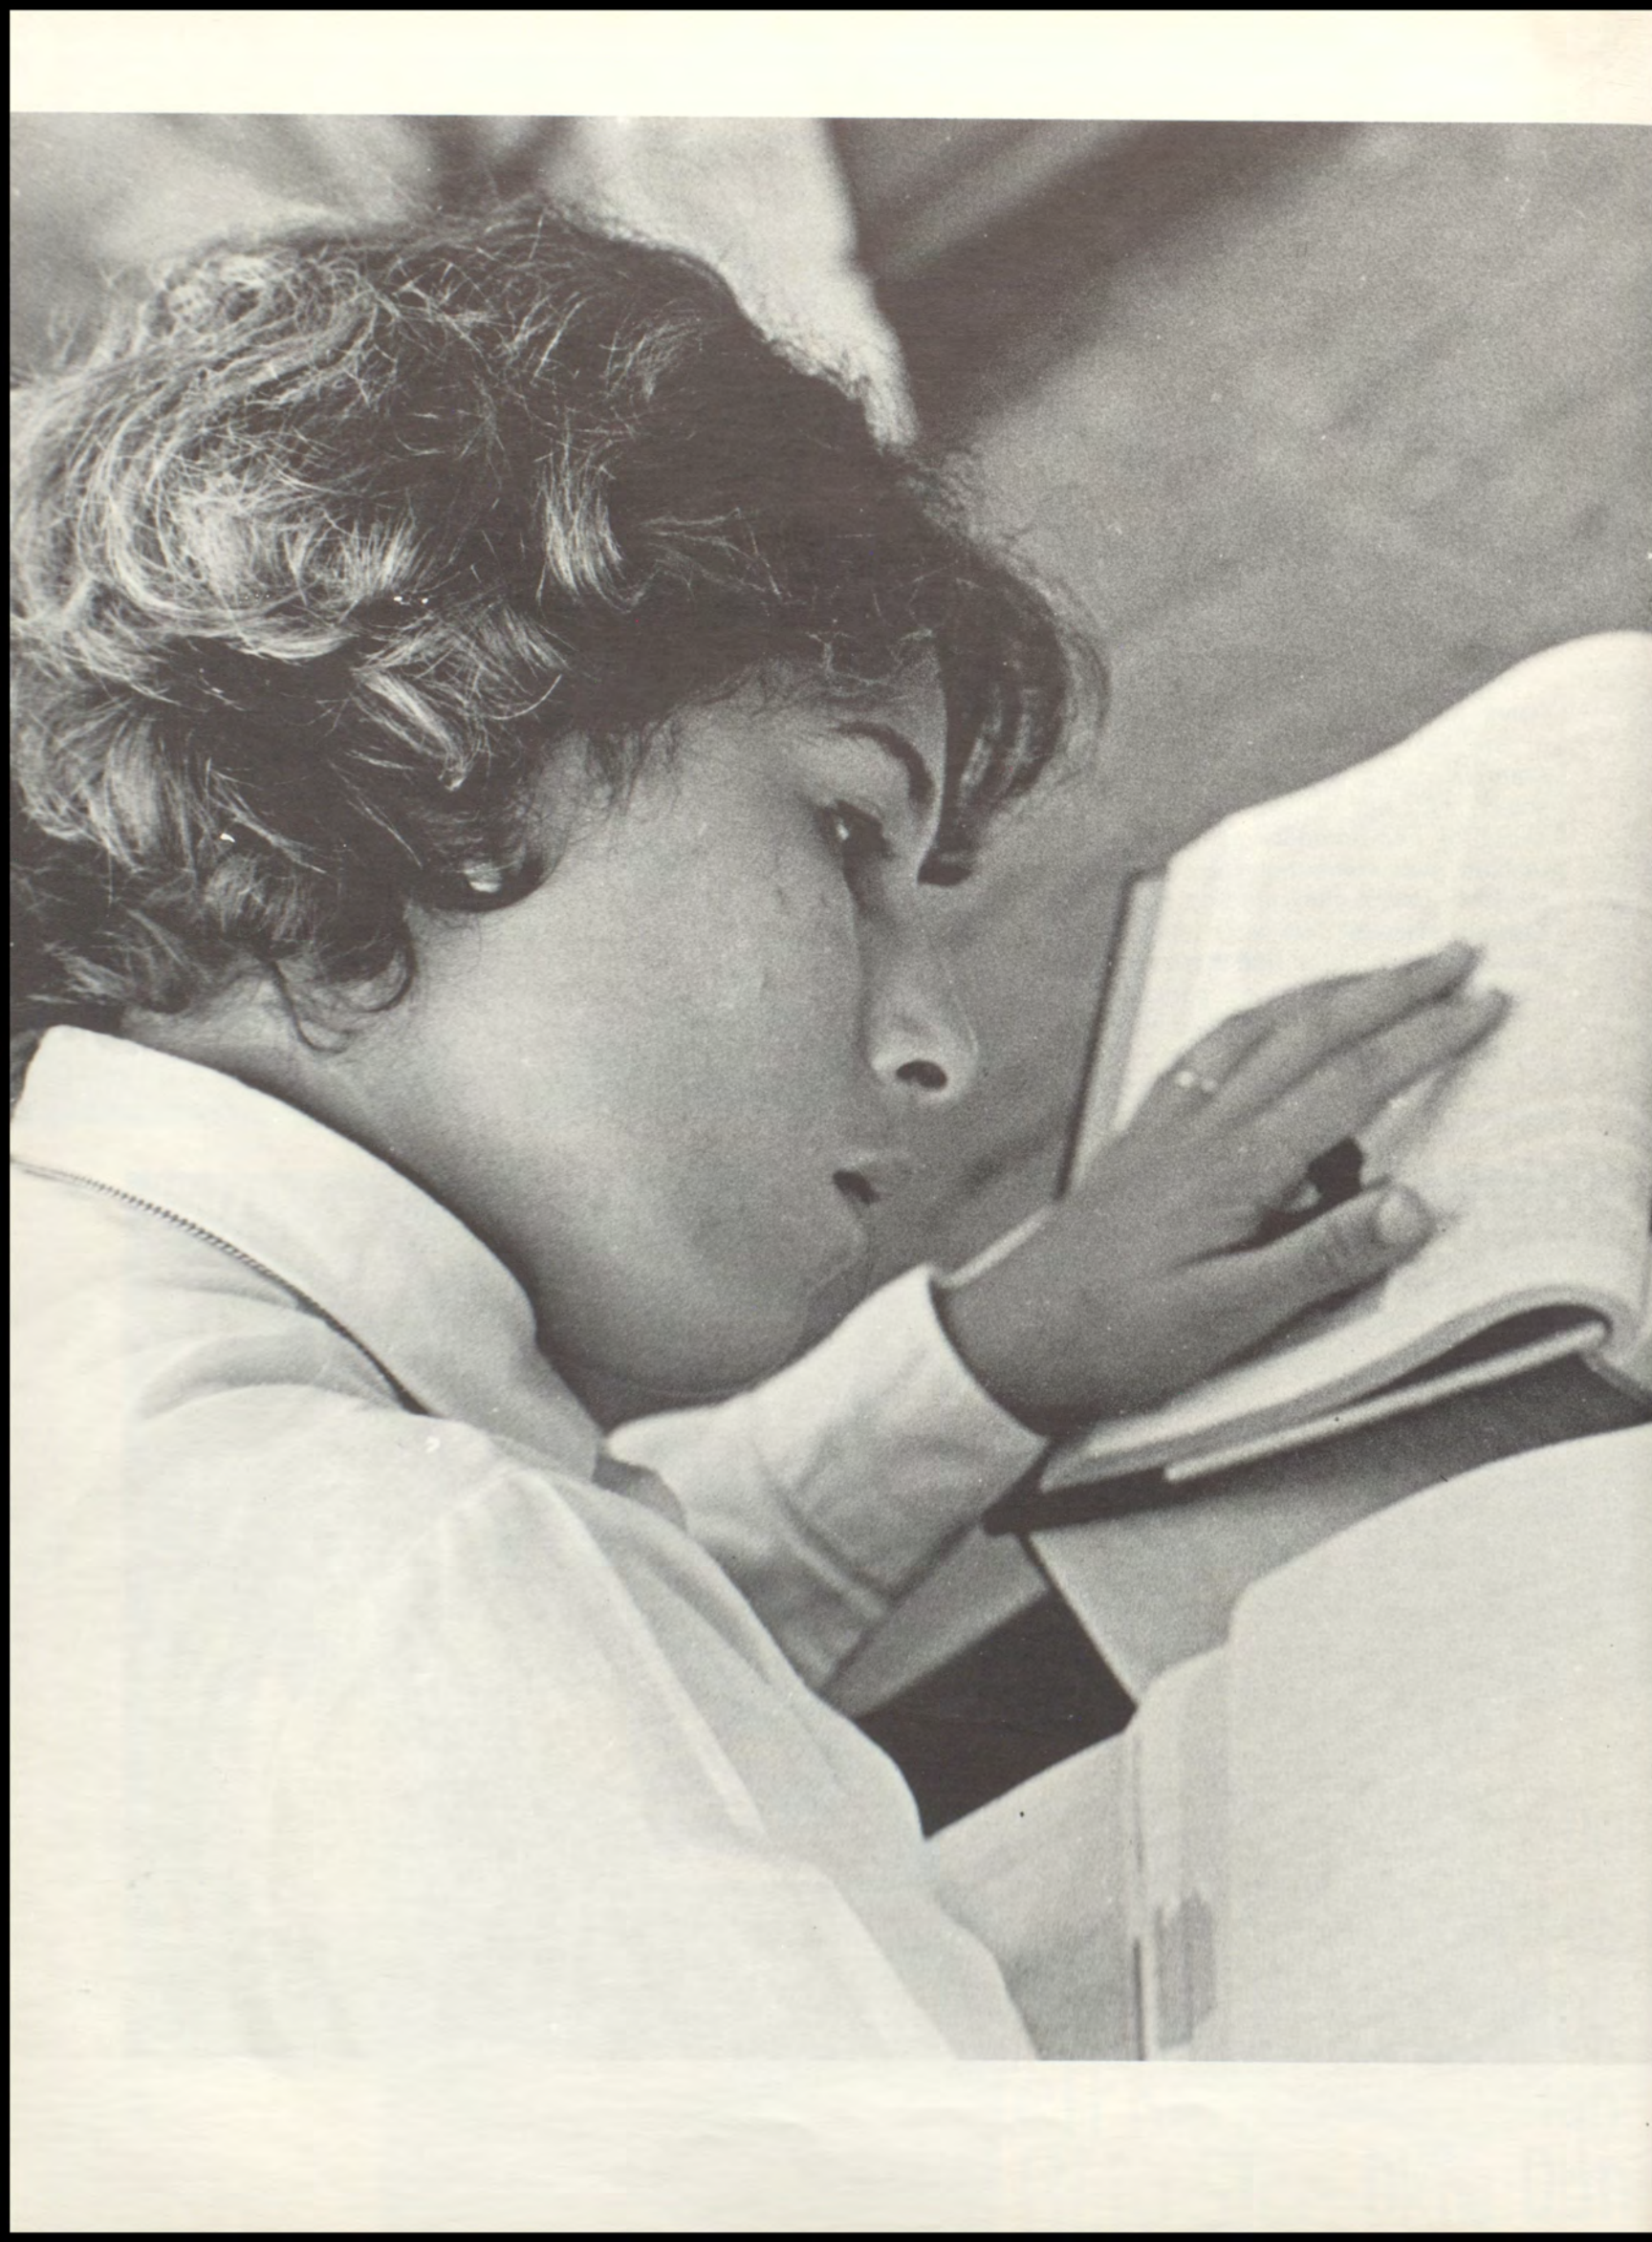

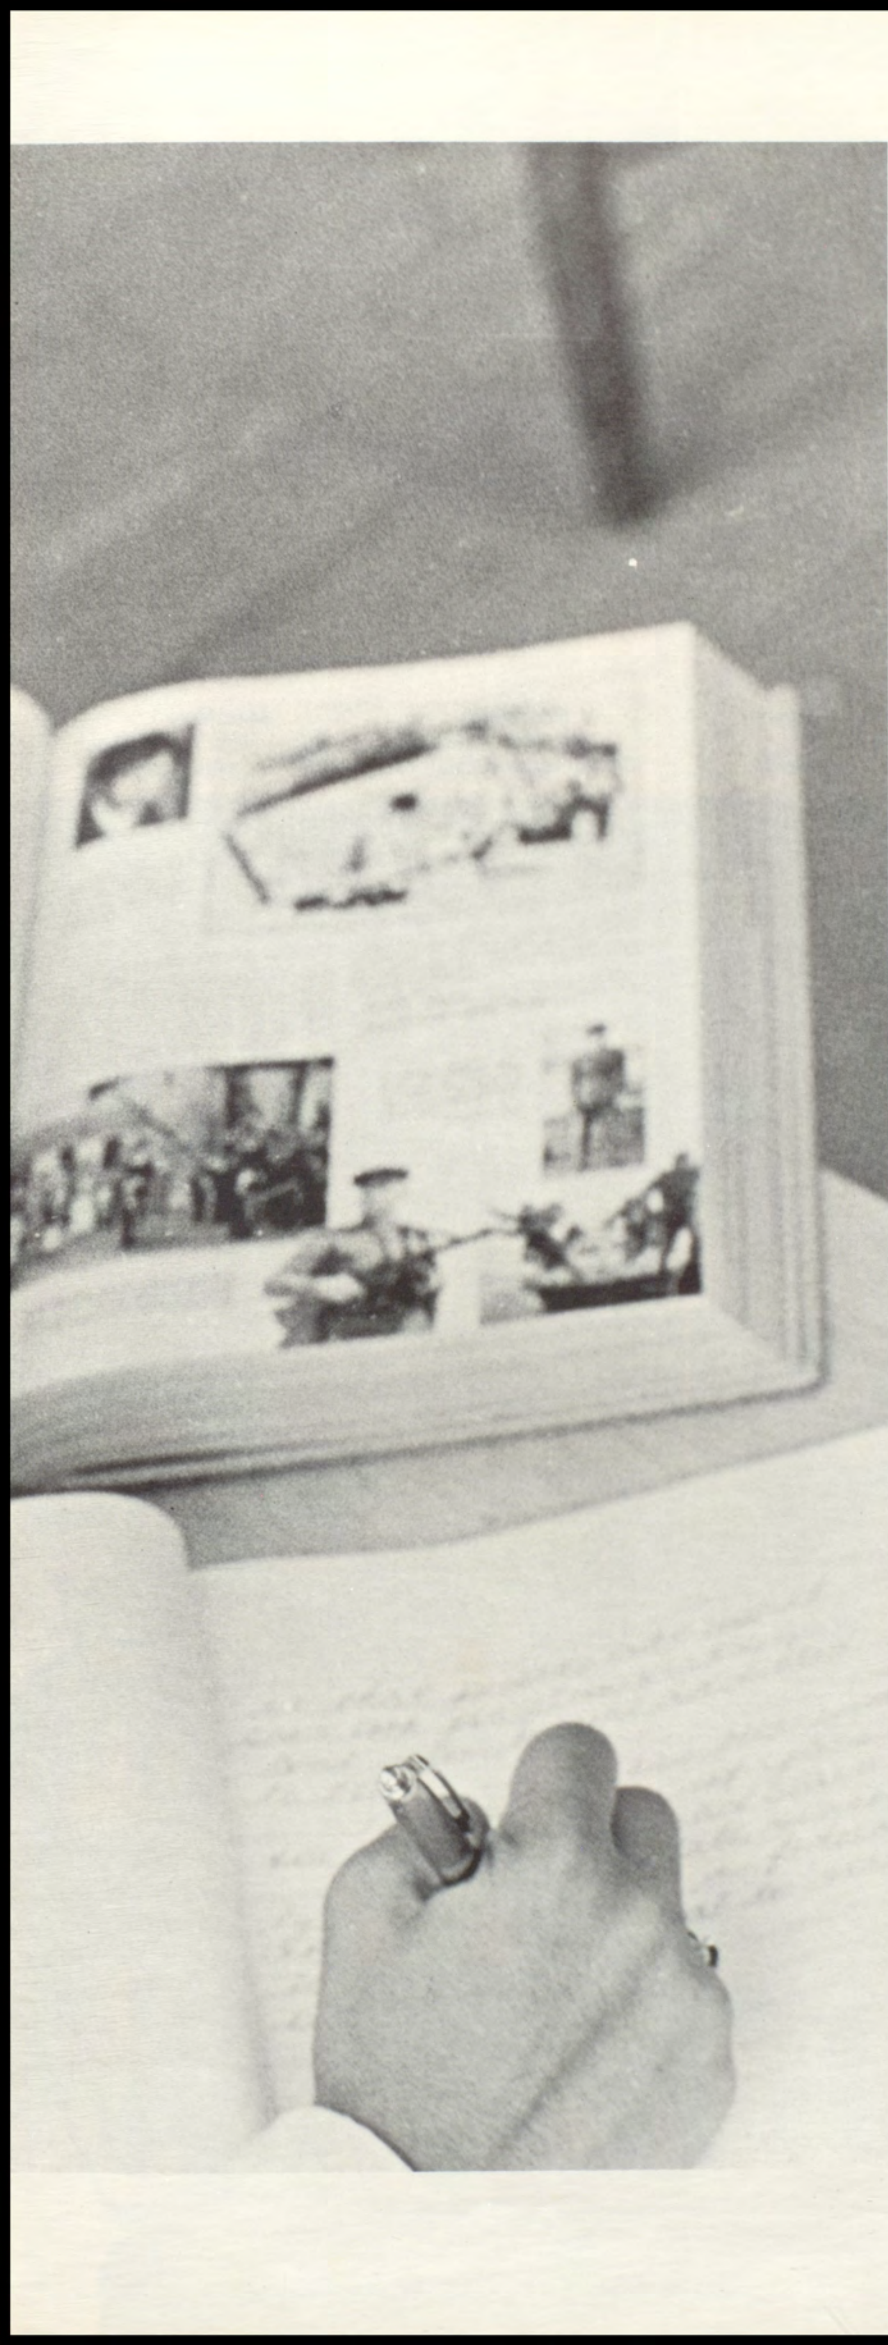

Honored, Retired

Miss Mary Trevor, right, cannot remember how many years she was sponsor of the CONCH and the SNAPPER. "Just say," she said, "many years!" She began teaching at Key West High School in September, 1924, and retired in June, 1967. Mary B. Trevor Library in the new wing was named to honor her after thirty-two years' service as our librarian. Her portrait, shown here by Mr. Archer, hangs in an honored place in that library.

Mrs. Sylvia Abbey received the high honor in June of being chosen Teacher of the Year by the Future Teachers of America, some of whose members are shown with her below. Mrs. Abbey, because of her notoriety as an excellent teacher, was somewhat feared by many students before they entered her senior English classes. But after they got to know her, they found that a good teacher can, after all, be a good person. After thirteen years at KWHS she retired in June, 1970, to devote more time to her husband, who has been hospitalized for several years.

ACADEMICS

Faculty

