Jan. 1. 1913.

Mass 10. 30 - walked with Ethel and Mad till dinner time. In the afternoon Ethel & Mayma & Addie came and we played cards. Addie had to go home for tea. She went to Heath's in the eve. fortunately. Mayma & Ethel stayed. Bud, Ed. C. Harold A., Jack Moore & Bryan came in the eve. to make a New Years call. They had forgotten to study their Etiquette books & read stayed 20 minutes instead of 5 min. After letting off some of our steam we played Cards for the rest of the evening. Ethel had to go home in spite of our efforts to make her stay. A very pleasant day

Jan 2. 1913.

I slept of yesterday's rage. ~~Yesterday~~ Had a call from Ethel that brought back some of it. She and I walked around town in the afternoon and Peters & bought tally-cards for Mayma. We brought them down & talked some more of our rage off. (or ~~3~~ 2nd). Coulson eat much and dressed for the party. Wore my green & white dress. Harold & Ed. succeeded in throwing somewhat of a damper over the party, and were about as disagreeable as they could be. We played "500" Ed. Coyle won the prize and I room the girls ((silk stockings and God knows I needed them)) Met Hallenbeck. Lil Low made quite a fuss over him. Jim invited me to the minstrel, and that softened me considerably. I had a very good time, in spite of the fact that I felt like killing H. & Ed. A few times Anna S., Ethel H. Mayma Addie. Jim St. Hallenbeck. Bob. Staats, Ernp Thomas, Eaton S. Harold, Ed. & myself played cards. Alice C. and Lillie came later. They were rehearsing for the minstrels. Jan. 3. Got up late. Intended to go to Proctor's, but Brod. stayed home from School and the event will mourn. Ethel, Maymog & I played cards in the afternoon. I had to rush home to get supper. Some meal! Addie, Mayma came in the eve. & Mad played "Fan" with us. They went home very early. Addie was all in.

Jan 4th Intended to go skating to St. Nicholas with Allan Moore, He couldn't go, and Mayma wouldn't go alone with me, so I went to Brooklyn with Mag. She spent the nights with Ella. I met Mowry in N. Y. We went to the Waldorf for tea and — we took some time. We strolled Broadway after and finding nothing we returned home only to find "adventure" at our played for the rest of the afternoon. He was very interesting. Reminded me somewhat of Harley Wood. (Milford 10) Mrs. Putnam and Mr. Seaver came to the station with us after tea. We had a nice meal but had to rush right out after it. I had a date at Butlers. After nearly breaking our necks. The party was called off. Addie had a regular nervous breakdown. She was on the fair road for a long time. Tommie was around in Moggie's. We read and ate some of Allan's candy and first got in bed comfortably when Murray W. rang the bell and Starke us into a fit, to tell us Mrs. B. was dead. We were all very sorry but since we couldn't do anything he might have kept it till morning.

Laude. - O, that tired feeling! Will it ever leave me? Got up late as usual and had to go to school without breakfast. We fine plans for the new Year! I will never forget this day in School. Unending. Visited Miss Mount & Miss Traynor, also Mayna. Walked awhile and met Mad coming from School. The Duke paid us a visit. Went to the Columbia minstrel

(by men's). I was fairly good. Elmer Hallenbeck took me up and was exceptionally agreeable. Jim cleaned up and came to me. Danced after the show and enjoyed myself immensely. Jim invited me to ride cutter Feb. 21st. much to my delight.

~~Jan 7~~ - All in. Monsie the same. Decided not to go to school. Loafed all day. Allan Moore called in the evening to ask me to go to the ladies' minstrel to-morrow. Asked Mayma too.

~~Jan. 8~~ Got up early & got Mop's breakfast. Got to school early. Some kidding for being absent after a little minstrel show. Tried to sleep in the afternoon, but just got comfortable when the Duke arrived. Stayed only a few minutes but I couldn't get to sleep. Got dressed for minstrel Allan & Mayma called for me about 8. We had the first row. Some show! Agnes F. sang "My Gal Irene" and really surprised us. The whole show was great. Beat the men to a frazzle. Had first three dances with Jim while he was waiting for Lil to clean up. He was disgusted they'd never come down. Had ~~three~~ first dance with Jim & then some mistake only had half. He asked me to informal night next Thursday. (Jan. 16) Jim Seaman was there & danced wonderfully. Allan treated me royally. Jim had a grouch all the rest of the evening. Harold A & Ed were exceptionally friendly. We went to Cayle's after & had coffee & rolls. Ed asked Mayme to informal night & she had the extreme pleasure of refusing him. (He's going with Dan Kiely). Nearly died with cold when I got in.

