State of Conservation

The support is presently in good condition although there are a few bulges present along the bottom edge of the painting. The canvas also appears to be in a dried out state. The surface of the painting appears to be in good condition.

Treatment Proposed

1. Remove painting from stretcher and flatten bulges.
2. Strip-line painting
3. Re-stretch painting onto stretcher.
4. Apply thin spray varnish.
5. Re-frame with protective backing.

Cost: $300 - $350
