

DEATH OF MRS. HALPIN.

Mrs. Catherine Halpin, widow of Timothy F. Halpin, died early this morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Daniel F. Tobin, at "Shamrock Cliff", Ridge road. Born in Newport in 1840, and having lived here since, she was possessed of a wide circle of friends and admirers. Her husband died five years ago, in his eighty-ninth year. She is survived by three daughters—Mrs. Robert Jones of Brooklyn, Mrs. Tobin and Sister Aloyisia of Worcester; and two sons, John Halpin and Andrew Halpin of this city.
