

PATRICK FORD, Editor, Publisher and Proprietor.

New York, Aug. 7, 1886.

Dear Mr. Driscoll,

In regard to Davitt,
we expect him here tomorrow when terms & dates will be set thel upon for principal cities.
Other engagements will have to be guided by them. We'll see that Davitt goes to Newport. He comes here to raise funds for the L. & A. at Wife's than any other man in the Irish movement and his time is more called upon today than any other - leaving him little for himself. This is the actual state of affairs.

We'll write you later.

With kind regards, I am Very faithfully yours,
Patrick Ford
