

November 14, 1977

Mr. Kenneth McLeish Vander Poel
Mill River Road
Oyster Bay, New York 11732

Dear Mr. Vander Poel:

The Trustees of Planting Fields Foundation wish you to know how very much they appreciate the fine articles of furniture, listed below, which you have kindly donated to the Foundation.

- 1 English 17th Century oak Jacobean armchair, solid back with incised leaves, on turned and block legs
Fair market value $ 500.00
- 1 English 17th Century oak Jacobean hinged slant-front desk, skirt with incised leafage, on turned legs and a rail stretcher, 23 x 54 inches high Fair market value 1,000.00
- 1 English 17th Century oak
Jacobean Court cupboard, 2 recessed solid doors iwth satinwood and ebony floral inlays, carved rosettes and leaf motifs on the skirts and stiles, fluted columns and a box stretcher, 30 x 63 inches high
Fair market value 1,500.00

Everything you have given us will be extremely useful in this very large house.

With many thanks,
Sincerely yours,

Marguerite Pettet
Vice-President