LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Betty Ann Payne, do hereby will Mary Sue Luch, the priceless ability to put my big foot in my mouth, especially around boys.

I, Florence Brimer, will Joyce Merrill, ten worn fingers and ten tired toes for the purpose of counting yearbook funds.

I, Elaine Hancock, will Don Pruitt, my talent to miss the bus each morning and still get to school on time.

I, Linda Mahaffey, will Carol Peacock, the intestinal fortitude to endure hockey practices.

I, Janet Buchanan, being of sound mind, will Tina Lundstedt, my ability to laugh my way in and out of trouble.

I, Judy Meinster, will Merrill Lee Walters, the art of obtaining rainbow colors from a blonde rinse.

We, Kay Cutshall and Patty Young, will Orville Niblett, a box of Cherrios and a dozen donuts, hoping that he will put them to good use.

I, Sandra McDaniel, will Bonnie Holland, the honorable position -- "Youngest of the Senior Class" and all the teasing that goes with it.

I, Carol Taylor, will Connie Smack, the ability to behave on the bus going to games.

I, April Adams, will Donnie McCready, one purple and white Easter Bunny.

I, Nancy Worth, will Rose Ellen Nock, the ability to get along SO SMOOTHLY with Miss Matthews.

I, Jackie Killmon, will my 137 used shorthand notebooks to JoEllen Carter, so she won't have to worry about her homework.

I, Joanne Holland, will Robert Coulbourne, my misleading title, "The Senior Most Likely to . . ."

I, John Moore, will Mike Conaway, my ability to get along with a certain cousin from Baltimore.

I, Wayne Dryden, will Bill Herz, my ability to mop floors.

I, Gloria Harrison, will Donna Wilkerson, my used basketball, softball, glove and bat. Also my ability -- whatever it is."

I, Artie Jo Lewis, will Yvonne Milliner, my "beat-up" glockenspiel, complete with orange ade stains from the University of Maryland.

I, Janet Leach, will Becky Taylor, my ability to practice premartial interdigitation provided she does it better than I.

I, Julia Parsons, will Tommy Wilkins, the ability to walk the dusty halls during fifth period.

I, Betsy Robertson, will Jim Mapp, my high IQ to impress the Northampton teachers.

I, Bill Krabill, will Charlie Trader, my ability to confuse Mr. Haislip.

I, Wayne West, will Bryon Lipham, my ability to put cars in ditches, and also my collection of telephone poles.

I, Robert Johnson, will John Koshi, my 1,000 signed excused absent slips.

I, Charles Byrd, will Ross Kelley, my outstanding vocabulary.

I, Pearl Henderson, will Betty Beugnet, the honor "Most Considerate."

I, Gerald Detwiler, will Kent Brenner, my ability to be a good railrider.

I, Jerry Smith, will Bob Barnes, my ability to get along with Mrs. Tatem.

I, Dave Wagner, will Barry Tull, my talent, my looks, my personality, and my swelled head.

I, Edna Holland, will Rochelle Boole, the ability to never study and still make Honor Roll grades.

I, Jane Pruitt, will Sandra Brock, the ability to get along with Freddie.

I, Bruce Palmer, will David Nelson, my ability to get out of class.

I, Roy Pollitt, will Benny Sturgis, my 1930 Model-A and all the trouble that goes with it.

I, Fay Ward, will Diane Redden, my seat in P.O.D. class and the ability to get along with Comrad Renshaw.

I, Wayne Christy, will Charles Shelton, my ability to study and to do homework.

I, Tina Ardis, will Pam Nock, my ability to stay out late and still stay awake in classes and on long trips.

I, Mike Greene, do not will Charles Merrill, my intelligence, charm, and wit.

I, Bill Krabill, will Barry Spinak, my ability to pass Physics' exams without reading the chapters.

I, Janet Buchanan, will Frances Selby, my ability to do the TWIST.

I, Joan Ashley, will Valerie Corizzo, my ability to get along with MEM for a whole day.

I, Linda Harrison, will Carol Brittingham, one slightly used feather duster to clean the shelves in the library.

I, Betty Ann Payne, will Patsy Gray, seven inches of my height so that she can reach the top shelves in the library.

I, Elaine Hancock, will Melvyn Wahlberg, two dozen burned-out flash bulbs for next year's yearbook staff.

I, Mike Greene, will Don Holdren, my ability to live through my Senior year without a license.

I, Charles Byrd, will Martha Byrd, my alphabetical position in the senior roll.

I, Bonnie Adkins, willingly leave Joyce Pettit, my ability to get my finger stuck in a bowling ball.

I, Artie Jo Lewis, will Nancy Campbell, my initials for use in her future, "Campbell's Soup Company."

I, Johnny Linton, leave Beverly Howard, my seat in P.O.D.

I, Gloria Harrison, will Connie Powell, my softball abilities in order that she may become a pro.

I, Sandra McDaniel, will Madeline McDaniel, the ability to uphold the name of McDaniel in the Senior class.

I, Artie Jo Lewis will Rob Frostrom, executive position in Newberry's provided he doesn't work too hard.

I, Bonnie Adkins, will Diane Outten, my seat in typing class providing she can type as well as I.

I, Florence Brimer, will Aline Mariner, my quiet (???) disposition to go with hers.

I, Linda Mahaffey, will Donald Bennett, one broken shoe horn, and a large supply of all left shoes so that he will move up in the "Bata Shoe World."

I, Prentiss Howard, will Kenny Tull, my place in Mr. Powell's math class, providing he earns better grades than I did.

I, Carol Taylor, will Richard, all the strawberries he can eat.

I, Mary Ann Mason, will Donna Marriner, my seat in the shorthand class, providing she doesn't exceed my 150 words a minute.
