9. CHINESE SANCAI-GLAZED TERRACOTTA LOKAPALA