Dang. Nearly broke my neck to get to school. Day seemed terribly long. Helped in office in afternoon. ~~Took~~ made a list for Mon. this afternoon then took a walk with Mayme. Bumped into Jim at 11th & Washington. Bowed very graciously. Intended to ride this evening but Mom wouldn't let me. "I must make up some lost rest." Believe me. I'm anxious to lose more. The Duke has been stiffed. A very uneventful day.

Fri. Jan. 10 Mother's birthday. Helped in the office in School. Much better for a tired head than the classroom. Made a cake when I came from school. Nellie Kirlow called. Took a walk with Mod. Had late dinner. Went in Butler's & played cards for awhile. Got to bed about 10.30.

Came home early to get supper and Mrs. Burke. (Mamie Shanley) was at the house. I made a grand get-away with the supper. She stayed till 11.15. Also Maggie Lyndhouse. I nearly died with sleep.

Most awful tired feeling. Study classes again in Auditorium this afternoon I took them down to "14." Perfectly awful. Girls team H.H.S. 15. B.B. played West Hoboken High. Funniest thing I ever saw. (May Mooney and "Marie") Marietta Stackhouse played a dandy game. Mrs Sophie & Mary D. told them I'd go to the Alumni dance in Montclair Mar. 7. Got a letter from Allan with the tickets. Took a walk with Mad. and Addie after dinner. We met Allan. Bought cake & cream and went down to Butlers, and made coffee. Some party! The cake was blue molded. Duke returned.

on the train coming home. Didn't even bow to him. He was with an old man probably his uncle. Ate + got ready for the dance. Had one dandy dance. About six dances with Jennings, two with Allan + "Pewee" Hawthorne. Met the famous Milton Hatfield. Though he would be a terrible bore but he seemed very nice. Jim borrowed Milton's hack to come home. Ag Agnes knows that. He seemed afraid to ask if I was going to the Charity Ball. Nat Hicks "entertaining" at Dempster - (an imitation of Joe Welch.) I never was so bored. Down in the parlor after there were many repetitions of the minstrel songs. We had fun kidding them. Strange crowd.

Home about 3.30 A.M.

Friday Jan 24

(She was staying on the block with her aunt) and Magnus & Ethel Regan We played cards & Smeynow & I went for cream. They went home about 11. - Bed.

Thursday Dec. 26.

Mass 10.30. Mrs Charlie Bay has an way down. Had to stand in the back. Walked with Mayma after. Dennie and I made a cake. Mod, Mayma, Anna, Addis & myself walked on the Boulevard. Rose & Mr. M. went out. Mayma & I got ties for Mod. & Ethel. Violet Davey & Edmund Stevens. We paded around for awhile & then they went home. I went to Butlers. Allan was there & I was introduced to Miss Burke (Allis Mc Dermotts fiance) He seemed very nice. Allan came in with me to get some music. They went downstairs to eat & Mayma, Addis & I played "500" Allan came up & started to play too, but Cil couldn't see it. Some "rough-house" and I got to bed about 12.

Monday Jan. 27.

Still working in the office. Don't enjoy it. Met Sophie & Mary & talked for awhile. Heard A. Patterson's verdict about Florence Stevens. Ate some crackers & jam. Mayma & Addie & I played "500" and about ten o'clock took a walk to get "air" before going to bed. Got a letter from Harold Reese inviting me to a dance in Maplewood Feb. 7. I'd like the Field Club. I couldn't quite get the connection so I sent a "Special delivered" letter to Leila & told her to send the answer with Charlie Tuesday. Charlie called up to make arrangements about the Ball.

Tuesday Jan. 28

School as usual. In the afternoon I talked with Mayma for awhile and then went to bed. I slept till seven and then got up, ate, and proceeded to dress for the Charity Ball. Charlie called about 9.15 and we went right up. I was on-hy there a short while before the Coyle & Butler faction. Frank & Allan looked out for Charlie very well. I had a dandy order. Only one dance booked with Jim and two with Allan. I went in a circular & met Jim and we didn't finish it. Made a date for him to come down Sunday eve. They rang in an extra after the 20th dance & he had it with Allan. We had a very enjoyable supper party except for the fact that I was planted directly opposite Grace & Alice Carr. We had a good felt "his" and Maynes was alongside of me. Charlie is surely one peach. I felt guilty keeping him out so late on account of his illness. but he didn't seem to mind it. The salad was too thick but I manages it with the bean & sweet butter. Maynes was wild at Eaton for not sending her flowers and I'm sure he'd never know it. She's so tactful. I had one dance with Ed. and he seemed to be having a wonderful time, he had a keeper with him. Ella was particularly sarcastic. After the banquet it was funny, the way different ones had to be propped up. When the dancing was all over we propped up. When the dancing was all over we went down in the grill and every body drank some more. Lemonade began to taste "sloppy." We had sandwiches & left the Club about 5.15 a. m. Some time! Charlie brought a note from Lila telling me it was O.K. with Harold and by all means to accept the invitation.

