THE QUEEN'S COURT

Fair Royalty
 To Be Visitors

The queen and court for the Benton-Franklin Fair and Rodeo will appear at a Kennewick Chamber of Commerce luncheon-meeting Aug. 23 at Dean's Steak House in Angus Village.

At that meeting, nominations for the chamber's board of directors will be taken. Five positions will be open on the board, which has 11 regular and four ex-officio members.

Election for the new board will be done by mail and must be completed by Sept. 5. The board then will elect new officers, and the officers and new board will take office Oct. 1.

Opie Miller Killed In Accident Brake Failure Ends Career For Famed Tri-City Driver

A truck accident at Hood River, Ore. Saturday claimed the life of Opie P. Miller, 57, Kennewick veteran Consolidated Freightways driver and one of Pacific Northwests best-known and respected heavy-rig handlers.

Miller had stopped at the company's Hood River terminal on his regular Kennewick-Portland run, and was preparing to couple a trailer to his diesel tractor-semi-trailer rig about 8:30 when the tragedy occurred.

OPIE P. MILLER

When he stepped back to check the distance between the two trailers the air brakes apparently released, causing the truck-trailer rig to roll over him.

THUS ENDED THE NEXT-TO-longest career and best from the standpoint of safety among about 1,000 C-F drivers. On May 1, Mr. Miller would have had 31 years service with the company—27 of which were spent on the Kennewick-to-Spokane run and three on the Tri-Cities-Portland run.

FIVE WEEKS AGO, THE NATIONAL Safety Council and his company presented Mr. Miller awards for 25 years of heavy-freight-truck driving without a chargeable accident. The record involved more than 1,664,487 miles and was described by Everett (Red) Olson, C-F's Tri-City manager, "as one of the finest in the nation."

Mr. Miller also held the company record for mileage between equipment failures. A son, Dick Miller, is also a Consolidated Freightways driver. Obituary page 27.

Home Ceremony Unites Couple

At an attractive afternoon ceremony in the home of Mrs. Edna M. Garrett of Kennewick, Miss Ruby Irene Daggett exchanged her wedding vows with Dennis Wayne Britton, the Rev. Ronald Yates officiating at the July 6 ceremony. Mrs. Garrett is the bride's grandmother.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Daggett of Joseph, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Britton of Kennewick are the parents of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Garrett played the wedding march for her granddaughter's wedding.

The bride wore a street length white taffeta dress with fitted bodice and lace jacket. Her shoulder length bridal veil of tulle was caught to a pearl and lace crown. A white and lavender arrangement of orchids overlaid the white Bible she carried.

Mrs. Edna Mae Bornstedt, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a lavender lace street length dress and a flowered hat. Lowell G. Gunnoe was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Daggett wore a beige flowered afternoon dress and the mother of the bridegroom wore Nile green. Each mother and grandmother wore lavender and white flowers.

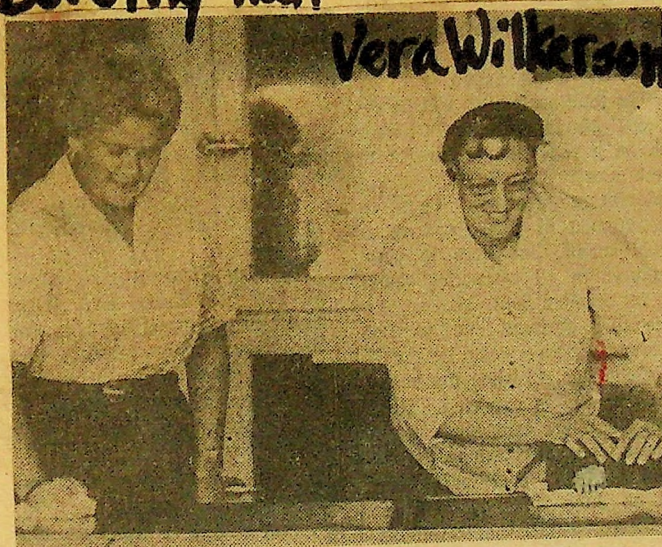

At the reception which followed, Mrs. Opal Hudkins, an aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake, Mrs. Maxine Lamm poured and another aunt of the bride, Mrs. Christine Garrett served the punch.

After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Britton will make their home in Bremerton where he is with the Navy.

