This Evening's Talent

Peter Cafasso

Peter Cafasso sings Sinatra classics from the great American song writers Dorothy Fields, Jerome Kern, Cole Porter, Cahn & Van Heusen, Rodgers & Hart, Irving Berlin and more. Accompanied by the orchestrations and/or arrangements of Nelson Riddle, Count Basie, Cy Oliver and others. Peter was the first Sinatra Idol Contest winner in 2007 in Frank's hometown of Hoboken, as well as the Senior Idol Benefit Contest in Chestnut Ridge, Bergen County. He has performed at the Frank Sinatra Birthday Bash in 2010 at the Count Basie Theatre, as well as with the jazz band Swingadelic at Maxwell's in Hoboken.

Barbara Simon

Barbara J. Simon is delighted to join the Sinatra singers in honor of "Ol Blue Eyes'" birthday. A long-term resident of Hoboken, Barbara runs the BJ Simon Singing Studio — a HCC Business Awards Finalist (Education Provider) last year. Her students have competed on Oprah's Pop Star Challenge (R&B), have won national CARA awards (a cappella), been a finalist for Gershwin Theater's Be Wicked singing contest (Musical Theater), and are featured on many CDs. Earlier in her career, she worked in marketing at Nickelodeon, and was a two-time national judge for the Scholastic Writing Awards in the Dramatic Scriptwriting category.

Eric DeLauro

A local Hoboken & NYC Musician singer-songwriter, Eric has had the privilege to headline at East Coast festivals with big band orchestras such as Radio DJ, Danny Stiles, Blue Moon Orchestra, and his own, DeLauro & The RAT PACK BAND & Party Swing Orchestra. He's glad he is able to participate at a local Hoboken event with neighbors, family & friends. Eric's favorite Sinatra songs are all the ones he gets to sing in sing-alongs with Hoboken neighbors, and he hopes all Gala attendees will swing along, as well as sing-along.

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade 2015

Four Tickets located in the Uptown Viewing Area

Nothing kicks off the holiday season like the iconic Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City! Marching bands, fabulous floats, performers, and memories that will last a lifetime – and of course the gigantic balloons that are the centerpiece of the parade. Every child and parent's dream comes true.

Sinatra Select Jack Daniels & Private Viewing of Sinatra Exhibit

What better way to spend an afternoon than with your very own "Rat Pack" at the museum! Take a tour of Sinatra's Hoboken from the back of a limo (something Sinatra himself was rumored to do) led by Museum Director Bob Foster, then enjoy a private viewing for six of the upcoming Sinatra exhibit. Afterwards, toast the Chairman of the Board with your Sinatra Select! Bottled at 90 proof, and made with unique "Sinatra Barrels", Jack Daniel's Sinatra Select pays tribute to Jack's biggest fan: Mr. Frank Sinatra. These Sinatra barrels have deep grooves on the inside of the staves — which exposes the whiskey to extra layers of oak. This imparts a rich amber color, bold character and a pleasant smokiness, followed by an incredibly smooth vanilla finish. Much like Frank himself, this whiskey is one of a kind. So it seems only fitting not just to pay tribute, but to share a drink, with the man who loved us as much as we love him. Includes dinner at Willie McBride's.

Value: $750

Donated by: Sinatra Select courtesy of Kristina Nash, HHM Exhibit Tour and dinner courtesy of Robert Foster

Note: Sinatra Select $350, Sinatra limo tour $250, and dinner at Willie McBride's $150. Sinatra Exhibit to open August 2, 2015 and run through December 23, 2015.

Summer 2015 History Enrichment Camps

Hours: 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

We are currently accepting registration for our upcoming Summer History Enrichment camps. Please contact Razel Solow, Education Curator, at education@hobokenmuseum.org or call 201-656-2240 to register.

Session 1: Hoboken Investigators, June 22 – 26

Based on the current exhibit, this session will focus on maritime and railroad inventions, creativity and public service that comprised the legacy of the Stevens Family, the modern founders of Hoboken. Campers will try their hands at creating an invention and will participate in daily trips, play time and arts and crafts.

Session 2: Hoboken Biographers, August 3 – August 7

Did you know that the first girl to play on a Little League team was born in Hoboken? The campers will learn about the lives and the work of famous people (and children) who were born, or who lived a long time, in Hoboken. One "famous son" will be Frank Sinatra. The children will write their biographies, visit birthplaces, play indoors and outdoors, and experience music, art and more.

Session 3: Hoboken Geographers, August 17–August 21

Focusing on geography and mapping, campers will visit various spots in town to map their locations, learn how to read and follow a map, and draw different kinds of maps, including treasure and fantasy maps. The children will play outside and have a period of arts, crafts, drama, and/or music every day.
