Principal Theresa Axford

Conch Pride United

Our theme for the year was 'Show the World Conch Pride'. It united the staff and the students to work as ONE and let the community know the tradition continues at KWHHS.

"I think Conch Spirit is everything. It means a lot to everyone at our school. We are the only high school in our small community, why not show everyone what we are capable of," senior Frances Grizzle-Malgrat said.

Our new Principal, Mrs. Theresa Axford, former teacher at KWHHS, was welcomed as our leader. A new Assistant Principal, Mrs. Russell was also welcomed. The school grade went up and the unity strengthened.

"Conch Pride is taking great pride in your community and your contributions to it," teacher Mrs. Stefanowicz said.

Each and every member of the staff and student body were a part of the success. The entire Key West community supported the high school and we have a lot to be proud of.

"Responsibility, willingness to be a good ambassador for your school and yourself is what defines success. You need to give your full effort every day to be the best you can be," teacher Mrs. Calleja said.

United as ONE the students continued the traditions. For years to come, graduates will look through the yearbooks and remember showing the world their pride.

We Socialize

Students came together to socialize by involvement with clubs, teams, fundraiser and school events. Throughout Homecoming Week everybody showed their true Conch Spirit by wearing their class colors, making a jaw dropping float, and casting their vote for Homecoming Queen.

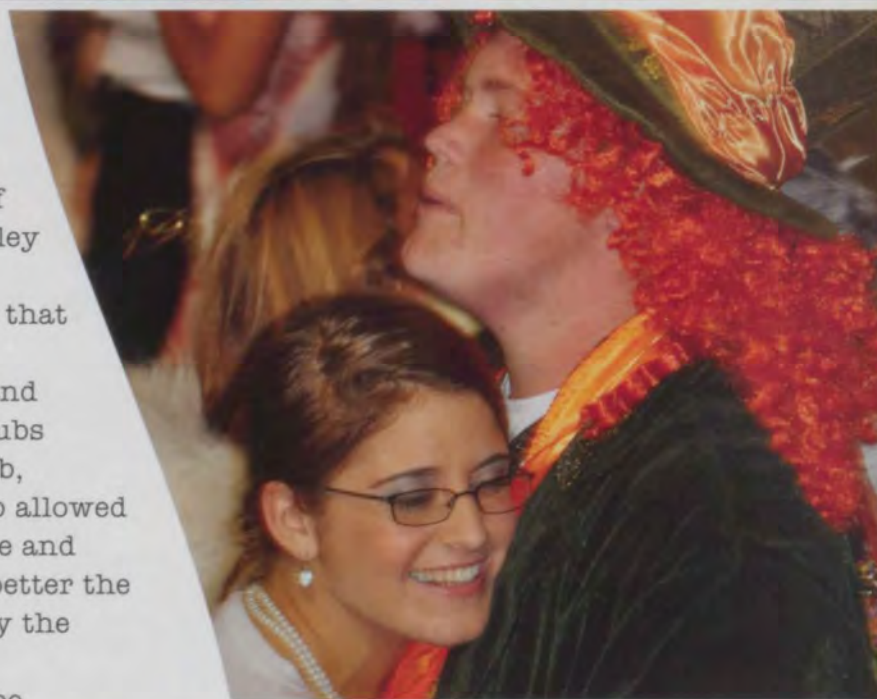

"My spirit was shown by being a fan of the KWH'S Conchs," freshman Ryan Tingley said.

The school presents many activities that involve school spirit. The pep rallies allowed the student body to be loud and proud. Participation in the many clubs such as Be The Change, Spanish Club, Fashion Club, Z-Club, and Beta Club allowed students to show their Conch Pride and fundraisers provided a means to better the school and even more importantly the community.

"Working as hard you can to be successful in school, community and family is what being a Conch is," teacher Mr. Menendez said.

Sports teams also provided an opportunity to showcase school spirit. The Fine Arts programs such as band, choir, photography, and art allowed the students to be recognized for their numerous talents.

Each and every day new friendships were started, new bonds were formed, and new goals were set. The students socialized and worked together to make each dream a reality. They were not hundreds of individuals, but they were one.

LET ME TELL YOU ABOUT MY Bestfriends

Gabby is my best friend because we do everything together. We hang out together and we also spend time together on weekends playing basketball.

JESTINE ARTEAGA, 11

Jestine is more like a sister to me. I can trust her with absolutely anything. She's my right hand parner.

GABRIELLE YOUNG, 11

Da'Quan Cooke, 11 & Detravis Adams, 11

"Detravis is my best friend because we do a lot together. We play video games and shoot hoops. We are more than just cousins and friends, we are like brothers. We tell each other everything. We've never had a problem with each other."

