

nd general
orney, Cor-
J. C. Earle
sident and
e Newport
nd J. Rus-
lorney.
Councilman
whose re-
had been

said they
act is dis-
in that it
company
for an in-
roductive"
mentioned
two sec-
devoting
"a care-
tangibles,
proposed
atory and
be based ather than
s as set

that the
the funds
x survey
d a "real
not a gen-

company,
pany's at-
ting that
e way.
had been
at a "fair
could be e assess-
they are
o go into such an uld be a
y as well
ake such

ted, the
at there
riminate
le pure pointe taxa-

proposed
contract
finance
meeting
ie Clem-
assess-
r have confer-

MEET
o Map
fy 4 (P)—
leaders
, Conn.,
gy for

Preservation of the Old State House. Below is a fine example of a carved red lacquer table, inlaid with white jade, loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brayton. It holds a colorful porcelain punch bowl and set between large vases loaned by the Misses Wetmore.
—Daily News Phot

OLD HIBERNIAN RIFLES ACTIVITIES RECALLED

Colonel Kelly, Former Head Of Unit, Addresses Div. 2; Clambake Plans Furthered

A "thumbnail" sketch of the Hibernian Rifles, once a semi-military organization that took part in Newport parades and held its weekly drills on Long wharf, was given by "Colonel" Michael Kelly of Cambridge, Mass., at a meeting of Division 2, A. O. H., in Knights of Columbus Hall Wednesday evening.

Colonel Kelly, a former resident of this city and commanding officer of the unit, was introduced by Joseph A. Sullivan, president. He spoke of numerous activities of the old organization and told of its leaders and members.

Plans were made to attend a Hibernian Field Day August 14 in East Providence and the annual clambake for the local division at the Boulevard Nurseries August 21. William P. Corcoran was named general chairman of the bake.

Committees include Joseph A. Sullivan, Robert C. Cottrell, Frederick G. Watterson, Raymond McDermott, Charles King, Harold F. Dring, Henry A. Sullivan, William J. Kelley, Michael Powers, Daniel F. Downing and Edward C. Sullivan, tickets; Cornelius J. Sullivan, transportation; John M. Dring, prizes; Walter J. Fitzmaurice, sports, and John J. Casey, refreshments.

STAMP CLUB MEETS

Reissue of the six-cent air mail stamps in coils with horizontal perforations at Washington, D. C., August 25 was discussed by the Newport Stamp Club, Wednesday at the Armed Services Y. M. C. A. The reissue was announced in a communication from the Postmaster General.

John Fitzsimmons conducted the meeting. John Watson, treasurer, reported on the success of the July stamp auction.

12 INDICTED IN FLOGGINGS

ROME, Ga., Aug. 4 (P)—A sheriff, three deputies and eight other

WOMAN DIES AT AGE 107

Mrs. Sarah A. Tweed, 107, mother of Blücher Tweed of Jamestown, and the oldest resident of Cherokee County, N. C., died Wednesday at her home in Brass-town, N. C.

She was born at Little Pine Creek, Madison County, N. C., May 14, 1842, daughter of the late John and Mollie Worley Payne, and was married to the late Joshua Tweed of Marshall, N. C. She leaves three sons, Blucher, of Jamestown, Zeb Tweed of Brasstown, and Lorenzo of Little Pine Creek; two daughters, Mrs. B. L. Fox of Murphy, N. C., and Mrs. Hannah Farmer of Sandy Mush, N. C., 23 grandchildren and 30 great grandchildren.

WHERE TO GO TODAY, TOMORROW

Cardines Field—Sunset League: K. of C. vs Dairy Lounge and Flood Light—Sunset Stars vs. Boston Colored Giants.

Elk's Home Grounds—Annual Bazaar, auspices Newport Lodge.

Easton's Beach—Annual Dance; auspices Rogers Alumni Association.

Paramount Theatre—"Neptune's Daughter" and "Roughshod."

Casino Theatre—"Present Laughter."

Strand Theatre—"The Great Gatsby" and "Shamrock Hill."

Opera House—"Sand" and "Flaming Fury."

FRIDAY

Cardines Field—Sunset League: M. C. M. vs. Grande's.

Elks' Home Grounds—Annual Bazaar; auspices Newport Lodge.

Casino Theatre—"Present Laughter."

Strand Theatre—"The Great Gatsby" and "Shamrock Hill."

Opera House—"Sand" and "Flaming Fury."

Paramount Theatre—"Neptune's Daughter" and "Roughshod."

ALBERT KERR FUNERAL RITES TO BE SATURD

Services Will Be Held In George's Church Of Which He Was Vestryman

Funeral services for Alt Kerr, of 27 Pell street, real estate dealer and former member of Easton's Beach Commission, died Wednesday afternoon at Newport Hospital, will be held Saturday at 1 P. M. in George's Church, of which he was a member of the vestry.

Mr. Kerr was a director of Hazard's Beach Association, and was formerly a director of Chamber of Commerce, in which he was active. For years he was an official on the Mary Str Y. M. C. A., serving as a direct treasurer, chairman of the property committee, and being a member of other committees, including the physical department. Before entering the real estate business, he was a building contractor. For some years he was president of the E. C. Peckham Coal & Ice Co.

Besides his wife, two daughters and two brothers, he leaves three grandsons, Arthur J. Roche, and Albert Kerr Roche.

TITO, DE GASPERI MAY MEET

ROME, Aug. 4 (P)—Italian officials were silent Wednesday published reports from Vient that Premier Alcide De Gasperi and Marshal Tito would meet within the next several weeks. The report was published yesterday in Rome newspapers.

SPAULDING ELECTRIC CO.
IS NOW LOCATED
6 OAK STREET
Tel. 5757

ELLEN BECKMAN
82 Annandale Road
is now resuming her practice of
● PHYSICAL THERAPY
● SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
● ELECTRIC CABBAGE

SWAN-DOWN
PUFFS
50c to $2.25