As we were in 1951...with our lifetimes ahead us

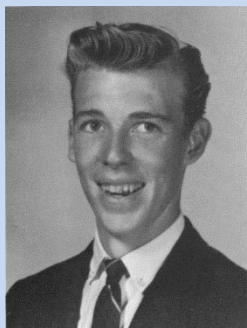

When you walk through a storm, hold your head up high
And don't be afraid of the dark,
At the end of the storm is a golden sky
And the sweet silver song of a lark --
Walk on through the wind,
Walk on through the rain
Tho' your dreams be tossed and blown
Walk on, walk on, with hope in your heart
And you'll never walk alone
We give all of our hopes
And our efforts too
With love in our hearts for the past
At the end of this year is a challenge new
And our lives -- they are given a task
Give love to our hearts
And strength to our minds
And forever make us free
We all need keys to unlock our hearts
And our knowledge is the key.

...and in 1963, on the brink of our futures.

Remembering those no longer with us...

Rochelle Matthews died after a long and brave struggle against the effects and complications of vascular disease. While her illness had diminished her mobility and thus the opportunity to see her many friends and loved ones often, she kept in close contact using the telephone, mail and the Internet. Her love of people from all walks of life helped to sustain her and provided her with much love and support.

Born in Newport News, Va., she was the youngest daughter of the late Willis E.

and Grace E. Tingle Boole Jr. of Pocomoke City. She was a member of First Baptist Church of Pocomoke City.

Rochelle loved all that is the Delmarva Peninsula, the people, the land and the water; and this place was always "home." Even when living away from the Shore, she spent many days traveling back home to be with her family and friends.

While her husband, Ron, pursued his career in consumer finance and banking, Rochelle maintained households various locations such as Wilmington, DE, Fredericksburg, VA, and Fayetteville, NC. In 1981 they returned to Pocomoke City where they remained for the next 17 years. In 1998, they moved to Felton, DE, and in 2005 they moved to Salisbury.

In addition to her responsibilities at home, she enjoyed a number of occupations. Her favorite venture, Flowers by Bea, was a popular and trusted choice for many years in the Pocomoke City area. After selling her business, she became a legal secretary at the Law Offices of Henry P. Walters, Daniel Long and James Porter. In Delaware, she worked as a florist with her good friend Bernie Maloney and later started a new career as a customer service representative for Bank of America, retiring in 2004. Her caring demeanor and smile earned her many satisfied customers.

While her natural family was very large, she considered her friends as part of her extended family. She learned early in life from her parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles that loved ones and close friends are the most important things in life. She quietly instilled that quality in her family by example, every day of her life. She also enjoyed sewing, cooking, and collecting antiques of all descriptions.

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our P.H.S.
Hail to blue and gold.
All of those who bear thy crest
Strive their lives to mold.

...chorus...
Shout your victories loud and mighty,
Sing your praises long!

Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
Hail to glorious days.
May our hearts forever echo
This our song of praise.

We acknowledge and extend our gratitude to those classmates who were able to contribute money and time toward making our reunion a success.