"Da'Quan is one of my friends that I can always rely on. He always has my back and I always have his. We are always laughing and messing with each other. That is a friend I know will always be with me."

Friends are more than just friends, they are like long lost family members that you've always wanted. Those are the ones you know you can always trust.

Cassandra Jackson, 12

Maria Allen and Erica Perez have been best friends for a long time.

Ashley Hernandez helps her friend Cassidy Meadows tie her shoe before going to class.

Michael Jachelski and Alexander Miller give a serious look before leaving the cafeteria.

Aimee Carter, Ryann Appleby, and Andrea Kresser are at lunch having a good laugh about what they did on the weekend.

Zachary Martin, Miguel Gonzalez, Otha Matthews, Ryan Sanchez, and Nicholas Quesada share some time at lunch.

Friends

Through Thick & Thin

Friendships may have some hardships, but true friendships have a never ending bond. A best friend is someone who you can always count on and someone who will never turn their back on you. You are always there for each other and when spending time together, always leave happy memories. Friendships don't have general description, it is just someone who means a lot to you.

As you grow up, some friendships may dissolve, but true friends understand the value of keeping a friendship alive. A best friend is someone that will trust you with anything and tell you their deepest secrets.

Even through the highs and the lows, real friends will never let each other go. As the story of time progresses we WANT our true friends to be there every step of the way.

Writer Albert Camus once said, "Don't walk in front of me, I may not follow. Don't walk behind me, I may not lead. Walk beside me and be my friend."

The Silly bands was one of the top selling gifts of the year.
Hoop earrings have always been trendy, now they are just as popular as ever.
Cartoon backpacks are all over the campus, from "Mario" to "Spongebob"
Devon Walczak is wearing a very stylish belt that goes good with everything.

"Fashion is a way to express yourself without using words or emotions"

STYLE IS Forever

Miranda Acevedo is rocking a fierce cheetah top with a pair of black high rise shorts.

Fashion is something that will constantly change. It is a way to express oneself in the latest attire. Fashion is a way of life. School is a place where people dress to impress. People's personalities reflect on their everyday outfits. "Everybody has their own style of fashion and everybody's style is unique," said senior Emliy Kidd.

Some people follow the trend and some have their own. People who follow the trend usually get their inspiration from magazines, the latest artists, and what is broadcast on television. As far as the more unique students go, their inspiration is in their soul, it comes from the heart.

David Yurman, Pandora, and Michael Kors are all brand names that have sky rocketed at the high school. These ladies are passionate about their watches, beads and bracelets.

CASH Flow

Students earn some extra cash with after school jobs

As if school, homework, clubs, and sports weren't enough, students also take on after school jobs to earn some spending money. While Key West is a small island, you would think it would be challenging to get a job as a teenager, but these students prove that getting a job is very possible. With jobs from ice cream shops to movie theaters, students are on the work scene.

Most of the students that have after school jobs say they are saving up for their college expenses and cars. Others talk about how a little extra spending money is nice to have in their pocket.

Junior Kevin Piper explains his work at Publix as "hard, yet rewarding. Hard because of the long hours, rewarding because of the paycheck at the end."

Students with jobs seem to have a better understanding of what the future brings, and how to stay financially smart. So not only are the students earning some extra cash, they are also gaining life lessons.

Sophomore Kyle Houge spends his time organizing a line of fishing poles at The Saltwater Angler. Houge said, "It's a great way to draw in the customers, they always seem to like neat and tidy shelves and showcases."

Dairy Queen is a popular place for teen to work, as a total of 11 students hold a position.

Senior Airene Merino and Junior Medgine Annulyse are all smiles working at a popular fast food chain, McDonalds.

Junior Elizabeth Morrison bags some groceries at the local Publix Supermarket.

How to Keep Up Your Grades while on the job.

1. Do homework during your break.

2. Have a co-worker quiz you.

3. Make time for school and work.

4. Make sure all your assignments are turned in.

6. Make flashcards to look over at work.

Senior Cassandra Jackson is the hostess with the mostess at Outback Steakhouse.

Junior Luba Scepkova and senior Trevious Miller prepare a scrumptious Dairy Queen temptation for a hungry customer.

Juniors Sara Gutierrez and Krystal Blasberg spend their Friday nights making some extra cash at Key West Cinemas.

Pep rallies had the school spirit thriving and got everyone pumped for the game. As the classes battled back and forth with screams, chants and signs to see who would take home the spirit stick. Senior Glynn Archer IV dedicated his time to the position of DJ for the pep rallies. The class of 2012 donated a banner with the Alma Mater that was hung up in the auditorium. Teacher and 2012 class sponsor, Ms. Hulme said, "Anything worth doing is worth doing right and the more school spirit you have, the more fun your high school years will be."