Rodeo Feed Readied

Members of the Benton County Mounted Posse tested out their grills and cooking equipment at the Kennewick rodeo grounds Friday in preparation for the big annual Cowboy Breakfast to be served from 6-11 a.m. next Sunday — the final day of the Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo. From left were Mrs. Leon Hall and Mrs. Eddie Wilkerson whose organization will also sell refreshments throughout the three-day celebration.

Thirteen-year-old Richard Chapman and "Tinky Poo" his registered quarter horse won top juvenile honors at Saturday's Quarter Horse

Kennewick Boy Wins Top Honor In Class B Quarter Horse Show

Winning horse shows is becoming a common thing for 13-year-old Richard Chapman of Kennewick.

He and his horse "Tinky Poo" took juvenile top honors at the Class B Quarter Horse Show Saturday at the fair grounds. Last year the pair teamed up again to win the all-around saddle-class honors at the Benton County Junior Rodeo.

RICHARD IS THE SON OF MR. and Mrs. Bernard Chapman, 215 E. 36th Ave. His 15-year-old sister Marcella also took a prize at Saturday's event which was sponsored by the Benton-Franklin Mounted Posse and the Northwest Quarter Horse Association.

In addition to winning a trophy as "All Around Youth," he won awards in the junior-roping event. His sister won in the juvenile pull.

"Tinky Poo" is registered in his name, he said today, and has been with him in six shows in the Pacific Northwest. He has been riding since he was five.

There were 190 entries in the show, the first in the area, making it a class B show.

RESERVE ALL-ROUND YOUTH was Val Vail, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Vail, Pasco.

Other winners were: grand-champion stallion, Mile Proctor's "Saber Cat;" grand - champion mare, Ray Proctor's "Tantum's Tilly," both from Walla Walla; reserve stallion, "Big Page," Bernard Cattle Co., Moses Lake; reserve mare, "Day's Betty Doll," Esther Perrault, Prosser; grand-champion gelding, "Silver Pep," Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dickerson, Walla Walla; reserve gelding, "Gallop King," Bruce Ripplly, Bellevue.

Juvenile Western pleasure class, Greg Crooks, Arlington, Ore.; reg-

Horse Show Is Planned Aug. 18-19

Benton and Franklin County 4-H horse club members will stage a horse show at the Kennewick fairgrounds Aug. 18-19 as a "warm-up" event for the big 1962 Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo.

At least 150 Quarter Horses, Arabians and other registered and grade breeds of horses will compete for ribbons and fair points in performance events. In addition, the 4-H owners and handlers will vie for a herdsmanship award.

Judging will take place in front of the main grandstand on Aug. 18 and the evenings of both days, when not being judged, the horses will be on exhibit in the hog, sheep, beef, dairy and horse barns at the fairgrounds.

Queen's Agenda Is Full

Acceptance of the Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo Queen's crown Saturday night will signal the start of a busy round of appearances at neighboring communities for Sharon Hartley.

She and three princesses will be crowned at the Coronation Dinner and Ball at the Tri-City Center. The dinner starts at 7 p.m. Dancing will be at 9 p.m.

MUSIC FOR THE EVENT WILL be supplied by Marty Robins, well-known Western singer, and the Teardrops combo.

Tickets are $2.50 for the dinner and $2.50 for the dance.

Fair and Rodeo princesses are LaNay Munsey, 17, Penny Robbins, 17, and Vicky Raze, also 17.

Miss Hartley's first appearance after the coronation will be May 12 at the Milton-Freewater Pea Festival parade in the morning, and then at the Kennewick Horse Show in the afternoon and evening to present awards.

IN EARLY JUNE SHE WILL be an award-giver at the Junior Rodeo in the Tri-Cities.

There will be speaking appearances at chambers of commerce, local clubs and organizations, and radio and tv appearances this summer.

Tickets to Friday's Coronation Ball can be obtained by contacting the Prosser or Kennewick Chambers of Commerce, meeting court, or by phoning JU 2-3282.

Posse And Royalty Prepare For Benton County Rodeo

Success of the Benton-Franklin County Rodeo each year is due in a great part to the year-round efforts of members of the sponsoring Benton County Mounted Posse. Leaders of the group were shown with the Fair and Rodeo Queen Sharon Hartley and her court at a session at the grounds in preparation for the big arena

SHARON HARTLEY

Miss Hartley Rodeo Queen

Queen of this year's Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo will be Sharon Hartley, 19-year-old president of Franklin County Junior Posse.

