At a regular meeting of the L. J. DeLand Steamer and Hose Company, held September 4th, 1884, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Jas. T. Jennings, our President, was duly elected a delegate to represent us at the State Firemen's Convention, at Utica; and,

Whereas, By energetic, indefatigable labor for the good of our company he has secured to us such recognition as no other delegate has ever aspired, viz: placing our Chief's name on the list of Vice-Presidents of the Fireman's Association of the State, and himself represented upon two important committees, thus enabling us to take more than equal rank with other bodies of firemen in the State;

Resolved, That in token of our gratitude to him for his untiring labor in our behalf, and appreciating the magnificent service rendered us, we do extend him our free, hearty thanks, though so feebly they are voiced;

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the pages of our journal as a lasting tribute of thanks, and that they be printed in our village papers.