Wednesday Jan. 29

Dragged myself out of bed at 7.45. Got to school earlier than any day this term. Have talked nothing but Charity Ball. Ted Henry is still in Butler. Mr. Cole has had a very bad spell, and they are very much worried. Wrote to Harold and told him I'd go to the dance, and made a date for him to come in Saturday eve. Expect he'll be wild, when I suggest Stag—ing with Lela. Fooling this evening. It sounds too strenuous. Bed about 9.30.

Thursday. Jan. 30.

School - in Office and nearly worked my head off. till 3.30. Took a walk with Mayna & Ethel. Came home early to help with supper. Allan called up & asked me to K. of C. Ladies night to-morrow eve. Mayna too. Delighted; of course. Got a letter from Harold Pease trying to change the date from Sat. to Sun. eve. but I couldn't exactly see putting Jean off. even tho' I did consider it for a few minutes. Charley Barker called me up & talked for quite a while.

He said he was in Hoboken. but had'nt time to come up. Said he enjoyed himself immensely at the Charity Ball & I'm inclined to think he meant it. Tries to show me why I ought to stay at his house instead of Reges. I think so, too. but Harold asked me first and I don't know what to do. ~~Just going for a walk. Ella Coyle came in for me, to walk down to~~

Works in office and stayed in school for lunch. Went to Fitzpatrick's for chowder & Miss Gonzales had sandwiches. Stopped work at 3. and went up to Exit Day exercises. Left at 3.30. Called Mayna & found Mr. Callahan had been sent to hospital. Ella C. wanted me to walk down to Hexamers but when she found Mamma was going to walk with me she wouldn't come. Called Ethel up. but she was out. Ella had some tea + crackers with me and after she left Mayma + Mad + I took a walk. We met Ethel + walked till dinner time. Mrs. B. wouldn't let Mayma go to the C. of Columbus Ladies night. At first I thought I wouldn't go either but later I changed my mind and decided not to call Allan up. He called for me about 8.45 instead of 7.45 and even at that we were early. It surely was a rotten show. We had fun laughing at it and after it had a few good dances in spite of the kids. A fellow named Murphy asked Ed. Coyle to introduce him to me and I had a dance with him. He danced exceptionally well, and seemed very nice. One of the "Park Club" crowd I imagine. Had a dance with Jack Moore but couldn't enjoy it on account of the crowd. On the way home we decided to have coffee, so Ella & I came in & started things while Allan & Ed went for "rolls." We were surprised and disappointed when they returned with the most awful looking cake from Keller's. They left here about 2:30 P.M. Mom & Mad. were down to the hall, too. but I didn't see them. Mad insisted on leaving right after the show. (She must have had a wild evening).

February 1.-

Sat.- Telephone call to wake me out of a peaceful slumber at 11.30. Jack MacDougall called for Charlie & Mickey to know if they could come in Sunday eve. The Gods are tempting me, but Jimmie won out and I put them off. Jack said Charlie told them what a wonderful time he had at the Charity Ball. I got dressed & proceeded to clean up the basement after our party of last night. Worked at till about 3 or 4 o'clock. Called Mayme, and Ethel hung around the house till bed time Sun. Feb. 2.-

Mass 11.15. Was up in time for 10.30 but decided not to go. Jimmie passed the house. Met Allan at church and he walked up with me. Had no time for walking after church. I had to go round to Hayts aboard Mon's hospital corps. After dinner I went to Poggy-burg and Mrs. O'Brien had the latter was and. I was also invited to see Mrs Hoff & Mrs Brandt. I felt as if I owned the outfit. Mabel & Ella & Maud & I took a walk on the boulevard. Met Mort Roberts and Joe Mc Guinness. We gave them one grand freeze-out. We went to Percys and afterward stopped at Doyles. Jed Coyle arrived there for supper while we were there. We stopped @ Mrs. Wedins and couldn't get in. No one was home when we arrived and we went in Coyle's to tea

I was allowed home after they were satisfied with whom I had my date. Jim arrived laden with a box of Park & Tilfords. He was very amiable and we had a delightful talk. I brought him downstairs & we made coffee. May was working in the dining room and gave us a very frosty reception. While we were eating Mom & Mr. M. came in from G. C. Jim was very particular to leave early and I invited him to the Montclair Alumni Dance set for Nov. 11. He accepted very gracefully. Dayna called me up to invite me to the theatre while Jim was [illegible] in the parlor. Some bluff!!!!

