SS. PETER AND PAUL CHURCH, 1889-1929

- 1871-1878—Fruitless attempts to establish an exclusively German Catholic Parish in Hoboken.
- 1889, February—Father Leopold Hofschneider, Pastor of S. Mark's Church, Rahway, N. J., commissioned by Bishop Wigger to find a suitable site for a German Catholic Church in Hoboken.

Most Reverend

THOMAS J. WALSH, S.T.D., J.C.D.

Archbishop of Newark; ordained January 27, 1900; consecrated Bishop of Trenton July 25, 1918; made Assistant at the Pontifical Throne March 13, 1922; transferred to the See of Newark, March 2, 1928; appointed Archbishop of Newark, December 10, 1937; Pallium conferred December 18, 1937; installed April 27, 1938.

1889, May 1—Deed received for House (404 Hudson Street) and adjacent lot (402 Hudson Street). $28,000 paid for property.

1889, May 19—First Mass said in the House; the parlor and rear room having been arranged as a chapel; with unanimous consent of the people present, SS. Peter and Paul chosen as Patron Saints of the new congregation.

FATHER LEOPOLD HOFSCHEIDER, PASTOR, 1889-1914

1889, August 19—Father Leopold Hofschneider formally appointed Pastor of SS. Peter and Paul's Church in Hoboken.

1889, August 24—Karl Wilderman and F. J. Lipp appointed lay trustees, F. Szontag and A. Mayer appointed collectors and auditors; act of incorporation recorded in Court House.

1889, September—A school was opened in the basement of the Priest's House with sixteen children taught by a lay-woman.

