

Another of the old-time residents "Kerry Hill" district passed away Sunday, when Mrs. Ann Halpin, widow of John Halpin, died, aged about 80 years. She was one of the best known of the older people and had lived about in the same place for many years. She leaves one son, Mr. John Halpin, inspector for the Telephone Exchange, and two daughters, Mrs. Patrick Hagerty and Miss Elizabeth T. Halpin.