Third Ward Democrat Cluo Has Thanksgiving Masquerade

A variety of costumed characters —historical, fanciful, and comical— fraternized with each other last night at the Union Club Building, at the annual mask and civic ball given by the Third Ward Democratic Club, Inc., of Hoboken, of which Edward Florio is executive member.

Those among the capacity crowd who did not masquerade for the occasion, had a hysterical time of it as the costume wearer — Spanish dons, pirates, phantoms, goblins, Mae Wests, soldiers, and a host of other impersonators—sent them into gales of laughter with their antics.

In quality and quantity of entertainment, the ball matched the ragamuffin parade staked by the Third Warders yesterday morning, with some 300 members of the club and its Auxiliary taking part in a march over streets in the western section of the city. Despite the unpleasant weather, there were hundreds out to watch the mummers, who were led by the Hudson County Boys' Club band.

Paraders Attend Ball.

All of those who took part in the parade were among the guests at the ball last night, and many of their number were presented with prizes as wearers of the best, the most unique, and funniest costumes.

The ordinarily sedate Edward Florio, garbed in sheik-like robes, led his members in the morning parade. His band of followers, some mounted on horses which have seen much better days, came after him in a dancing, singing line. "Diamond Jim" Brady and his gang, silk-hatted and in formal morning wear, rode in state in an open car.

Florio, with Michael Borelli, president of the Third Ward Club, headed the reception line at the ball. Among those whom he greeted were Assemblymen Benedict A. Beronio and Robert McAlevy,, Counselor Charles De Fazio, Freeholder Edward Murnane, John F. Lewis, secretary to the Board of Education; James J. Rutherford, secretary to Mayor McFeely; Michael S. J. Rabbia, former Assemblyman Frank Bucian, Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. De Sapio, with a large delegation from the De Sapio association; Joseph T. Lisa, with a group from his clug; District Court Constable John Caruso, leading a delegation from his association.

Also Franklin J. Verasco, Robert Hyland, Rocco Gratale, Peter Lisa, Frank Cardinale, Joseph "Daddy" Branda, friend of the Third Ward children; Joseph Quaglieri, secretary of the Third Ward club; Joseph Borelli, and many others.

Chairman of committees which handled arrangements for the affair was James La Brush, who was assisted by Florio, Borelli, Carmine Corrado, Patsy La Brush, Edward Girone, Anthony Fortunato, John Caruso, Victor Borelli, Babe Shammy, Joe Biggie, Leonard Juliano, Michael Bucino, Tilyou Molinari and Charles Theresa.

Master of ceremonies in presentation of the entertainment at the ball was Joe Biggie, widely known blackface comedian, who was in character as he presented each of the professional artists.

FRENCH WOMEN TO GET HOME CHOICE

French husbands will have to follow their wives in the future, if a member's bill now before Parliament is passed.

At present French law compels the wife to follow her husband "everywhere"—even to a home she dislikes. She can be divorced on grounds of leaving the legal domicile if she takes a dislike to the house or apartment and finds a nicer one for herself.

A French wife may not, at present, rent a dwelling without her husband's consent. But by the proposed law, madame may be permitted to have her own home if she has good reason for requiring to do so.

Record Throng of 8,000 at Ball Reaffirms Confidence In Leadership of McFeely

Greatest Outpouring in 32-Year History of Association Attends Event in Grand View Hall as Emphatic Refutation of Post's Attacks

By far topping any heights of attendance and enthusiasm they reached in prior years, close to 8,000 loyal Democrats of Hoboken provided emphatic refutation to critics of that city's mayor, Mayor Bernard N. McFeely, Saturday night, when they gathered in crushing numbers at Grand View Auditorium, Jersey City, forcefully to reaffirm their faith in his party leadership and civic administration.

If ever a man was given a heartwarming demonstration of friendship, loyalty and admiration, that man was "Barney" McFeely—the target some weeks ago of bitter, personal attack by the New York Post, and the possessor now of what must be a deep, personal gratification over the striking defense of a renewed fealty by his followers.

The vehicle for this impressive display of party strength was the spring dance of the B. N. McFeely Association, of which the mayor is standard bearer, and the consensus has it that this was the most successful event in the club's thirty-two years of existence.