WAY BACK When

As the years go by things change and so do people. We grow up, make new friends, and sometimes hold onto old ones. We go from Pre-school to Elementary School to Middle School to High School, and for some, to College. We go from crawling to running. We change, but there's always a little something that we carry with us that stays the same. There are people that will stay in our hearts, and memories that will last a lifetime.

TOGAS and TWINS

Senior couple James Gilleran III and Lauryn Parra pose in front of the conch shell for Toga Day.

Spirit week started off with a bang. With toga day on Monday, seniors were very excited to finally have the privilege to wear a toga. While many stayed with the very traditional long or white togas, others took a fresh take wearing patterns from leopard to even "Dora the Explorer".

On Tuesday, twins filled the halls with more creativity than ever. You could see doubles of fishermen, hunters, lil' Wayne, and even sorority girls. Others chose to be pairs like "partners in crime," "cutest couple to never happen," "buy one get one free," and "Tom and Jerry."

Freshmen Andrea Kresser and Megan Simons keep the spirit up.

What gave you the idea to be the cutest couple that never happened?

Tess Sody (11)

"Everyone always asked us if we were together and if not, we should be, so we thought it would be fun to make a joke out of it."

Zebedee Mannix-Lachner (11)

How long have you been friends?

Tess and I have always been close friends and we joke a lot so people always assumed we were a couple. So for twin day we decided to give it a try.

Juniors Jessica Key, Ashley Hernandez, Kristina Ratoliff and Caitlin Snider share some time together in the halls on Wednesday.

Wednesday of spirit week brought pajamma day, probably the favorite day of the week for most students. It's the one chance students get to walk straight out of bed to school. "I like being so comfortable in class, it helps me focus." Sophomore Jonathan Monje said. On Friday, the theme was split between Wig Day and Class Color Day. Walking around the school you could just see an explosion of red, black, grey and white. Some students even combined the two and wore wigs in their class colors. Either way the student body's spirit was huge. The week ended with a very excited Homecoming Pep Rally to raise Conch Spirit for the game later that evening.

The freshmen boys help out by putting up the extension to Cinderella's castle..

Making their name known, the freshman and sophomore classes truly put their all into this year's float competition. With the freshmen's choice of Cinderella, and the sophomore's of Aladdin, many unique characters, costumes and settings were introduced in a very creative way, all while still showing Conch Pride. Being their first year, the freshmen made sure that they were put on the map. Hard work and dedication landed the Class of 2014 with the second place trophy. Although the sophomores placed last, their enthusiasm and spirit left them with a great float. "It definitely was a growing time for our class", said Class of 2013 President Deanna Rivas, "next year we will be back in full force!"

Steven Wells and Taylor Gandolfo finish up their Cinderella skit with a dance to, "Do You Believe in Magic?"

Marella Barroso as Cinderella's godmother, explains to Alexandria Knowles, Cinderella, that Conch Pride comes from within.

"Homecoming float building was definitely one of the most fun times of my freshmen year.. And to top it off, we won second place!!"

Geri Sue Root (9)

Alexandra Beeman (10)

"Float building is a time when our whole class can come together, and just be one. There aren't any cliques, just unity."

Elizabeth Careaga, Grace Bleil, and Priya Soni perform their breathtaking ribbon dance to Aladdin's Song, 'A Whole New World'. Bobby Ruble acts the role of Sultan of Agrabah.

A Chesire Catttttt' Giovanni Vargas-Cabanas says to main character, Alice, played by Eva Hooten. Seniors Rae Lark, Emma Sheild, Taylor Averette, and Aubrey Mulcahy creative with their idea of jelly fish!

"Even though we placed third, we had fun building and still managed to create an amazing float."

Morgan Stanich (12)

Caroline Talbott (11)

"Float building doesn't just bring our class together, but shows our hard work, and sense of Conch Pride."

Alexis Condos, Sara Gutierrez, Koon Hoi Justin Poon, and Katalina Rocha play the role of cards.

Senior Andrea Niles sings her song in front of a fantastic KWHS memorabilia scene on The Little Mermaid float.

COMPETITION at its best

Through the years, floats have improved from basic levels of design to exquisite arts of detail and craftsmanship. This year the junior class decided on representing Alice in Wonderland, while the Seniors chose The Little Mermaid. The students of the junior class strived for the best, achieving a marvelous representation of the classic film, all while incorporating Conch Pride. They truly impressed the community and the school. Although the seniors fell somewhat short, their hard work did not go unnoticed. From the costumes to the unique skit, all was truly extraordinary.

Noelle Gonzalez, as The Queen of Hearts, barges through the castle door, while Bridget Behnke looks onward.

Are You In?