Satisfaction is the key word to a teacher's career. To see a group of young adults leave with four years of intense learning upon their shoulders is just one of the many satisfactions a real teacher feels. It is not right to give a student the keys to the doors of life and not explain what can happen or what to expect. A teacher tries not to explain his understanding of a subject; rather, he hopes that the student can develop his own ideas.

English

The study of language is an important part of a student's total education. To meet the needs of all students, classes are offered in reading and communicative skills, as well as regular classes in English. The study of our language and its usage and a knowledge of American and world literature are major goals of this department.

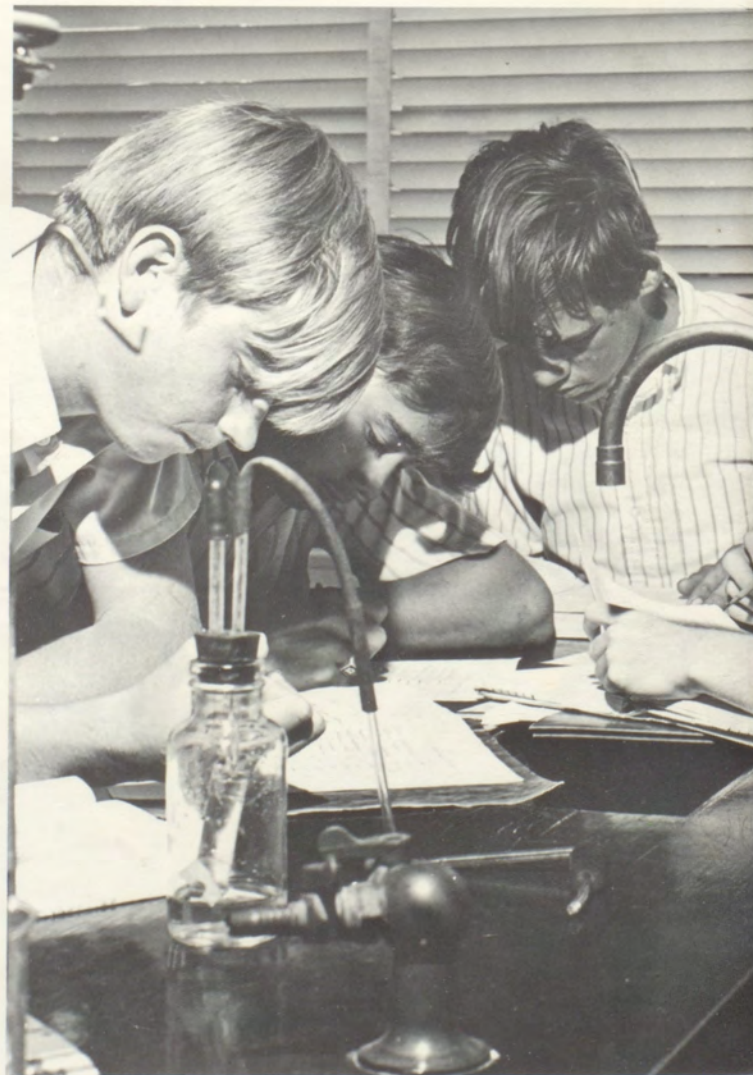

Social Studies

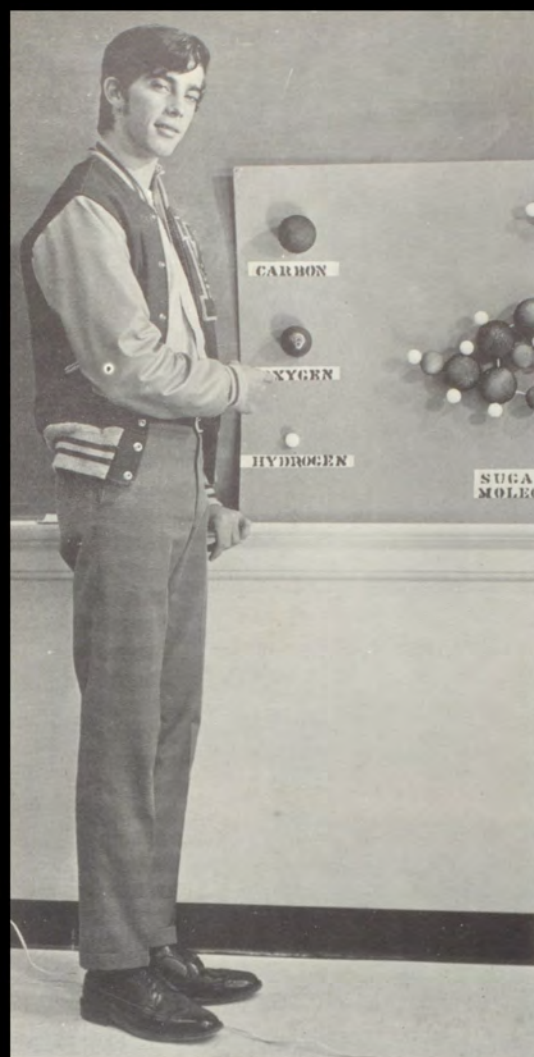

The structure and function of different societies throughout the world and an insight into problems of our own society make up an important part of the social studies program. Courses in American history, world history, civics, and government are a part of the offerings of this department.

