Dear Mr. Joyce:

It was indeed very kind of Mrs. Joyce and you to present the Planting Fields Foundation with a portrait of Mrs. William Robertson Coe, which has now been hung in the house she built and admired by all visitors who come to Planting Fields.

I understand the portrait has been appraised at $2,500.00, which is a very modest appraisal for a fine portrait done by such a prominent artist.

We take great pleasure in accepting the painting and we thank you both very much for your thoughtfulness and kindness.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Miss Marguerite Pettet,
Vice President and Treasurer