Monday. Feb 3, 13

Back in my own little room #4. Weather perfectly awful & my feet were soaked. Sadie Simm had Jim Richmond's class and we walked up home together. It was so cold & damp that I suggested coffee. She came up & we had a Lot Party. She left about 5.30. We were just at supper when the telephone rang - Harold Reese - to know if I could see him Monday eve. He was ready then, to come up & guess but I couldn't see inviting him to supper. He told me afterward that he expected I would. Well. He must have told Mickey in the morning that he intended coming up because he was only here about 20 min when Mick arrived. They had a lovely time kidding each other & we had some roughhouse as usual. They were trying to outstay each other, but Harold was willing to miss the last train. He started for the 11.45. Some call! Well he decided to meet me at the station Friday. I persuaded him there was no necessity for coming up for me. I am going to play with Leila but he wants me to have dinner at his house. (I can't just see it.) Mickey was delighted but, curse the luck, he isn't going to the dance. Jack was worried to know if Harold Reeve was to come here Sunday eve.

Tuesday ~~Feb.~~ 4, '13

School & lots of it. Registration of new students. Plenty of work in the study hall. In the afternoon Ella Coyle & I took a walk. She had a lot of errands to do. She was to get tickets for the evening and invited me to go with her and Joe. I gracefully accepted and must confess it was better than I expected. Dr Syn was very good altho' Joe complained all the time that the whole crowd were "mis-cast."

Wednesday. Feb. 5 '13

School again. When I got home in the afternoon I just felt like cake and I made molasses muffins. Something beginning for Lent. Well Mayme came in and Ethel called up but I didn't go out. Just as I finished my fob. Allan called up, and invited me to the dance at the club Tuesday. Dec. 11. I was delighted because it was gotten up in a hurry and I didn't expect to be invited. Mayme was "awfully glad" he did. I told him I was making cake so he called for some on his way home. He was still talking when Ella Coyle came in for me to ride. Allan said he'd meet us down at church and then left. It never took me so long to get ready and we were terribly late. Rode Lida again. Gretta and Ella & I went down to Church and we were only in a few minutes when Allan came in. We heard none of the sermon and came very near being killed in an attempt to get galoo. We took Ella & Gretta. They decided to sit down and wait for the crowd to leave. Outside we waited for Mrs. Moore & we were nearly frozen. She was with Mrs. Stack and Mrs. Moore asked us to walk down with Lex. After that I walked up with Mrs Moore & then Allan came down with me. Allan told me all about the jobs up in the county, and Mayna's efforts thru Uncle Tom.

Thursday Feb. 6, '13

After school I met Mow down in the station and we went to New York shopping. I bought a pair of gray gloves but that's about all. Thursday eve. I went up Esthers to play cards. We just got started when the telephone rang. It was Walter Dr. Eib and Cil told him to come right down. Well Wayna headed & furly came home, so I got to bed early Friday Feb. 7, 13.

The thought of school till 2.30 and not a thing ready for me to take to Maplewood. At noon time I rushed around to Heidenreichs and had manicured my nails, and I got back to school 12.09. At 2.31 I rushed to Cayles for the boy and Elias coat. I started driving things in chair. Then I had to fix my slippers and mend the stocking, and sew the waist I was going to wear. In the middle of it all I couldn't get in the bathroom. Mr. H. was shaving & Grandma Linley her kitchen and I bathed up there. Had went in to Mayma for my gloves. Mayma very kindly cleaned them for me. Met Harold down at the station at about 5.30 and we had just enough time to take things easy. I went up to his house for dinner and they treated me perfectly lovely. Sadee dressed before we got there so I could have the room. We dressed before dinner because it was rather late and we would

