Archives 2005.049.0001

Three-ring binder register from St. Mary Hospital, Hoboken, with hospital-arranged missing persons fact sheets for people missing (and all but one verified as victims) after the September 11, 2001 destruction of the World Trade Center.

Transcription of leaves in order found, September 2011. Added verification of names in National September 11 Memorial Museum (NS11MM) online database as posted September 2011; URL follows transcribed entries.

[front cover]

The Names and Faces of Loved Ones who perished in the World Trade Center Attack.

September 11, 2001

May they rest in peace with the blessed assurance they will never be forgotten.

Yes, I will never forget you. I have your name inscribed in the palm of My hand. Isaiah 49:16.

[first page]

In a desperate attempt to locate loved ones, these pictures were displayed in the Lobby and Emergency Room of St. Mary Hospital immediately after the attack on the World Trade Center.

We honor the memory of these people by preserving their faces and names in this Book of Honor and Remembrance.

My mom has brown eyes, blonde hair I know it was probably dark brown when u worked with her but she changed it to blonde. She is 5 feet 2 inches weights about 120 pounds.

She worked at 1 World Trade Center Floor 94 for American Express Travel

She has an appendix scar

A burn mark on her arm

A Chicken Pox Scar on her left cheek

Unfortunately I did not get to see her before she went to work that day to see what she is wearing. But my brother did hes in a lot of shock and cant remember well but by what he thinks and process of elimination im pretty sure she was wearing a dark colored skirt with a flower type print and I know she is wearin some type of sandals

The Names and Faces of Loved Ones who perished in the World Trade Center Attack

September 11, 2001

May they rest in peace with the blessed assurance
they will never be forgotten.

Yes, I will never forget you.
I have your name inscribed in the palm of My hand.
Isaiah 49:16

In a desperate attempt to locate loved ones, these pictures were displayed in the Lobby and the Emergency Room of St. Mary Hospital immediately after the attack on The World Trade Center.

We honor the memory of these people by preserving their faces and names in this Book of Honor and Remembrance.