Laud Hoboken Mayor and Hit Post Attacks

Third Ward Club and Liquor Dealers Join in Protest of Attacks

Two more Hoboken organizations, the Third Ward Democratic Club, Inc., and the Hoboken Liquor Dealers' Association, have entered spirited defense of Mayor Bernard N. Mcfeely and vigorous protest on the series of articles against the city administration currently running in the New York Post.

The Third Warders, meeting last night in its clubrooms, 420 Jefferson street, adopted resolutions placing it on record "as opposed to the slanderous remarks of a New York newspaper against Mayor McFeely and the city administration."

The executive board of the liquor dealers' group, Theodore C. Bazzini, presiding, met yesterday afternoon at Odd Fellows Hall. Bazzini addressed the men, whose consensus was that the efforts of Mayor McFeely in the past, in the interests of Hoboken citizens, are "deserving of the highest praise."

Suggest Boycott

Boycott of the Post was urged at the Third Ward meeting by Edward Florio, executive member, who called upon his membership to "stand united behind our Mayor." Michael S. J. Rabbia also spoke in praise of the resolution condemning the newspaper.

"To the people in Hoboken," Bazzini said, addressing the liquor dealers, "the articles appearing in a New York newspaper are at first laughable. But when we become serious and realize that the name of our Mayor and the city of Hoboken is being villified, we must, as citizens of Hoboken, come to the defense of our Mayor and of the city in which we live and have reared our families."

Lauds City Official

"To our Mayor," he continued, belongs the credit for the clean city in which we live, free from the vice that exists in other cities.

"To our Mayor and Police Chief Edward J. McFeely belong the credit of Hoboken having a police department tsecond to none in efficiency.

"To our Mayor belongs the credit for keeping the city streets clean and healthful and not in such a condition as this certain New York paper would make it appear.

"To the people of Hoboken, who have voted him back into office term after term, Mayor McFeely needs no defenders, for the vote of confidence given him at elections proves, beyond any doubt, that he is a capable and efficient official."

Over 2,000 Attend Colorful Ball of Third Ward Democrats

Successful Event Marks End of Gay Observance of Thanksgiving That Had Opened in Morning With Mummers' Parade

A rich variety of costumes was in evidence last night at the Union Club Building, Hoboken, where that city's Third Ward Democratic Club, Inc., completed its annual and colorful Thanksgiving Day Observance with a mask and civic ball which drew an attendance of well over 2,000 persons.

The club had engaged the main and auxiliary ballrooms but so large was the turnout of merrymakers that practically every other facility of the building was pressed into service to accommodate the throng. By 10 o'clock both ballroom and grill were jammed to capacity and at the heights of the evening the attendance was at one of the highest peaks in Union Club building history.

The Third Warders' celebration of the day began yesterday morning with a ragamuffins' parade in which 350 members and their friends took part. Membership festivities were continued during the afternoon and evening at the clubrooms, 420 Jefferson street.

Getting underway at 10 a. m. the mummers followed a circuitous line of march through the city, marching to the music of the Hoboken Boys' Club and St. Ann's Drum and Bugle Corps. Branda Planning Annual May Walk

Over 3,000 Children Will Participate in Event in Third Ward

Among the more important events of the year for 3,000 children of Hoboken's Third Ward, is the May Walk given them annually under the patronge of Joseph "Daddy" Branda and his fellow members of the Third Ward Democrtic Club, Inc.

Edward Florio, executive member of the club, is serving as treasurer of the committee, with Michael Borelli, president, aiding the chairmanship of "Daddy" Branda. The walk will be held Sundy, May 7, starting at the Third Warders' clubrooms, 420 Jefferson street, and going through streets in the western section of the city to one of the parks where the kiddies will be served refreshments.

"Daddy" Branda, who has long been a beloved patron to the Third Ward youngsters, inaugurated the May walk about six years ago and it has since grown to such popularity that he was constrained to bring in the children of neighboring wards and enlisted the help of the Third Ward Club properly to arrange the many details of such an event.

Dance Aided Fund

Some weeks ago the club sponsored a dance to raise funds partially to defray expenses of the walk. The affair was an outstanding success and promises, as a result, many new features for the participant children.

