The Directory of Churches in New Jersey: Volume IX, Hudson County is the twentieth in a series of 21 directories now being compiled by the Historical Records Survey Project as a complement to the Inventory of the Church Archives of New Jersey program. The directory is intended to serve not only the clergy and officers of religious organizations in Hudson County, but also individuals within or without the state who may wish to make any of these contacts. Following the final county directory in this series, a volume will be issued covering the religious organizations and institutions state-wide. In order to make these volumes complete in information, contributing data from church officers in each county will prove helpful. This directory lists alphabetically the denomination and church, and also includes the name of the clergyman, address, and telephone listing when available. The editors realize that imperfections may survive after the most careful checking. The Survey staff wishes the readers to write us their reactions to this work.

Data for these listings in Hudson County were gathered by researchers of the New Jersey Historical Records Survey Project under David Keeffe, District Supervisor of the northern region, and technically supervised by Gustave Koeppe, Louis A. Lupton, and George D. Myers, Assistant State Supervisors. The directory itself was compiled by Arthur W. Easton and Gilbert Letsinger, under the supervision of William B. Menkes. The publication of this volume was supervised by Harry R. Fox, Supervisor of Publications. Final copy was edited by James L. Vass, State Editor of Church archives.

This directory was prepared in accordance with instructions from the Washington office of the Historical Records Survey. Detailed editorial comments and criticism of the book have been made by Donald A. Thompson, Assistant Archivist in charge of the Church Archives Inventories. Technical advice was furnished by Mrs. Elizabeth C. Denny Vann, State Director of Community Service Programs.

Sargent B. Child is the National Director of the Historical Records Survey, which was inaugurated in 1936.

Robert W. Allan, State Administrator, has made this undertaking easier by his full cooperation and support.

A list of other publications of the New Jersey Historical Records Survey Project will be found at the end of this volume.
