

A vibrant beach scene with a large, multi-colored beach umbrella in the foreground. The umbrella has segments of green, blue, and red. In the background, a sandy beach leads to turquoise water with white surf. Several people are seen swimming and playing in the water. The sky is a deep blue with scattered white clouds. The Alaska Airlines logo is at the top left, and the text 'Sun AND Surf' and 'Winter fun in Mexico' is on the right.