On the general committee are James LaBrush, Joseph Biggie, Frank Pasquale, Peter La Barbiera, Joseph Aurigemma, Fred Mascolo, Vincent Yaccarine, Tony LaBrush, Joseph Del Boccio, Eugene Pensari, Tilyou Molinari, of the Court House staff, former Assemblyman Frank Bucino and Frank Nelson, all of whom are active in the Third Warders' work.

CHILDREN RULE THIRD WARD IN GAY MAY WALK

Several Thousand Guests of "Daddy" Branda and His Aides.

Favored by ideal weather for the occasion, the second annual May walk, given for children of Hoboken's Third Ward, by Joseph "Daddy" Branda, was a huge success yesterday.

Several thousand boys and girls took part in the colorful event, many of them costumed in fanciful array. As winners of the popularity contest staged for the past six weeks, Frank Pascale and Anna Buocco were "king" and "queen" of the walk, with Michael Cusimano and Mary Petronzio as "prince" and "princess."

Wearing the royal purple, these children rode in regal style in the rear of a big open car, provoking applause from the many who lined streets over which the children marched in the Italian section.

Bands Win Applause

Marching music was furnished by three fife, drum and bugle corps. The senior band of the Hudson County Boys Club, presenting a snappy appearance in their red and white uniforms, made a big hit with spectators, as did the club's junior unit, and the Hoboken Playground Band, under the direction of Julius Durstewitz.

"Daddy" Branda, through whose generosity the children of the ward enjoyed not only the May walk, but other social events during the year, led the parade. There was a large contingent of the Third Warders who walked with the children, and later reviewed the procession from a grand stand erected in front of the Third Ward Democratic Club headquarters, 420 Jefferson street. Club members had aided Branda in arrangements for the event.

Pleasing Event Aids Fund for "Daddy" Branda's May Festival.

So talented were the local entertainers who took part in the amateur show given Saturday night by Joseph "Daddy" Branda and the Third Ward Democratic Club, Inc., of Hoboken, that an enthusiastic audience had a difficult time choosing the prize winners.

Many prominent local folk and delegations from other political and social clubs of the city made up a throng which filled the spacious auditorium of Public School No. 3, Fifth and Adams streets.

Mayor McFeely and the City Commissioners dropped in during the evening, and others among the guests of honor were Assemblyman Benedict A. Beronio and E. Norman Wilson, Freeholder James J. Rueherford, Recorder Frank Romano, Fred M. De Sapio, with a delegation from his association.

Every variety of entertainment was offered by the young men and women who took part in the show, and the audience was so lavish with its applause that several encores were needed for final determination of the winners.

Prize Winners

First honors went to Miss Joan Nolan. Second prize went to the York Sextet. James Dervin was the runner-up. Fourth and fifth prizes were awarded to Edith Martin and Viola Striano, respectively. In the kiddies' contest the first prize went to Walter Kibbler, second to Maria Quinton and third to Dorothy Jordan. Cash gifts were given the winners.

"Daddy" Branda, belcved patron of the Third Ward children, was given a great reception by the big audience when he was introduced from the stage by Artie Dann, of Warner Bros. Fabian Theatre, who acted as master of ceremonies.

Branda each year is host to almost 5,000 children of the ward on a May walk. The event is to be held this year on Sunday, May 16, and it was to partially defray expenses of the party that the amateur show and dance was given. Fellow-members of the Third Ward Club insisted on joining with "Daddy" in entertaining the youngsters.

Branda spoke briefly, outlining his ambitious plans for the walk. The children will be colorfully costumed, and after parading through the western section of the city will be awarded prizes and served with refreshments.

Gehringer Will Keep On His Playing

New York, May 7. — Baseball's mechanical man—Charley Gehringer —whose thirty-seventh birthday this Saturday makes him the oldest regular player in the major league, has no intention of hanging up his spikes unless Father Time puts him in a wheelchair.

"I guess I'm pretty old as ball players go at that," Gehringer said. "There are only two players on the Yankees who were in the league when I arrived and they were with other clubs. I mean Red Ruffing, who was with the Red Sox and Bump Hadley, who was with Washington. I can't think of anybody on the Tigers now who was with the team when I joined it."