Sharon, a princess at last year's fair and a Columbia Basin College medicine major who hopes to be a doctor, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hartley of Kennewick.

Active in 4-H Clubs for eight years, she will reign over ceremonies at the three-day Fair which begins Aug. 24 at the fairgrounds in Kennewick.

Pictures of her three princesses will appear in subsequent issues of The Herald.

LaNay Munsey, 17-year-old senior at Kennewick High School, is one of three princesses who will be in attendance at this year's Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo at the Fair grounds, Ken-wick, Aug. 24-26.

Past president of the Bit and Spur 4-H Club, LaNay is keen on hunting, fishing and camping and plans to take animal husbandry at college.

Pictures of the Fair Queen, Sharon Hartley, and the other princess have appeared previously in The Herald. Other pictures will be featured in subsequent issues.

Horse Show Leads Fair

One phase of the Benton-Franklin Fair and Rodeo — 4-H Horse Show division — gets an early start.

Judging in the division is slated for this weekend, and 4-H horse club members were busily brushing, grooming and combing their mounts in preparation Friday.

THE HORSE division is scheduled for the fair grounds in Kennewick, and fair season tickets will be honored at the weekend show. The exhibit is being held a week early because there is not enough space at the fair grounds to take care of the increased number of horse entries, along with the rest of the animals.

Horse judging is planned for 8 this morning, and the fitting and showing competition will be at 10 a.m.

Sunday activity will be judging of halter classes at 8 a.m. and judging of English pleasure horses at 1 p.m.

Queen LA NAY MUNSEY

LEE ANN HAMILTON

JANET HEISER

Miss Munsey To Be Queen Of '63 Fair

La Nay Munsey, Kennewick High School senior, has been chosen queen of the 1963 Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo.

Miss Munsey, 18, was a 1962 fair-and-rodeo princess. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hall, Kennewick. Her princesses are Janet Heiser, Kennewick; Vicki Smith, Richland, and Lee Ann Hamilton, Kennewick, all 17-year olds.

THE QUEEN WILL FORMALLY receive her crown from 1962 queen Sharon Hartley, Kennewick, at a coronation ball May 4 at the Kennewick Masonic Temple. Tickets for the ball may be purchased from members of the Benton County Mounted Posse, its Auxiliary, or at any Tri-City Chamber of Commerce office.

Mrs. William Kelly, auxiliary spokesman, said the queen and court were chosen from a considerable number of candidates by judges from the chambers of commerce, fair board and posse.

Miss Munsey's hobbies are horseback riding, outdoor sports, and 4-H Club work. She owns a quarterhorse named "Brandy," and intends to attend beauticians' school after high school graduation.

Miss Heiser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Heiser, and a Kennewick High School junior. She owns a quarterhorse named "Rusty," and her hobbies are riding, swimming and 4-H work. She hopes to become a beautician and hair stylist.

PRINCESS - ELECT VICKI IS the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Smith, and is a senior at Columbia High School, Richland, where she belongs to the pep club and drill team. Her hobbies are skiing, swimming and candy-stripping and her Arabian quarterhorse is named Lindy. She hopes to attend Columbia Basin College and become a physical therapist.

Miss Hamilton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamilton. She is a senior at Kennewick High School and hopes to become a teacher. Her thoroughbred Arabian is named "Sugar." Her hobbies are riding, swimming and 4-H Club work.

Lee Ann's older sister Judi, was a fair-and-rodeo princess in 1958, and queen in 1959.

Fair Seeks Queen

Benton-Franklin Fair and Rodeo is looking for single girls between the ages of 17 and 20 with personality, good looks and a horse.

A queen and three princesses will be selected to reign over the fair and rodeo and ride in numerous parades throughout the summer.

THE QUEEN AND COURT will be named about March 15. All applications must be turned in to the Kennewick Chamber of Commerce office by Feb. 20. Application forms may be picked up at any chamber office in Benton or Franklin county.

Mrs. David Garrett, 904 S. Alder St., Kennewick, is chairman of the queen committee for the Benton County Mounted Posse Auxiliary. She says any girl who will be 17 before June 1 and not be 21 before Sept. 20 is eligible.