With over 30 clubs on campus, students kept busy all year round. There were meetings every day of the week before school and after school. Students stayed involved in their school and community.

Having a variety of clubs allowed students of different groups to branch out and meet others while also helping other organizations as well as the environment.

Clubs such as Beta, students participated in Relay for Life where they hosted a booth and raised money, Habitat for Humanity, another club brought students together by cleaning different habitat houses, and yet another club, Project Protect, students stayed after school twice a week to help recycle around the campus, so students could work together to keep the campus clean and join in reusing and recycling.

Clubs and Organizations reflected on the students and staff at Key West High. Clubs and allowed the community, faculty, and student body to see the hard work and effort students put in to make our community a better place.

2. Jessica Key, Natalie Castaldo, Marlee Gil, and Alexandra Hawthorne pose before the parade begins.

This year's Junior class came back stronger than ever. Winning the homecoming parade float two years in a row really showed the school what 2012 has. This year's float consisted of the theme Alice in Wonderland. It had the audience gasping, smiling and laughing all at once. The float truly was a piece of art. The class of 2012 put tons of work and money into the building and costumes.. With fundraiser's such as the Date Auction, Find your Match, and Principal for a Day, the juniors were able to gain generous amounts of money for their float. All the sweat, tears, and work paid off in the end.

3. Junior Erica Gil keeps a steady hand while at work.

66 National Honor Society

National Honor Society participated in many events in the community such as the Valentine's Gala, Willie Wonka Chocolate Feast, Salvation Army bell ringing, and a weekly teen reading night at the Monroe County Public Library. In order to be in NHS, you have to maintain a un-weighted 3.5 GPA as well as be a sophomore, junior, or senior. Many of the students that worked with the organization accumulated community service hours throughout the year so they can graduate and possibly obtain scholarships. The coordinator of the club is Ms Hatch. She has worked with the club for over six and a half years improving the club each year with all of her wonderful ideas.

NHS has recently developed new program Teen Night, where local teens are read to by the members. Senior Sasha Alvarenga enjoys reading to local teens at the Monroe County Public Library.

Ms Heinrich is in charge of the BETA club. She has done an amazing job of running the club and keeping it going.

BETA Club has been around since 1954. the head sponsor of the club is Ms Heinrich. As I spoke with her she mentioned, "It is my third year being head coordinator of the BETA Club and it's absolutely wonderful," BETA Club is a group of young students that has made sure to promote Relay For Life benefiting breast cancer. The club participated in multiple fundraiser's such as Children's Day Festival, to help make the community aware of the patients we have in Key West Florida who have been afflicted with breast cancer. Many of them are hoping to have enough money donated to find a cure for their disease. In order to be an active member in the club, you must have a 3.0 GPA. The president of BETA club is Cole Matarazzo. Vice President is Bobby Finnigan and Secretary is Sasha Alvarenga.

Many may not think of cooking as anything more than a hobby, but at Key West High School its a passion. The culinary program allowed students who are interested in a food related career to get a jump start in training. Students take this program for a minimum of three years. During this class, you learn the processes and guidelines of cooking. The students cooked food for many school related functions including the annual fashion show. They started out by learning how to apply for a cooking related job, food safety, then then finally how to prepare various kinds of food.

The Conchettes is a drill team at KWHS. The team has been in existence for over 50 years. The team performed at football games, special events, fundraising activities, and various community parades. The girls spent many hours practicing which brought about a sisterhood bond. Freshman Carly Cherry said, "I had the time of my life on Conchettes! We were all like sisters together and I'm looking forward to doing it the rest of my high school years."

Although the team is a disciplined one, they still were able to incorporate some fun. They had an honorable change to perform at the Cotton Bowl game in Dallas, Texas this year. Junior Alexandra Hawthorne said, "It's more than just a dance team to me, it's a family that I will never forget," and Natalie Castaldo said, "I have many unforgettable moments with the team, and I am looking forward to next set of unforgettable moments my senior year.." The girls loved kicking it with Conch class, poise, style, and fun.

The French Club started four year's ago when Mrs. Palay came to Key West High School. She has attracted a lot of attention with her teaching skills and excitement about her French culture. The club members were always pleased with their annual trip to Paris France. The students got to see the important monuments and of course, dined in fabulous restaurants.

A major part of the club was their contribution to the community and their cultural fusion. Madame Palay brings spirit and creativity to the group by organizing fundraisers that are fun and receive attention from Key West locals, and especially Europeans. The club's presidents are Chelsea Pande and Julia Stullken. They both help organize club activities. Vice presidents are Nicolas Palay also and Tesia Theriault. The club donated money to Haiti and they spent time entertaining at the Senior Citizen Center.