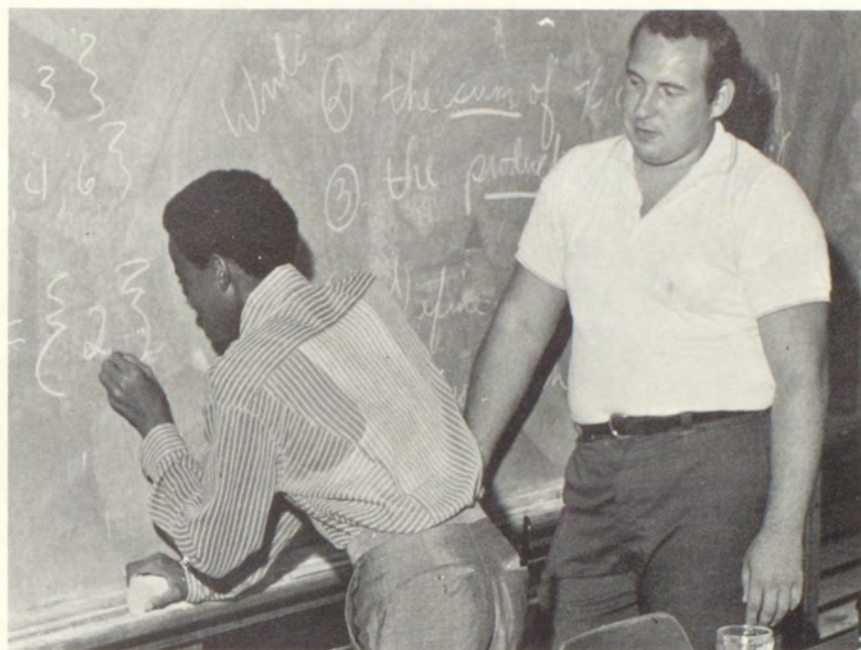

Science

Courses from physical science to physics attempt to broaden our understanding of the makings of our bodies, our world, and our universe. Our science department is well-equipped to add to our entire process of understanding ourselves and our environment.

Mathematics

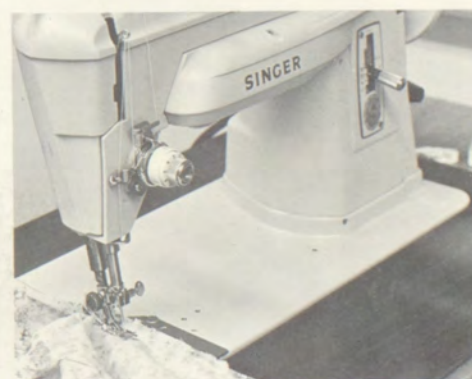

Whether the problem is to find the cost of insurance, compute a salary, figure an algebraic equation, or find the area of a triangle, courses in the mathematics department offer a solution. The wide backgrounds and exceptional talents of the math faculty makes these courses distinctive.

Home Economics

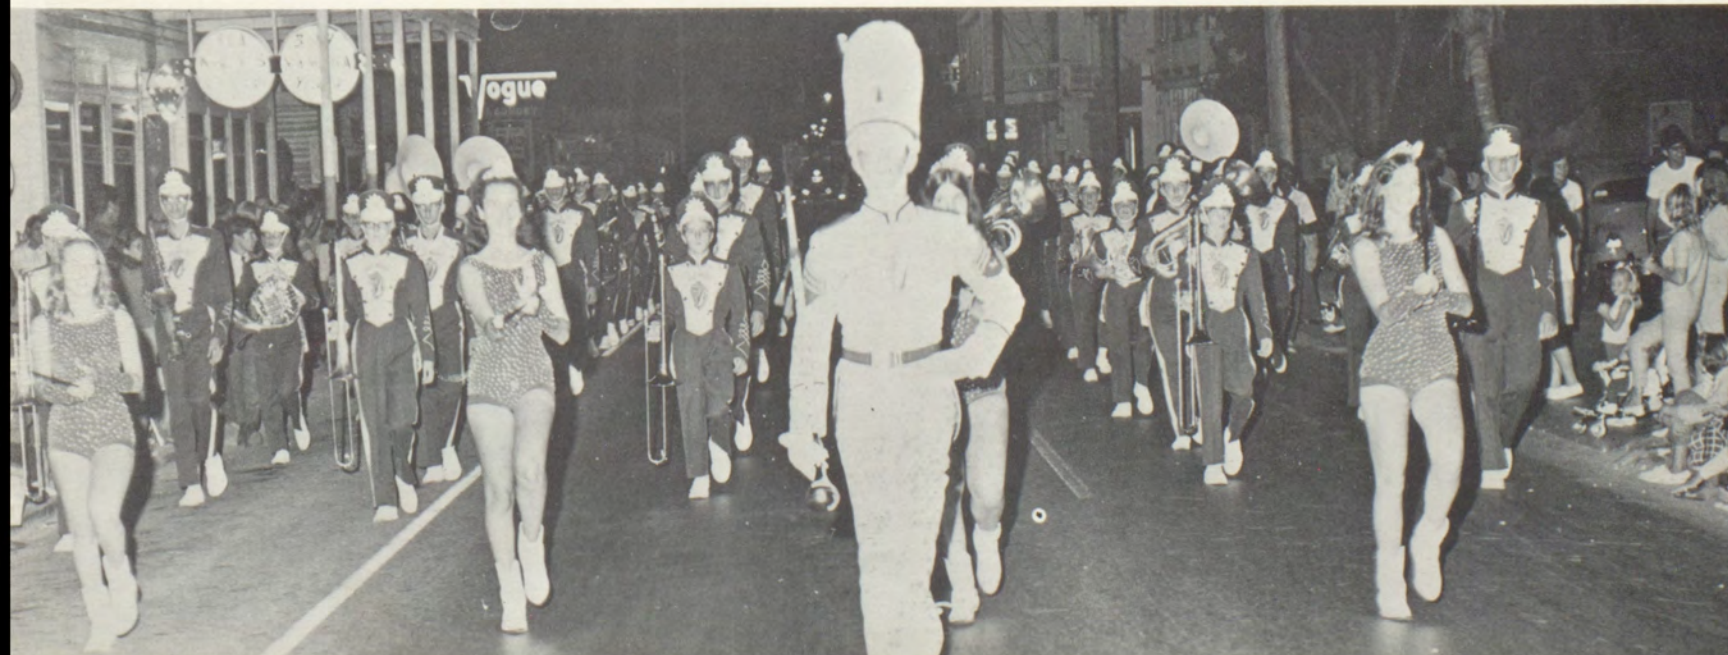

As future wives, mothers, and homemakers, these girls practice the skills of cooking, sewing, child care, and design. A capable faculty offers time, patience, and care to realize their goals.

Music

Long hours of practice and hard work produce exceptional organizations which offer much to our school as well as the community. Teachers and students are ones of exceptional and varied talents.

Business

Our business department offers a wide variety of courses including typing, accounting, business machines, shorthand, business math, business English, and vocational office practice. Graduates of the program enter the business world prepared to do efficient and competent jobs.

