This deed, made this Eleventh day of February in the year A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy, by us, Benjamin C. Revel and Julia A. Revel, his wife both of Worcester County in the state of Maryland, witnesseth, that ~~the~~ ^{for} consideration of the sum of Forty dollars, we do grant unto Elzey Morris, of said county and state, in fee simple, all that tract and parcel of land in said county, near the town of Berlin, being part of the ~~land~~ land which the said Benjamin purchased of Lemuel Reed and others as will be seen by referring to deed, called "Endeavor," or by whatever name or names the same may be known or called, which is described as follows, to wit: Beginning for the part now sold at a post-set in the ground on the west or south west side of the public road leading from Morris' Lanyard to Synepuxent Bridge by the way of Warrington & Peters' farm, whereon William Warrington now resides, and from said post, which stands south forty threedegrees and one half of a degree east five poles and six tenths of a pole from the east or south east corner of the said Elzey's dwelling house, running along the south west side of said road and binding thereon south twenty-five degrees and seven eighths of a degree east-eight-poles and five-tenths of a pole, thence leaving said road and running south eighty two degrees and three fourths of a degree west-twenty poles and sixty four hundredths of a pole, thence north nine degrees and three fourths of a degree east-ten poles and four tenths of a pole to the south west corner of the lot whereon the said Elzey now lives,