THE AUXILIARY WILL provide uniforms for the court, with the exception of boots and belts. The girls must own a horse or have access to a horse for the year.

Queen and court will be selected in private judging by a panel from the fair board, the posse and the Kennewick chamber. Judging is based on personality, public-speaking ability, horsemanship, general appearance and the cooperation of parents.

Boots To Be Filled

Some Tri-City girl between 17-20 years old will be chosen soon to fill 1963 Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo Queen LaNay Munsey's boots for 1964. Applications of candidates for a spot on the court this year will be taken until Feb. 20 at any local chamber of commerce office. Applicant must have her own horse and know how to handle it. Last year's Princesses Lee Ann Hamilton and Janet Heiser, Kennewick, and Vicki Smith, Richland, will also step aside.

Miss Munsey

14 Girls Seek Title Of Queen

Fourteen Tri-City area girls are competing for Queen of the Benton - Franklin County Fair and Rodeo.

Mrs. David Garrett, chairman of the queen's committee, said today that all but two of the girls are from Kennewick and Pasco. One is from Benton City and one is from Mesa.

Only the names of the girls chosen queen and princesses will be announced.

The girls will be judged on their riding ability, personality and appearance.

The judging committee is made up of the queen's committee, two members of the fair board, two members of the Kennewick Chamber of Commerce, and the Benton County Mounted Police queen committee.

1964 Fair Queen Fitted

Being fitted for a hat was Lee Ann Hamilton, 1964 queen of the Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo. She is the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hamilton, 902 W. 10th Ave., Kennewick, and a coed at Columbia Basin College. Princesses, from left, were Marilynn Cunningham, 17, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Rindt, 2500 E. Lewis St., Pasco; Louise Schulke, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schulke, 2913 W. Hood Ave., Kennewick, and Marcella Chapman, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Chapman, 215 E. 36th Ave., Kennewick. The girls were selected from 14 candidates. The coronation ball will be April 18, Mrs. William Kelly, publicity chairman announced.

Wheat Grower Still Hopeful

Ed Wilkerson, Horse Heaven rancher and president of the Benton County Association of Wheat Growers, hasn't let a 74-year record drought dampen his hopes for a dryland wheat crop this year. He showed his children, Janice, 9, and Larry, 12, a head of wheat that has formed inside the stalk from last year's moisture that was stored in the soil. He looked hopefully at today's gathering clouds in hopes they would produce the one rain needed to mature the wheat crop and greatly reduce drought losses in Benton and Franklin Counties.

Junior Rodeo Set This Weekend

The third annual Benton County Junior Rodeo, one of the largest in the Northwest, will be this weekend at the Fairgrounds in Kennewick, sponsored by the Benton County Mounted Posse and Junior Posse.

More than 200 entries from Washington, Oregon, Idaho and California are expected before the books close at 10 tonight.

Events include cow - riding, steer-riding, calf - riding, steer-undecorating, calf - roping, team - roping, barrel - racing and pole-bending. The age classifications include 12 and under, junior division (12 to 14) and senior division (15 to 18).

Boys and girls will compete for $700 in prizes plus trophies. The all-around junior cowboy champion will receive a $250 hand - made saddle. There also will be a prize for the all-around champion cowgirl.

Rodeo performances will be Saturday at 1 and 8 p.m., and again on Sunday at 1 p.m. Tickets are $1 each and are available from members of the Mounted Posse and Junior Posse.

In charge of the rodeo for the Mounted Posse are Bernie Chapman and Tom Surplus.

Bill Weaver of the Tri-City Sky Divers will parachute into the Fairgrounds arena to open the Saturday afternoon performance.

Similar junior rodeos are also held in Benton City, Starbuck, Finley and West Richland. The junior rodeo is an annual community project of the Benton County Mounted Posse with assistance from the Junior Posse.

Float To Visit Spokane

This Tri-City float will be entered in Saturday's Lilac Festival at Spokane. It won second place in its division at the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival and at the Milton-Freewater Pea Festival. Pictured on the float were (front to rear) Lee Ann Hamilton, representing Miss Kennewick; Tamara Small, Miss Pasco, and Wendy Walker, Miss Tri-Cities.

