

Artistic
Rustic
Work

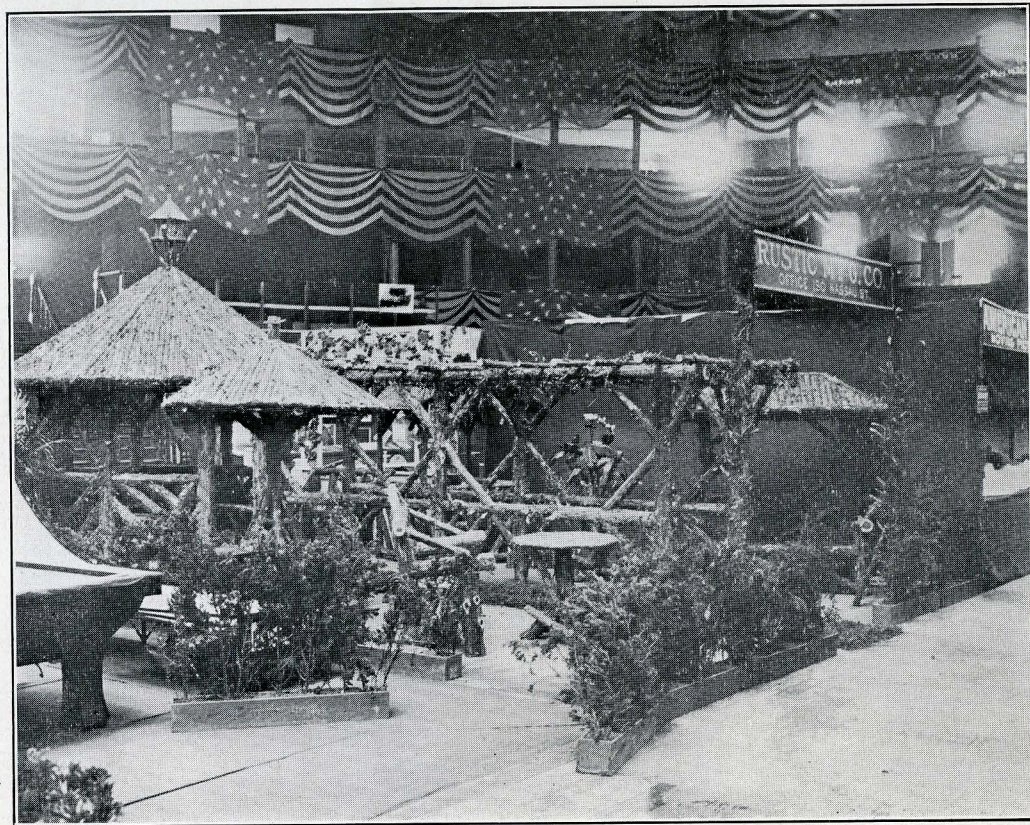

THE object of this catalogue is to give an idea of the artistic beauty of rustic structures and the variety of objects that may be made of natural wood. It is manifestly impossible to illustrate or describe the many styles and forms in which rustic work may be applied, but we are glad at all times to make suggestions and submit special designs for anything in the rustic line that may be desired. The principal and most durable material we use for out of door structures is our native red Cedar (Juniperus Virginiana) and we recommend this on account of its artistic rustic appearance as well as durability, but when desired we can use Oak, Birch, Spruce or any other kind of wood. We own large groves of red Cedar and other trees and our facilities for shipping and construction are such that we can give our clients the benefit of lower prices that cannot positively be obtained elsewhere. Our work is done in the very best manner by experienced rustic builders to the entire satisfaction of our clients and we can refer to such in many parts of the country.
