

THOMAS M. BRENNAN DIED THIS MORNING

Was for 20 Years Employed at Naval Torpedo and Training Stations

Thomas Michael Brennan, for 20 years an employe at the Torpedo and Training Stations, died early this morning at the Newport Hospital. He was 55 years old and was employed for several years on the Fall River Line steamers, and later as a fireman and water tender at the naval stations. He was a member of the famous Hibernian racing crew, which won many victories several years ago. He is survived by six children—Grace, Lillian, Mary, Margaret, Thomas and James Brennan, living here; two brothers, Michael of this city, who is now in Ireland, and Patrick in Oregon, and two sisters, Mrs. Patrick L. Sullivan and Mrs. Mary Shea of this city.
