

Michael J. Shea, Was At Station

Michael J. Shea, 77, of 32 Merton Road, a retired Naval Torpedo Station quartermaster, died last night in Newport Hospital after a month's illness.

He was born in Newport Jan. 6, 1890. He retired from the Torpedo Station in 1945 and was a member of the Newport Chapter National Association of Retired Civil Employees.

Mr. Shea leaves his wife, Mrs. Caroline Tubley Shea.

The funeral will be held Saturday from the O'Neill Funeral Home to St. Mary's Church where a high mass of requiem will be sung at 9 a. m. Burial will be in St. Columba's Cemetery.