Hudson G. O. P. Club Receives Charter

Members of the Hudson Republican Club, meeting last night at the Lawyers Building, Bergen Square, received their state charter from George L. Miles, vice-president of the Independent Clubs of New Jersey. Miles also presented a charter to Francis Fitzpatrick, president of the Hoboken Independent Club.

It was announced the number of stars in the organization's service flag has increased to 10 with the recent enlistment of Archie A. Maffei, son of Frank Maffei, 87 Storms Av.

The membership drive is being intensified to further the program of remitting dues in the form of war stamps for the purpose of buying a $200 war bond. Four $25 war bonds have been sold by the club, it was announced.

Frank Maffei, chairman of the defense committee, reported more than 150 books have been sent to men in service. Following the business meeting, Miles, a New York high school science instructor, gave the second in a series of first aid lectures as part of the club's defense program. The lectures will be continued until the Fall.

Republican Club Receives Charter

The Hudson Republican Club, at its regular meeting last night in Odd Fellows Hall, Jersey City, received its state charter from George L. Miles, vice president of the Independent Clubs of New Jersey. Mr. Miles also presented a charter to Francis Fitzpatrick, president of the Hoboken Independent Club.

With the enlistment of Archie A. Maffei, son of Frank Maffei of 87 Storms avenue, the number of stars in the service flag of the club was increased to ten, it was announced. The club is continuing its drive for new members and is remitting dues in the form of defense stamps for the purpose of raising $200 in war bonds. In addition, the club is carrying on a war bond campaign and four $25 bonds have already been sold. Mr. Maffei, chairman of the defense committee, reported that over 150 books have been sent to the men in service.

Following the business meeting, George L. Miles, New York City high school science instructor, gave the second of a series of first aid lectures as part of the club's defense program. This activity will be continued until the fall. Upon conclusion of the demonstration a social hour was enjoyed under the leadership of Herman Willner.

ANGELO FETE TONIGHT

The Charles Angelo Allied Republican Club is holding its annual roast beef dinner and dance at 8 o'clock tonight in the clubrooms at 133 Washington street. Thomas Monto, the chairman, is assisted by Joseph Lotito, James Pasculli, Michael De Lanzo and Francis Fitzpatrick, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Hudson G.O.P. Receives Independent Clubs Charter

The Hudson Republican Club, at its meeting Tuesday night at 880 Bergen av., Jersey City, received from George L. Miles, president of the organization and state vice president of the Independent Clubs of New Jersey, its charter, as a member of the Independent Clubs, which Miles said was the first to be issued in New Jersey. A charter, he said, has since been issued to the Hoboken Independent Club.

Announcement was made that a campaign for 200 members is under way and that the first year's dues of each member will be converted into war stamps. Miles also announced that the club has thus far sent 200 books to soldiers. The meeting included the second of a series of first aid lectures given as part of the club's defense program which is being supervised by Frank Maffei. The first aid lecture was by Miles.

Dille Fund at $1,974

Guttenberg Firemen Give $225

Guttenberg Volunteer Fire Department yesterday came to the assistance of the family of a former comrade who died in the line of duty of a heart attack at a minor blaze Feb. 2 in Ridgefield Park.

A total of $225 in contributions from the department helped boost the Walter Dille Jr. Public Appreciation Fund to $1,974.44. The fund is being conducted by the Hudson Dispatch to raise a minimum of $5,000 for the family of Fireman Dille, who was an exempt member of the Guttenberg department. Eclipse Hose Co. 4 and Washington Hook and Ladder Co. 1 each gave $100 and Washington Hose Co. 1 contributed $25.

The fire department was not the day's only fund contributor from Guttenberg, where Dille was well known as a resident before moving to Ridgefield Park and as a driver for Public Service on the 44 bus route.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Hering of Guttenberg gave $25, Guttenberg Police Capt. George Johnstone and family contributed $10, and Mr. and Mrs. Vietello, also of Guttenberg, gave $3.

Another $25 contribution came from James Quinn of Palisades Park in memory of his late father, James Quinn Sr. Mrs. M. Reilly gave $5 in memory of her husband, Teaneck Fireman Robert Reilly.

Rabbi and Mrs. Maurice N. Stiskin of Shaare Zedek Synagogue, West New York, were among the $5 contributors.

Hook and Ladder Co. 2 of the Fairview Fire Department came through with $15, and from Delray Beach, Fla., came another $10 contribution from Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Gibbs.

No deadline has been set for achieving the $5,000 goal for the family of Fireman Dille, who was

Dear Mr. Fitzpatrick:

Please excuse the delay in answering your kind letter of May 19.

I am glad to hear of your candidacy and as long as you have a petition for the congressional nomination you might also obtain signers for my petition for senator at the same time that you get people to sign your petition.

If you can come up here to see me I would be glad to have a talk with you; otherwise I can have the petition sent to your

see you there in the evening for the present as I am getting ready to attend a National

the middle of this month.

