

APPRAISAL OF A PAIR OF 16TH CENTURY
ITALIAN MAIOLICA JUGS
THE RECENT DONATION TO THE PLANTING FIELDS FOUNDATION
AT COE HALL, OYSTER BAY, N.Y.

from

DR. MICHAEL D. COE
376 SAINT RONAN STREET
NEW HAVEN, CT. 06511

A pair of 16th century Italian polychromed and glazed ovoid earthenware jugs, each with scrolled handles and dragon formed pouring spouts, and each decorated with facing profile bust portraits of young men and with inscriptions
in Gothic Latin lettering.

Size: 10" high

Condition is fair with some old repairs to spouts, handles and bodies.

The jugs have been noted at Coe Hall
during the family's residence there.

The current fair market value, in my best knowledge and belief is:

$ 3,500.-