Records show that Gehringer is now in his seventeenth season and, before today's game with the Yankees, had played in 2,028 league contests. He looked about as ready for the shelf as a player in his "teens" yesterday as he slashed out a homer and a single, and stole a base.

"You feel your age soon enough in this business," said Gehringer. "I haven't noticed it at bat and I think I can keep hitting as long as my eyes are okay. They never bother me anyhow.

"But in the field it's different. That's where Father Time puts the handcuffs on you. I can't get the jump on the ball like I used to."

This spring Gehringer went so far as to contemplate quitting baseball after he hurt his back shoveling snow during the winter at his Detroit home. It bothered him so, he played in only one exhibition game.

Before more than 300 persons in Hudson Square Park, Hoboken, the Geismar Prep Softball League got under way yesterday afternoon, with Frank P. Romano, Commissioner of Parks and Public Property, lending official impetus to the affair by tossing out the first ball.

In the first tilt, the Second Ward squad slammed out a lopsided 18 to 3 decision over a weak-hitting First Ward team, with Jerry De Milia getting a round trip with two men on base by slamming a ball into deep left field. The First Warders aided in their downfall by ten miscues during the tilt, which was called at the end of five innings because of the onesided score.

The second game was more even as the Fourth Ward aggregation stopped the Third Ward representatives to the tune of 5 to 0 in a tilt which was closer than the score indicates. Both twirlers walked a number of batters, with the winners getting seven bingles to the loser's six.

At ceremonies on the pitcher's mound, Joe Biggio announced the opening games and the batteries. Others present were Yorke Callabro, Tony Calland, umpire, and Hoboken representative of the proposed county softball league; Bond; Walter Geismar, sponsor of the league, and Ben London, manager of the Geismar Store Prep Shop.

Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, the starting time for all games, the Fifth Ward will face SS. Peter and Paul's team in the first game, while Our Lady of Grace will meet St. Joseph's in the nightcap.

MADISON CLUB SHOW SCORES

Crowd of 1,500 Witnesses Group's Seventeenth Annual Minstrel.

Talented members of the Madison A. C., of Hoboken, were accorded enthusiastic applause, and forced to answer many encores, Saturday night, by an audience of 1,500 persons who thoroughly enjoyed features of the organization's seventeenth annual minstrel show, entitled "Harmony Cruise."

The spacious auditorium of the Brandt Junior High School, Ninth and Garden streets, was jammed to its doors by the throng that turned out for the occasion. Following the show, there was general dancing to music by Prof. Frank Pichetto's orchestra.

The blackface end men in the minstrel—Joseph Biggie, Walter Barnitt, J. Papa, F. Pompy, William Boman, and Walter Dunn—kept the audience in gales of laughter with their timely witticism, and a snappy exchange of repartee. Some of those in the audience were made the butt of good-natured jibes, and as familiar names were sounded in the comedy relief, there was great hilarity.

Commendable Performance.

The show generally was a merry melange of song, dance and humor, and the smoothness of its presentation bespoke the weeks of diligent rehearsal by the cast. The performance was one which would have reflected credit to a professional cast.

Joseph Milne was interlocutor, a position he has filled since the inception of the Madisons' annual shows. The soloists were William Lilienthal, Frank Pompy, Master Edward Beasty, William Grady, George Harper, "the Singing Milkman"; Joseph Paua, Joseph Biggie, William Reynolds, W. Costello, William Boman, Louis Chiocco and Walter Dunn.

Especially well received were the dance interpretations of the three Tagliareri brothers, and the comedy of Joe Biggie, veteran end man in the minstrel presentations. A chorus of 35 members of the club, garbed in colorful costume, and seated against attractive scenic backdrops, joined in rendition of each selection following initial offering by the soloists.

Officers of the Madison A. C. made up the reception commttee. They are Walter Barnitt, president; William Beasty, vice president; Joseph Dettmering, financial secretary; William Bollendonk, recording secretary; Fred Finkeldie, treasurer; Harry Cuneo, sergeant-at-arms; Frank Pagnatti, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Thomas Beasty, chairman of the executive committee, was assisted by Larry Buckelew, John Giani, H. Ward, B. Stra[illegible] H. Robinson, O. Gunderson, W[illegible] H. Cu[illegible] John Ratto, W[illegible]

AMATEURS RULE IN BRANDA SHOW

Theatre Is Packed to Hear Unique Program of Benefit Event.