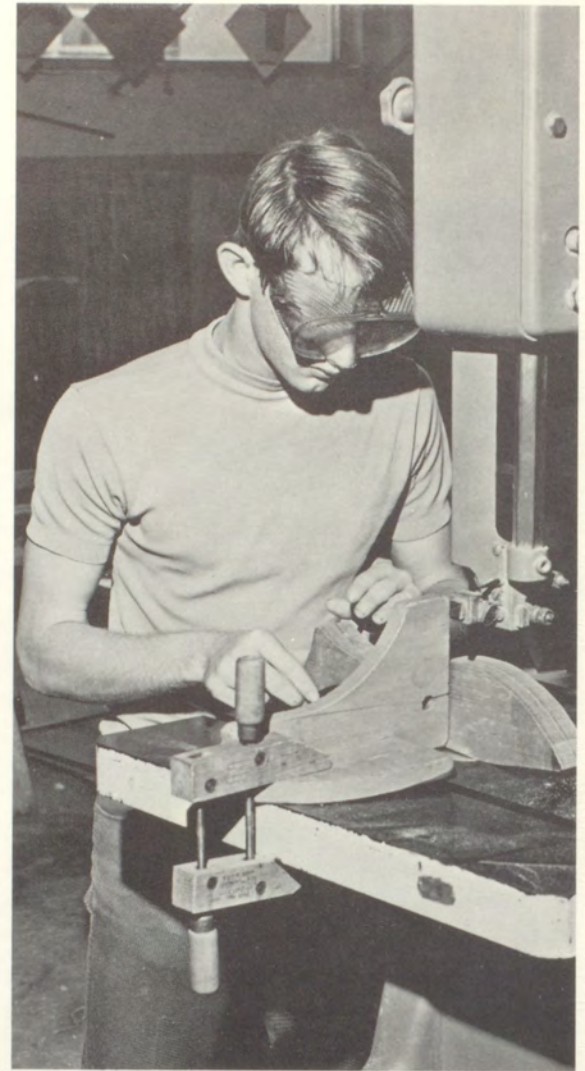

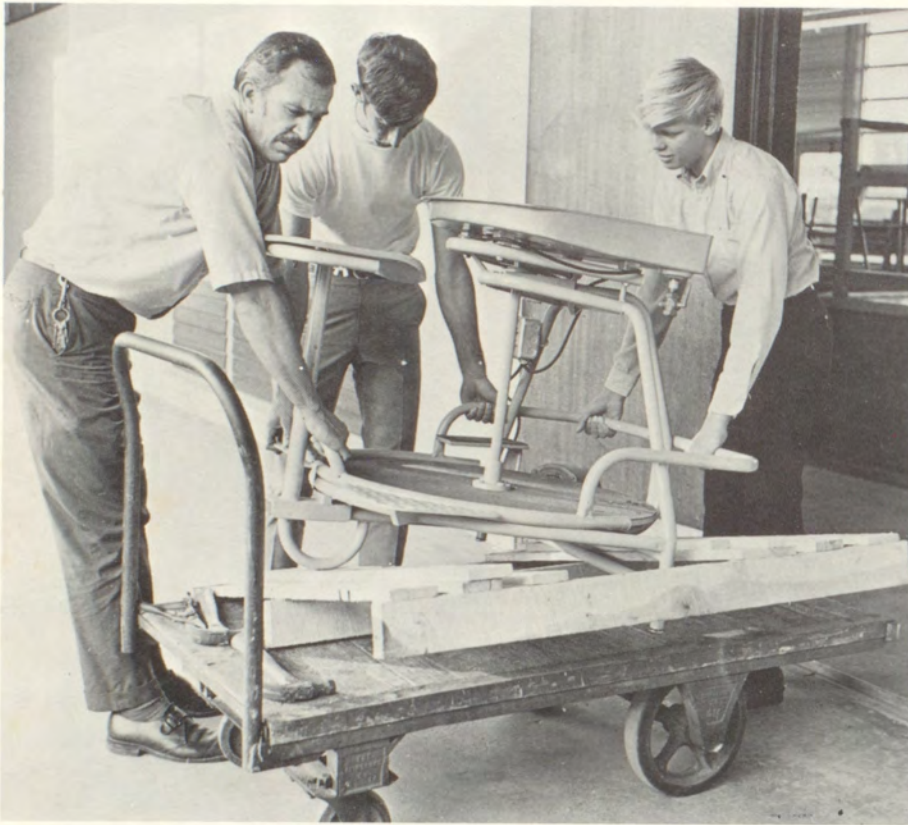

Languages

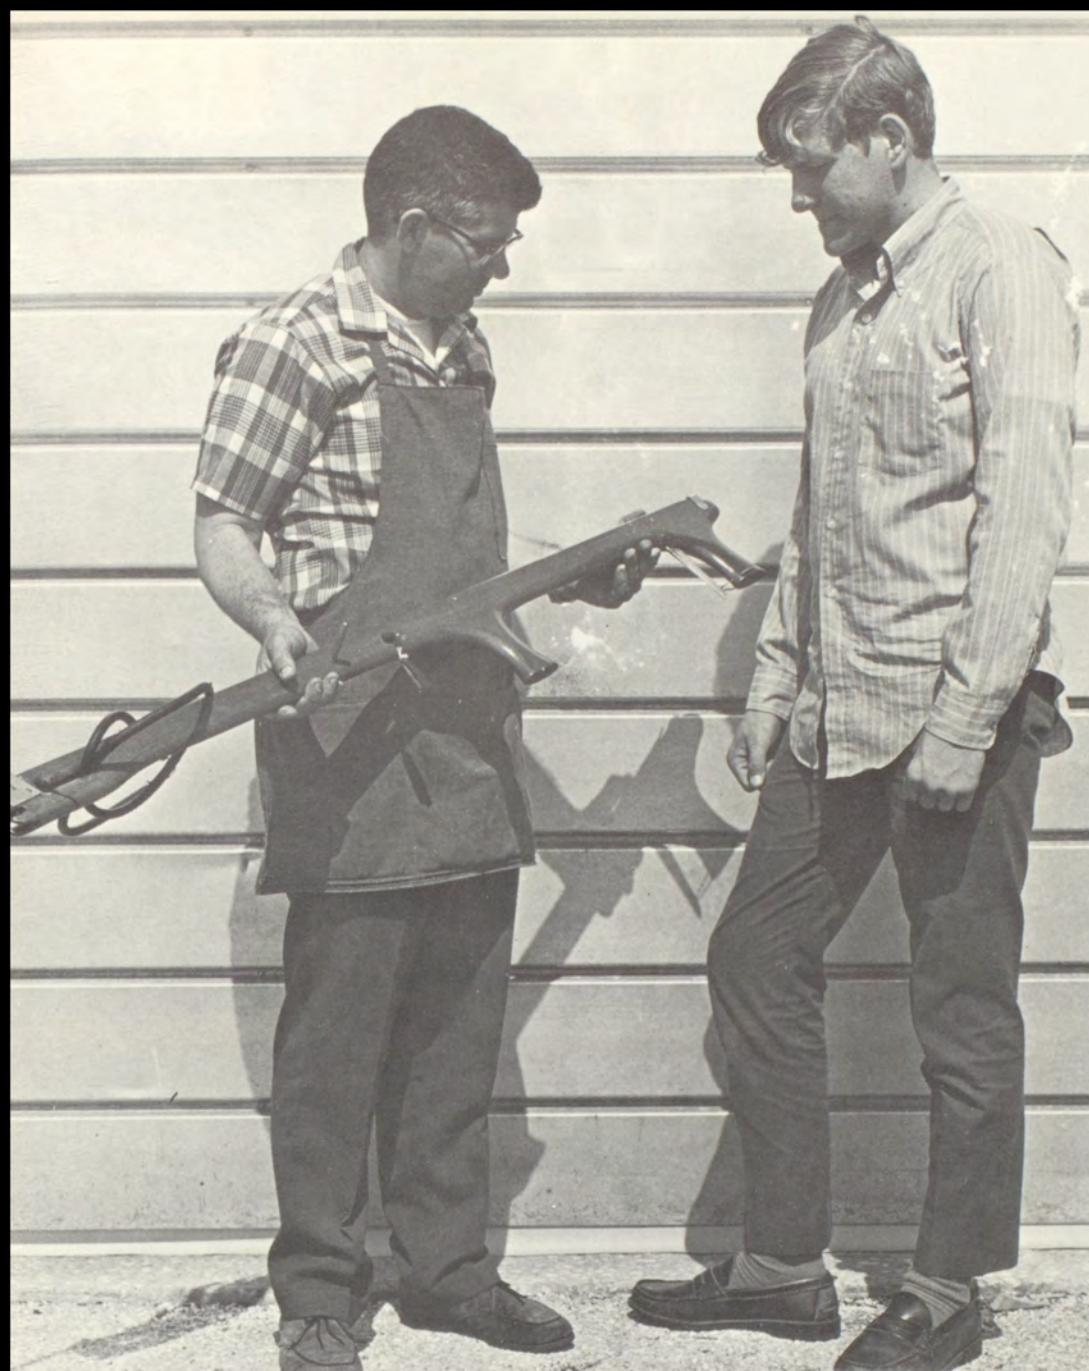

With a modern language lab, up-to-date texts and materials, and knowledgeable instructors, students attain fluency and cultural backgrounds in a second language. Students may choose to study Spanish, French or Latin.

Arts, Crafts, Shop

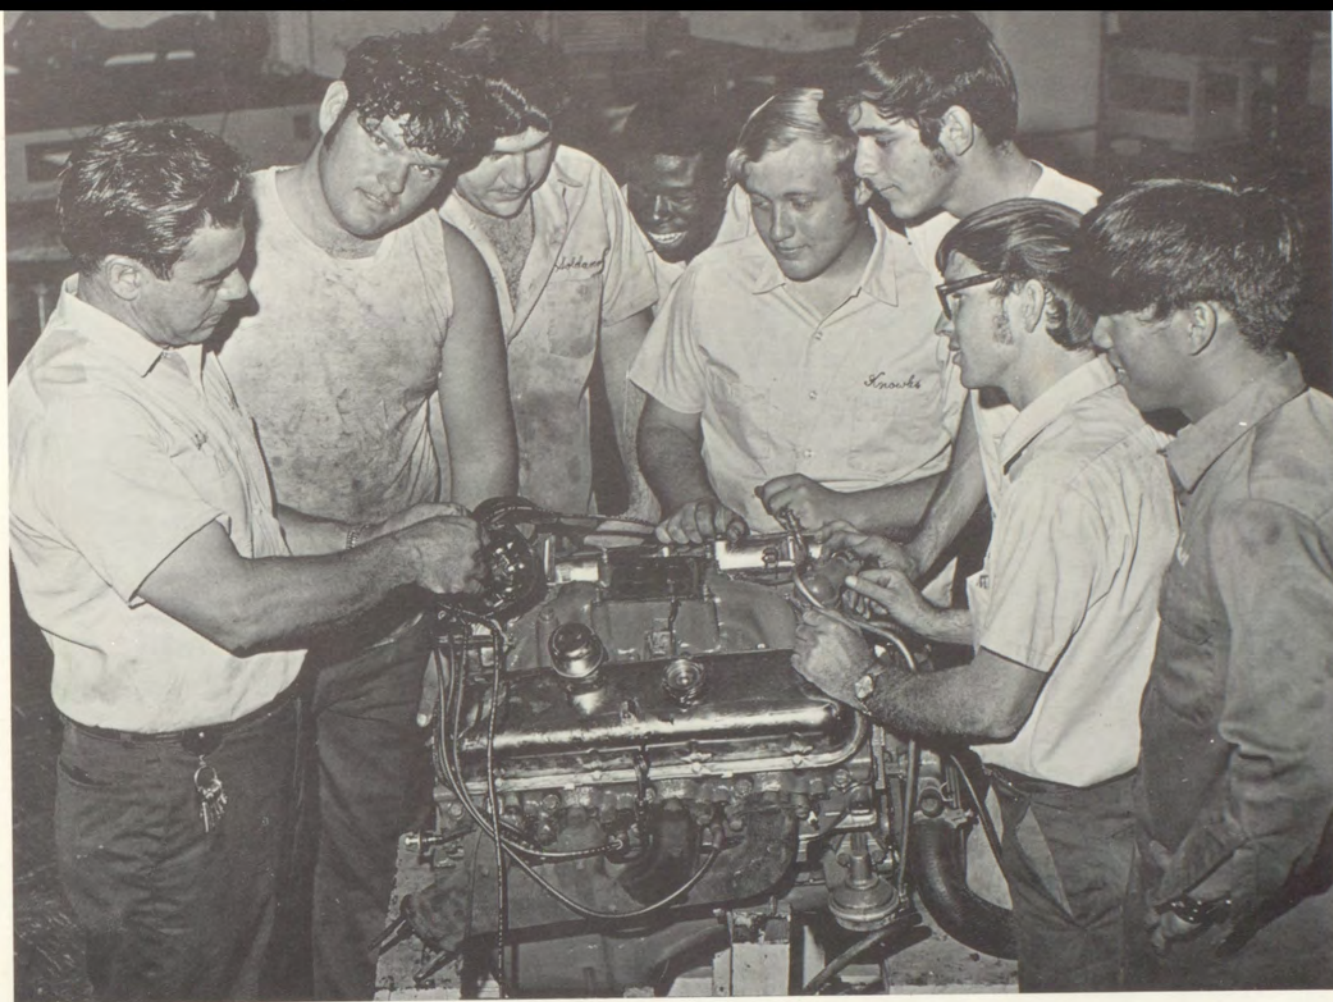

Courses in arts, crafts and shop offer the artistically creative student a chance to excel whatever his inclination. Be it to paint a picture, model a statue, mold a pot, whittle a wood carving or build a bookcase, the facilities and faculty offer instruction and opportunity.