B-F Rodeo Royalty To Appear

Three appearances are scheduled during the next two weekends for Queen Lee Ann Hamilton and the royal court of the Benton - Franklin County Fair and Rodeo.

Saturday the court will ride in the Dayton Days parade at Dayton. On Sunday, the court will appear in the Benton County Junior Rodeo at the Kennewick Fairgrounds and will present the awards to the winners at the close of Sunday's rodeo.

On June 13 Queen Lee Ann and her princesses will appear at the Lind Rodeo and Parade.

The princesses are Marilyn Cunningham, Louise Shulke and Marcella Chapman.

Tri-Citian Is Named Director

John Gravenslund, Kennewick, was elected to the board of directors of Liberty Savings and Loan Association at a directors' meeting in Yakima yesterday.

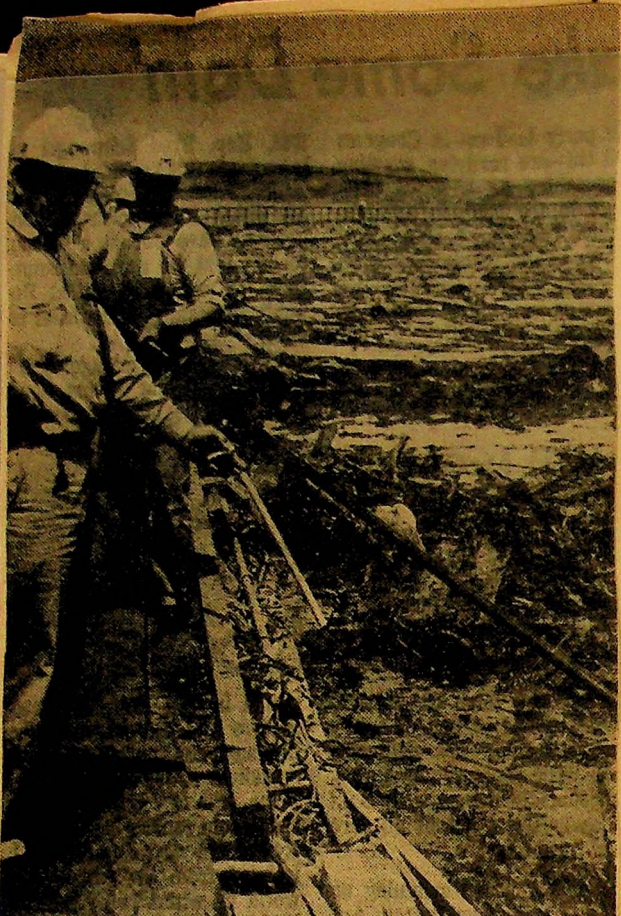

Gravenslund is owner - manager of the Washington Hardware and Furniture Co.; secretary - treasurer of Sunshine Credit Corporation; president of Civic Investors, Inc.; and co-owner of All - Sports Sporting Goods Store.

He is a director of the Association of Washington Industries, a member of the executive committee of the Washington Retail Council, and a past president of the Kennewick Chamber of Commerce.

In 1961 he received the Junior Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Service award. He was Kennewick's "Man of the Year" in 1962.

Gravenslund, 36, has three children, 9, 7, and 4. He graduated from Whitman College in 1952 with a degree in business administration.

Liberty has offices in Yakima, Grandview, and Kennewick with assets of over $16,500,000.

Harvey Redden, 2105 W. 21st Ave., Kennewick, was pictured yesterday pointing to where he discovered the body of 3-year-old Harold Judd, Orofino, Idaho, near Ice Harbor Dam.

Kennewick Father Identifies Dead Boy As His Son, 3

Positive identification of the body of a 3-year-old Orofino, Idaho, boy found yesterday near Ice Harbor Dam has been made by the boy's father and grandfather.

Identified was Harold Judd, who drowned April 24 in Orofino Creek near his home.

WALLA WALLA COUNTY Sheriff deputies reported the youngster fell into the creek while playing with older youngsters who were swimming April 24.

His body was carried into the Clearwater River, into the Snake River at Lewiston, and to Ice Harbor — some 150 miles.

His father, Clinton Judd, Kennewick (who is separated from Harold's mother) and his grandfather, George Zipse, 360 S. Oak St., Kennewick, identified the body at DeWitt's Funeral Home, Walla Walla.