Before a packed house in the Rialto Theatre, Hudson street, talented amateurs of Hoboken and neighboring communities drew rounds of applause last night, with their variety of offerings in the benefit amateur show sponsored by Joseph "Daddy" Branda, and the Third Ward Democratic Club, Inc., of Hoboken.

Success of the affair, due largely to a committee of Third Warders working under the executive direction of "Daddy" Branda, patron of the ward children, ensures a delightful May walk for the kiddies this year. Branda has for some years past sponsored this treat for the youngsters, and it is largely through this that he has acquired the affectionate soubriquet of "Daddy" with the children.

Frank "Babe" Shammy was general chairman of arrangements; Joseph Biggie handled the arduous details of tentertainment; Charles Therese was in charge of finance, and Counselor Charles G. Carluccio directed publicity. William Schuesel, of Warner Bros. Fabian Theatre, acted as master of ceremonies.

Prize Winners Announced

Prize winners, first to fourth respectively, were Selma Bright, Sadie Grazioso, Philip Parker, Artie Young. Fifth place honors were split between Albert A. Corrado and Al Lewis.

Former Assemblyman Frank Bucino was given a big hand as he bespoke the Third Warders' welcome to the gathering. Also well received was Branda, who was forced to respond to insistent calls with a vocal selection, thus further adding to his laurels.

Included in the audience were Dr. Joseph Visconti, Dr. Alfred Zitzni, Harold Butler, ERA director; James J. Rutherford, secretary to Mayor McFeely, Assemblyman and Mrs. Benedict A. Beronio, Freeholder Murnane, and many others of local note. Edward Florio, executive member of the Third Ward Club, and Michael Borelli, its president, whose efforts contributed materially to the success of the evening, were also among honored guests.

The Drs. Visconti, James and Joseph, were hosts earlier this week to 350 of the Third Ward members and friends at an informal dinner in the clubrooms, 420 Jefferson street. Joseph Borelli, president of the Hudson County Grocers and Delicatessen Owners Association, was toastmaster.

A number of the club members, including Florio, Borelli, Carluccio, former Assemblyman Bucino, were among the speakers, as were Recorder Romano, Fred M. De Sapio, Counselor August Ghelli, Drs. Dougherty, Peluso, Marano and Barile, Rocco Gratale, and many others.

RAILROAD CHECKERS TO DINE AND DANCE

Checkers employed at the Hoboken terminal of the D., L. and W. Railroad have completed plans for their first annual banquet and entertainment, which is to be held at Salings Hall, Newark and Henderson streets, tomorrow night. More than sixty-five employes, their wives, families and sweethearts will be in attendance at the event, according to reports of the arrangements committee, and a delightful evening is anticipated.

Frank Zatta is chairman of the committee and he has secured professional talent to entertain. Music for dancing will be furnished by a local orchestra, while other feature novelties will be in order during the evening. Harry Ostrander, Harry Hogrese and Joseph Yaccarino are assisting Zatta in the completion of plans.

BIGGIO IS HOST TO THRONG OF FRIENDS

Joe Biggie and his Blackbirds were hosts at a dance Saturday night to a crowd which filled the George T. Harper Association clubrooms at 416 Madison street, Hoboken.

Biggie, widely known as a blackface comedian, was for several years an end man in the Madison A. C. minstrel shows. He has a large following of admirers in Hoboken. His Blackbirds, equally talented, local young men, made the evening a delightful one with their diversified entertainment.

Every social club in the western section of the city had representatives among those attending the dance. George T. Harper, Fred M. De Sapio and Edward Florio, the latter an executive member of the Third Ward Democratic Club, led especially large delegations from their organization.

The Old Timers, Adams Street Boys, Kit Kat Girls, Duck Inn Boys, Rhythm Girls, Peter Lisa Association, Joseph T. Lisa Association and the Keep Moving Club were others represented.

The festivities continued until an early hour yesterday morning, with Biggie as master of ceremonies.
