

The background of the entire page is a photograph of a winter scene. In the foreground, there are large, rounded rocks partially submerged in dark water, each topped with a thick, white cap of snow or ice. The water shows some ripples and small waves. In the middle ground, a line of trees stands on a bank, their branches and trunks heavily laden with long, vertical icicles that hang down towards the water. The trees are mostly bare, with some evergreens visible on the right. The sky is a pale, hazy blue, suggesting a clear but cold day. The overall color palette is dominated by the blues of the water and sky, and the whites of the snow and ice.