Imagination Gone Wild

The most creative minds can be found in Art Club and National Art Honor Society. To junior Tesia Theriault it's "a fun place where I can express myself, and get rid of stress.". Students can show off their talent by submitting work to the school art gallery that occurs later on in the school year. They also have the opportunity to become a part of NAHS by submitting their art work to a panel of judges who then select students to become a member. It's not all about art but also helping others. This year art club painted rain barrels and also volunteered at Sculpture Key West as well as sent letters and art work to soldiers overseas.

Black, White, And Read All Over

Snapper is the school newspaper run by Mrs. McLean. They wrote and illustrated issues that were important the lives of the students both in and out of school. All of the students dedicated hours of time into completing one of a kind stories. This club gave a lot of hands on experience of how real newspaper companies work. As senior, and editor, Jamie Kessler states "I joined Snapper to find out what it would be like to work on a newspaper outside of school."

Photographs and memories were what kept the school year memory alive. The yearbook staff diligently worked to create a book full of memories. The making of the yearbook was an enormous responsibility of the class. The memories created allowed students and families to reminisce. Photographs captured the mood, the times, and essentially the moment. Let the memories live on.

"This year been one of the funniest years that I have ever cheered. Our team worked so hard to stay positive after losing a few girls, and we were able to pull through it and have an amazing year." said Co- Captain, Allie Beeman. Most of the girls have been cheering for many years. It has been their life. From cheering on the sidelines of the football field to the bleachers on the court, this is what the girls loved to do. With tons of spirit and love for this sport, the young ladies look forward to cheering for Varsity.

Put a little Pep in Your Step

You can hear them from across the football field, see their dance moves from high in the bleachers, who are they? They are the loud and proud Pep Squad. The girls are the definition of Conch Pride. Pep Squad is at every football game pumping up the crowd. There is never a dull moment when you are near the Pep Squad. Their enthusiasm, and spirit keeps fans alive and excited.

"I love Pep Squad because it's fun and it gives me entertainment" - Tatyanna Fisher

1. Together, Junior Brandon Masiello, and Freshmen Angela Martin put up a line of fencing.

2. Junior Nickalaus Patrocky carries a 2 by 4 to restore.

Habitat for Humanity was a newly developed club, that began this school year. Rachel Quad and Brandon Masiello developed the idea. Habitat has gone a long way since its start. Involved in weekly clean-ups and community service projects monthly, this club was a great way to help out around the community. Teaming up with other Habitat workers, students were able to get hands on experience on building houses, painting, or just up-keep of a home. The club hopes to keep going strong in the upcoming years.

3. It takes two! Juniors Madison Dorman and Tess Sodyto haul a board at one of Habitat's clean-ups.

4. Restoration can be fun, Habitat members Rachel Quad, Victoria Fitzsimmons, and Angela Martin prove it at a local clean-up.

10. Strong girls Madison Dorman and Erin Riley show their strength as they give a helping hand.

All of the member of the marching band, including auxiliary marched across the field in their formation for halftime at a Friday night football game. The crowd really enjoyed watching them because they always put on an entertaining show and never failed to surprise the crowd with their awesome musical talent. Lead by Angela Swartzel and Gregory Barroso Jr, they had much to be proud of, as they received many high rankings such as Superior at their many competitions.

Singing

their way...

Mr. Carter has been the head director of Mistys since 2008. He made the class a fun and enjoyable place to stretch the vocals while also taking part in the technical aspect of singing. The Mistys are a young group of women that performed songs from Glee as well as popular holiday traditional and Latin pieces. No matter what the song was, you could always see the Mistys hard work and dedication shining through in their vocal performance. They were some of the most talented singers and dancers in the student body. They took the choir program to new heights by taking some to state competition. The girls brought a certain presence to the stage that made it impossible to take your eyes off. The Mistys were an ongoing tradition that will continue for years to come. For the girls who made it, it was an honor to be a part of such an amazing program.

High Notes....

Select choir and Freshmen Choir put on many performances throughout the year. For the past few years the head choir director, Mr Carter, made a major impact on the students through his teaching styles and choices of music. The group of students that participated were freshmen through seniors. During performances, students had a standing ovation on occasion. Whenever you heard about the group of students from the community or articles in the local paper, you heard about their annual winter concert and how many of the people couldn't wait to attend. The performances showed all of their hard work as well as the ranges of their voices. This year's concerts were a wonderful display of truly talented students.

You're a good man, Charlie Brown

Each year The Keys Kids Productions put on a play that surprised our community. "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown" was the show of 2011. The cast of the show consisted of; Alex Miller, Gregory Barroso, Eva Hooten, Zeb Mannix, and Jonathon Monje. They all worked together and made a small play with many big voices. Every character in the show had at least two solos, and worked hard for them. They practiced every day for a month before they performed. The show was very successful and made the community and school proud.

