HISTORY AND PROVENANCE OF OBJECT

A picture of this chair, or one similar to it, appears in the photo album of the ~~late~~ Cherokee Plantation. A mate to this chair with the same cushion is in Mrs. Pettit's apartment in the Carriage House at Planting Fields. This chair (the one being accessioned) replaces a desk chair given by Mrs. De Graf to complement the man's desk. The leather of this chair was in very poor condition and has been put into storage until it can be restored.
