

62. Fourteen Creamware Plates
FAB

Fourteen Creamware dinner plates, early 20th Century, made by Royal Cauldon, England, having highly decorative impressed scrolled and foliate design rim, undecorated center, scalloped edge.

11 ¼" d.

Fourteen 1400

63. Twenty-Four Commemorative Plates of St. Paul's School,
FAB by Wedgwood

Twenty-four pink transfer-ware luncheon plates, early 20th Century, made by Wedgwood, for St. Paul's School, New Hampshire, each plate depicting in the center, a scene or building of the school grounds, with pinecone, acorn, oak leaf, and squirrel foliate decorated border.

9 ¾" d.

Twenty-four 2400

Provenance: William R. Coe;
Estate of Caroline Coe, (his wife).

64. Twelve Camellia Dinner Plates,
FAB

Twelve hand-painted Camellia dinner plates, early 20th Century, marked Tatler of Trenton, designed expressly for B. Altman Department Store, New York, designed by Henry Smith, each with different camellia in the center, simple gold rim surround.

10 ¼" d.

Twelve 4200

Provenance: William R. Coe;
Estate of Robert D. Coe, and
Michael D. Coe, (his son and grandson).

1955.002149
- 159