BODY WAS FOUND

The body was found yesterday noon by Harvey Redden, 2105 W. 21st Ave., Kennewick, a Corps of Engineers maintenance foreman. Redden said he discovered the body a few feet from a conveyor belt which lifts logs and debris from the water after three men working there quit for lunch.

The three men, working with grappling poles, had been pushing debris onto the conveyor. They did not see the body.

Redden was returning along a walkway from inspecting logs caught behind the boom which keeps them from entering the spillways at the dam.

LOY M. KENEDY, WALLA Walla County coroner, said cold water preserved the body. The boy was wearing tennis shoes and a swimming suit.

Bob Kress, project engineer, said the body could have been

Horse Rider Hurt In Fall

Kathleen Sargent, 14, Kennewick, was listed in "fairly good" condition at noon today at Kennewick General Hospital. She was taken there yesterday afternoon after a horse riding accident at Kennewick rodeo grounds.

Miss Sargent and her friend, Susan Perry, 13, also Kennewick, were riding around the track when Kathleen's horse suddenly turned toward a gate. The girl went over the horse's head and struck her head on a piece of metal on top of a fence post. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sargent, 1626 S. Dayton Place.

Tri-City Girl Joins Circus

Most children dream of joining a circus, but Barbara Keene, 15, Kennewick, is going to do it.

Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Keene, 421 W. Kennewick Ave., will leave Friday to join the Wenatchee Youth Circus for the summer. She is the only performer from the Tri-Cities in the 75-member troupe.

The circus, which is managed by Paul Pugh, Wenatchee, is staffed entirely by boys and girls, aged 4-18.

Barbara expects to do some juggling and tumbling and assist in other duties, including dismantling and reassembling of the show between stops. Members receive no pay.

The Youth Circus will appear next week at the Portland Rose Festival, continue down the Oregon coast to San Francisco then to Walla Walla, Lewiston, O'Fallon, and Banff, B.C., and other Canadian points.

The final performance will be in Wenatchee the night before Barbara must enroll for her sophomore year classes in Kennewick.

Rusty Tiwater, 15, left, and John Beckner, 16, Finley, limbered up their horses today to try for prizes in Saturday and Sunday's Second Annual Finley Junior Rodeo. The event will be staged at the rodeo grounds south of Finley under sponsorship of the Columbia River Stampede.

Finley Hosts Junior Rodeo

About 100 contestants from three states will compete for $600 in prizes Saturday and Sunday at the second annual Finley Junior Rodeo.

Arena events will begin at 1 p.m. both days at the rodeo grounds on Finley Road, two miles south of River View School. The sponsoring Columbia River Stampede invite the Tri-City public to attend with no admission charge.

Mrs. Dan Chavez, rodeo spokesman, said teams and individuals have registered from the Tri-Cities, West Richland, Benton City, Othello, Walla Walla, Pendleton and Adams, Ore., and Lewiston. Prizes will include trophy buckles and an all-around championship trophy saddle.

Events are scheduled for juniors from 7-13 and senior youth riders from 14-18. They include: cow, steer and calf-riding, barrel-racing, pole - bending and calf - roping, one - fourth mile stockhorse racing, and steer undecorating for both juniors and seniors.

A cowboy breakfast will be served at the grounds from 6:30-10 a.m. Sunday. Climax to Saturday's events will be an outdoor dance at River View School tennis court.

New 4-H Trophy Sections For Horse Fair Announced

A champion trophy will be awarded for the first time in each of the 4-H junior and senior performance sections during the 4-H Horse Fair.

They will be presented by the Benton County Mounted Posse.

The 4-H Horse Fair will be Aug. 22-23, while the four-day Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo will be Aug. 27-30.

Other groups which will present special awards to various winners during the fair include: Franklin County Cattlemen's Association, Benton County Cattlemen's Association, Franklin County Sheepmen's Association, American Shorthorn Association, The American Angus Association, and the Columbia Basin Angus Association.

The Economy service stations in Pasco will present a trophy to the club winning the horse herdsmanship.