Auto Mechanics, Welding

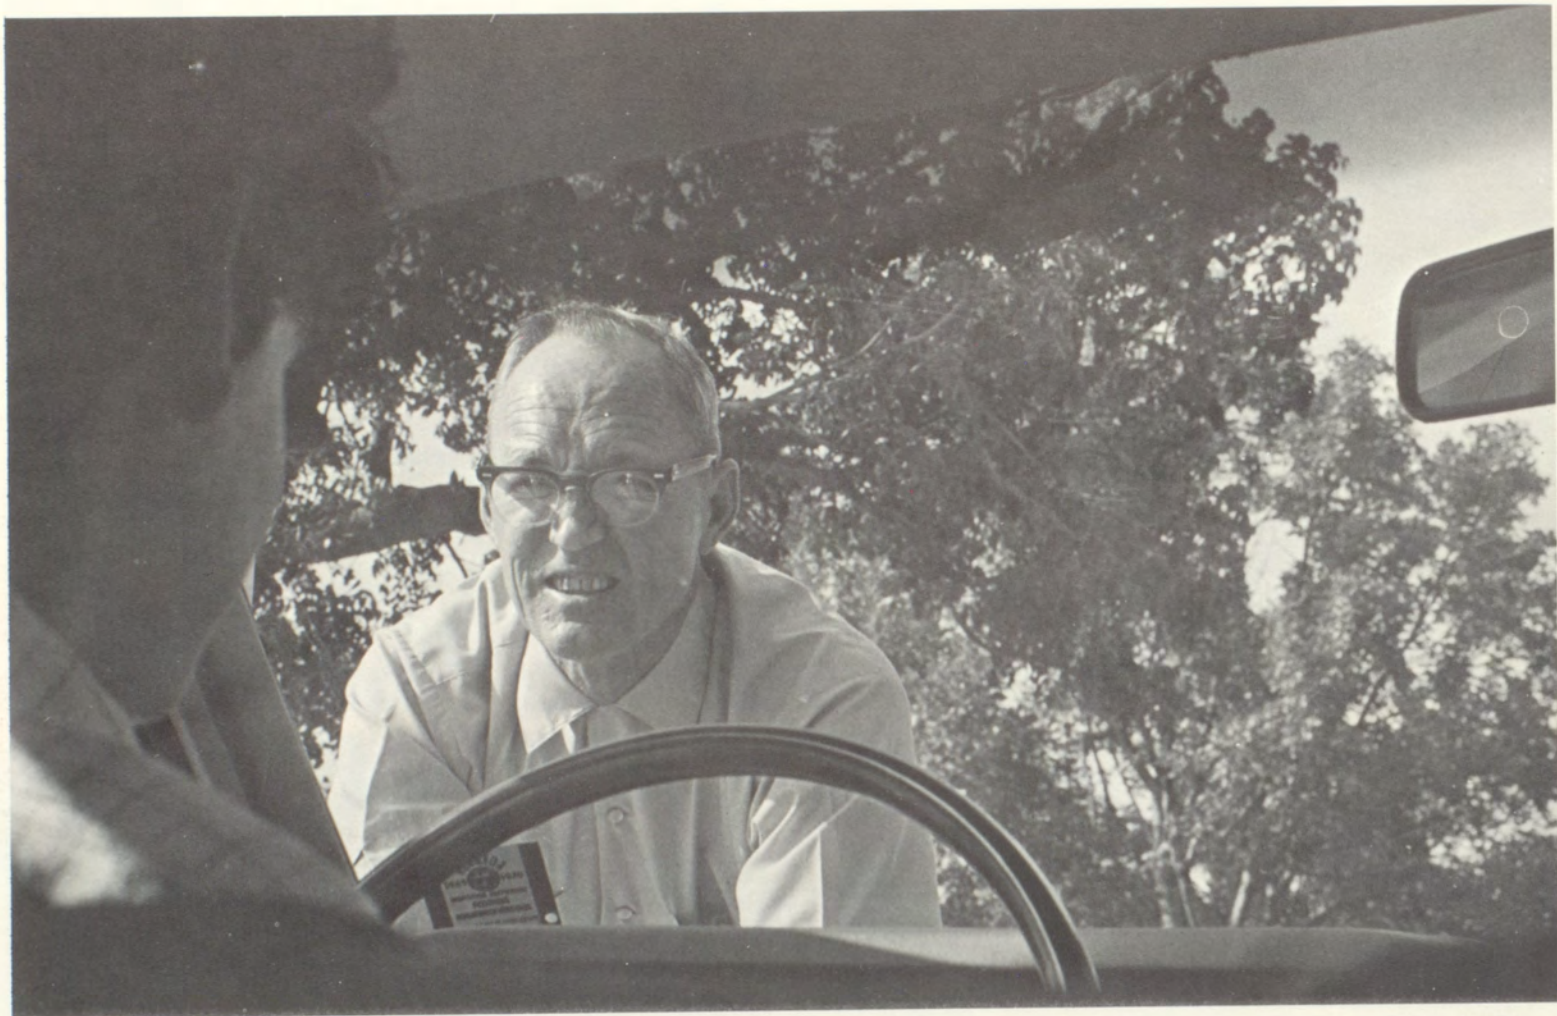

We live in a world of mechanisms, big and small. Auto mechanics welding prepare the craftsmen who will deal with some of the most significant mechanisms of our world.

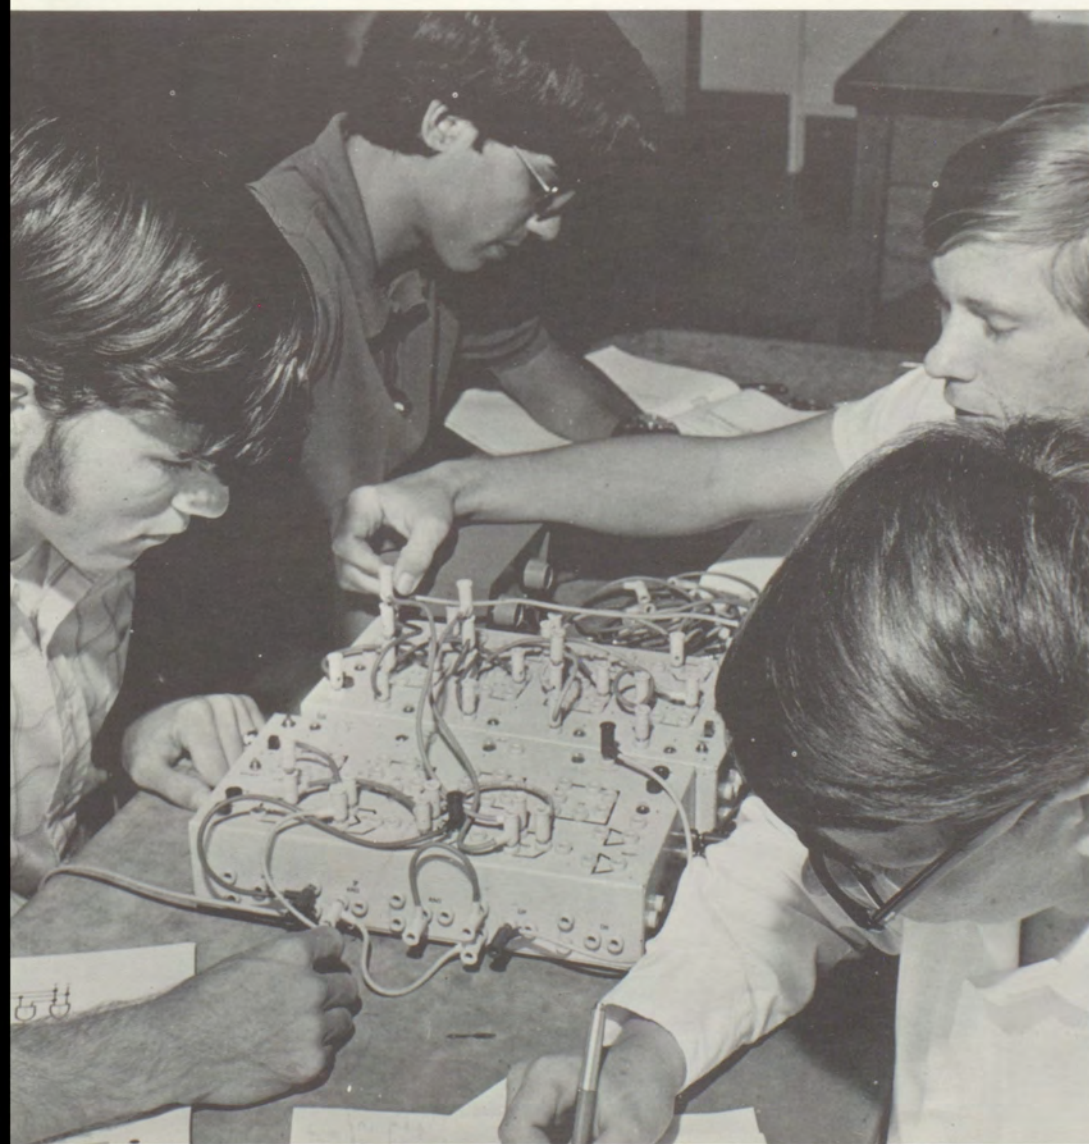

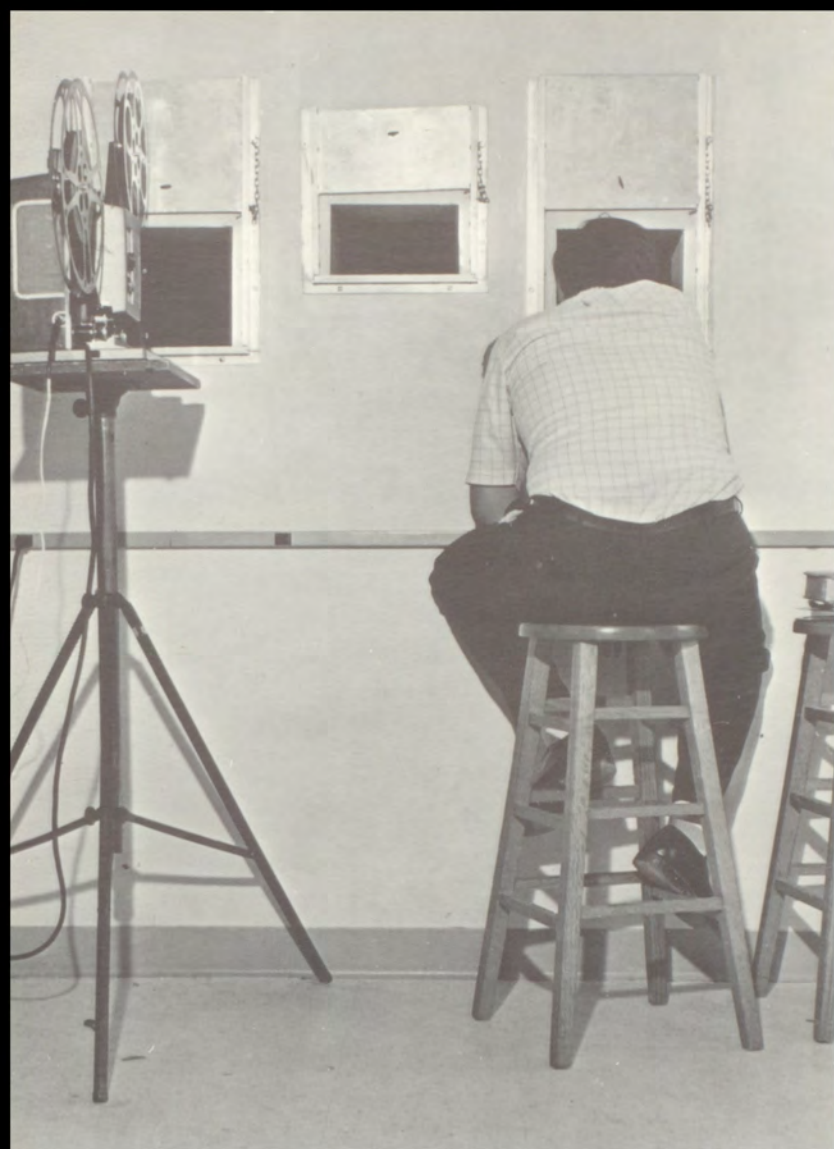

Driver Education, Safety

Driving involves refined skills just as other adult activities. Driver education provides the necessary instruction and practice in these skills. Safety habits are formed here that carry over into later life; indeed, they prolong it.