Lore had to rush after. I was'nt a bit hungry going up on the train but I ate like a pig. Jack McDougall was on the train
but he was in the smoker.
He walked up from the station with us. I packed all my things and we stopped on the way to the dance and left them
at Parker's. Leila had gone.
I had a dandy time at the dance. A few lemons that Harold had to give dances to,
but I had a fine time. Charlie Baker was'nt there, rather he wasn't dancing. He was bowling in the next room. Had two dances with Slaie and sat out the "lesson" with him. Met Jennie Carrington (Fellow I met @ Olympic Park dance) but curses! I didn't have a dance. Met Hugh Jones Harold's great friend in the circular hop-step. Had one dandy time. Stopped at Barkers. Harold, Glen & Jack Schwartzkopf (he's a head) He played at Barkers too. After the boys left we went up-stairs and sat in our nightgowns talking till about 4 o'clock Then we went to bed and talked some more. It seemed as if we talked all night. ~~Sat. Feb 13~~ We got up about 10.30 and dressed a bit and then went to Newarks to Proctors. On the way down we lost Leila's Pocket book and didn't discover it till we were on the car. We got off and rushed back and found it at the trolley station. We were so delighted we took the train. The show was rotten. After it we walked a little on Broadway, shopped in Hahne's and had a soda in Huyler's. I called Mom and told her I was going to stay over. We got the same train home that I went up on. Jack was on the train and he walked up with us. By the way we met Slaw in the afternoon when we were waiting for the train. Well, in the evening Harold & Slaw came down and Jack blew us both. He went upstairs & talked to Gen most of the time. We made coffee and were just having some when Mr. & Mrs. Barker came in. The boys left in a hurry. Then. It was nearly twelve. Charlie & Campbell Dixon had gone to N.Y. to meet Mickey. They went to the Harvard-Princeton hockey game at St. Nicholas. They got in a few minutes after we went upstairs. We were very tired so didn't have very much to say. We went right to sleep.

Sunday Feb. 9, '13.

Got up about 8.30. Mr. Barker & Stubs called us. Rushed to get dressed and pack my things. Had breakfast with the family except Gen. Just had time enough to play a few tunes and get my things leisurely. Then he ~~would~~ came down to the train with me. He wanted to come in Tuesday eve. but thats the night of the dance. Didn't see Mickey at all. It was rather disappointed but I couldn't help feeling that way. Got the 10.10 train and left my things home & went to quarter past eleven mass. Met Mary D on the way down. Jimmie came in a few minutes after & jumped in the seat with me. At about quarter to twelve Allan crept up the aisle. They walked up after with me and Mayna was just coming out of the house. We talked a few minutes and I left them. It was dinner time. Made arrangement to go for a walk with Maya on the Boulevard. After dinner I nearly died just cold and pain in my back. And was fairly delighted when Addie came in to say Mayme had gone to Ridgewood with Ray for a skate. I loafed all afternoon, made fudge and decided to go to bed early. Addie called me and asked me to go in for awhile. She was all alone & anxious to hear about the dance. I stayed there till nearly ten o'clock and when I got in Mad was sick. A touch of the grippe and more of her nervousness. Well we had some excitement morning the cot for Mr. M & Dr. M. gave her some medicine & talk and we all went to bed.

Monday. Feb. 10, 13.

Mad. decided not to go to school that didn't let me out however and I got there 10 min. late. Mad. was lots better and the Doctor told her to get up. She didn't till she got dressed & ready. (5:30 P.M.) I spent the afternoon running errands & the evening helping Mad work Study Methods Arith. I went to Butler's for some papers and found Mayna getting ready to go to Lelo. Jess & Hal. were to be there. She is taking the breath from me. Ed. Coyle asked her to the dance to-morro

her to the dance to-morrow.

Tuesday Feb. 11, 13.

School. and Mod went too. Ida Lane died if she hadn't gotten I tracked my brain for hours helping her. Allan called me Sunday eve to tell me he wouldn't be able to come for me to-night till after 9. Got a note from him this afternoon telling me Ed. Coyle would call for me. I didn't like the idea very much but I went with Ed. He made out Allan's order and gave us a dance with Walter Scott. He gave Charlie Bayha an extra but fortunately they didn't work them in. I had a very lordly time. S

Wed. Jan. 12, 13

Slept till 11 o'clock. Hung around the house till 3.30 when Mr. M & I decided to go for a walk. We walked all around the hill and down to West Side Park. Wasted the rest of the day.

Thurs. Feb. 13, '13

After school Matt & I went up skating. It isn't the trouble to put the skates on & then it wasn't worth while. Nothing to do in the evening.