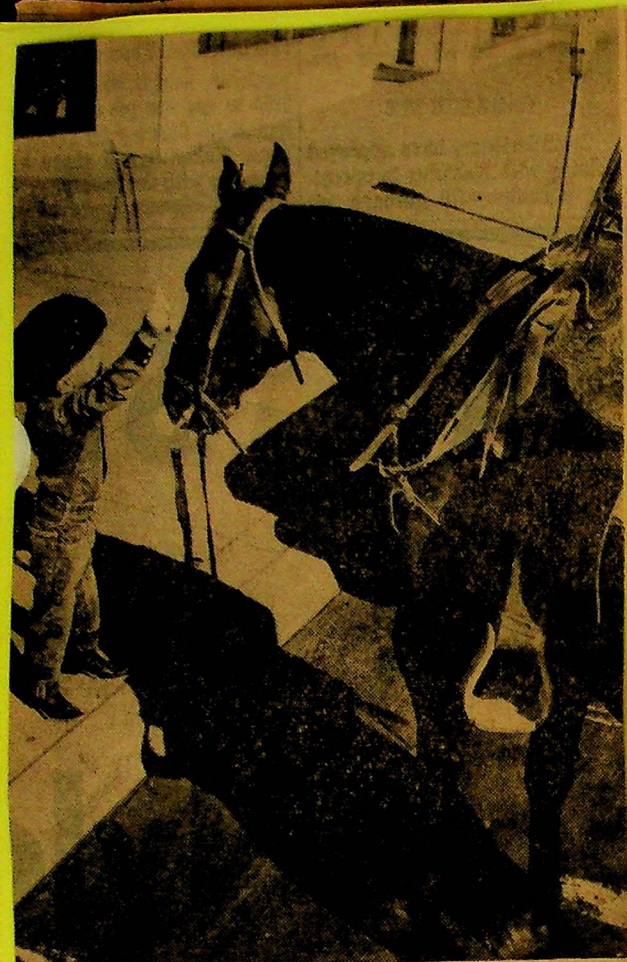

Special awards will go to those making the best whole loaf of yeast bread from the Benton and Franklin County Associations of Wheat Growers; canned foods (fruit, vegetable or meat), Kerr Glass Corp; baked and preserved foods, U & I Sugar Co.; hand-woven articles, Handweaver & Craftsman Mag-chetted materials, National Handazine Co.; hand knitted or cro-Knitting Yarn Association.

John Gravenslund, 4, of 1929 W. 10th Ave., Kennewick, tied his dad's horse to one of the tie rings that still exist along the curbs in Pasco's business district, and promptly drew a parking ticket. Back in 1910, a rider could have been tossed in jail under an ordinance which forbade tethering a steed more than six hours. John's father is captain of the Benton County Mounted Posse, which will sponsor the Aug. 28-30 Benton Franklin County Rodeo.

Local Queens Visit Seafair

Prosser Float Is Winner At Benton Junior Fair

Prosser Chamber of Commerce float was awarded grand sweepstakes prize in the Benton County Junior Fair parade Saturday in Benton City.

More than 40 floats, bands, drill teams and mounted units participated in the parade, which was followed by the march of champions at the fairgrounds.

Miss Prosser, Melva Grand, and princesses Linda Hileman and Maureen Lemon were riding on the sweepstakes float, which used the state's diamond jubilee as its theme.

The float featured large diamonds in motion in the forward portion and used extensive flowers and a garden house in the shape of a jewel for its decor.

Tri-City Electric Utilities, Richland, was judged top commercial float. Best organizational float was awarded Rebecca Lodge, Benton City.

Benton City Rainbow Girls float was first in the junior-organizational division.

Benton City Wranglers was first in the senior mounted groups.

Bit-N-Spur 4-H Club, Kennewick, won the junior mounted trophy.

Grandview High School was best marching band.

Steve and Doug Davis, Benton City, won the children's division. Winners of the novelty trophy were Dave Nelson and Joe Garner, Benton City.

Stanton Heads Entry List For B-F Rodeo

Ken Stanton, 22-year-old Idaho cowboy, heads the roster of early entries for the annual Benton - Franklin County Fair Rodeo to be held Friday through Sunday in Kennewick.

Stanton, who finished 11th among the rodeo pros in money won for 1963, will pace a field of other top cowboys in pursuit of a prize - money package expected to approach $15,000.

There were 132 entries logged in the 1963 rodeo with individual money honors going to Mac Griffith, Pilot Rock, Ore., who won both saddle - bronc riding and bull riding. Griffith picked $1,113 for his two event efforts.