One Body One Team

Whether it was making a touchdown, beating a record, making a goal, pinning down an opponent, hitting a home run, cheering on a fellow teammate, consoling in a time of defeat, or celebrating in a time of victory, the Conchs did it as a team! One body, one team sums up the sports season for the fearless victorious Conchs.

The sports teams developed an unbreakable bond that lasted beyond the sports season, and will follow the team beyond their high school years. Junior Rachel Quad said, "The team members are like sisters to me. I can count on them both on and off the field." When one looked at the amount of time and practice that was placed into each sport, one began to visualize the wholeness of the team.

From the coaches to the dedicated fans that attended every game, Key West has forever been united working together to make each experience more than what it was planned to be. The coaches strived to explain to the teammates how important a close bond was to the success of the team and the sport.

Teammates' bonds will remain unbreakable. Teammates depended on each other and were there for each other through thick and thin. The athletes exemplified

A: Before each game I read the Bible to mentally prepare me for the game.

Q: Do you plan on being on Varsity?

A: Yes, I'm going to try to make it my sophomore year, but it will be challenging. I think as long as I stay focused I'll be able to do it.

Q: Do you have any future goals in football?

A: Yes, I plan on trying to go pro and make it to the NFL, but first I want to play for the University of Florida.

Q: What position do you play?

A: I'm a running back because of my speed.

Q: Does the JV team work well together?

A: Yes, very well. We all get along really good and when it's time to play we give it our all.

From the Cornerback's View

Q: What gets you motivated before a game?

A: Knowing that it is my last year to play the game of football. Also looking into the mirror and telling myself "no regret".

Q: What is your favorite aspect of being a varsity football player?

A: Pre-game meal. Also having little kids come up to me at the game and give me compliments.

Q: What are the team's goals for this year?

A: To make it to the playoffs and have a better season than last year.

Q: As a individual what are you striving for out of this season?

A: Playoff's, fun, memories, winning season, and to have the chance to make it to the next level.

Q: What does Conch Pride mean to you?

A: Having respect for myself, my school, and the people in it. To take the conch name to levels it has not been before. To have the fight and spirit of conch pride and to say to myself that this is what made me successful. Conch Pride = Determination.

"Football is more than a game, it's life. There's good times and bad times and with a good strong family, you'll make it through." -Michael McFadden

the runner's circle

Kieran Campbell runs with pride as he finishes the race.

Q: Why do you love to run?

A: I love it because there's a satisfaction for working hard and giving everything you've got. I also like to run to get fit.

Q: What is your favorite memory during your time on the cross country team?

A: Coach Terrence's stories and jokes.

Q: What goals do you hold for this year?

A: To make it to states. Last year we got 7th place in regionals and in order to make it to states you have to be in the top 6.

Q: What does it mean to you to be a part of the boys Cross Country team?

A: Cross Country gives you a sense of a team or family. When one person works to make themselves better it helps the whole team get better.

Q: What keeps you going during the race?

A: Knowing the satisfaction at the end and know that for those couple minutes you get to work hard and do your best.

SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

Speaking with the Shooting Guard

Seinor Keith Valdez shifts around the defense to pass the ball to his teammate.

Q- What do you do before a game to prepare yourself?

A- I listen to music and try to give myself tasks to achieve to win the game. I also look to see what I can do to get my team involved.

Q- Which game was toughest for you and your team?

A- The game Home VS Miami Norland. We were really close to winning that game against the #4 team in the state of Florida.

Q- Did you set any goals for your senior year?

A- I set five goals for myself this year; to become more of the leader role, be more aggressive, less turnovers, get my team involved, and shoot a good percentage from the field.

Q-What is it about basketball that makes it your favorite sport?

A- I started out not liking basketball, then I got attached to watching college basketball and wanted to be on TV one day. Then I started playing, got good at it, then the people who watched me play growing up gave me advice to stick to playing basketball and I should make it.

Q:Would winning a title make it easier to leave Key West or harder?

A: It would make it harder. The reason why is because we have a experienced a young team that has potential to make a run for a state championship. I love playing with my teammates and the fact that there's only four seniors on the team and I'm one of them makes me want to stay if we win a state championship to play with the same team again and hopefully win.

Skilled and athletic in the sport of wrestling, junior Maximo Llama is not the typical high school student. Llama, has been a home school student for most his life, and he had his first year back at public school for the 2010-11 school year. Despite the tough scheduling of classes due to required credits, he says that he has really enjoyed being back to public schooling. "It's really cool, and everyone gets along.", said Llama.

MEET ME ON THE MAT

Alex Fernandez speaks out

Q: What's different between sports such as (baseball, football, soccer, etc.) and wrestling?

