I, Joanna Badami, being duly sworn depose and say that:

I am a Certified Member of the Appraisers Association of America, and as such am qualified to make the following appraisal.

I am an appraiser of household furnishings and fine arts of the kind and character set down in the annexed schedule of 1 page.

For 15 years I was engaged in the wholesale and retail buying, selling and appraising of antique furniture, decorative items and works of art. For 20 years, I have been involved in appraisals of such items, and in addition, general household appraisals involving newer furnishings, decorative items and works of art.

I regularly attend auctions, exhibitions and other markets for these goods and am fully qualified to make judgments of value for the same.

I have conducted continuing education courses on antiques and fine arts, lectured for various organizations on antiques and fine arts, and have been called upon by various historical societies and museums to render judgments on antique and fine arts objects.

Armorial Tapestry

A Continental woven armorial wool tapestry, probably 19th Century, having a central armorial design featuring an oval device in quadrants, the quadrants reading clockwise from upper left: a wolf head, a ladder with end hooks on a red field, a striped field in blue and white, a gate pattern in blue on ivory field; this oval has a multiple tassel drape on an arabesque designed field, surmounted by a tasseled cardinal's hat and under-scored by a banner reading "CAPVI EST ARTIS DOCERE QUO ET COIAS", this whole enclosed in a blue trefoil designed "belt"; the remainder of the tapestry shows corner spandrels incorporating winged angels and curved foliate designs.

I, Joanna Badami, being duly sworn depose and say that:

I am a Certified Member of the Appraisers Association of America, and as such am qualified to make the following appraisal.

I am an appraiser of household furnishings and fine arts of the kind and character set down in the annexed schedule of 1 page.

For 15 years I was engaged in the wholesale and retail buying, selling and appraising of antique furniture, decorative items and works of art. For 20 years, I have been involved in appraisals of such items, and in addition, general household appraisals involving newer furnishings, decorative items and works of art.

I regularly attend auctions, exhibitions and other markets for these goods and am fully qualified to make judgments of value for the same.

I have conducted continuing education courses on antiques and fine arts, lectured for various organizations on antiques and fine arts, and have been called upon by various historical societies and museums to render judgments on antique and fine arts objects.

Armorial Tapestry

A Continental armorial wool tapestry, Flemish, probably 17th Century, having a central design, featuring an oval device in quadrants, the quadrants reading clockwise from upper left: a bear head, bleeding at the neck, a ladder with end hooks on a red field, a striped field in blue and white, a gate pattern in blue on ivory field; this oval is centered within a "belted" border surround, which is flanked on left and right by a multiple tassel drape on a foliate designed field, surmounted by a tasseled cardinal's hat and under-scored by a banner reading:

CAPVI EST ARTIS DOCERE QUO ET COIAS, this whole enclosed in blue "belt."; the remainder of the tapestry shows corner spandrels incorporating winged angels and curved foliate designs, (probably reduced in size).

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Salm:

I was so pleased to receive the tapestry you gave to Mike Coe for display in Coe Hall. I've enclosed a polaroid of the tapestry in its current location over the mantel in the Gallery.

I do need to know whether the tapestry is to be a gift or a loan to Planting Fields Foundation. With the changes in deductions for charitable gifts successively decreasing over the next few years, a gift in 1987 should provide a greater deduction than in 1988. If you decide upon gift status, I will need a recent appraisal of the object or can recommend an appraiser for you to contact.

The Louis XVI Reception Room has been restored and the restoration of the Writing Room is nearing completion. Robert Coe's bequest of objects to the house has been of tremendous help in recreating the ambiance of the 1920's.

If I may be of assistance to you, please let me know. Thank you for the tapestry.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Gilligan
