at Lambert's Point Monday. The keg was passed down into the bunkers and was there discovered by the men, who took it on deck and tested it. Its presence in the coal is a mystery, but the most plausible theory is that it was left in the car at the mines and brought here beneath the coal.

PORTSMOUTH.

[Regular correspondence of the News.]

In the death of Hon. Edward F. Dyer, Portsmouth loses one of her best known and most popular citizens. He died Wednesday morning at the home of Leonard Simmons, his brother-in-law, in Bristol, where he went with his wife, about three weeks ago, in apparently his usual health, to make a visit. Although sixty-five years of age, he would have passed for a much younger man.

He was the son of the late Christopher and Mary Dyer, was a native of the town, and spent nearly all his life here. He engaged in various kinds of business during his life, first fishing, then farming, and finally carried on a grocery and variety store, in which business he was so successful that a number of years ago he retired with a competence. While thus engaged he was postmaster for ten years.

Later he was town treasurer twelve years, collector of taxes seven years, member of the public school committee seven years, representative to the General Assembly four years, and senator four years. He was very faithful in his duties to his constituents, always looking out for their interests and making it a point to be present in his seat at each session. That this was appreciated by the electors is shown by the fact that little or no opposition was manifested to his election for any office for which he was a candidate. He served on important committees in both chambers, one being that of the committee on corporations, and was a member of the state shellfish commission at the time of his death. He was a zealous Republican and worked with ardor for the success of that party, and was on both the town and state committees.

He has been administrator and executor of several estates, and his advice upon matters both public and private was often sought and always freely given. He showed good judgment, combined with caution and a determination to deal justly, which, joined with the confidence he inspired in those with whom he had dealings, made him a power for the best interests of the community.

He was treasurer of the Portsmouth Cemetery corporation and a vestryman in St. Paul's Church at the time of his death. He was very kind and never refused assistance, pecuniary or otherwise, to any one when it was possible for him to give it.

He married Miss Eunice Simmons of this town, who survives him, as does their son, William O. Dyer of Providence, and one brother, Charles H. Dyer of this town, and one sister, Mrs. Edward Cornell of Seekonk, Mass.

the boat returned to the house, where dancing, to the music furnished by Messrs. Brown, Kyle and Allen, was kept up until the small hours of the morning.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke have gone to New York for a week or two.

—Mr. Marion M. Clarke has returned from a month's visit to New York.

—The football game yesterday between the Orientas and the Tigers resulted in favor of the former, the score being 4 to 0.

—Captain Casper P. Goodrich, president of the Naval War College, was one of the speakers at the twenty-fourth annual banquet of the New Haven Chamber of Commerce at New Haven last evening.

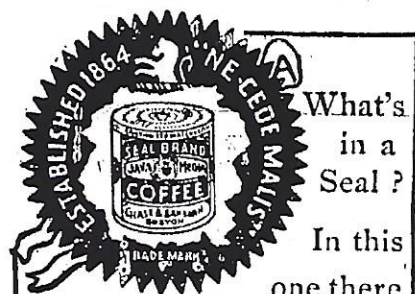

—Recently a large coal barge, deeply loaded, while in tow of a tug bound to Fall River, grounded off the south point of Mount Hope. Several attempts were made to tow her off, and finally a wrecking tug from up Long Island Sound hauled her off the shoal.

—The Hibernian Rifles gave a social in Odd Fellows' hall last night and had a good attendance of dancing people. The prize for the waltz was awarded to Mr. Daniel Coffey and Miss Katie Sullivan. The floor director was Daniel Shea, and the aids M. J. Conheoney, John Baker, W. H. Finn, George Levitt and James Collins.

—Mr. Oswald Mitvler will be the best man at the Doucette-Hardy marriage November 24. The ushers will be Messrs. Arthur B. Commerford, Clarence H. Wrightington, Theodore Hardy and George M. Stone. The maid of honor will be Miss Flossie Davis of Boston and the bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Hardy.

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON TO ENGAGE THE TORPEDO FLOTILLA.

The Navy Department is contemplating joint manoeuvres between the North Atlantic Squadron and the torpedo boat flotilla, probably off Drumsick, Ga., in the course of a few weeks. The squadron is going southward that far, and as the flotilla is now in the vicinity the opportunity to make trials of the torpedo boats as assailants of battleships and as blockade runners is good.

Remarkable Success of a New Pile Cure.

People who have suffered for years or months from the pain and inconvenience of that common ailment, piles, will look with skepticism upon the claims of the makers of the new-discovered cure of all forms of piles, known under the name of Pyramid Pile Cure; nevertheless the extraordinary cures performed by this remedy are such as to warrant the investigation of every sufferer. As a case in point the following letter speaks for itself.

Mr. Henry Thomas of station No. 2, Hock Ave., Columbus, Ohio, writes as follows: Pyramid Drug Co.:

Gentlemen:—I want you to use my name if it will be of any use to you. I was so bad with the piles that I lost work on that account. Nothing did me any good. I read in Cincinnati of the many cures of piles by the Pyramid Pile Cure and I went to a drug store and asked for it. The drug clerk told me that he had something else that he thought was better, but I told him that I wanted to try the Pyramid first.

The first box helped me so much that I tried another and then to complete the cure used two more boxes, making four in all. I am now completely cured. Have not a trace of piles and I had suffered for four years with the worst form of protruding piles.

I suffered death from piles, but I have found the Pyramid Pile Cure to be just as represented. I have recommended it to several of my friends and I am thankful to be able to write you what good the remedy has done for me.

Physicians recommend the Pyramid Pile Cure because it contains no opium, cocaine, or mineral poison of any kind, and because it is so safe and pleasant to use, being painless and applied at night. The patient is cured in a surprisingly short time with no inconvenience whatever.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists at 50 cents per package, and if there is any constipation it is well to use the Pyramid Pills at the same time with the Pile Cure, as constipation is very often the cause of piles and the pills effectually remove the cœstive condition. Price of pills is 25 cents per package.

Write to Pyramid Drug Co., Albion, Mich., for little book on cause and cure of piles; sent by mail free.