A: It takes a lot of dedication and pride.

Q: What do you wish to pass down to future wrestlers?

A: All of my skills.

Q: Best weight class to be in?

A: There is no specific class that is best.

Q: What is the easiest way to win a match?

A: Just going into the match with the mind set that you're going to win.

Q: How has wrestling made you stronger?

A: It has not only made my physical strength stronger, but my mentality too.

Adam Fernandez

"Everyone helped me out for my first year! Can't wait til next year!"
-Rachael Dietrich-Colburn

"The pain of discipline or the pain of regret.. Take your choice."

RACK UP THE POINTS

Senior Spot Light: Cole Matarazzo

Q: How has being a senior impacted this season?

A: Being a senior has definitely made me want to give it my all at practice and during the matches. It's my last year, and I want to leave knowing that I didn't leave anything on the table.

Q: Do you have high hopes and expectations for your team this year?

A: This is the strongest team we've had in the four years I've played and I strongly believe that we will make it to regionals, which the tennis team has never accomplished.

Q: What does KWHs tennis mean to you?

A: Losing to our rival Doral during the season and then beating them in districts to make it to regionals. Never give up!

Q: Do you have any goal for this season? if so, what are they?

A: The goal is to make it to regionals.

Q: What words of wisdom would you like to leave for for your team?

A: Strong work ethic is a lot more valuable than natural talent.

"This season has been a lot of fun and it felt great to be a part of a team that made it as far as we did. I learned a lot and I will not hesitate to do it again." -Samuel Klitenick

"It was great to see Doral upset after the game. We rocked the court!" - Patrick Hainline

"I'm sad that I was injured my last year, but we still completed our goal of winning districts. I'll miss the tennis team, but it was some of the best years of my life." -Benjamin Theisen

Get to Know: Jean Azard

Q: What made you choose to join track?

A: I started playing soccer and then heard about track. I went to one of the practices and realized that I liked it and ended up staying in.

Q: How long have you been on track?

A: So far only this year, but I plan on doing it next year too.

Q: What has it taught you?

A: All the skills I needed, as well as an opportunity to meet new people.

Q: What events are you apart of?

A: The long jump and 100 meter.

Q: Which is your favorite? Why?

A: I like the long jump the best because I enjoy jumping and it is the easiest event to practice for.

Q: Do you wish to join track in college?

A: If I have the opportunity to join track I will.

Q: What tips would you give to anyone who wants to join track?

A: The faster you run, the faster you finish.

Above: Jean Azard springs forward with great strength while participating in the long jump at a meet against coral shores.

Nick Patrockey (11): "I joined track for the competition, fun and fitness."

Scott Brown (9): "The best part of track is running and staying in shape."

Bert J. Budde Sr.

Q: What was your favorite track event to run?

A: My favorite track event was the 4 by 100 meter. It's the one race I looked forward to the most out of the whole track meet.

Q: What did you enjoy about track?

A: I enjoyed the friendships I made on the team and how much fun we had, but I also enjoyed the competition at the track meets.

Q: What is the hardest event in a track meet?

A: I think the hardest event would have been the pole vault. You have to get everything perfect because you can fall and hurt yourself or land wrong.

Q: How does traveling affect your academic performance?

A: Traveling affects you a lot. You really have to be a student athlete. You have to focus more on school and track and less on your friends and socializing.

Q: What would it mean to you to hold a school record in your event?

A: Holding a school record means the world to me! I love it. Just knowing that me and my 4 by 100 team beat a school record is amazing. What I like now is future 4 by 100 teams have to try and beat ours and it's just a great feeling to know that.

Q: What position do you play?

A: I'm a catcher, but once and in a while I pitch.

Q: What do you do before a game to prepare yourself?

A: I usually run a few sprints to get my muscles up and running. Then I warm up batting and ground balls.

Q: How do you plan on improving before Varsity?

A: I'm going to try to work out everyday and go to the weight room whenever I can.

Q: How long have you been playing baseball?

A: I've been playing since tie ball, so 5 years old.

Q: Would you like to go to the major league?

A: If I ever had the chance, of course.

Q: How are your practices?

A: Most of the time they run smoothly. We usually run, then ball, and finally field.

Q: What are your goals this season?

A: To improve hitting, try to get better at pitching, and get my batting average over 400.