Fund to Aid Family Of Fireman $13,702

It was a banner day yesterday for the Public Appreciation Fund effort on behalf of fallen Union City Fireman John K. Promersperger's family — his widow and six daughters — with contributions of $4,059.63.

Earlier Hudson Dispatch had collected $9,642.79. The grand total is now $13,702.42, gathered in just the brief period since last Thursday when Fireman Promersperger died under the smoking rubble of a collapsed wall in the tenement fire at 553 41st st., Union City.

Many have come to the Dispatch office in person to express their sympathy and gratitude for his heroic life, or to make their contributions. Others have spoken through their letters.

A good shepherd who helped Mrs. Promersperger during her vigil July 9 in a store across the street from the blaze while rescuers attempted for six hours to dig out her husband, has remembered her and the girls with a gift.

Rev. Edward J. Banks, C.P., pastor of St. Michael's Monastery Church, Union City, writes: "Enclosed is a check for $100 in the name of St. Michael's Monastery Parish. 'No greater love does a man have, than to lay down his life for his friends.'

"To have been at the side of a heroic wife and mother at the tragic moment of truth — when she asked, 'Is he dead?' will always be for me a shining example of a valiant woman.

FRANCIS FITZPATRICK OF HOBOKEN IN FOLK PLAY

Francis Fitzpatrick, 333 Washington Street, Hoboken, appeared in Tex Ward's stirring folk play about life in wartime on the busy New York waterfront, called "Deliver the Goods," at Greenwich House, 27 Barrow Street, New York, and sponsored by the Lower West Side Defense Council.

"Deliver the Goods" is based on this statement of President Roosevelt; "Our patrols are helping to ensure the delivery of the needed supplies to our Allies. All measures necessary to deliver the goods will be taken."

The group will present the play in the future for the benefit of charitable organizations.

Miles Denies Any Factional Move

George Miles, president of the Hudson Republican Club, at the meeting last night in Odd Fellows Hall, Bergen avenue, Jersey City, declared that the members of his organization are not interested in politics but rather in good government, so the intimation carried in published stories that the organization is to take a factional stand in the coming campaign is not true.

Mr. Miles said:

"Once again it becomes necessary to clarify the position of the Hudson Republican Club. We are not tied to any political organization, we do not live on the promise of jobs nor are we in politics for what it will give us personally. Our members are either engaged in professions or private industries. As citizens we are vitally interested in local, state and national affairs and are building for the purpose of developing a strong, effective civic group that will be a credit to our community.

"The inference made in the local press that we are interested in factional disputes is incorrect. The fact that Mr. Sewell's group were the guests of A. W. Hawkes, U. S. Senate candidate, does not imply that the Hudson Republican Club is on the other side of the fence, as far as Mr. Hawkes' candidacy is concerned.

CITES OTHERS NOT INVITED

"It is to be noted that William Linder, of West New York; Joshua Ringle, Jersey City; Mrs. Louise Curtis, of Union City; William Dwyer, William Decker, Robert Lawson, of Jersey City; Francis Fitzpatrick, of Hoboken, and a host of other good Republicans were omitted from the Hawkes event. Mr. Hawkes is not so foolish as to antagonize the vast army of independent voters for the benefit of Mr. Bowers.

"It might also be of interest that the candidacy of Mr. Hawkes was urged by various independents throughout the state.

"James C. Whyte, president of the Independent Clubs of New Jersey, of which the Hudson Republican Club is also a member, is also a member of the same firm as is Mr. Hawkes.

"Any attempt to involve the Hudson Republican Club in local factional fights will fail. Both Mr. Bowers and Mr. Hawkes will be invited to present their views and the choice of voting will be left to the members themselves."

Mr. Miles has been appointed as a research physicist by the War Department and will be away for the summer. The club voted to continue its meetings for July and August under the leadership of Vice President Frank Maffei. Eight new members were taken into the organization and their dues refunded in war stamps. Following the business meeting a first aid lecture was given on treatment of shock. The social hour was held under the leadership of Herman Willner.

Appears in Play

Frances Fitzpatrick, 333 Washington st., Hoboken, appeared in Ted Ward's play about life in wartime on the New York waterfront, "Deliver the Goods," which was presented on May 22 and 23 at the Greenwich House, 27 Barrow st., New York, by the Lower West Side Defense Council.

Dear Mr. Fitzpatrick:

Thanks for your letter that arrived
this morning.

Am attaching one of my petitions and would appreciate whatever signatures you can obtain which, of course, can be of people who live anywhere in the state in case you may run across any of them while you have it with you.

As soon as I get back from the Canadian trip I will get in touch with you so we can have a talk.

With kind regards and many thanks,

Sincerely,

George Biehl

Dear Sir :-

Under existing Army Regulations the only men that can be accepted for enlistment are men with a Classification of 1-A.

Maybe a little later on something can be done about your case.

Respectfully yours,

Benjamin F. Parton,