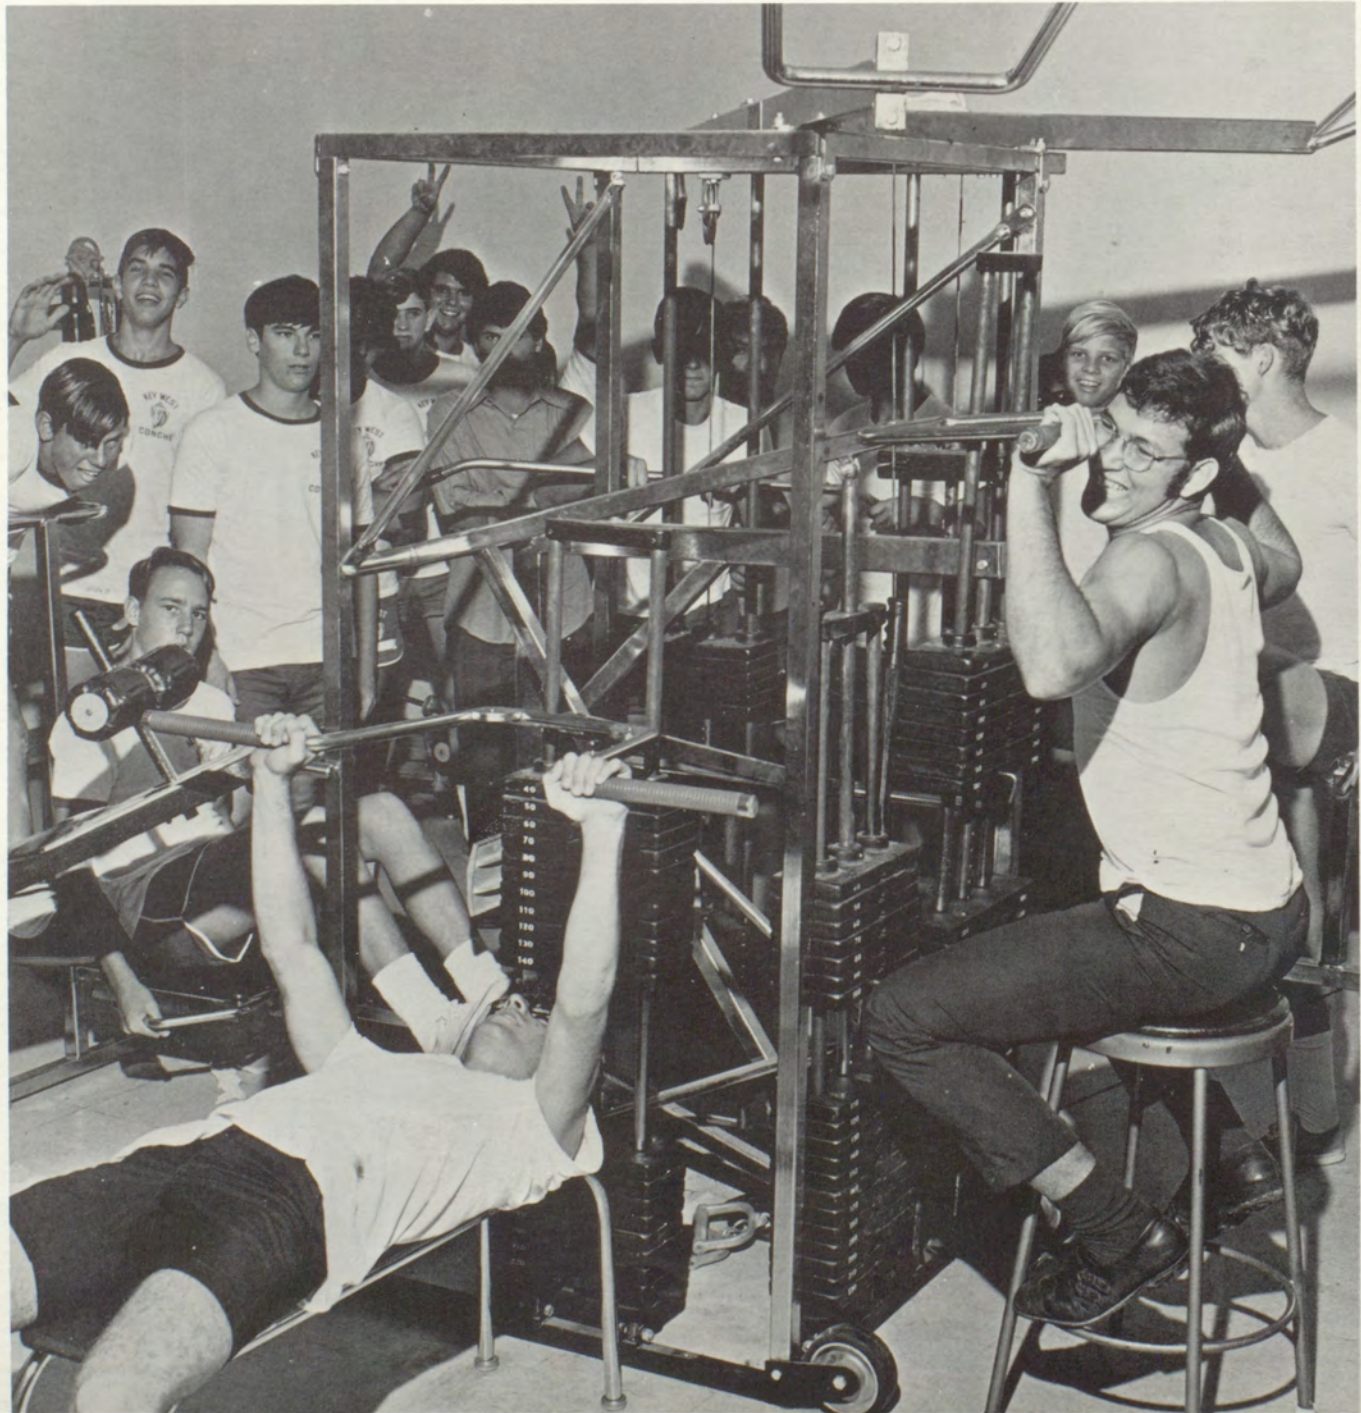

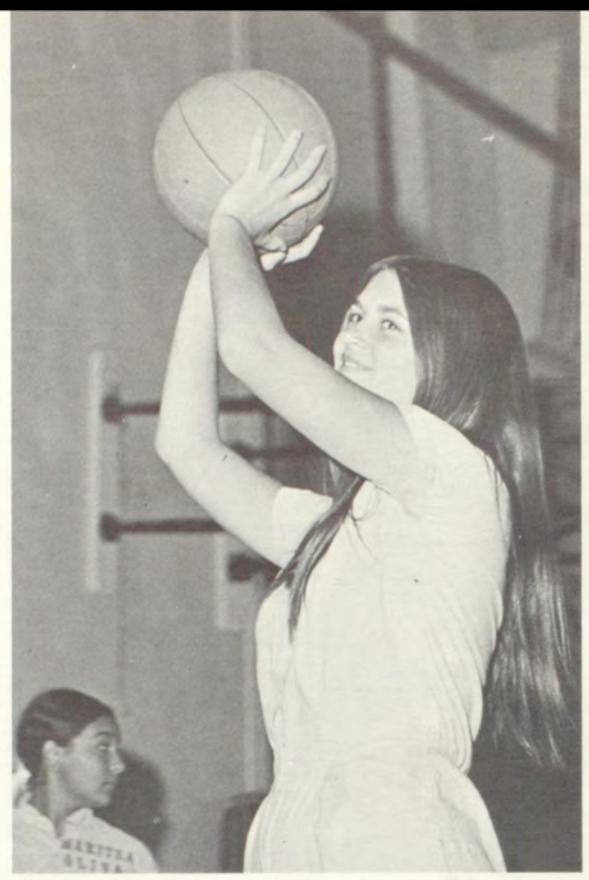

AV, Electronics

In our electronic, mechanized age the study of modern equipment is essential. For the student who is interested in the field for vocation or avocation these courses offer an introduction into the basic principles and techniques. For the school, these students serve by helping to operate the various kinds of equipment.

Physical Education

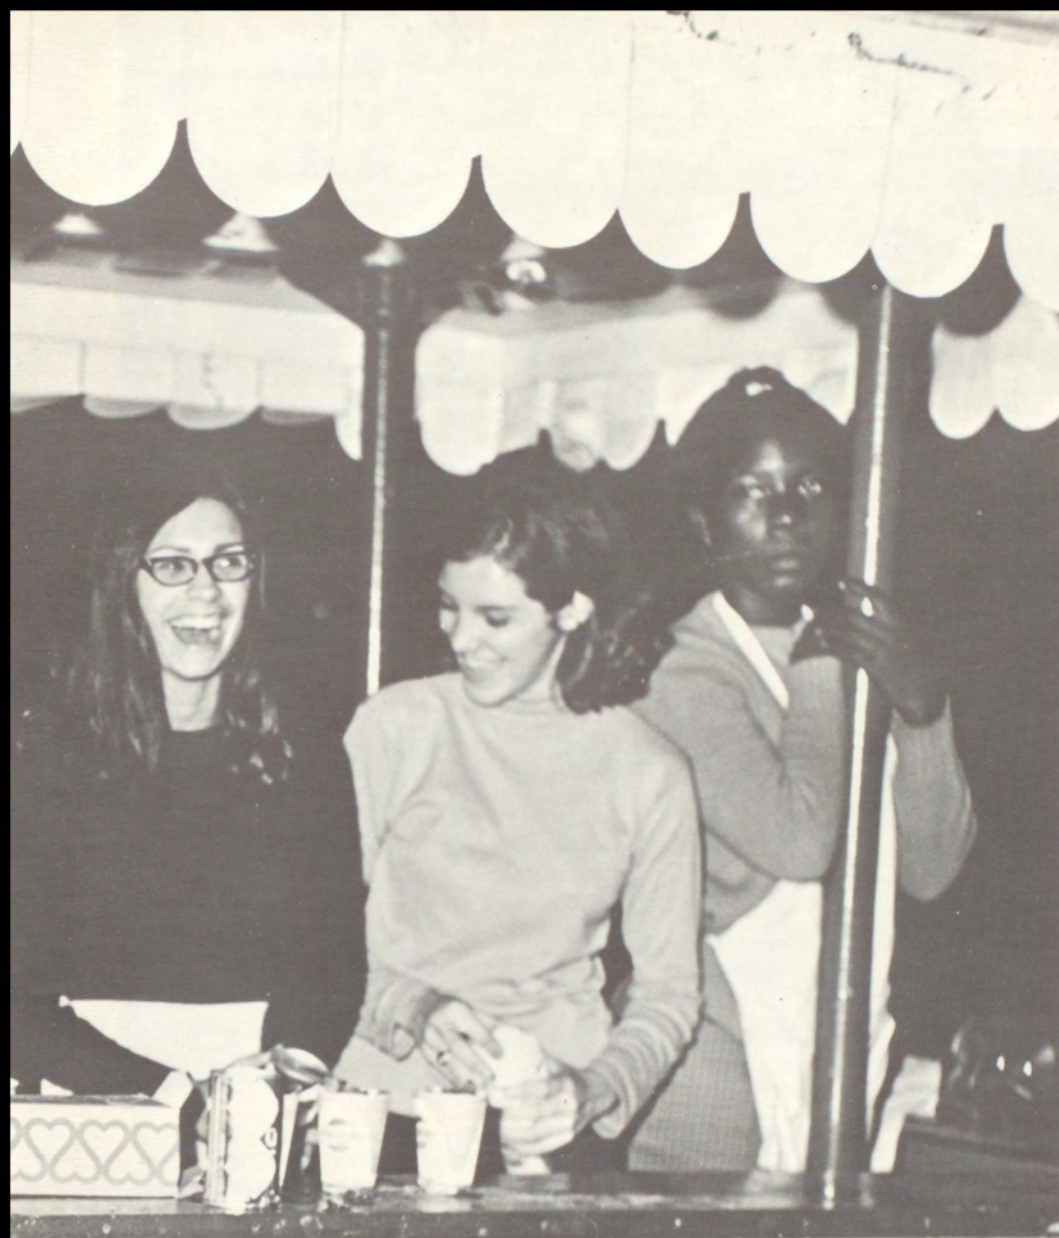

"A healthy mind is a healthy body." This Greek ideal has been a part of western civilization for thousands ears. The Physical Education Department strives to actualize this ideal for every student at Key West High.

Student Council

The Student Council, under the leadership of President Luis Cobo and the guidance of Mrs. Nellie Pantaleo, is the voice of the student body. Homeroom representatives are elected acting as congressmen that represent their homerooms by bringing problems and policies that the students would like to see enacted. These are not always enacted for in any democratic organization there are varying opinions and beliefs. Student Council is an active and vital part of Key West High School that enables students to become strong leaders and good followers while providing a service to the school.

NHS

Academic achievement, high character, and service to the school and the community are but a few of the goals of the National Honor Society. As a result of the high standards of this organization, membership is by invitation only. A student qualifies for NHS by maintaining at least a "B" average in each subject and displaying the high standards of leadership, integrity, and service. NHS undertakes numerous projects each year keeping in pace with its rival the Beta Club. Sharon Mazur, president; June Addleman, vice-president; Mary Sanders, secretary; and Debbie DeNoon, treasurer, lead the standards of the high ideals of service and scholastic work in the club as they urge members to do the same. The entire club also works toward the elevation of school spirit. At the end of the year, senior members are presented with gold tassels, significant of their labors and joys of being a member of National Honor Society.

