

Newport.

MILITARY FUNERAL.—The Aquidneck Rifles, Col. Constant Smith, paid their last sad tribute of respect to the memory of their late comrade, Patrick Tracy, on Saturday afternoon. The Rifles assembled at their Armory on Levin street at two o'clock, where they were joined by the Redwood Band, and all proceeded to the late residence of the deceased, where they received the remains, and escorted them, with the family and friends, to the St. Mary's Catholic Church, thence to the Catholic Cemetery on Warner street. About three hundred persons were in the procession.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—Christopher E. Barker and wife have sold a lot of land 24x10 feet, on Chestnut street, to George H. Huddy, of Providence, for $250.

Samuel Wilson, Jr. has sold three undivided quarter parts of a lot of land and buildings on Warner street to John O. Stoddard, for $100.

Charles D. Hainmott et ux. have sold a lot of land 10x15-12 feet, on Warner street, to Patrick Mahan for $345.

THE METROPOLIS was towed from Bristol to this city on Saturday by the Empire State, arriving at about four o'clock in the afternoon. We are informed that the racing process with the alterations will be made here.

SMALL POX has reappeared in our city, the patient being a young lady residing at the upper part of Thames street.

FRIDAY SERVICES.—Rev. Charles A. Humphreys preached at the Unitarian Church; Rev. Mr. Douglass, of Providence, at the A. M. E. Church; Rev. Mr. Nutting at the Thames Street M. E. Church in the evening. Rev. Messrs. Barrows, of the First, and Wheeler, of the Central Baptist Churches, exchanged pulpits in the afternoon. No services were held in the Marlboro' Street Church, the pastor being in attendance at the session of the Conference.

HARRY BLONDWOOD'S MINSTREL COMBINATION are billed for one performance at the Opera House, to-morrow evening. (March 26.)