

---

Symbolism of Drawing in the Acts of Chapter 1984

By Sister Rosa Ma. Montiel

The drawing with which the Acts of Chapter begin:

The scroll represents the parchments of the Bible in the beginning before Christ.

The stylized dove is the Holy Spirit which represents the love of the Father toward the poor from the beginning.

I have placed it in the Acts of Chapter because of our search to follow the inspirations of the Holy Spirit today.

*CCVI Communique
Vol 3 Num 6 May 1984*