Dear Madam,

I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated 30th ultimo, but regret the Department cannot assist you in the matter concerning your son, No. 1892 Private P. J. Carroll, 43rd Battalion. In such cases, the soldier is required to forfeit pay for the period he is absent from duty through his own default.

The District Paymaster, North Terrace, Adelaide, may be able to advise you as to forwarding the soldier money in instalments through the Military authorities abroad.

Your enclosure is returned herewith.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. F. Carroll,

In regard to a letter i received from my son to day I am to see if the Military can assist me in the matter. I am sending the letter i received. I think my son as been trapped by people of bad charater He his only a lad of twenty ~~last~~ the sixth of this month. He sailed for England on 13/4/16. He was allways a boy of good character. I cannot cable him money. That might give him the chance of marrying this Women. If i can pay his debt through the Military so as he can draw his 2 shillings a day I would like to. I do beg that the Military will try and assist me in this matter. As you know he is only one of thousands that are being traped by these wernon. Will you kindly forward letter back to me I fell shure that the Military will do all

Dear Madam,

With reference to your telegram of the 25th instant I have to inform you that the cable reporting your son's casualty briefly intimated that he was wounded. His case is not specified as being of a serious nature however, and it is to be assumed, in the absence of further news that he is making satisfactory progress towards recovery, it being the usual practice of the overseas authorities to advise the Department should any soldier's condition change for the worse.

Letters to your son should be addressed as under and they will be redirected to wherever he may be located :-