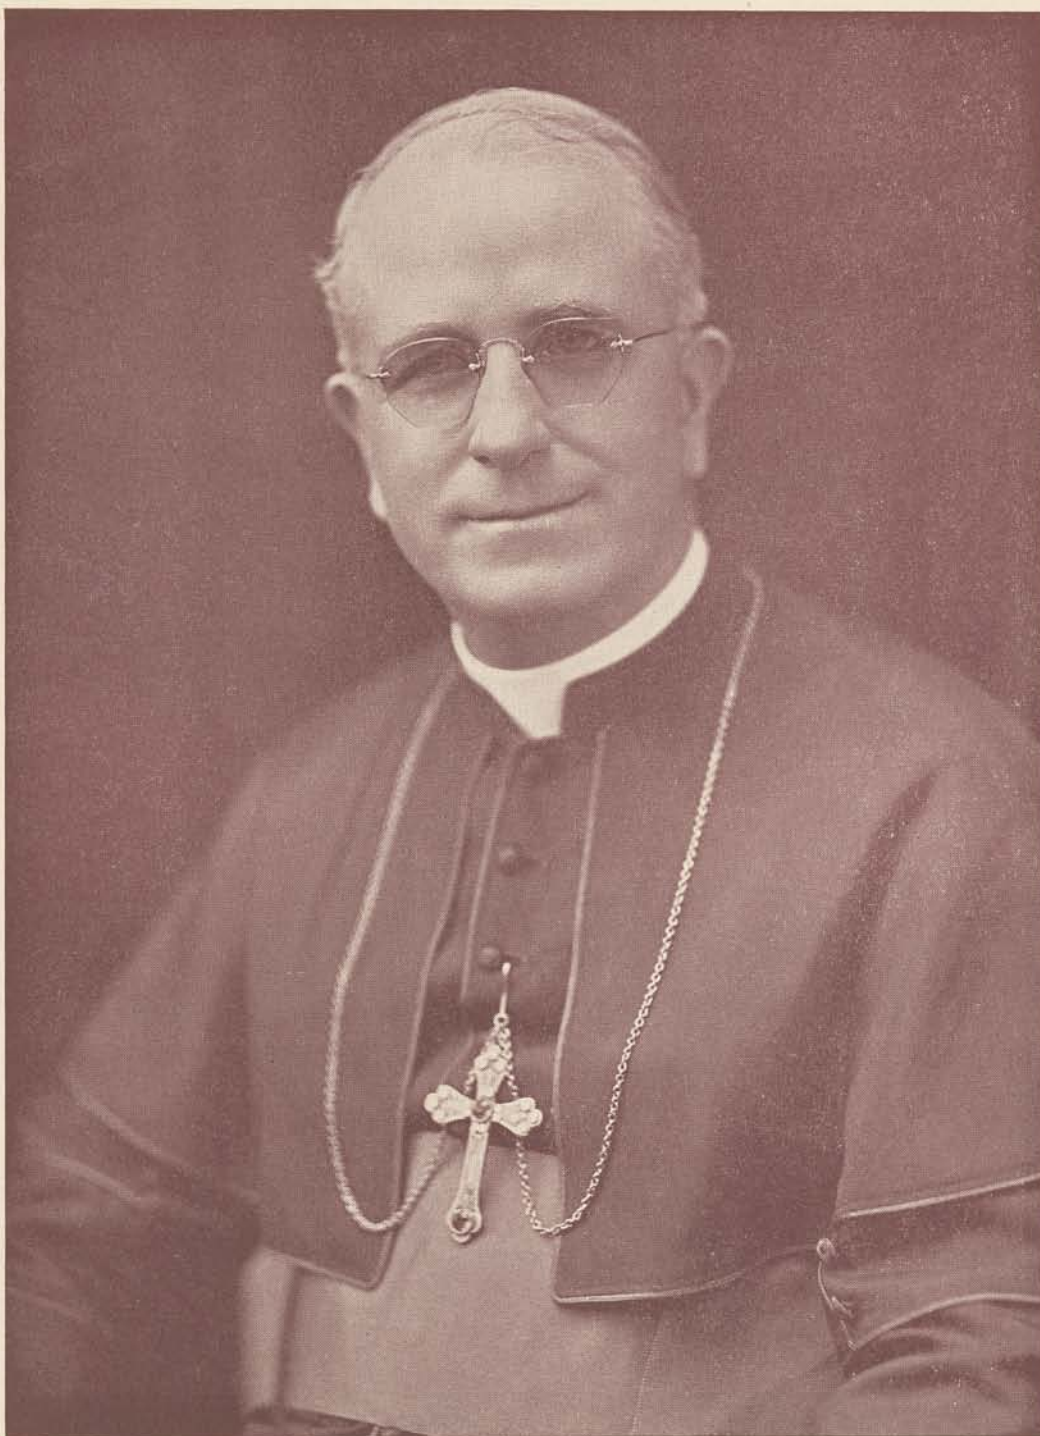

1889, September 12—Bishop Wigger directed the Rector of St. Joseph's Church, which "German Catholics of this city were supposed to attend for the last fifteen years (1874-1889)," to read from the altar a letter in which the Bishop told what had been done to organize an exclusively German Parish in Hoboken, declaring that it had become "evident that only a central location (such as had been chosen) in this city may secure final success."

1889, December 18—Bishop Wigger laid the cornerstone of the church then being built on the small lot of twenty-five feet, as the congregation was unable also to purchase the corner lot for which $34,000 were asked.

1890, July 13—Bishop Wigger blessed the new church, dedicating it to the Worship of God.

1893, January 7—Bishop Wigger gave permission to erect a convent upon a small school room already built in the back-yard of the Priest's House, which was done.

1893, October—Four Sisters of Notre Dame came from Baltimore to take charge of the school, but they remained only two months, after which a lay woman teacher was again employed for the children of the school which soon numbered more than ninety.

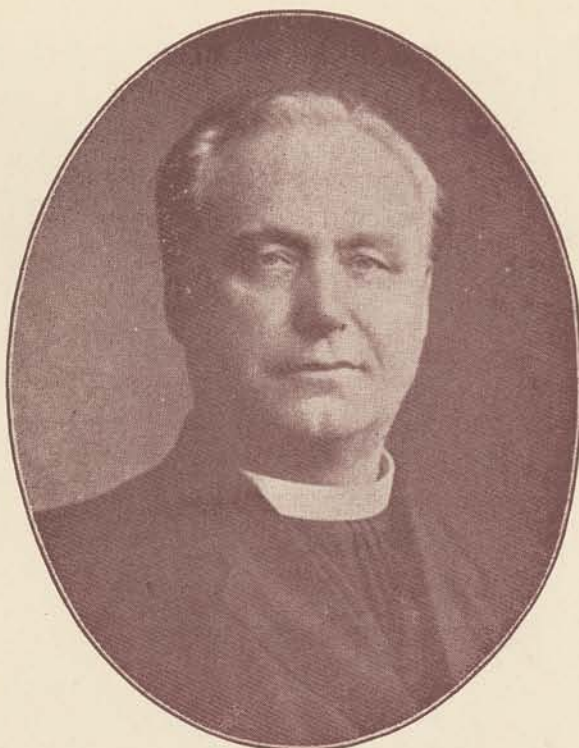

Most Reverend

Auxiliary to the Archbishop of Newark; Titular Bishop of Sanavo; ordained August 15, 1910; appointed to the Archbishop of Newark,