Beta Club

The National Beta Club is an organization for sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have a "B" average. Legion in size and dynamic in achievement, the Beta Club bears many burdens upon its mighty shoulders, steadily progressing towards a better future for both school and community. The Beta Club imbues its own members with the ideals of scholarship, leadership and character: the necessities of life. The purpose of this club is to promote honor, service, and leadership among the students of Key West High and reward them for their meritorious achievement. Under the leadership of John Hogan, president; Ann Martin, vice-president; Janne Harrelson, secretary; and Philip Duval, treasurer; with Mrs. Alice Roberts and Mr. Harry Harper as sponsors, the Beta Club has continued as one of the most rewarding clubs on campus. Members are rewarded for their work as Beta Club members at the end of their senior year when they receive their Beta Club gold and black cords.

Keyettes

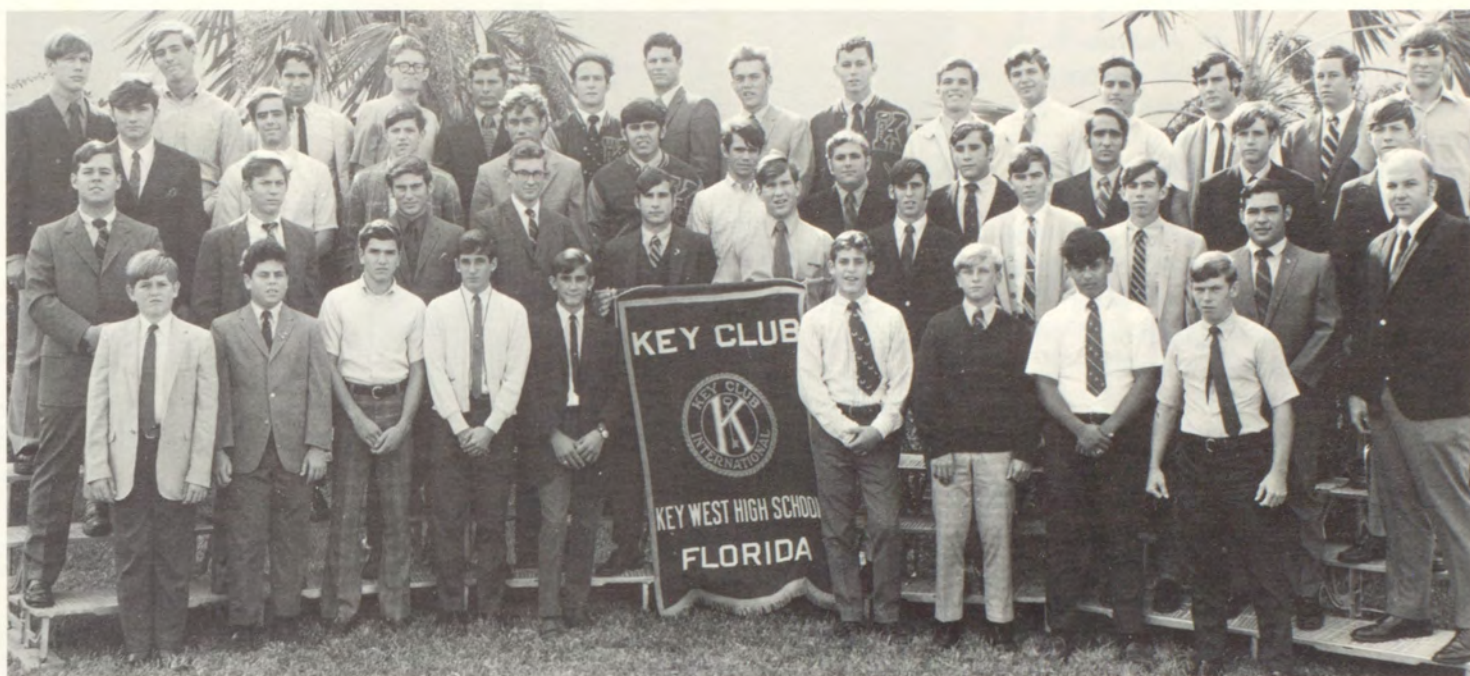

Stressing service and leadership, the Keyettes provide numerous projects for the benefit of the school as well as community. School service has included goal post decorations for football games, polishing trophies, working concessions, holding bake sales, and sponsoring dances. The annual Sweetheart Dance is sponsored by the Keyettes and their brother club, the Key Club. Membership is open to sophomore, junior, and senior girls maintaining at least a "C" average. The Keyettes, under the leadership of Phyllis Bostrom, president, Brenda Beckerink, secretary and Debi Yeomans, treasurer, continually worked towards the success of their club and the school.

Officers, FRONT: Brenda Beckerink, corresponding secretary; Mary Cobo, secretary; Nancy Backle, representative. BACK: Debi Yeomans, treasurer; Karen Papy, point keeper; Linda Bringle, parliamentarian, Phyllis Bostrom, president; Debbie Beckerink, vice-president.

Officers, FRONT: Kenny Wardlow, treasurer; Tommy Fazio, vice-president. BACK: Robert Ladd, lieutenant governor; Pat Labrada, secretary; Frank Spoto, president.

Key Club

Key Club, the brother club of the Keyettes and a service club of high standards, is one of the most popular clubs in school. The club is open to second semester freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors. A "C" average must be maintained to remain in the club. The object of the club is to provide experience in living and working together and to develop leadership and initiative. The members are made up of young men willing to work for their club and their school. We honor them for their high spirits while performing so admirably for our school.

FTA

Future Teachers of America is a club organized for the encouragement of students interested in the teaching profession. Under the guidance of Mrs. Angela Galen, FTA sponsored a number of successful projects during the school year. For the first time, FTA sponsored a teacher's aid program as well as their annual tutoring service. They also had charge of the election of the "Teacher of the Month" and gave a banquet at the end of the year for all the teachers. During November, they held a reception for all the high school teachers during American Education Week. One of the most important activities FTA initiated this year was the sponsoring of an FTA scholarship for a senior planning to enter the field of education. Sponsoring activities, bake sales, concessions — the FTA never ceased working for their fellow classmates and their school.

OFFICERS: Cecil Howell, treasurer; Ann Sheldon, secretary; Anna Marie Fetter, vice-president; Bill Charlow, president.

FHA

Preparation of members in becoming better homemakers is the main purpose of Future Homemakers of America. The girls that make up this organization promote the interests of all girls in activities within the home, school and community. Membership is opened to all girls who are or have been in a home economics class. They raised money to finance club projects, attended district and state conventions and worked on the Junior Homemaker degrees. They also sponsored the annual Betty Crocker Homemaker's contest.

FRONT: Laura Barber, Yvonne Jackson, Elsie Mumford, Dorothy Curry, Carolyn Rahming.
BACK: Miss Grogan, Irene Derry, Frances Soldano, Marianne Poole, Nancy Charlow, Sharon Albert Mae Rose Williams, Miss Mollica.

FNA

Members of this group range from freshmen to seniors, but all are joined in a common goal — nursing. The girls in this club are dedicated and hard working. This organization is joined to learn and understand the nursing profession. FNA puts its members to work at Monroe County Hospital as Candy Strippers. This gives the community a service while the girls are learning the basics and techniques. It takes sincerity and diligence for members of this club to be worthy of their position, but the future they plan for themselves is a hard working and demanding one, and they are only getting the first step in Future Nurses.

FRONT: Cheryl Hinde, Cheryl Faircloth, Gail Robertson, Debbie Sanchez, Debbie Sands.
BACK: Ruby Pittman, Maylene Walterson, Maerose Williams, Dorothy Curry, Linda Walker.

DCT

Attending school for only half a day may be a student's ideal, but those who take the Diversified Cooperative Training course know that after that half a day of school comes a half day of work. The DCT course is designed to prepare students for vocational efficiency for future jobs. By working in this program, the student can gain valuable experience and knowledge in a variety of occupations. In addition, he has the opportunity to view the business world while continuing his high school education.

Officers: Chris Whalen, secretary; Bertha Cubria, treasurer; Mike Brown, vice-president; Dona Berg, parliamentarian; Gene Hartley, president.

Latin Club

The Latin Club engages itself in a number of activities each year, such as the annual Slave Auction, banquet, and last of all Latin Week. The main goal of the Latin Club is to make everyone realize the importance of Latin. Almost every major job today has to do with Latin. Even the English language itself was in part taken from Latin and because of this the Latin Club tries to make evident the continuing importance of the study of the language.

Officers: Andrea Kamper, sub-imperator; Scott Goodwin, parliamentarian; Susan Higgins, imperator; Carol Weeks, hostess.

FRONT: Michael Simpson, Lia Sanders, Debbie Gonzalez, Scott Goodwin, Andrea Kamper, Susan Higgins, Andrea Alonzo, Arthur Borge-
menke, Carol Weeks, Ben Franklin, John Mortimer. SECOND: Virginia Henry, Maria Perez, Kathy Sharp, Stephanie England, Betsy
Koeppel, Jeff Schwartz, Joel Douthett. THIRD: Ross Pottschmidt, Sue Ellen Smith, Carolyn Arnold, Rhonda Casey, Valerie Struve, Ronnie Saunders, James Jordan, Michael Hamley.

Spanish Club

Members of the Spanish Club strive to familiarize themselves with the customs, literature, and arts of Spain and Spanish-American countries, thus promoting friendship between those countries and our own. The Spanish Club hopes to endow its members with a better understanding of Spanish and tries to arouse in its members and in other students a greater interest in the language.

Officers: Margaret Kneiple, historian; Dean Mote, vice-president; Mr. Fraga, sponsor; Helen Alexander, president; Sandy Virden, secretary.

French Club

Parlez-vous francais? This may have been one of the phrases a student may have heard as he passed J-27, where the French Club held their meetings. Under the guidance of Mrs. Jeanne Varin, the French Club encouraged the students to participate in all French Club activities. Activities included such things as bake sales and visiting various places in Key West that have had French influence.

FRONT: Peter Waters, Julie Mansito, Janice Williams, Magda Herrera, Donald Makin. BACK: Frank Wells, Sharon Parker, Marcia Parrack, Amanda Kilborn, Chris Gagnon, Robert Tapscott, Mrs. Varin.

Liberation Club

Liberation is a new club this year formed with the purpose of serving the school. Under the guidance of Mr. Bain, Liberation worked concessions and sponsored bake sales to raise funds for its treasury. Working in cooperation with their officers, Victor Seales, president; Michelle Welch, vice-president; Paulette Edwards, secretary; Sandra Valdez, treasurer, the members helped to create a fruitful year.

Thespians

Re-organized this year by Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Finley, the Thespian Club helped the various classes in their annual stage productions. Bake sales were among the club's money making projects. Plans for the year included, besides helping with the class plays, putting on skits during assemblies. A high spot was the participation by some members in the satirical Animal Farm, viewed by most of the English classes. The year ended with the awarding of the Thespian scholarship to a deserving senior in the field of drama.

Officers: John McClanahan, treasurer; Joyce Rhone, secretary; June Addleman, president; Wesley Malone, vice-president.

K Club

K Club was established for the purpose of giving recognition to all varsity lettermen. This honorary club symbolizes pride, school spirit, sportsmanship, and athletic talent. Many members earn a letter in more than one activity. Besides possessing athletic skill, members must meet certain academic requirements. These young men inspire good sportsmanship among themselves and the student body.

You have to earn your membership in K Club!

Pep Club

One of the most spirited clubs on campus this year was the Pep Club. Joined in the ideal of raising the spirit of students on the campus, the members of the Pep Club fulfilled their purpose as they cheered enthusiastically at all home games. The club was under the able leadership of Mayra Perez, president, and Pat Roche, vice-president. The sponsors for the year were Mr. Bain and Mrs. Brogan. Membership was open to all students.

