

England's Difficulty is Ireland's Opportunity.

BRAVE IRISHMEN CAN MAKE IRELAND'S OPPORTUNITY,
INSTEAD OF WAITING FOR IT.

JEREMY BENTHAM, an Englishman, speaks these golden words of treasure for the benefit of plundered exiled Irishmen :—

“ It is only by making the ruling few uneasy, that the oppressed many can obtain a particle of relief.”

Gladstone says it was the Manchester rescue, and the blowing down of Clerkenwell Prison in London, that enabled him to relieve the catholic people of Ireland from the tax that was on them to support the Protestant religion in Ireland. Let us help Gladstone to do more.

This card is issued by the Society of UNITED IRISHMEN, founded in Philadelphia in July, 1880. The Society of men that started to meet Gladstone's threat to Parnell:—that did things go much farther, he had yet in reserve for Ireland. “ the resources of civilization,” which of course, in the English language and the English mind means the fire and sword of Cromwell, and the Dynamite that was given to the Boers and the Zulus. England employed the Red Indians in America to scalp American men, women and children, and England burned American cities to the ground. Fight England with England's own weapons : Fas est et ab hoste doceri.— It is good to take a lesson from our enemy. Is maith foghlaim do thoquint o'n Sassanach.
