

OYSTER BAY

NEW YORK

PLANTING FIELDS FOUNDATION

November 17, 1966

Mrs. Jerome C. Neuhooff
29 Pond Road
Kings Point
Great Neck, New York

Dear Mrs. Neuhooff:

Planting Fields Foundation gratefully acknowledges receipt of your recent generous gift to it of rare furniture.

For your records there are listed below the individual pieces that made up your gift and their fair market values as of October 15, 1966, as appraised by Mr. Anton Rudert, Jr.:

Jacobean carved oak lift-top chest, English, circa 1640	$ 1,500
✓ Jacobean carved and inlaid oak lift-top chest, English, circa 1680	1,500
✓ Gothic carved oak tall-back ecclesiastical armchair, English, 16th Century	2,500
✓ Gothic carved oak lift-top chest, English, circa 1400	2,500
✓ Elizabethan carved and inlaid court cupboard, English, late 16th Century	3,500
✓ Set of seven Stuart carved walnut tall-back chairs, English, 17th Century	5,000
Stuart carved walnut tall-back chair, English, 17th Century	375
Stuart carved walnut tall-back chair, English, 17th Century	450
✓ Georgian fruitwood "dwarf" spinning wheel, English, 18th Century	1,500
✓ William and Mary antique needlepoint and walnut sofa, English, late 17th Century	2,500

Total $ 21,325

Sincerely yours,

Edward K. Bachman

William Rogers Coe, President Halsey B. Knapp, Vice-Pres. Carl F. Wodell, Exec. Vice-Pres. Treasurer Edward K. Bachman, Secretary Margaretta

TRUSTEES

William Rogers Coe, Chairman Edward K. Bachman Arthur H. Dean John W. Drye, Jr. Leonard W. Hall Halsey B. Knapp Everett L. Miller Margaretta

OYSTER BAY

NEW YORK

PLANTING FIELDS FOUNDATION

December 4, 1967

*from
Jois Jois
file 8/21/78*

Mrs. Jerome C. Neuhoff
29 Pond Road
Kings Point
Great Neck, New York

Dear Mrs. Neuhoff:

Planting Fields Foundation gratefully acknowledges receipt of your recent additional generous gift to it of rare furniture.

For your records there are listed below the individual pieces that made up this, your second, gift and their fair market values as of November 9, 1967, as appraised by Mr. Anton Rudert, Jr.:

✓ Carved oak wainscot armchair, English, circa 1650	$ 1,500
✓ Georgian inlaid mahogany dressing mirror, English, circa 1790	500
✓ Chippendale carved mahogany tambour-front commode chest, English, circa 1765	1,500
✓ Wm. & Mary oak oval-top gateleg table, English, circa 1685	1,000
✓ Chippendale carved and inlaid mahogany tall-case clock, English, circa 1785	2,500
✓ Carved oak lift-top chest, English, circa 1620	2,500
✓ Elizabethan carved oak court cupboard, English, circa 1600	3,000
✓ Small Jacobean carved oak wainscot chest, English, circa 1630	1,500
Total	$14,000

Sincerely yours,

Edward K. Bachman

OYSTER BAY

NEW YORK

PLANTING FIELDS FOUNDATION

November 26, 1968

Mr. Jerome C. Neuhoff
240 Madison Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10016

Dear Mr. Neuhoff:

Planting Fields Foundation gratefully acknowledges receipt of your recent generous gift to it of rare furniture.

For your records there are listed below the individual pieces that made up your gift and their fair market values as of September 27, 1968.

Jacobean Carved and Inlaid Oak Tall Chest or Cabinet	$3,000
Jacobean Oak Chest of Drawers	1,750
Jacobean Carved Oak Settle	1,200
Set of Late Sheraton or Early Regency Mahogany Bed-Steps	350
Total	$6,300

Sincerely yours,

Edward K. Bachman
Edward K. Bachman

EKB ryk