One Last Time

Petra Sanchez

Ms. Castaldo

a McPherson

"Many people view graduation as the end of their high school career, but I choose to see it as the start of new beginnings," said senior Douglas Plowman. It will be both sad and exciting for the Senior Class of 2011 to leave Key West High School to start the next chapter of their lives. This year was the last time to do everything in high school. It was the last first day of school, last homecoming game, last homecoming dance, last day of school, and finally graduation, what seniors have been anticipating for four years. There were the things they will miss and things they will not, but what can never be changed is the memories that were made throughout the years at the wonderful Home of the Fighting Conchs. "Life is an open road leading to a vast eternity of possibilities. Key West High School has been a memorable rest stop, but it is time now for me to buckle up and continue my journey traveling across life's distant highway," said senior Scott McKenzie. Some will move on to college, whereas some will stay right here in their hometown. Some will come back, others won't. This year was the last chance to be together as a class, one last time. Best of luck to the Class of 2011!

JOHNNY

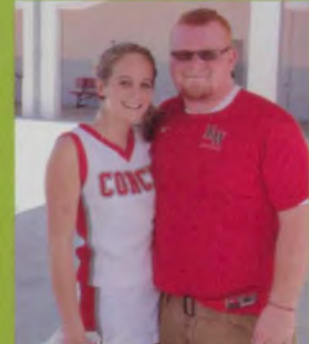

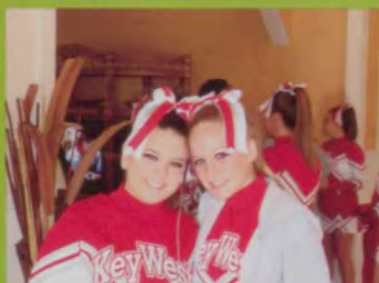

Johnny,
God gave us such a treasure the moment you were born. You were born with a heart of gold, always helping anyone in need, so full of happiness and humor, and above and beyond anything we could ask for in a son and brother. You are filled with much talent. Reach beyond the stars and always trust in God as he will guide you on your path. Live, Love, Laugh and most of all be happy. Thanks for being you..... To Our Grandson Quentin (Q-Dawg)
 Congratulations we are so proud of you and all the goals and accomplishments you have made as a young man. We thank God for giving us a blessing like you. We will always love and cherish you. We wish you the best of luck and success in whatever you do in life.

Friend of Robert with Down Syndrome

My face may be different
But my feelings the same
I laugh and I cry
And I take pride in my gains
I want to be here among you
To teach you to love
As God in the heavens
Looks down from above
To him I'm no different
Like love knows no bounds
The peace here among you
In cities and towns
That judge me by standards
That mean less important
But this family five chosen
Will help me get started
For friends of the children
Or special and few
That come here to learn
The same lessons as you
That live in acceptance
It must come from the heart
We all have the same purpose
Through out the same start
The Lord gives me life
To live and embrace
And I do it as you do
But at my own pace

Karis, through the years we have had wonderful times growing together as sisters. You have been the strength while we went through our trials. The time has come that you must reach for what your heart has aspired for throughout the years. God will be there to guide you as well as your family through your path of knowledge. Let my love be with you forever.

Anything is a possibility when you strongly desire! Believe in yourself because we know you have the fire!

Life is a journey full of ups and downs. No matter the obstacle there is always a way around.

The harder the challenge the stronger you will be. Just believe in yourself and you will see. The sky has no limit so shoot beyond the stars. We know what you're capable of so believe in who you are!

Now on to the real world you're so ready to see. Just always remember we love you unconditionally!!!

CAMERON

It has been both an honor and a privilege to watch you grow from the shy little boy who wanted to wear clip on ties in kindergarten to the confident young man you have become.

The effort you have put in with those demanding projects and long nights of homework have now paid off. We hope the experience of living overseas and traveling the world has made up for you having to come to paradise for your senior year. You know you can accomplish anything you set your mind on. Wherever you go, go with all your heart!

We love you! See you in a little while. Love Daddy, Mommy, Meighan and Jordan.

You're all grown up now and we're really proud of you. You're energetic, creative, and intelligent. We wish you all the best and we know you can do anything and everything. We love you.

To the awesome senior editors Ariel Sanchez and Morgan Stanich:

The time has come for you to graduate, to branch out and continue on life's wonderful journey. Remember to always keep your eye on the prize and dare to dream as big as the sky. Never accept anything less than the best that life has to offer. You have brought much joy to me and I will truly miss each of your smiles, hard work, and dedication. May success follow you in each of your endeavors and always remember who you are. Never forget all of the memories (yes, all of them), as you will forever be a part of mine.

Happiness, peace, success, and love always,

Bert J. Budde Sr.

We are ONE

We united. We worked together. We leaned on each other to get us through.

The motto for the year to 'show the world', drove students and staff to let outsiders know about Conch Pride.

"To show others you have to do whatever it takes to win," said freshman JV baseball player Tony Estenoz.

Sometimes you have to accomplish things on your own...by yourself. Other times you need to work as a group...becoming one. The yearbook lets you remember the positive memories for you look back on as you reminisce. Always remember...

We are one.