Fri. Feb. 14, '13.

School & had some awful time. Ethel was down in Miss Kelly's class and Edna Jensen in the office. Mither had anything to do and I was nearly crazy. Mary Delaney came around in the afternoon to go skating but there wasn't any. We talked for awhile. Then I went down for fish & came home to get supper. It was late as that after washing a whole afternoon. Leila called up & wanted to know if I'd meet her in N. Y. Well I had no money for lunch so I told her to come up and we'd go over after. Went to bed. St Valentine's Dt. Feb. 15, 13

Got up earlier than usual for a Saturday. Worked like mad till Leila came. Had lunch and I got ready for N. Y. We walked every store instead out. She was looking for a dress. She hadn't an idea for either goods or make. Of course she didn't get anything. She bought Eadon lace & silk & fix

her blue evening dress.
We met Jimmie Fan Sixth Avenue. He was looking for a "world almanacbound". Marguerite Jack has announced her engagement Leila tells me
and were waiting for Leonie's news. Leila misses her train and I waited about 20 min. in the station with her. She had a date with Harold in the evening and in any case I was afraid to ask her to stay.
Mr. M & Mad would have had to move and I'm getting tired listening to the storms and lacing

chur & get. Supper all ready when I got in. Mad had a "fair in her throat" and I had to go out & do the marketing. When I came back I went right to bed.

Sun. Feb. 16, 13

Mass 11.15. Met Allan as usual. Came right in the house and helped till dinner time. Frankie M. here to dinner. Jud out walking with Lil after church. I'm afraid he's going back again. Made a cake after dinner & then had a row with the whole crowd. Mom & Mr. M went out & left me with Mad. crying. She decided to go for a walk & I had no choice but to go. We walked up to 7 Jeffermans and on the way back we met Mayma & went for another walk. Home for supper. Went in Butlers to play cards Allan was there. The first we played & then Allan & Mayma went for cream & Eddie & I made chocolate sauce. He brought home 3 fts. from Millars and cake & candy. We were all sick. When we were going home Cil went in to play the piano & called Allan. (very pointedly). I waited for a few minutes and finally decided to go. I could have kicked myself for going way to them.

called & we went out for a walk. She invited me up for the evening. I graciously accepted.
Had lots of fun with Carl & Frank & Ed & also Allan. Allan promised me a choc. egg if he saw it.

Jim was going to call me up but he evidently forgot it. He was sick to church and I heard he was sick. Suspicion he had a date with Lil. Question did he keep it.?) He played cards up at the club with Allan & Gus & someone else in the afternoon and Gus kidded the life out of him about a pencil & three ace (Gus) him.

Monday Feb. 24, '13.

Nearly died from want of sleep all in. No time for breakfast. School & Oh, what a bore! Lunch & more school. Read a magazine all afternoon. Ned Moore went to N. Y. with her. She bought a hat in the Fashion where I got my brown bro-caded velvet. It's a peach.

Allan called at supper time on his way to the opening campaign dinner with the chocolate egg he won. It sure is a peach. He is one good-natured dear boy. No word from Jimmie. Tried to help Mad. as tired as I was but her sweet little temper asserted itself because I didn't work quick enough! Read some more & then bed.

made no difference to me. About 3 min. after Harold, Jack & Curtis called & wanted to come over (from New York). I was dead tired but so mad that I said Yes. Mamma had a date. Addie was sick. Ethel H. wasn't home and I had the three of them & myself. I'm quite sure they had a little to the good and my humour added to the pleasure of the eve. It was like a morgue. Just before they arrived Allan called me up and while we were talking Mamma buttered in. Half joke whole earnest she wanted to know why A. called me up. We rang off then. The boys left for a train earlier than they expected to get & so when they arrived. At my suggestion over a week. Did nothing all afternoon but play cards and read. Dressed for dance with less interest than I ever had going out. Missed Maymo on the way down and we nearly died. Nearly missed train learning direction for her. and she was calmly seated in one of forward cars. Had to walk to Club. and when we got there it was a little- bit of a place. Very cute but — The dressing room was small & hot. The girls made out the orders and I did that before I took my coat off. Had to help Addie too. Hoboken crowd mostly exchanged dances. When the music started there was one grand laugh. Only a piano and then the Lancers Waltz in jig time. Then Dd go mad. After things warmed up a bit tho' we had a fairly good time. I'm not sure that Jim engaged it very much. He said he sent flowers but they never arrived. I'd like one walk at Hindberg.