STANTON, WHO competes in bareback - bronc riding and bull riding, banked $18,592 for the 1963 rodeo season, and has collected $12,299 so far this season. The wiry, 140-pound Stanton now is in his fourth pro season.

Other top hands who have indicated they will compete here this year are: Louie Torricellas and Gene Miles, both of Eugene. Torricellas, 33, concentrates on calf roping and steer wrestling events. Miles, 37, is a steer - wrestling veteran who lists victories at the Pendleton Roundup and the Ellensburg Rodeo among his past wins.

AS ONE OF the more than 500 rodeos approved each year by the professional Rodeo Cowboys Association, competition in the Kennewick arena will be conducted under nationally recognized rules which assures top bucking stock in hard - fought action open to the best cowboys in the game.

On the rodeo event roster this year are: saddle and bareback-bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping, steer wrestling and a wild horse race. Rodeo livestock will be furnished by Joe Kelsey, Tonasket.

Prize money won in competition here will be credited to the sport's world championship title standings.

RODEO CHAMPIONSHIPS are determined by the simple method of who wins the most money in an event during the almost year - round season. Competition winds up in December at the title playoffs, called the National Finals, to

FAIR GROUNDS IN KENNEWICK

Lee Ann Hamilton, queen of the Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo, presented a trophy to Holly Herron, Kahlotus Roadrunners 4-H Club. Miss Herron won the championship in the Junior English Pleasure class at the Benton-Franklin County 4-H Horse Show.

Ringold Ranglers Win Team Event In 4-H Contest

Franklin County's Ringold Ranglers took the team championship Sunday at the Benton-Franklin County 4-H Horse Fair in Kennewick.

Members were Sally Cottrel, Jackie Watson, Lou Berg and Donna Koontz, all of Mesa.

Richland Chapman, Saddle Tramps 4-H Club, Kennewick, was named champion in the Senior Western Equitation Class. Senior Western Pleasure trophy was awarded Barbara Lingren, Pasco Tally-Ho 4-H Club.

Fair To Open Thursday

'How The West Was Won!'

The spirit of the Wild West has returned to Kennewick in preparation for the Benton-Franklin County Fair and Rodeo this week. In an enactment of bygone years, John Gravenslund, 4, left, gets set to pace-off against Tracy Smith, 7, in a duel for the affections of Toni Garrett, 4. Toni appears a little apprehensive over the outcome. Western dress prevails in the Tri-Cities this week in preparation for the fair which gets underway Thursday morning at the fairgrounds.

4 Divisions Set In Kiddies Parade

There will be four divisions in the annual Kiddies' Parade at 10 a.m., Aug. 28 in downtown Kennewick.

Parade arrangements are being handled for the seventh consecutive year by the Kennewick Junior Women's Club.

Participants should assemble at First Avenue and Washington Street.

Kennewick Junior Women's Club will furnish cash prizes. There will be ice cream for each child in costume.

The divisions will be pets, costumes (age 7 and under), costumes (age 8 and older), and wheeled vehicles.

In addition to the registration blank printed here, they are also available at the three Tri-City chambers of commerce.

Judges will be Walt Woehler, Robert Cohen, A. H. Block and Mrs. John Kennell.

Women Sell Tickets

Lyle Simmelink, Kennewick, bought tickets for the Benton-Franklin county rodeo from Mrs. Ed Wilkerson, left, and Mrs. Dave Garrett at the Little Red Barn ticket booth set up in downtown Kennewick. Both rodeo and roller derby reserved seats are on sale from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily at the booth manned by ladies of the Benton County Mounted Posse auxiliary. Roller derby is 8 p.m. Thursday and 2 p.m. Friday with rodeo performances Friday and Saturday nights and Sunday afternoon at the fairgrounds in Kennewick.

Judy Hille, 20, of 716 W. 22nd Ave., Kennewick, gave Ken Bowman's beard a tug to see if it was real. Bowman, 24, of 2420 S. Everett Pl., Kennewick, is growing the beard for the Kennewick Junior Chamber of Commerce beard - growing contest Thursday. Monday through Friday is also Western Dress Week for downtown merchants and shoppers. Other Benton - Franklin Fair week activities sponsored by the Jaycees include downtown window painting and street dances Wednesday and Thursday.