Conch

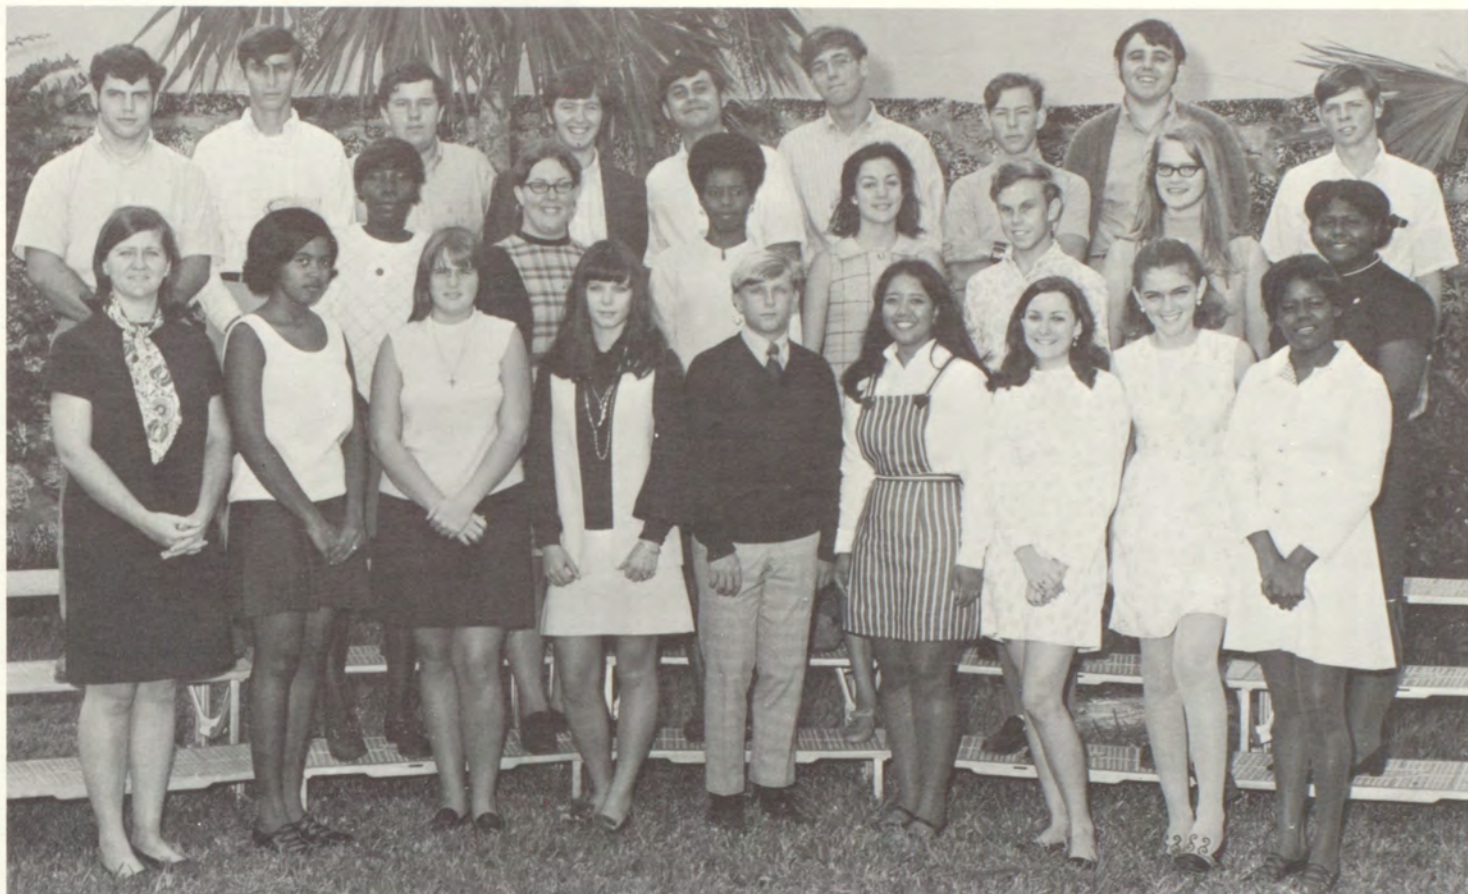

This year's annual staff worked hard to produce a yearbook every student could be proud of owning. Under the guidance of Mr. McDonald, the 1970 CONCH showed improvements in picture quality and in content. The myriad pieces that make up this history of the school year were patiently arranged during many hours of work during assigned periods and after school. The staff, headed by John Ross, editor, included Janet Eckard, assistant editor; Jennie Trais, copy editor; Vince Gates, sports editor; Sharon Sands, business manager; and Janet Hill, advertising manager.

Confident that the CONCH would be out on time, Editor John Ross and worker Rosemary Kruzick whiled away the hours playing chess.

Officers: Linda Walker, news editor; Jennie Trias, news editor; Clem Wohl, editor-in-chief; Alan Krug, sports editor; Janet Eckard, feature editor; Terrie Easterling, business manager.

Snapper

Striving to put out a monthly publication covering all school activities, the staff of the SNAPPER never ceased to fulfill its obligations. Under the direction of Editor Clem Wohl and Assistant Editor June Faraldo, the SNAPPER staff continued to bring to the limelight the important and even some of the unimportant events of the year. The SNAPPER staff consisted of students in Mrs. Brenda Stevens' journalism class, all working towards the perfection of each issue. News Editor Jennie Trias, Feature Editor Janet Eckard, and Club Editor Linda Walker worked with Clem and June towards the production of an error-free, interesting, and informative school paper.

Girls' State

Held in Tallahassee during the summer, Girls' State and Boys' State provided their participants with rewarding knowledge about the government both on the national and state level. Giving them first-hand experience in the function and structure of our government, the sponsors of Girls' State and Boys' State hoped to educate seniors in the making of a government. The personal attitudes of the participants also entered as they developed lasting friendships with other high school seniors across the state.

Girls' Day

Imagine! A city run by high school girls! Well, that's exactly how things are done on Girls' Day. This program is annually sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Key West. Senior coeds from Key West and Mary Immaculate High Schools assume the jobs of the city's public officials and observe the technicalities of a democratic government. Positions of Mayor, Commissioners, police officers and fire fighters were all "expertly" assumed by the twenty-six girls.

Executive Boards

A group of people essential to the functioning of each class is the executive board. Class officers will tell you how important the work of an executive board member is. No decision is made without their consultation and approval. Each member takes his work seriously and is proud to play an important role in his class.

The soothing strains of Mr. Whitley's violin complemented the Chorus's beautiful rendition of "Silent Night" for the Kiwanis Club.

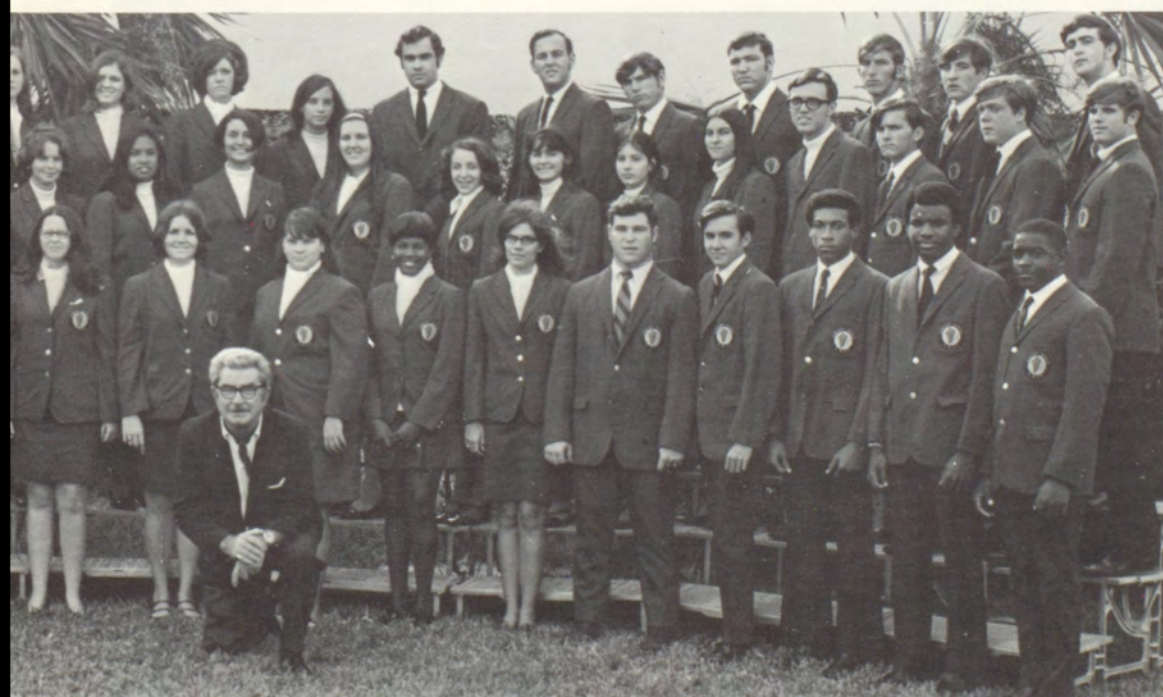

Chorus

Under the direction of Mr. Tom Whitley, the Chorus is masterfully created into a cast of melodious voices. In its members lie the inborn talent of the human voice and its combination with the musical scale. Their professionalism is recognized throughout the state, and they are often asked to perform outside of Key West. One of the most spirited organizations within the school, the Chorus is constantly on the go. Sponsoring dances, working concessions, and giving seasonal performances, they never seem to tire. Under the leadership of their capable officers, Homeretta Gilpin, president; Monica Martinez, vice-president; Peggy Hackney, secretary; Becky Archer, treasurer, the Chorus members never seem to slack from their gigantic work load.

Band

One of the most active organizations on campus, the band never seemed to tire from its hectic schedule of parades, halftime shows and concerts. An integral part of KWHS, the band successfully presented the fans with a series of halftime shows during the football season. Activities throughout the year included their annual tag day, a December trip to Miami, where the band competed in the state marching contest, the annual Christmas Gift to the Community, and a series of spring concerts. The band, under the direction of Mr. William Higgins and Mr. William Dollarhide, was able to send representatives to the Florida Music Educators' convention, where Tom Vagnini, Jim Jenkins, Debbie Pritchard, and Mike Smith were made members of the All State High School Band. As always the band proved that Key West High is made up of a group of students that truly love music and their school.

Drummers provided spirit at morning pep rallies.

Conchettes

The Key West High School Conchettes are one of the outstanding organizations in Key west High. These talented girls work for the betterment and entertainment of the school. They perform at all the halftime shows and present their annual Conchette Capers in the spring. Membership is open to all girls in grades 10-12 having an overall "C" average. Girls are selected for their dancing ability and, important also, their warm, winning smiles! Although there is a great deal of effort put out by each member, she is rewarded a thousand times by the experience and by the gratification of Conchette fans.

Majorettes

A twirl of a baton and a flash of glitter, the Key West High Majorettes marched onto the brightly lit field. Adding their charm, they enhanced the halftime festivities, including a fascinating fire-baton act. They also participated in band concerts and the annual Conchette Capers. They sponsored ticket sales, dances, bake sales, and a tag day. Majorettes were directed again this year by Mrs. Sheila Herrera, herself a former outstanding Majorette.

J. V. Cheerleaders

There are many things which influence our team to try unceasingly to win; often this is one thing which can mean the difference between an optimistic, go-getter outlook and a downcast, out-of-sorts approach. This "thing" is school spirit. And the J.V. cheerleaders have plenty of it! Their loud voices and support contribute greatly to the teams' victories. The cheerleaders' hard work and enthusiasm were appreciated by the student body.

Cheerleaders

One of the most important groups behind a team is its cheerleaders. Enthusiasm, personality, hard work, scholastic abilities, and a good moral character are required from each girl. These girls are full of energy to let the team know the students are behind them and to encourage school spirit and keep it at "fever pitch". They also give the team a feeling of confidence by encouraging them to greater heights. Cheerleader practice starts during the summer and continues until the end of basketball season. During the year, the cheerleaders must raise money for their trips to out-of-town games. This is done by making and selling Conch dolls, selling Conch buttons, and having bake sales during school.
