Dear Mr. and Mrs. Joyce:

In the absence of Mr. Wm. Rogers Coe for an extended period, I have pleasure in acknowledging receipt for your records of and thanking you for both your letter to him, as President of the Foundation, dated December 10, 1965, and the Salisbury portrait of his father, the late William Robertson Coe, which you have thoughtfully and generously given to the Foundation.

We have, as you know, hung the portrait over the fireplace in the entrance to Coe Hall at Planting Fields where it will serve as a visual reminder of Mr. Coe and his magnificent gift to the people of this State.

Sincerely yours,

Edward K. Bachman

Dear Mr. Coe:

Confirming our previous conversations concerning the Salisbury portrait of your father which Mrs. Joyce and I inherited from the estate of Mrs. Caroline Graham Coe, it gives us pleasure to present this picture to the Planting Fields Foundation to be used in any way your Board of Directors may see fit.

Very truly yours,

Albert G. Joyce, Jr.

Dear Marguerite:

I return the Eberstadt appraisal of the Salisbury portrait of the late William Robertson Coe and the letter from Mr. and Mrs. Joyce to Planting Fields Foundation, which you sent to me in your letter of January 19th. I also enclose a copy of my letter as Secretary of Planting Fields Foundation to Mr. and Mrs. Joyce of today's date.

Sincerely yours,

Pelham, New York

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Joyce:

We received your letter of December 10th stating that you are making a gift of the portrait of Mr. William Robertson Coe done by Frank O. Salisbury to the Planting Fields Foundation.

We cannot tell you how very much this is appreciated as it is so appropriate to have the portrait of Mr. Coe hanging over the fireplace in the beautiful entrance in Coe Hall at Planting Fields.

As you know, this property belongs to the State University of New York and, of course, the income from the Planting Fields Foundation is used entirely for this property. Therefore, it can be seen by the many students, professors and others attending conferences and classes in this building.

Sincerely yours,

Edward K. Bachman
